<sup>23</sup>The same day the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,* <sup>24</sup>saying, "Master, Moses said, 'If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up seed unto his brother.'* <sup>25</sup>Now there were with us seven brethren. And the first, when he had married a wife, died; and having no issue, he left his wife unto his brother. <sup>26</sup>Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. <sup>27</sup>And last of all, the woman died also. <sup>28</sup>Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? For they all had her." <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them,

"Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. <sup>30</sup>For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in Heaven.

<sup>31</sup>But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, <sup>32</sup>'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."*

duces to silence, they gathered together. <sup>35</sup>Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him and saying; * <sup>36</sup>"Master, which is the great commandment in the law?" * <sup>37</sup>Jesus said unto him,

*"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." <sup>38</sup>This is the first and great commandment. <sup>39</sup>And the second is like unto it: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." * <sup>40</sup>On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."*

"What think ye of Christ? Whose Son is He?"

They said unto Him, "The son of David." <sup>43</sup>He said unto them,

"How then doth David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying,

<sup>44</sup>'The LORD said unto my Lord,

"Sit Thou on My right hand

*until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool"?' *"*

<sup>46</sup>And no man was able to answer Him a word; neither dared any man from that day forth ask Him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23

your Father, who is in Heaven.* <sup>10</sup>Neither be ye called masters, for One is your Master, even Christ. <sup>11</sup>But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. <sup>12</sup>And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased, and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.*♦

<sup>15</sup>"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

<sup>25</sup>"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.* <sup>26</sup>Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

For ye are like unto whited sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but are within full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup>Even so, ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came to Him to show Him the buildings of the temple.* <sup>2</sup>And Jesus said unto them,

"See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."*

<sup>3</sup>And as He sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of Thy coming and of the end of the world?" <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto them,

*"Take heed that no man deceive you; <sup>5</sup>for many shall come in My name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and shall deceive many. <sup>6</sup>And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that ye be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be famines and pestilences and earthquakes in divers places. <sup>8</sup>All these are the beginning of sorrows. <sup>9</sup>Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted and shall kill you, and ye shall be hated by all nations for My name's sake.* <sup>10</sup>And then shall many lose faith and shall betray one another and shall hate one another. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets shall rise and shall deceive many. <sup>12</sup>And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. <sup>13</sup>But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. <sup>14</sup>And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come.*

and false prophets and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. <sup>25</sup>Behold, I have told you before. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, if they shall say unto you, 'Behold, He is in the desert!' go not forth; or 'Behold, He is in the secret chambers!' believe it not. <sup>27</sup>For as the lightning cometh out of the east and shineth even unto the west, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>28</sup>For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together.

<sup>45</sup>"Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?" <sup>46</sup>Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing. <sup>47</sup>Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods. <sup>48</sup>But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, 'My lord delayeth his coming,' <sup>49</sup>and shall begin to smite his fellow servants and to eat and drink with the drunken, <sup>50</sup>the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, <sup>51</sup>and shall cut him asunder and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

*a far country, who called his own servants and delivered unto them his goods.** <sup>15</sup>And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his own ability, and straightway took his journey. <sup>16</sup>Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them another five talents. <sup>17</sup>And likewise he that had received two, he also gained another two. <sup>18</sup>But he that had received one went and dug in the earth and hid his lord's money. <sup>19</sup>After a long time the lord of those servants came and reckoned with them. <sup>20</sup>And so he that had received five talents came and brought the other five talents, saying, 'Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents. Behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.' <sup>21</sup>His lord said unto him, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy lord.'

<sup>22</sup>He also that had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents; behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.' <sup>23</sup>His lord said unto him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. Thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy lord.'

<sup>24</sup>Then he that had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew thee, that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown and gathering where thou hast not strewed. <sup>25</sup>And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth. Lo, there thou hast what is thine.' <sup>26</sup>His lord answered and said unto him, 'Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed. <sup>27</sup>Thou oughtest therefore to have placed my money with the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with interest. <sup>28</sup>Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; * but from him that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath. <sup>30</sup>And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

the holy angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His glory. <sup>32</sup>And before Him shall be gathered all nations, and He shall separate them one from another as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup>And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. <sup>34</sup>Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand, 'Come, ye blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I hungered, and ye gave Me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took Me in;* <sup>36</sup>naked, and ye clothed Me; I was sick, and ye visited Me; I was in prison, and ye came unto Me.' <sup>37</sup>Then shall the righteous answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when saw we Thee hungering and fed Thee, or thirsty and gave Thee drink? <sup>38</sup>When saw we Thee a stranger and took Thee in, or naked and clothed Thee? <sup>39</sup>Or when saw we Thee sick or in prison and came unto Thee?' <sup>40</sup>And the King shall answer and say unto them, 'Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me.'*

*over, and the Son of Man is betrayed to be crucified.**

<sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people assembled together unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,* <sup>4</sup>and consulted together that they might take Jesus by stealth and kill Him. <sup>5</sup>But they said, "Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people."

<sup>6</sup>Now when Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,* <sup>7</sup>there came unto Him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on His head as He sat at meat. <sup>8</sup>But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "To what purpose is this waste? <sup>9</sup>For this ointment might have been sold for much and given to the poor." <sup>10</sup>When Jesus perceived this, He said unto them,

*"Why trouble ye the woman? For she hath wrought a good work upon Me. <sup>11</sup>For ye have the poor always with you, but Me ye have not always.* <sup>12</sup>For in that she hath poured this ointment on My body, she did it for My burial. <sup>13</sup>Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, what this woman hath done, be told as a memorial of her."*

♦<sup>14</sup>Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup>and said unto them, "What will ye give me if I will deliver Him unto you?*" And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup>And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

<sup>17</sup>Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto Him, "Where wilt Thou that we prepare for Thee to eat the Passover?*" <sup>18</sup>And He said,

"Go into the city to a certain man and say unto him, 'The Master saith, 'My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with My disciples.'"

<sup>19</sup>And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the Passover.

<sup>21</sup>And as they ate, He said,

*"Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray Me."**

<sup>22</sup>And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto Him, "Lord, is it I?" <sup>23</sup>And He answered and said,

*"He that dippeth his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me.* <sup>24</sup>The Son of Man goeth as it is written of Him, but woe unto that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not* <sup>25</sup>Then Judas, who betrayed Him, answered and said, "Master, is it I?" He said unto him,

"Thou hast said."

<sup>26</sup>And as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said,

*"Take, eat; this is My body."**

<sup>27</sup>And He took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying,

"Drink ye all of it; <sup>28</sup>for this is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

<sup>29</sup>But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine until that Day when I drink it new with you in My Father's Kingdom."

*"All ye shall be offended because of Me this night; for it is written: 'I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.'* <sup>32</sup>But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee."**

<sup>33</sup>Peter answered and said unto Him, "Though all men shall be offended because of Thee, yet I will never be offended." <sup>34</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny Me thrice."

<sup>35</sup>Peter said unto Him, "Though I should die with Thee, yet will I not deny Thee." Likewise also said all the disciples.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus came with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and said unto the disciples,*

"Sit ye here while I go and pray yonder."

<sup>37</sup>And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. <sup>38</sup>Then He said unto them,

"My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death. Tarry ye here and watch with Me."

<sup>39</sup>And He went a little farther, and fell on His face and prayed, saying,

"O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

<sup>40</sup>And He came unto the disciples and found them asleep, and said unto Peter,

"What, could ye not watch with Me one hour? <sup>41</sup>Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

"O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done."

<sup>43</sup>And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup>And He left them and went away again, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. <sup>45</sup>Then came He to His disciples and said unto them,

"Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Rise, let us be going. Behold, he is at hand that doth betray Me."

<sup>47</sup>And while He yet spoke, lo, Judas, one of the twelve came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.* <sup>48</sup>Now he that betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast." <sup>49</sup>And forthwith he came to Jesus and said, "Hail, Master!" and kissed Him. <sup>50</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Friend, why art thou come?"

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. <sup>51</sup>And behold, one of those who was with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest and smote off his ear. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said unto him,

*"Put up again thy sword into his place, for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.* <sup>53</sup>Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall at once give Me more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup>But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?"**

*"Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves to take Me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on Me. <sup>56</sup>But all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."**

Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

<sup>57</sup>And those who had laid hold on Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.* <sup>58</sup>But Peter followed Him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days."<sup>62</sup> And the high priest arose and said unto Him, "Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witnesses say against thee?"<sup>63</sup> But Jesus held His peace. And the high priest answered and said unto Him, "I adjure thee by the living God that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God."<sup>64</sup> Jesus said unto him,

"Thou hast said. Nevertheless I say unto you, hereafter shall ye see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of Power, and coming in the clouds of heaven."*

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, "He hath spoken blasphemy! What further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy!"<sup>66</sup> What think ye?" They answered and said, "He is deserving of death!"<sup>67</sup> Then they spit in His face and buffeted Him, and others smote Him with the palms of their hands,*<sup>68</sup> saying, "Prophecy unto us, thou Christ! Who is he that smote thee?"

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter sat outside the palace, and a damsel came unto him, saying, "Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee."*<sup>70</sup> But he denied it before them all, saying, "I know not what thou sayest."<sup>71</sup> And when he had gone out onto the porch, another maid saw him and said unto those who were there, "This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth."<sup>72</sup> And again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the man!"<sup>73</sup> And after a while came unto him those who stood by, and said to Peter, "Surely thou also art one of them, for thy speech betrayeth thee."<sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, "I know not the man!" And immediately the cock crowed.<sup>75</sup> And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, when He said unto him, "Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny Me thrice." And he went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>3</sup>Then Judas, who had betrayed Him, when he saw that He was condemned, repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, <sup>4</sup>saying, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? See thou to that!"<sup>5</sup> And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed, and went and hanged himself.*<sup>6</sup> And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood." <sup>7</sup>And they took counsel and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. <sup>8</sup>Therefore that field was called the Field of Blood unto this day.* <sup>9</sup>Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him that was valued, whom they the children of Israel did value, <sup>10</sup>and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me."*

<sup>12</sup>And when He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing.* <sup>13</sup>Then said Pilate unto Him, "Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?" <sup>14</sup>And He answered him never a word, insomuch that the governor marveled greatly.

<sup>15</sup>Now at that feast, the governor was wont to release* unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. <sup>16</sup>And they had then a notable prisoner called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, "Whom will ye that I release unto you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" <sup>18</sup>For he knew that for envy they had delivered Him.

<sup>24</sup>When Pilate saw that he could not prevail, but rather that a tumult was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just person. See ye to it." <sup>25</sup>Then answered all the people and said, "His blood be on us, and on our children." <sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas unto them; and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

<sup>27</sup>Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto Him the whole detachment of soldiers.* <sup>28</sup>And they stripped Him and put on Him a scarlet robe. <sup>29</sup>And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head and a reed in His right hand, and they bowed their knees before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" <sup>30</sup>And they spat upon Him, and took the reed and smote Him on the head. <sup>31</sup>And after they had mocked Him, they took the robe off from Him and put His own raiment on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.* <sup>32</sup>And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they compelled to bear His cross.

<sup>33</sup>And when they had come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a Place of a Skull, <sup>34</sup>they gave Him vinegar to drink mingled with gall. And when He had tasted thereof, He would not drink.

<sup>35</sup>And they crucified Him and parted His garments, casting lots, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet: "They parted My garments among them, and upon My vesture did they cast lots."* <sup>36</sup>And sitting down, they watched Him there, <sup>37</sup>and set up over His head His accusation, written: "This is Jesus the King of the Jews."

<sup>38</sup>Then were there two thieves crucified with Him, one on the right hand and another on the left. <sup>39</sup>And those who passed by reviled Him, wagging their heads* <sup>40</sup>and saying, "Thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, save thyself! If thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross!" <sup>41</sup>Likewise also the chief priests mocking Him, with the scribes and elders said, <sup>42</sup>"He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. <sup>43</sup>He trusted in God; let Him deliver him now, if He will have him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"* <sup>44</sup>The thieves also, who were crucified with Him, cast the same in His teeth.

that is to say, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" <sup>47</sup>Some of those who stood there, when they heard this, said, "This man calleth for Elijah." <sup>48</sup>And straightway one of them ran and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed and gave Him to drink.* <sup>49</sup>The rest said, "Let be; let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." <sup>50</sup>Jesus, when He had cried out again with a loud voice, yielded up His spirit.

<sup>51</sup>And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom, and the earth quaked and the rocks rent. <sup>52</sup>And the graves were opened; and many of the bodies of the saints who slept arose, <sup>53</sup>and came out of the graves after His resurrection, and went into the Holy City and appeared unto many.

<sup>54</sup>Now when the centurion, and those who were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake and those things that took place, they feared greatly, saying, "Truly, this was the Son of God!"

*39 Ps 22:7. *43 Ps 22:8. *45 Ps 22:1, Mk 15:33-41, Lk 23:44-49, Jn 19:28-30. *48 Ps 69:21, Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto Him,* <sup>56</sup>among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

<sup>57</sup>When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathea named Joseph, who himself also was Jesus' disciple.* <sup>58</sup>He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. <sup>59</sup>And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth <sup>60</sup>and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out of the rock. And he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulcher and departed. <sup>61</sup>And Mary Magdalene was there and the other Mary, sitting opposite the sepulcher.

<sup>62</sup>Now the next day, that following the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, <sup>63</sup>saying, "Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, 'After three days I will rise again.' <sup>64</sup>Command therefore that the sepulcher be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, 'He is risen from the dead,' so that the last error shall be worse than the first." <sup>65</sup>Pilate said unto them, "Ye have a watch. Go your way, make it as secure as ye can." <sup>66</sup>So they went and made the sepulcher secure, sealing the stone and setting up a watch.

CHAPTER 28

"All hail."

And they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. <sup>10</sup>Then said Jesus unto them,

"Be not afraid. Go tell My brethren to go into Galilee, and there shall they see Me." ♦

<sup>11</sup>Now when they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city and reported unto the chief priests all the things that were done. <sup>12</sup>And when they were assembled with the elders and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money unto the soldiers, <sup>13</sup>saying, "Say ye, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we slept.' <sup>14</sup>And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and secure you." <sup>15</sup>So they took the money, and did as they were taught; and this account is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

♦♦<sup>16</sup>Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee unto a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.* <sup>17</sup>And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and spoke unto them, saying,

*"All power is given unto Me in Heaven and on earth.* <sup>19</sup>Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,* <sup>20</sup>teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. And lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."*

Amen. ♦

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

<sup>1</sup>The office of John the Baptist. <sup>9</sup>Jesus is baptized, <sup>12</sup>tempted. <sup>14</sup>He preacheth; <sup>16</sup>calleth Peter, Andrew, James and John, <sup>23</sup>healeth one who had a devil, <sup>29</sup>Peter's mother-in-law, <sup>32</sup>many diseased persons, <sup>41</sup>and cleanseth the leper.

♦♦The begining of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.*

<sup>3</sup>“The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

make His paths straight.’**

<sup>4</sup>John baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.* <sup>5</sup>And there went out unto him all the land of Judea and those of Jerusalem; and they were all baptized by him in the River Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup>And John was clothed with camel's hair and with a girdle of a skin about his loins, and he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup>And he preached, saying, “There cometh after me One mightier than I, the strap of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. <sup>8</sup>I indeed have baptized you with water, but He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”*

<sup>9</sup>And it came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.* <sup>10</sup>And straightway coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him. <sup>11</sup>And there came a voice from Heaven, saying, “THOU ART MY BELOVED SON, IN WHOM I AM WELL PLEASED.”

<sup>12</sup>And immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.* <sup>13</sup>And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered unto Him.

*1 Mt 3:1-12, Lk 3:1-18. *2 Mal 3:1a. *3 Isa 40:3, Jn 1:23. *4 Jn 1:6. *8 Jn 1:26. *9 Mt 3:13-17, Lk 3:21-23, Jn 1:32. *12 Mt 4:1-11, Lk 4:1-13. *14 Mt 4:12-17, Lk 4:14-15, Jn 4:1-4, 43-45.

Repent ye and believe the Gospel. **

"Come ye after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

<sup>19</sup>And when He had gone a little farther thence, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in their boat mending their nets. <sup>20</sup>And straightway He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

<sup>21</sup>And they went into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day He entered into the synagogue and taught.* <sup>22</sup>And they were astonished at His doctrine, for He taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.* <sup>23</sup>And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,* <sup>24</sup>saying, "Let us alone. What have we to do with Thee, Thou Jesus of Nazareth? Hast Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee and who Thou art—the Holy One of God!"

"Hold thy peace, and come out of him!"

<sup>26</sup>And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, it came out of him. <sup>27</sup>And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." <sup>28</sup>And immediately His fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

<sup>32</sup>And at evening, when the sun had set, they brought unto Him all who were diseased and those who were possessed with devils. <sup>33</sup>And all the city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup>And He healed many who were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and He allowed not the devils to speak, because they knew Him.

<sup>35</sup>And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, He went out and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.* <sup>36</sup>And Simon and those who were with Him followed after Him. <sup>37</sup>And when they had found Him, they said unto Him, "All men seek for thee." <sup>38</sup>And He said unto them, *15 Mt 4:18-22, Lk 5:1-11. *21 Mt 4:13-17, Lk 4:31-32. *22 Mt 7:28. *23 Lk 4:33-37. *29 Mt 8:14-17, Lk 4:38-41. *35 Mt 4:23-25, Lk 4:42-44.

"Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for therefore came I forth."

<sup>40</sup>And there came a leper to Him, beseeching Him and kneeling down to Him and saying unto Him, "If Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."* <sup>41</sup>And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth His hand and touched him, and said unto him,

"I will; be thou clean."

<sup>42</sup>And as soon as He had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. <sup>43</sup>And He strictly charged him, and forthwith sent him away, <sup>44</sup>saying unto him,

"See that thou say nothing to any man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, as a testimony unto them."

<sup>45</sup>But he went out and began to proclaim it much and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, and was outside in desert places. And they came to Him from every quarter.

<sup>1</sup>And again He entered into Capernaum some days later, and it was reported that He was in the house.* <sup>2</sup>And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not even about the door; and He preached the Word unto them. <sup>3</sup>And they came unto Him, bringing one sick with the palsy, who was borne by four. <sup>4</sup>And when they could not come nigh unto Him because of the throng, they uncovered the roof where He was. And when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the one sick with the palsy lay. <sup>5</sup>When Jesus saw their faith, He said unto the one sick with the palsy,

"Son, thy sins are forgiven thee."

<sup>6</sup>But there were certain of the scribes sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup>"Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only?" <sup>8</sup>And immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, He said unto them,

"Why reason ye these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier: to say to the sick with the palsy, 'Thy sins are forgiven thee,' or to say, 'Arise, and take up thy bed and walk'? <sup>10</sup>But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins—"

He said to the one sick with the palsy,

"I say unto thee, arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house."

<sup>12</sup>And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw it in this fashion!"

<sup>13</sup>And He went forth again by the seaside; and all the multitude resorted unto Him, and He taught them.* <sup>14</sup>And as He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the custom booth, and said unto him,

"Follow Me."

And he arose and followed Him.

<sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat at Levi's house, that many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him. <sup>16</sup>And when the scribes and Pharisees saw Him eating with publicans and sinners, they said unto His disciples, "How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?" <sup>17</sup>And when Jesus heard it, He said unto them,

"They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>18</sup>And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast; and they came and said unto Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?"* <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said unto them,

"Can the attendants of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. <sup>21</sup>No man seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment, else the new piece that filled it up teareth away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

<sup>22</sup>And no man putteth new wine into old wineskins, else the new wine doth burst the skins, and the wine is spilled and the skins will be marred. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

the Sabbath day; and His disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.* <sup>24</sup>And the Pharisees said unto Him, "Behold, why do they do on the Sabbath day that which is not lawful?" <sup>25</sup>And He said unto them,

"Have ye never read what David did when he was in need and hungered, he and they that were with him? <sup>26</sup>How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave it also to those who were with him?"

<sup>27</sup>And He said unto them,

"The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>Therefore the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

<sup>1</sup>And He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had a withered hand.* <sup>2</sup>And they watched Him to see whether He would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse Him. <sup>3</sup>And He said unto the man who had the withered hand, "Stand forth."

"Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath days, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill?"

But they kept silent. <sup>5</sup>And when He had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their hearts, He said unto the man,

And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored whole as the other. <sup>6</sup>And the Pharisees went forth and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him. ♦

<sup>7</sup>But Jesus withdrew Himself with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea,* <sup>8</sup>and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond the Jordan. And those from around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things He did, came unto Him. <sup>9</sup>And He instructed His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should throng Him. <sup>10</sup>For He had healed many, insomuch that all who had afflictions pressed upon Him to touch Him. <sup>11</sup>And unclean spirits, when they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried, saying, "Thou art the Son of God!" <sup>12</sup>And He strictly charged them that they should not make Him known.

<sup>13</sup>And He went up onto a mountain, and called unto Himself whom He would have, and they came unto Him.* <sup>14</sup>And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach <sup>15</sup>and to have power to heal sicknesses and to cast out devils: <sup>16</sup>Simon (He surnamed Peter); <sup>17</sup>and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (and He surnamed them Boanerges, which means The Sons of Thunder); <sup>18</sup>and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thadaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot who betrayed Him.

And they went into a house,* <sup>20</sup>and the multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. <sup>21</sup>And when His friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on Him; for they said, "He is beside himself." <sup>22</sup>And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub, and by the prince of devils he casteth out devils."* <sup>23</sup>And He called them unto Him, and said unto them in parables,

*<sup>28</sup>"Verily I say unto you, all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men and blasphemies, however they shall blaspheme;* <sup>29</sup>but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation";*

<sup>31</sup>There came then His brethren and His mother, and standing outside they sent unto Him, calling Him. <sup>32</sup>And the multitude sat about Him, and they said unto Him, "Behold, thy mother and thy brethren outside seek for thee." <sup>33</sup>And He answered them, saying,

"Who is My mother, or My brethren?"

<sup>34</sup>And He looked round about on those who sat about Him and said, "Behold, My mother and My brethren. <sup>35</sup>For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is My brother, and My sister, and mother." ♦

<sup>1</sup>And He began again to teach by the seaside. And there was gathered unto Him a great multitude, so that He entered into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.* <sup>2</sup>And He taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in His doctrine:

<sup>3</sup>"Hearken! Behold, there went out a sower to sow. <sup>4</sup>And it came to pass as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. <sup>5</sup>And some fell on stony ground where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun came up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. <sup>8</sup>And other fell on good ground; and it yielded fruit that sprang up and increased and brought forth: some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred-fold."

"He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup>And when He was alone, those who were about Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. <sup>11</sup>And He said unto them,

"Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God; but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables, <sup>12</sup>that

*'seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not understand;
lest at any time they should be converted and their sins should be forgiven them.'"\

<sup>13</sup>And He said unto them,

"Know ye not this parable? And how then will ye know all parables? <sup>14</sup>The sower soweth the Word. <sup>15</sup>And these are they by the wayside, where the Word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately and taketh away the Word that was sown in their hearts. <sup>16</sup>And these are they likewise that are sown on stony ground who, when they have heard the Word, immediately receive it with gladness; <sup>17</sup>but they have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time. Afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the Word's sake, immediately they are offended. <sup>18</sup>And these are they which are sown among thorns, such as hear the Word,* <sup>19</sup>but the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the Word, and it becometh unfruitful.* <sup>20</sup>And these are they that are sown on good ground, such as these hear the Word and receive it and bring forth fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

*1 Mt 13:1-53, Lk 8:4-18. *12 Isa 6:9-10, Jn 12:40.

*"Is a candle brought to be put under a basket or under a bed, and not to be set on a candlestick?** <sup>22</sup>For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should be revealed.* <sup>23</sup>If any man have ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>24</sup>And He said unto them,
*"Take heed what ye hear. With what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.** <sup>25</sup>For he that hath, to him shall be given,* and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath."

◆<sup>26</sup>And He said,
"So is the Kingdom of God as if a man should cast seed into the ground, <sup>27</sup>and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. <sup>28</sup>For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself: first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. <sup>29</sup>But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come."

<sup>30</sup>And He said,
*"To what shall we liken the Kingdom of God? Or with what comparison shall we compare it?** <sup>31</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed which, when it is sown into the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth. <sup>32</sup>But when it is sown, it groweth up and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it."

<sup>33</sup>And with many such parables He spoke the Word unto them, as they were able to hear it; <sup>34</sup>but without a parable spoke He not unto them. And when they were alone, He expounded all things to His disciples.

<sup>35</sup>And that same day, when evening had come, He said unto them, "Let us pass over unto the other side."*

<sup>36</sup>And when they had sent away the multitude, they took Him even as He was in the boat; and there were also with Him other little boats.

<sup>37</sup>And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full. <sup>38</sup>But He was in the hind part of the boat, asleep on a pillow; and they awoke Him and said unto Him, "Master, carest thou not that we perish?" <sup>39</sup>And He arose, and rebuked the wind and said unto the sea,

"Peace, be still."

And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>And He said unto them,

"Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?"

<sup>41</sup>And they feared exceedingly and said one to another, "What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?" ♦

<sup>1</sup>And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.* <sup>2</sup>And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him from out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, <sup>3</sup>who had his dwelling among the tombs. And no man could bind him, no, not even with chains, <sup>4</sup>because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him and the fetters broken in pieces; neither could any man tame him. <sup>5</sup>And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup>But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped Him, <sup>7</sup>and cried with a loud voice, and said, "What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure Thee by God that Thou torment me not!" <sup>8</sup>For He had said unto him, "Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit." <sup>9</sup>And Jesus asked him,

"What is thy name?"

And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion, for we are many." <sup>10</sup>And he besought Him earnestly that He would not send them away out of the country. <sup>11</sup>Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. <sup>12</sup>And all the devils besought Him, saying, "Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them." <sup>13</sup>And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out and entered into the swine; and the herd ran violently down a steep bank and into the sea (they were about two thousand), and were choked in the sea.

<sup>14</sup>And those who fed the swine fled, and told it in the city and in the country. And the people went out to see what it was that had been done. <sup>15</sup>And they came to Jesus, and saw him that had been possessed by the legion of devils, sitting and clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup>And those who saw it told the people what had befallen him that was possessed by the devil, and also concerning the swine. <sup>17</sup>And they began to implore Him to depart from their borders. <sup>18</sup>And when He was getting into the boat, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed Him that he might be with Him. <sup>19</sup>But Jesus allowed him not, and said unto him,

"Go home to thy friends, and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how He hath had compassion on thee."

♦<sup>21</sup>And when Jesus had passed over again by boat unto the other side, many people gathered unto Him; and He was nigh unto the sea.* <sup>22</sup>And behold, there came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw Him, he fell at His feet <sup>23</sup>and besought Him greatly, saying, "My little daughter lieth at the point of death. I pray Thee, come and lay Thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live." <sup>24</sup>And Jesus went with him, and many people followed Him and thronged Him.

<sup>25</sup>And a certain woman who had an issue of blood twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things under many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse, <sup>27</sup>when she had heard of Jesus, came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment; <sup>28</sup>for she said, "If I may touch only His clothes, I shall be whole." <sup>29</sup>And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. <sup>30</sup>And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that virtue had gone out of Him, turned about in the crowd and said,

<sup>31</sup>And His disciples said unto Him, "Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, 'Who touched me?'" <sup>32</sup>And He looked round about to see her who had done this thing. <sup>33</sup>But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done in her, came and fell down before Him and told Him all the truth. <sup>34</sup>And He said unto her,

"Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole. Go in peace, and be whole of thy plague."

*21 Mt 9:1, 18-26, Lk 8:40-56.

<sup>35</sup>While He yet spoke, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain ones who said, "Thy daughter is dead; why troublest thou the master any further?" <sup>36</sup>As soon as Jesus heard the word that had been spoken, He said unto the ruler of the synagogue,

"Be not afraid; only believe."

<sup>37</sup>And He suffered no man to follow Him, except Peter and James and John, the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>And He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw the tumult and those who wept and wailed greatly. <sup>39</sup>And when He had come in, He said unto them,

"Why make ye this ado and weep? The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth."

<sup>40</sup>And they laughed Him to scorn. But when He had put them all out, He took the father and the mother of the damsel and those who were with Him, and entered in where the damsel was lying. <sup>41</sup>And He took the damsel by the hand and said unto her, which is, being interpreted, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise."

<sup>42</sup>And straightway the damsel arose and walked, for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. <sup>43</sup>And He charged them strictly that no man should know about it, and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

*"A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house."**

<sup>5</sup>And He could do no mighty works there, except that He laid His hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. <sup>6</sup>And He marveled because of their unbelief. And He went round about the villages teaching.*

*1 Mt 13:54-58, Lk 4:16-30. *4 Jn 4:44. *6 Mt 9:35-38, Lk 13:22.

<sup>7</sup>And He called unto Him the twelve, and began to send them forth two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits,* <sup>8</sup>and commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only—no pack, no bread, and no money in their purse, <sup>9</sup>but be shod with sandals, and not put on two coats. <sup>10</sup>And He said unto them,

*"In whatever place ye enter into a house, there abide until ye depart from that place. <sup>11</sup>And whosoever shall not receive you nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.* Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of Judgment than for that city."*

<sup>14</sup>And King Herod heard of Him, for His name was spread abroad. And he said, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore these mighty works show forth themselves in him."* <sup>15</sup>Others said, "It is Elijah," and others said, "It is a prophet, or like one of the prophets." <sup>16</sup>But when Herod heard of it, he said, "It is John, whom I beheaded; he has risen from the dead." <sup>17</sup>For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and had bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. <sup>18</sup>For John had said unto Herod, "It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife."* <sup>19</sup>Therefore Herodias set herself against him and would have killed him, but she could not; <sup>20</sup>for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. <sup>21</sup>And when a convenient day had come, when Herod on his birthday gave a feast for his lords, high officers, and chief officials of Galilee, <sup>22</sup>and when the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, "Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it to thee." <sup>23</sup>And he swore an oath to her, "Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it to thee, even were it half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup>And she went forth and said unto her mother, "What shall I ask?" And Herodias said, "The head of John the Baptist." <sup>25</sup>And she came back straightway with haste unto the king and asked, saying, "I will that thou give me at once on a charger the head of John the Baptist." <sup>26</sup>And the king was exceedingly sorry, yet for his oath's sake and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her. <sup>27</sup>And immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded John's head to be brought. And he went and beheaded John in prison, <sup>28</sup>and brought his head on a charger and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>And when John's disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.*<sup>31</sup>And He said unto them,

For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure, even so much as to eat. <sup>32</sup>And they departed into a desert place by boat privately. <sup>33</sup>And the people saw them departing, and many recognized Him and ran thither on foot out of all the cities and outdistanced them, and came together unto Him. <sup>34</sup>And Jesus, when He came ashore, saw many people and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.*♦

<sup>35</sup>And when the day was now far spent, His disciples came unto Him and said, "This is a desert place, and now the day is far spent. <sup>36</sup>Send them away, that they may go into the country round about and into the villages and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat." <sup>37</sup>He answered and said unto them,

"Give ye them to eat."

And they said to Him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread and give them to eat?" <sup>38</sup>He said unto them,

"How many loaves have ye? Go and see."

And when they knew, they said, "Five, and two fishes." <sup>39</sup>And He commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. <sup>40</sup>And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>41</sup>And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, He looked up to Heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and He divided the two fishes among them all. <sup>42</sup>And they all ate and were filled. <sup>43</sup>And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments and of the fishes. <sup>44</sup>And those who ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.

<sup>45</sup>And straightway He constrained His disciples to get into the boat, and go to the other side before Him unto Bethsaida, while He sent away the people.* <sup>46</sup>And when He had sent them away, He departed onto a mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup>And when evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea; and He was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>And He saw them toiling in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them. And about the fourth watch of the night, He came unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. <sup>49</sup>But when they saw Him walking upon the sea, they supposed it was a spirit and cried out, <sup>50</sup>for they all saw *30 Mt 14:13-21, Lk 9:10-17, Jn 6:1-14. *34 Mt 9:36. *45 Mt 14:22-33, Jn 6:15-21.

Him and were troubled. And immediately He talked with them, and said unto them,

"Be of good cheer! It is I; be not afraid."

<sup>51</sup>And He went up unto them and into the boat, and the wind ceased. And they were sore amazed within themselves beyond measure and wondered, <sup>52</sup>for they had considered not the miracle of the loaves, as their hearts were hardened.

♦♦<sup>53</sup>And when they had crossed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.* <sup>54</sup>And when they had come out of the boat, straightway the people recognized Him, <sup>55</sup>and ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry on beds those who were sick to where they heard He was. <sup>56</sup>And whithersoever He entered, into villages or cities or the country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought Him that they might touch even the border of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made whole.

"Well hath Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written:

"This people honoreth Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

*<sup>7</sup>Be it so, in vain do they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.'**

<sup>8</sup>For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold to the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups, and many other like things ye do." ♦

*53 Mt 14:34-36. *1 Mt 15:1-20. *6-7 Isa 29:13.

*"Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. <sup>10</sup>For Moses said, 'Honor thy father and thy mother,' * and, 'Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.* <sup>11</sup>But ye say that if a man shall say to his father or mother, 'It is Corban' (that is to say, a gift of whatsoever thou mightest have profited from me), he shall be freed; <sup>12</sup>and ye require him no more to do anything for his father or his mother, <sup>13</sup>thus making the Word of God of no effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered. And many like things do ye."*

♦<sup>14</sup>And when He had called all the people unto Him, He said unto them,

"Hearken unto Me every one of you, and understand: <sup>15</sup>There is nothing from outside a man that, entering into him, can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man. ♦ <sup>16</sup>If any man have ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>17</sup>And when He had entered into the house away from the people, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable. <sup>18</sup>And He said unto them,

"Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entereth into a man, it cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly and goeth out into the drain, thereby purging all meats?"

<sup>20</sup>And He said,

"That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

<sup>24</sup>And from thence He arose and went into the region of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no man know about it; but He could not be hid.* <sup>25</sup>For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of Him, and came and fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup>The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation, and she besought Him that He would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said unto her,

"Let the children first be filled, for it is not fitting to take the children's bread and to cast it unto the dogs."

*10a Ex 20:12, Dt 5:16. *10b Ex 21:17. *21 Gen 8:21. *24 Mt 15:21-28.

"For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter."

<sup>32</sup>And they brought unto Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they besought Him to put His hand upon him.

<sup>33</sup>And He took him aside from the multitude and put His fingers into his ears, and He spat and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>And looking up to Heaven, He sighed and said unto him, that is, "Be opened." <sup>35</sup>And straightway his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed and he spoke plainly.* <sup>36</sup>And He charged them that they should tell no man. But the more He charged them, the more widely they proclaimed it <sup>37</sup>and were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak." ♦

"I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat."

"And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way; for some of them came from afar."

"How many loaves have ye?"

And they said, "Seven." <sup>6</sup>And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks and broke, and gave to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people. <sup>7</sup>And they had a few small fishes, and He blessed them and commanded to set them also before them. <sup>8</sup>So they ate and were filled; and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets. <sup>9</sup>And those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

and began to question with Him, seeking of Him a sign from Heaven, testing Him.* <sup>12</sup>And He sighed deeply in His spirit and said,

"Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, there shall no sign be given unto this generation."

"Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod."

<sup>16</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread." <sup>17</sup>And when Jesus knew it, He said unto them,

"Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive, nor understand? Have ye your heart yet hardened? <sup>18</sup>Having eyes, see ye not? And having ears, hear ye not? And do ye not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up?"

They said unto Him, "Twelve."

And they said, "Seven." <sup>21</sup>And He said unto them,

"How is it that ye do not understand?"

<sup>22</sup>And He came to Bethsaida, and they brought a blind man unto Him, and besought Him to touch him. <sup>23</sup>And He took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town. And when He had spit on his eyes and put His hands upon him, He asked him if he saw anything. <sup>24</sup>And he looked up and said, "I see men as trees, walking." <sup>25</sup>After that He put His hands again upon his eyes and made him look up; and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. <sup>26</sup>And He sent him away to his house, saying,

"Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town."

♦<sup>27</sup>And Jesus went out with His disciples into the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He asked His disciples, saying unto them,*

"Who do men say that I am?"

<sup>28</sup>And they answered, "John the Baptist; but some say Elijah, and others, one of the prophets." <sup>29</sup>And He said unto them,

"But who say ye that I am?"

And Peter answered and said unto Him, "Thou art the Christ." <sup>30</sup>And He charged them that they should tell no man of Him.

*11 Mt 12:38, 16:1-4. *13 Mt 16:4-12. *27 Mt 16:13-20, Lk 9:18-21.

<sup>31</sup>And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and by the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.* <sup>32</sup>And He spoke that saying openly. And Peter took Him and began to rebuke Him. <sup>33</sup>But when He had turned about and looked on His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying,

"Get thee behind Me, Satan; for thou savorest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men."

<sup>34</sup>And when He had called the people unto Him with His disciples also, He said unto them,

*"Whosoever will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.* <sup>35</sup>For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for My sake and the Gospel's, the same shall save it. <sup>36</sup>For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?* <sup>37</sup>Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup>Whosoever, therefore, shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed when He cometh in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."*♦*

"Verily I say unto you, that there are some of them that stand here who shall not taste of death until they have seen the Kingdom of God come with power."

<sup>9</sup>And as they came down from the mountain, He charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ♦ <sup>10</sup>And they kept that saying to themselves, questioning one another what "rising from the dead" should mean. <sup>11</sup>And they asked Him, saying, "Why say the scribes that first Elijah must come?" * <sup>12</sup>And He answered and told them, *"Elijah verily cometh first and restoreth all things, and how it is written of the Son of Man that He must suffer many things and be set at nought." * <sup>13</sup>But I say unto you that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they would, as it is written of him."*

<sup>17</sup>And one of the multitude answered and said, "Master, I have brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit. <sup>18</sup>And wherever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth and gnasheth his teeth and pineth away. And I spoke to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not." <sup>19</sup>Jesus answered him and said, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto Me."

<sup>20</sup>And they brought the boy unto Him. And when the spirit saw Him, straightway he tore the boy; and he fell on the ground and wallowed about foaming. <sup>21</sup>And He asked his father, "How long is it ago since this came unto him?"

And he said, "From childhood. <sup>22</sup>And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire and into the waters to destroy him; but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us and help us." <sup>23</sup>Jesus said unto him, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth."

<sup>24</sup>And straightway the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe. Help Thou mine unbelief!" <sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him,

"Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him and enter no more into him."

<sup>26</sup>And the spirit cried, and rent the boy sorely and came out of him; and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, "He is dead." <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

<sup>28</sup>And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him

*11 Mal 4:5, Mt 11:14. *12 Isa 53:4-5. *14 Mt 17:14-21, Lk 9:37-43.

privately, "Why could not we cast him out?" <sup>29</sup>And He said unto them,

"This kind can come forth by nothing but prayer and fasting."

♦<sup>30</sup>And they departed thence and passed through Galilee, and He would not that any man should know it,* <sup>31</sup>for He was teaching His disciples and saying unto them,

"The Son of Man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill Him; and after He is killed, He shall rise the third day."

<sup>32</sup>But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

<sup>33</sup>And He came to Capernaum; and being in the house, He asked them,

*"What was it that ye disputed among yourselves on the way?"**

<sup>34</sup>But they kept silent, for on the way they had disputed among themselves as to who should be the greatest. <sup>35</sup>And He sat down, and called the twelve and said unto them,

"If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all and servant of all."

<sup>36</sup>And He took a child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said unto them,

<sup>37</sup>"Whosoever shall receive one of such children in My name, receiveth Me; and whosoever shall receive Me, receiveth not Me, but Him that sent Me."

<sup>38</sup>And John answered Him, saying, "Master, we saw one casting out devils in Thy name, but he followeth us not, so we forbid him because he followeth not us." <sup>39</sup>But Jesus said,

*"Forbid him not, for there is no man who shall do a miracle in My name that can lightly speak evil of Me.* <sup>40</sup>For he that is not against us is on our side. <sup>41</sup>For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in My name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.* <sup>42</sup>And whosoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe in Me to fall, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and he were cast into the sea. <sup>43</sup>And if thy hand cause thee to fall, cut it off. It is better for thee to enter into life maimed than, having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched, <sup>44</sup>where*

'their worm dieth not,

<sup>45</sup>And if thy foot cause thee to fall, cut it off. It is better for thee to enter halt into life than, having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched, <sup>46</sup>where their worm dieth not,

*and the fire is not quenched.'**

<sup>47</sup>And if thine eye cause thee to fall, pluck it out. It is better for thee to enter into the Kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire,* <sup>48</sup>where their worm dieth not,

<sup>49</sup>For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.* <sup>50</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt has lost his saltness, with what will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another."*♦

<sup>1</sup>And He rose from thence, and went into the region of Judea by the farther side of the Jordan. And the people resorted unto Him again; and as He was wont, He taught them again.*

♦<sup>2</sup>And the Pharisees came to Him and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife?"—testing Him.* <sup>3</sup>And He answered and said unto them,

"What did Moses command you?"

<sup>4</sup>And they said, "Moses allowed to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away."* <sup>5</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto them,

*"Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of the creation, God 'made them male and female.* <sup>7</sup>For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife,* <sup>8</sup>and the two shall be one flesh.' So then they are no more two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."*

<sup>10</sup>And in the house His disciples asked Him again about the same matter. <sup>11</sup>And He said unto them,

*committeth adultery against her.** <sup>12</sup>And if a woman shall put away her husband and be married to another, she committeth adultery."

<sup>13</sup>And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them; and His disciples rebuked those who brought them.* <sup>14</sup>But when Jesus saw it, He was much displeased and said unto them,

"Let the little children come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup>Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein."

<sup>17</sup>And when He had gone forth onto the road, there came one running, and knelt before Him and asked Him,* "Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" <sup>18</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Why callest thou Me good? There is none good but One, that is, God. <sup>19</sup>Thou knowest the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not bear false witness, defraud not, honor thy father and mother.'"

<sup>20</sup>And he answered and said unto Him, "Master, all these have I observed from my youth." <sup>21</sup>Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him and said unto him,

"One thing thou lackest: Go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me."

<sup>22</sup>And he was sad at that saying and went away grieved, for he had great possessions. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus looked round about and said unto His disciples,

"How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the Kingdom of God!"

<sup>24</sup>And the disciples were astonished at His words, but Jesus answered again and said unto them,

"Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?" <sup>27</sup>And Jesus looking upon them said,

"With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible."

*11 Mt 5:32, Lk 16:18. *13 Mt 19:13-15, Lk 18:15-17. *17 Mt 19:16-30, Lk 18:18-30.

followed Thee." <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered and said,

*"Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands for My sake and the Gospel's, <sup>30</sup>but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come, eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many that are first shall be last, and the last first."** ♦

<sup>32</sup>And they were on the way going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus went before them; and they were amazed, and as they followed,* they were afraid. And He took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things would happen unto Him, <sup>33</sup>saying,

"Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles. <sup>34</sup>And they shall mock Him and shall scourge Him, and shall spit upon Him and shall kill Him. And the third day He shall rise again."

♦<sup>35</sup>And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came unto Him, saying, "Master, we would that Thou should do for us whatsoever we shall desire."* <sup>36</sup>And He said unto them,

"What would ye that I should do for you?"

<sup>37</sup>They said unto Him, "Grant unto us that we may sit, one on Thy right hand and the other on Thy left hand, in Thy glory." <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said unto them,

"Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

<sup>39</sup>And they said unto Him, "We can." And Jesus said unto them,

"Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal, shall ye be baptized. <sup>40</sup>But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not Mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared."

<sup>41</sup>And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. <sup>42</sup>But Jesus called them to Him and said unto them,

*"Ye know that they that are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them,* and their great ones exercise authority upon them. <sup>43</sup>But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you shall be your minister, <sup>44</sup>and whosoever of you would be the*

<sup>46</sup>And they came to Jericho. And as He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the wayside begging.* <sup>47</sup>And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>48</sup>And many charged him that he should keep silent; but he cried out all the more, "Thou Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>49</sup>And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying unto him, "Be of good comfort. Rise; He calleth thee." <sup>50</sup>And he, casting away his garment, rose and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto him,

"What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?"

The blind man said unto Him, "Lord, that I might receive my sight."

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Go thy way. Thy faith hath made thee whole."

And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

"Go your way into the village opposite you, and as soon as ye have entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon man never sat. Loose him and bring him. <sup>3</sup>And if any man say unto you, 'Why do ye this?' say ye that the Lord hath need of him, and straightway he will send him hither."

<sup>6</sup>And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded, and they let them go. <sup>7</sup>And they brought the colt to Jesus and cast their garments on him, and He sat upon him. <sup>8</sup>And many spread their garments upon the way, and others cut down branches off the trees and spread them upon the way.* <sup>9</sup>And those who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord! <sup>10</sup>Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"*

<sup>11</sup>And Jesus entered into Jerusalem and into the temple. And when He had looked round about upon all things, as now the eventide had come, He went out unto Bethany with the twelve.♦

<sup>12</sup>And on the morrow, when they had come from Bethany, He was hungry;* <sup>13</sup>and seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He might find any thing thereon. But when He came to it He found nothing but leaves, for the time for figs was not yet. <sup>14</sup>And Jesus spoke and said unto it,

"Let no man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever."

And His disciples heard it.

<sup>15</sup>And they came to Jerusalem. And Jesus went into the temple, and began to drive out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those who sold doves. <sup>16</sup>And He would not allow that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. <sup>17</sup>And He taught, saying unto them,

*"Is it not written, 'My house shall be called for all nations the house of prayer'?"* But ye have made it a den of thieves."*

<sup>18</sup>And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because all the people were astonished at His doctrine. <sup>19</sup>And when evening had come, He went out of the city.

<sup>20</sup>And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.* <sup>21</sup>And Peter, calling to remembrance, said unto Him, "Master, behold, the fig tree which Thou cursedst is withered away." <sup>22</sup>And Jesus answering said unto them,

*"Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, 'Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea,' and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith. <sup>24</sup>Therefore I say unto you, whatsoever things ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.* <sup>25</sup>And when ye stand praying, forgive if ye have anything against any, that your Father also who is in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses.* <sup>26</sup>But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in Heaven forgive your trespasses."*

<sup>27</sup>And they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, there came to Him the chief priests and the scribes and the elders,* <sup>28</sup>and said unto Him, "By what authority doest thou these things? And who gave thee this authority to do these things?" <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto them,

"I will also ask of you one question; answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup>The baptism of John: was it from Heaven, or of men? Answer Me."

<sup>31</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we shall say 'From Heaven,' he will say 'Why then did ye not believe him?' <sup>32</sup>But if we shall say 'Of men'"—they feared the people, for all men counted John as a prophet indeed. <sup>33</sup>And they answered and said unto Jesus, "We cannot tell." And Jesus answering said unto them,

"Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

CHAPTER 12

*"A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug a place for the wine vat, and built a watchtower; and he leased it out to husbandmen and went into a far country.* <sup>2</sup>And at the harvest season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from them of the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>4</sup>And again he sent unto them another servant, and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. <sup>5</sup>And again he sent another, and him they killed, and many others, beating some and killing some. <sup>6</sup>Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, 'They will reverence my son.' <sup>7</sup>But those husbandmen said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.' <sup>8</sup>And they took him and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup>What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. <sup>10</sup>And have ye not read this Scripture:*

*"The stone which the builders rejected
has become the head of the corner;*

*1 Isa 5:1-2, Mt 21:33, Lk 20:9.

and it is marvelous in our eyes?'"**

<sup>12</sup>And they sought to lay hold on Him, but they feared the people, for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them. And they left Him, and went their way.

<sup>13</sup>And they sent unto Him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to catch Him in His words.* <sup>14</sup>And when they had come, they said unto Him, "Master, we know that thou art true and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? <sup>15</sup>Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them,

"Why tempt ye Me? Bring Me a penny, that I may see it."

<sup>16</sup>And they brought it, and He said unto them,

"Whose image and superscription is this?"

And they said unto Him, "Caesar's." <sup>17</sup>And Jesus answering said unto them,

"Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

And they marveled at Him.

<sup>18</sup>Then came unto Him the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection.* And they asked Him, saying, <sup>19</sup>"Master, Moses wrote unto us that if a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, then his brother should take his wife and raise up seed unto his brother.* <sup>20</sup>Now there were seven brethren; and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed. <sup>21</sup>And the second took her and died, neither leaving any seed. And the third likewise. <sup>22</sup>So the seven had her and left no seed. Last of all the woman died also. <sup>23</sup>In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be, for all seven had her for a wife?" <sup>24</sup>And Jesus answering said unto them,

*"Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God? <sup>25</sup>For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels who are in Heaven. <sup>26</sup>And concerning the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke unto him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?"* <sup>27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. Ye therefore do greatly err."*

*11 Ps 118:22-23, Mt 21:42, Lk 20:17. *13 Mt 22:18-22, Lk 20:20-26. *18 Mt 22:23-33, Lk 20:27-40. *19 Dt 25:5. *26 Ex 3:6,15.

"Which is the first commandment of all?"* <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered him, *"The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord.*' <sup>30</sup>And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.' This is the first commandment. <sup>31</sup>And the second is like, namely this: 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' * There is no other commandment greater than these."*

<sup>32</sup>And the scribe said unto Him, "Well, Master, thou hast said the truth, for there is one God, and there is none other than He.* <sup>33</sup>And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength,* and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."* <sup>34</sup>And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, He said unto him,

"Thou art not far from the Kingdom of God."

And no man after that dared ask Him any question. ♦

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How say the scribes that Christ is the Son of David?" <sup>36</sup>For David himself said by the Holy Spirit:

"The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit Thou at My right hand

*until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool." * **

<sup>37</sup>David therefore himself calleth Him 'Lord'; and how is He then his son?"

And the common people heard Him gladly.

♦<sup>38</sup>And He said unto them in His doctrine,

*"Beware of the scribes, who love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,* <sup>39</sup>and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts, <sup>40</sup>who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation."*

<sup>41</sup>And Jesus sat opposite the treasury,* and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury. And many who were rich cast in much.

<sup>42</sup>And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. <sup>43</sup>And He called unto Him His disciples and said unto them,

"Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in than all they that have cast into the treasury; <sup>44</sup>for they all cast in of their abundance, but she of her want cast in all that she had, even all her living."

"Seest thou these great buildings? There shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."*

<sup>3</sup>And as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately, <sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?" <sup>5</sup>And Jesus answering them, began to say,

"Take heed lest any man deceive you. <sup>6</sup>For many shall come in My name, saying, 'I am Christ!', and shall deceive many. <sup>7</sup>And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled, for such things must come to pass; but the end shall not be yet. <sup>8</sup>For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of sorrows. ♦

*<sup>9</sup>But take heed for yourselves, for they shall deliver you up to councils, and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten. And ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them. <sup>10</sup>And the Gospel must first be proclaimed among all nations. <sup>11</sup>But when they shall lead you and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak;* neither need ye premeditate. But whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup>Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father, the son; and children shall rise up against their parents and shall cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup>And ye shall be hated by all men for My name's sake; but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.*

*1 Mt 24:1-42, Lk 21:5-36. *2 Lk 19:44. *11 Ex 4:12, Mt 10:19, Lk 12:11. *14 Dan 9:27.

*"then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>15</sup>And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein to take any thing out of his house. <sup>16</sup>And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment. <sup>17</sup>But woe to them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! <sup>18</sup>And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. <sup>19</sup>For in those days shall be affliction such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, neither shall be. <sup>20</sup>And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom He hath chosen, He hath shortened the days. <sup>21</sup>And then if any man shall say to you, 'Lo, here is Christ!' or, 'Lo, He is there!' believe him not,* <sup>22</sup>for false christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. <sup>23</sup>But take ye heed; behold, I have foretold you all things.*

doorkeeper to watch. <sup>35</sup>Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the Master of the house cometh—at evening, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning—<sup>36</sup>lest coming suddenly, He find you sleeping. <sup>37</sup>And what I say unto you, I say unto all: Watch!”

<sup>3</sup>And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she broke the box and poured it on His head.* <sup>4</sup>And there were some who were indignant within themselves and said, “Why was this ointment wasted? <sup>5</sup>For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor.” And they murmured against her. <sup>6</sup>And Jesus said,

<sup>10</sup>And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests to betray Him unto them. <sup>11</sup>And when they heard it, they were glad and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

<sup>12</sup>And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said unto Him, “Where wilt Thou have us go and prepare, that Thou mayest eat the Passover?”* <sup>13</sup>And He sent forth two of His disciples and said unto them,

*1 Mt 26:1-5, 14-16, Lk 22:1-6, Jn 12:36-50. *3 Mt 26:6, Lk 7:36, Jn 11:1, 12:1. *12 Mt 26:17-19, Lk 22:7-13.

he shall go in, say ye to the head of the house, "The Master saith, "Where is the guestchamber where I shall eat the Passover with My disciples?"" <sup>15</sup>And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

<sup>16</sup>And His disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found it as He had said unto them; and they made ready the Passover.

<sup>17</sup>And in the evening He came with the twelve. <sup>18</sup>And as they sat and ate, Jesus said,

*"Verily I say unto you, one of you who eateth with Me shall betray Me."**

<sup>19</sup>And they began to be sorrowful and to say unto Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?" <sup>20</sup>And He answered and said unto them,

"It is one of the twelve that dippeth with Me in the dish.

<sup>21</sup>The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! Good were it for that man if he had never been born."

<sup>22</sup>And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said,

*"Take, eat; this is My body."**

<sup>23</sup>And He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank of it. <sup>24</sup>And He said unto them,

"This is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. <sup>25</sup>Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the Kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives. <sup>27</sup>And Jesus said unto them,

*"All ye shall be offended because of Me this night,* for it is written:*

*'I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.'**

<sup>29</sup>But Peter said unto Him, "Although all shall be offended, yet will I not." <sup>30</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Verily I say unto thee that this day, even in this night before the cock crows twice, thou shalt deny Me thrice."

<sup>31</sup>But Peter spoke the more vehemently, "If I should die with Thee, I will not deny Thee in any way." Likewise also said they all.

*18 Mt 26:20-25, Lk 22:14, 21-23, Jn 13:21-35. *22 Mt 26:26-29, Lk 22:15-20. *27a Mt 26:31-35, Lk 22:31-38, Jn 13:36-38, 16:32. *27b Zch 13:7.

said to His disciples,*

"Sit ye here while I shall pray."

<sup>33</sup>And He took with Him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore distressed and very heavy of heart. <sup>34</sup>And He said unto them,

"My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death; tarry ye here, and watch."

<sup>35</sup>And He went forward a little, and fell on the ground and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. <sup>36</sup>And He said,

"Abba, Father, all things are possible unto Thee. Take away this cup from Me; nevertheless not what I will, but what Thou wilt."

<sup>37</sup>And He came back and found them sleeping, and said unto Peter,

"Simon, sleepest thou? Couldst thou not watch one hour? <sup>38</sup>Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak."

<sup>40</sup>And when He returned He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; neither knew they what to answer Him. <sup>41</sup>And He came the third time and said unto them,

"Sleep on now and take your rest. It is enough. The hour is come; behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup>Rise up; let us go. Lo, he that betrayeth Me is at hand."

<sup>43</sup>And immediately, while He yet spoke came Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.* <sup>44</sup>And he that betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I shall kiss, that same is he. Take him and lead him away safely." <sup>45</sup>And as soon as he had come, he went straightway to Him and said, "Master, Master!" and kissed Him. <sup>46</sup>And they laid their hands on Him and took Him. <sup>47</sup>And one of those who stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. <sup>48</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto them,

"Have ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take Me? <sup>49</sup>I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took Me not. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.* <sup>54</sup>And Peter followed Him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest. And he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

<sup>63</sup>Then the high priest rent his clothes and said, "Why need we of any further witnesses? <sup>64</sup>Ye have heard the blasphemy. What think ye?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death. <sup>65</sup>And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His face, and to buffet Him, and to say unto Him, "Prophecy!" And the servants struck Him with the palms of their hands.

<sup>66</sup>And as Peter was below in the courtyard, there came one of the maids of the high priest.* <sup>67</sup>And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him and said, "And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth." <sup>68</sup>But he denied it, saying, "I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest." And he went out into the porch, and the cock crowed. <sup>69</sup>And a maid saw him again and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them." <sup>70</sup>And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, "Surely thou art one of them, for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto." <sup>71</sup>But he began to curse and to swear, saying, "I know not this man of whom ye speak!" <sup>72</sup>And the second time the cock crowed. And Peter called to mind the words that Jesus had said unto him: "Before the cock crows twice, thou shalt deny Me thrice." And when he thought thereon, he wept.

<sup>1</sup>And straightway in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus and carried Him away and delivered Him to Pilate.* <sup>2</sup>And Pilate asked Him, "Art thou the King of the Jews?" And answering He said unto him,

<sup>6</sup>Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.* <sup>7</sup>And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with those who had made insurrection with him, and who had committed murder in the insurrection. <sup>8</sup>And the multitude, crying aloud, began to ask Pilate to do as he had ever done unto them. <sup>9</sup>But Pilate answered them, saying, "Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?" <sup>10</sup>For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him out of envy. <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. <sup>12</sup>And Pilate answered and said again unto them, "What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?" <sup>13</sup>And they cried out again, "Crucify him!" <sup>14</sup>Then Pilate said unto them, "Why, what evil hath he done?" But they cried out the more vehemently, "Crucify him!" <sup>15</sup>And so Pilate, willing to satisfy the people, released Barabbas unto them and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged Him, to be crucified.

*1 Mt 27:1-2, 11-14, Lk 23:1-5, Jn 18:28-38. *5 Isa 53:7. *6 Mt 27:15-26, Lk 23:13-25, Jn 18:39-19:16. *16 Mt 27:27-30. *20 Mt 27:31-34, Lk 23:26-32, Jn 19:16-17. *23 Ps 69:21. *24 Ps 22:18, Mt 27:35-44, Lk 23:33-38 Jn 19:18-27.

on His left. <sup>28</sup>And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, "And He was numbered with the transgressors." <sup>29</sup>And those who passed by railed at Him, wagging their heads and saying, "Ah, thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, <sup>30</sup>save thyself and come down from the cross!" <sup>31</sup>Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, said among themselves, with the scribes, "He saved others; himself he cannot save!" <sup>32</sup>Let Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe." And those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

which is, being interpreted, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?"* <sup>35</sup>And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he calleth Elijah." <sup>36</sup>And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed and gave it to Him to drink, saying, "Let him alone. Let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." <sup>37</sup>And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit. <sup>38</sup>And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. <sup>39</sup>And when the centurion who stood opposite Him saw that He so cried out and gave up His spirit, he said, "Truly, this Man was the Son of God!"

<sup>40</sup>There were also women looking on afar off, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome* <sup>41</sup>(who also, when He was in Galilee, had followed Him and ministered unto Him), and many other women who came up with Him unto Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup>And now when the evening had come, because it was the Preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath),* <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable council member who also was waiting for the Kingdom of God, came and went in boldly unto Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>And Pilate wondered if He were already dead; and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether He had been any while dead. <sup>45</sup>And when he learned it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup>And Joseph bought fine linen, and took Him down and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a sepulcher which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the sepulcher. <sup>47</sup>And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where He was laid:

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Him.* <sup>2</sup>And very early in the morning on the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulcher at the rising of the sun. <sup>3</sup>And they said among themselves, "Who shall roll away the stone from the door of the sepulcher?" <sup>4</sup>And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away, for it was very large. <sup>5</sup>And entering into the sepulcher, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were frightened.* <sup>6</sup>And he said unto them, "Be not afraid. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him. <sup>7</sup>But go your way. Tell His disciples and Peter that He goeth before you into Galilee. There shall ye see Him, as He said unto you."* <sup>8</sup>And they went out quickly and fled from the sepulcher, for they trembled and were amazed; neither said they any thing to any man, for they were afraid.*♦

<sup>9</sup>Now when Jesus had risen early the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven devils.* <sup>10</sup>And she went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept. <sup>11</sup>And they, when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, believed not. <sup>12</sup>After that, He appeared in another form unto two of them as they walked and went into the country.* <sup>13</sup>And they went and told it unto the rest, but neither did they believe them.

<sup>14</sup>Afterward He appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat; and He upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not those who had seen Him after He had risen.* <sup>15</sup>And He said unto them,

*"Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.* <sup>16</sup>He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.* <sup>17</sup>And these signs shall follow them that believe: In My name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;* <sup>18</sup>they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them. They shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."\

Amen.

THE

<sup>8</sup>And it came to pass that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. <sup>10</sup>And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the time of incense.* <sup>11</sup>And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>And when Zacharias saw him he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said unto him, "Fear not, Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. <sup>14</sup>And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup>For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.* <sup>17</sup>And he shall go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." <sup>18</sup>And Zacharias said unto the angel, "Whereby shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years." <sup>19</sup>And the angel answering said unto him, "I am Gabriel who stands in the presence of God, and am sent to speak unto thee and to show thee these glad tidings. <sup>20</sup>And behold, thou shalt be dumb and not able to speak until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words which shall be fulfilled in their season."

<sup>21</sup>And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he tarried so long in the temple. <sup>22</sup>And when he came out, he could not speak unto them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he beckoned unto them and remained speechless.

<sup>34</sup>Then said Mary unto the angel, "How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?" <sup>35</sup>And the angel answered and said unto her, "The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that Holy Being who shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. <sup>37</sup>For with God nothing shall be impossible." <sup>38</sup>And Mary said, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord. Be it unto me according to thy word." And the angel departed from her.

was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup>And she spoke out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. <sup>43</sup>And why is it granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup>For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. <sup>45</sup>And blessed is she that believed; for there shall be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord." <sup>46</sup>And Mary said,

"My soul doth magnify the Lord,

of His handmaiden;

for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

and holy is His name.

from generation to generation.

He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup>He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

and the rich He hath sent away empty.

in remembrance of His mercy,

to Abraham and to his seed for ever."*

<sup>59</sup>And it came to pass that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. <sup>60</sup>But his mother answered and said, "Not so, but he shall be called John." <sup>61</sup>And they said unto her, "There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name." <sup>62</sup>And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. <sup>63</sup>And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote, saying, "His name is John." And they marveled all. <sup>64</sup>And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke and praised God. <sup>65</sup>And fear came on all who dwelt round about them; and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup>And all those who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What manner of child shall this be?" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

for He hath visited and redeemed His people,

<sup>69</sup>and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David.*

who have been since the world began,

<sup>71</sup>that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us,

<sup>72</sup>to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant,

<sup>74</sup>that He would grant unto us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear,

<sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

<sup>76</sup>And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,*

<sup>77</sup>to give knowledge of salvation unto His people by the remission of their sins,

<sup>78</sup>through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the Dayspring from on High hath visited us,*

<sup>79</sup>to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace." ♦

<sup>80</sup>And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts until the day of his appearing unto Israel.

♦♦ And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed.* <sup>2</sup>(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup>And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph also went up from Galilee out of the city of Nazareth into Judea, unto the city of David which is called Bethlehem (because he was of the house and lineage of David)* <sup>5</sup>to be taxed with Mary, his espoused wife, who was great with child. <sup>6</sup>And so it was that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. <sup>7</sup>And she brought forth her first-born Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

<sup>8</sup>And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup>And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid. <sup>10</sup>And the angel said unto them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. <sup>11</sup>For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup>And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

and on earth peace, good will toward men!"

<sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, when the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us." <sup>16</sup>And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. <sup>17</sup>And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this Child. <sup>18</sup>And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup>But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

<sup>21</sup>And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the Child, His name was called JESUS, who was so named by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.*

<sup>22</sup>And when the days of her purification according to the Law of Moses were accomplished,* they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup>(as it is written in the law of the Lord: "Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord"*), <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord: "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."**

<sup>25</sup>And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup>And he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for Him after the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup>he took Him up in his arms, and blessed God and said,

*4 Mt 2:5,6, Lk 2:4, Jn 7:42. *21 Gen 17:12, Lev 12:3, Mt 1:21. *22 Lev 12:2. *23 Ex 13:2,15, Num 3:13, 8:16, 18:15. *24 Lev 12:8.

according to Thy word;

and the glory of Thy people Israel."*

<sup>36</sup>And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher. She was of great age and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, <sup>37</sup>and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years. She departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. <sup>38</sup>And she, coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spoke of Him to all they that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup>And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their own city, Nazareth.* <sup>40</sup>And the Child grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon Him.

<sup>41</sup>Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover.* <sup>42</sup>And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast. <sup>43</sup>And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and His mother knew not of it. <sup>44</sup>But they, supposing Him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup>And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking Him. <sup>46</sup>And it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. <sup>48</sup>And when they saw Him they were amazed, and His mother said unto Him, "Son, why hast Thou thus dealt with us? Behold, Thy father and I have sought Thee sorrowing." <sup>49</sup>And He said unto them,

"How is it that ye sought Me? Knew ye not that I must be about My Father's business?"

*32 Isa 42:6. *34-35 Isa 8:14, Rom 9:32. *39 Mt 2:19-23, Lk 2:39,40. *41 Dt 16:1.

<sup>51</sup>And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them. But His mother kept all these things in her heart.
<sup>52</sup>And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man:

‘Prepare ye the way of the Lord,
 make His paths straight.

 and every mountain and hill shall be brought low;
 and the crooked shall be made straight,
 and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

<sup>7</sup>Then said he to the multitude who came forth to be baptized by him, “O generation of vipers! Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup>Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say among yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I say unto you, that God is able from these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. <sup>9</sup>And now also the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.” <sup>10</sup>And the people asked him, saying, “What shall we do then?” <sup>11</sup>He answered and said unto them, “He that hath two coats, let him give to him that hath none. And he that hath meat, let him do likewise.”*

<sup>12</sup>Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, “Master, what shall we do?” <sup>13</sup>And he said unto them, “Exact no more than that which is appointed you.” <sup>14</sup>And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, “And what shall we do?” And he said unto them, “Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup>And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts whether John was the Christ or not. <sup>16</sup>John answered, saying unto them all, "I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I cometh, the straps of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose. He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.* <sup>17</sup>His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor and will gather the wheat into His garner; but the chaff He will burn with fire unquenchable."

*2 Mt 3:1-12, Mk 1:1-8, Lk 3:1-18. *3 Jn 1:6. *4-6 Isa 40:3-5, Jn 1:23. *6 Isa 52:10. *11 Jas 2:15-16, 1 Jn 3:17.

<sup>18</sup>And with many other exhortations, preached he unto the people. ♦ <sup>19</sup>But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,* and for all the evils which Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

♦<sup>21</sup>Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized. And while He prayed the heaven was opened,* <sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from Heaven, which said, "THOU ART MY BELOVED SON; IN THEE I AM WELL PLEASED." ♦

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus Himself had become about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, who was the son of Heli,* <sup>24</sup>who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Janna, who was the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup>who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Amos, who was the son of Nahum, who was the son of Esli, who was the son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup>who was the son of Maath, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Semei, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Juda, <sup>27</sup>who was the son of Joanna, who was the son of Rhesa, who was the son of Zerubbabel, who was the son of Shealtiel, who was the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup>who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Addi, who was the son of Cosam, who was the son of Elmodam, who was the son of Er, <sup>29</sup>who was the son of Jose, who was the son of Eliezer, who was the son of Jorim, who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup>who was the son of Simeon, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Jonan, who was the son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup> who was the son of Melea, who was the son of Menan, who was the son of Mattatha, who was the son of Nathan, who was the son of David, <sup>32</sup>who was the son of Jesse, who was the son of Obed, who was the son of Boaz, who was the son of Salmon, who was the son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup>who was the son of Amminadab, who was the son of Aram, who was the son of Hezron, who was the son of Perez, who was the son of Judah, <sup>34</sup>who was the son of Jacob, who was the son of Isaac, who was the son of Abraham, who was the son of Terah, who was the son of Nahor,* <sup>35</sup>who was the son of Serug, who was the son of Reu, who was the son of Peleg, who was the son of Eber, who was the son of Shelah, <sup>36</sup>who was the son of Cainan, who was the son of

♦♦<sup>1</sup>And Jesus, being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,* <sup>2</sup>and for forty days was tempted by the devil. And in those days He ate nothing, and afterward when they were ended, He hungered. <sup>3</sup>And the devil said unto Him, "If Thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread." <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered him, saying,

"It is written: 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"*

<sup>5</sup>And the devil, taking Him up onto a high mountain, showed unto Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup>And the devil said unto Him, "All this power will I give Thee, and the glory of them; for this has been delivered unto me and to whomsoever I will give it. <sup>7</sup>If Thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be Thine." <sup>8</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Get thee behind Me, Satan! For it is written: 'Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.'"* <sup>9</sup>And he brought Him to Jerusalem, and set Him on a pinnacle of the temple and said unto Him, "If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down from hence. <sup>10</sup>For it is written:

*'He shall give His angels charge over thee to keep thee,'**

<sup>11</sup>and,

'In their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.'"

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus answering said unto him, ..

"It is said, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'"*

<sup>13</sup>And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from Him for a season.

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and His fame went out through all the region round about. <sup>15</sup>And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.* <sup>16</sup>And He came to Nazareth where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read.* <sup>17</sup>And there was delivered unto Him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

*<sup>18</sup>"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He hath anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor.
He hath sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind,
to set at liberty them that are bruised,*

<sup>20</sup>And He closed the book, and He gave it again to the minister and sat down. And the eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fastened on Him. <sup>21</sup>And He began to say unto them,

"This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears."

<sup>22</sup>And all bore Him witness and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" <sup>23</sup>And He said unto them,

"Ye will surely say unto Me this proverb: 'Physician, heal thyself! Whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.'"

<sup>24</sup>And He said,

*"Verily I say unto you, no prophet is accepted in his own country.* <sup>25</sup>But I tell you in truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land. <sup>26</sup>But unto none of them was Elijah sent, except unto Zarephath, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.* <sup>27</sup>And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed, except Naaman the Syrian."**

<sup>28</sup>Then all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, <sup>29</sup>and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him unto the brow of a hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong. <sup>30</sup>But He, passing through the midst of them, went His way.♦

man, who had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,* <sup>34</sup>saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with Thee, Thou Jesus of Nazareth? Art Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee and who Thou art—the Holy One of God!" <sup>35</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying,

"Hold thy peace, and come out of him!"

And when the devil had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him and hurt him not. <sup>36</sup>And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word is this! For with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out." <sup>37</sup>And His fame went out into every place in the country round about.

<sup>38</sup>And He arose out of the synagogue and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought Him for her.* <sup>39</sup>And He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

<sup>40</sup>Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them. <sup>41</sup>And devils also came out of many, crying out and saying, "Thou art Christ, the Son of God!" And He, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak; for they knew that He was Christ.

<sup>42</sup>And when it was day, He departed and went into a desert place. And the people sought Him and came unto Him and would have stayed Him, that He should not depart from them.* <sup>43</sup>But He said unto them,

"I must preach the Kingdom of God to other cities also, for therefore am I sent."

"Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draft."

<sup>5</sup>And Simon answering said unto Him, "Master, we have toiled all the night and have taken nothing. Nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net." <sup>6</sup>And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fish, and their net began to break. <sup>7</sup>And they beckoned unto their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." <sup>9</sup>For he was astonished, and all those who were with him, at the draft of the fish which they had taken; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon,

"Fear not. From henceforth thou shalt catch men."

<sup>11</sup>And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him. ♦

<sup>12</sup>And it came to pass when He was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy, seeing Jesus, fell on his face and besought Him, saying, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."* <sup>13</sup>And He put forth His hand and touched him, saying,

"I will; be thou clean."

And immediately the leprosy departed from him. <sup>14</sup>And He charged him to tell no man, but,

"Go and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing according as Moses commanded, as a testimony unto them."

<sup>15</sup>But so much the more His fame spread abroad, and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.

<sup>17</sup>And it came to pass on a certain day as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.* <sup>18</sup>And behold, men brought in on a bed a man who was taken with a palsy, and they sought means to bring him in and to lay him before Him. <sup>19</sup>And when they could not find a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down on his couch through the tiling into the midst before Jesus.

"Man, thy sins are forgiven thee."

<sup>21</sup>And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?" <sup>22</sup>But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answering said unto them, *12 Lev 14:2-32, Mt 8:1-4, Mk 1:40-45. *17 Mt 9:2-8, Mk 2:1-12.

"What reason ye in your hearts: <sup>23</sup>whether it is easier, to say, 'Thy sins be forgiven thee,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'? <sup>24</sup>But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power upon earth to forgive sins,"

He said unto the one sick with the palsy,

"I say unto thee, arise and take up thy couch and go into thine house."

<sup>25</sup>And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>And they were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

<sup>27</sup>And after these things He went forth and saw a publican named Levi, sitting in the customhouse, and He said unto him,

<sup>29</sup>And Levi made Him a great feast in his own house, and there was a great company of publicans and of others who sat down with them.

"They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. <sup>32</sup>I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>33</sup>And they said unto Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees, but thine eat and drink?"* <sup>34</sup>And He said unto them,

"Can ye make the attendants of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days."

<sup>36</sup>And He spoke also a parable unto them:

"No man a piece of new garment upon an old; otherwise, both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old. <sup>37</sup>And no man putteth new wine into old wineskins; else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins shall perish. <sup>38</sup>But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved. <sup>39</sup>No man also, having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new; for he saith, 'The old is better.'"

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass on the second Sabbath after the first, that He went through the cornfields. And His disciples plucked the ears of corn, and rubbing them in their hands, ate them.* <sup>2</sup>And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, "Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath days?" <sup>3</sup>And Jesus answering them said,

"Have ye not read so much as this, what David did when he himself hungered and they that were with him, <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God, and took and ate the showbread and gave also to them that were with him, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?"

<sup>5</sup>And He said unto them,

"The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

<sup>6</sup>And it came to pass also on another Sabbath, that He entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered.* <sup>7</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees watched Him to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath day, that they might find an accusation against Him. <sup>8</sup>But He knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand,

"Rise up and stand forth in the midst."

And he arose and stood forth. <sup>9</sup>Then said Jesus unto them,

"I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it?"

<sup>10</sup>And looking round about upon them all, He said unto the man,

"Stretch forth thy hand."

And he did so, and his hand was restored whole as the other. <sup>11</sup>And they were filled with madness, and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>And it came to pass in those days that He went out onto a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.* <sup>13</sup>And when it was day, He called unto Him His disciples, and from them He chose twelve, whom also He named apostles: <sup>14</sup>Simon (whom He also named Peter), and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup>Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot, <sup>16</sup>and Judas the brother of James,* and Judas Iscariot who also was the traitor. ♦♦<sup>17</sup>And He came down with them and stood on the plain with the company of His disciples and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, <sup>18</sup>and those who were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed. <sup>19</sup>And the whole multitude sought to touch Him, for there went virtue out of Him and healed them all.

*"Blessed be ye poor,
for yours is the Kingdom of God.**

for ye shall be filled.*

*Blessed are ye that weep now,
for ye shall laugh.*

<sup>22</sup>Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company,

and shall reproach you and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

<sup>23</sup>*Rejoice ye in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in Heaven;
for in like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.*

for ye have received your consolation.*

for ye shall hunger.*

*Woe unto you that laugh now,
for ye shall mourn and weep.**

<sup>26</sup>Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup>*"But I say unto you that hear: Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you. <sup>28</sup>Bless them that curse you, and pray for them that despitefully use you. <sup>29</sup>And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also. <sup>30</sup>Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not back.* <sup>31</sup>And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. <sup>32</sup>For if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? For sinners also love those that love them. <sup>33</sup>And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have* ye? For sinners also do even the same. <sup>34</sup>And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? For sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. <sup>35</sup>But love ye your enemies, and do good and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest; for He is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. <sup>36</sup>Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

49But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house without a foundation upon the earth, against which the stream beat vehemently, and immediately it fell. And the ruin of that house was great."

<sup>1</sup>Now when He had ended all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered into Capernaum.* <sup>2</sup>And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. <sup>3</sup>And when he heard of Jesus, he sent the elders of the Jews unto Him, beseeching Him that He would come and heal his servant. <sup>4</sup>And when they came to Jesus they besought Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was worthy, <sup>5</sup>"for he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue." <sup>6</sup>And Jesus went with them. And when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying unto Him, "Lord, trouble not Thyself, for I am not worthy that Thou shouldest enter under my roof. <sup>7</sup>Therefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto Thee. But say the word, and my servant shall be healed. <sup>8</sup>For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers. And I say unto one, 'Go', and he goeth; and to another, 'Come,' and he cometh; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he doeth it." <sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned about and said unto the people who followed Him,

"I say unto you, I have not found so great a faith, no, not in Israel."

<sup>10</sup>And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole who had been sick.

<sup>11</sup>And it came to pass the next day, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and many people. <sup>12</sup>Now when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And many people of the city were with her. <sup>13</sup>And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said unto her,

"Weep not."

<sup>14</sup>And He came and touched the bier, and those who bore him stood still. And He said,

"Young man, I say unto thee, arise."

*1 Mt 8:5-13.

<sup>15</sup>And he that was dead sat up and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother. <sup>16</sup>And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet is risen up among us"; and, "God hath visited His people." <sup>17</sup>And this report of Him went forth throughout all Judea and throughout all the region round about. ♦

<sup>18</sup>And the disciples of John told him of all these things.* <sup>19</sup>And John, calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus asking, "Art thou He that should come, or look we for another?" <sup>20</sup>When the men had come unto Him, they said, "John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, asking, 'Art thou He that should come, or look we for another?'" <sup>21</sup>And in that same hour He cured many of their infirmities and plagues and of evil spirits, and unto many who were blind He gave sight. <sup>22</sup>Then Jesus answering said unto them,

"Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard: how the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and to the poor the Gospel is preached. <sup>23</sup>And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in Me."

<sup>24</sup>And when the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak unto the people concerning John:

"What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously appareled and live luxuriously are in kings' courts. <sup>26</sup>But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he, of whom it is written:

*'Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face,

<sup>28</sup>For I say unto you, among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist; but he that is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

<sup>29</sup>And all the people that heard Him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized by him.

*"Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? And to what are they like?*" <sup>32</sup>They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another and saying,*

'We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced;

we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.'

♦<sup>36</sup>And one of the Pharisees desired Him that He would eat with him. And He went into the Pharisee's house and sat down to meat.*

<sup>37</sup>And behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, <sup>38</sup>and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and began to wash His feet with tears and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed His feet and anointed them with the ointment. <sup>39</sup>Now when the Pharisee who had bidden Him saw it, he spoke to himself, saying, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is who toucheth him, for she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup>And Jesus answering said unto him,

"Simon, I have something to say unto thee."

And he said, "Master, say on."

<sup>41</sup>"There was a certain creditor that had two debtors. The one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup>And when they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?"

<sup>43</sup>Simon answered and said, "I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And He said unto him,

"Thou hast rightly judged."

<sup>44</sup>And He turned to the woman and said unto Simon,

"Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house: Thou gavest Me no water for My feet; but she hath washed My feet with tears and wiped them with the hair of her head.

"Thy sins are forgiven."

<sup>49</sup>And those who sat at meat with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this that forgiveth sins also?" <sup>50</sup>And He said unto the woman,

"Thy faith hath saved thee. Go in peace."

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass afterward that He went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the Kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him, <sup>2</sup>and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,* <sup>3</sup>and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who ministered unto Him from their substance. ♦

<sup>5</sup>"A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. <sup>6</sup>And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it had sprung up, it withered away because it lacked moisture. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. <sup>8</sup>And other fell on good ground, and sprang up and bore fruit a hundred-fold."

And when He had said these things, He cried,

<sup>9</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, "What might this parable mean?" <sup>10</sup>And He said,

"Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; but to others in parables, that

'seeing they might not see,

<sup>12</sup>Those by the wayside are they that hear; then cometh the devil and taketh away the Word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup>The seed on the rock are they that, when they hear, receive the Word with joy, but they have no root; they for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. <sup>14</sup>And that which fell among thorns are they that, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. <sup>15</sup>But that on the good ground are they that, in an honest and good heart, having heard the Word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 "No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel or putteth it under a bed, but setteth it on a candlestick, that they that enter in may see the light.* 17 For nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.* 18 Take heed therefore how ye hear, for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have."*

19 Then came to Him His mother and His brethren, and could not come near Him because of the crowd.* 20 And it was told to Him by certain ones, who said, "Thy mother and thy brethren stand outside, desiring to see thee." 21 And He answered and said unto them,

"My mother and My brethren are these who hear the Word of God, and do it."

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that He went into a boat with His disciples.* And He said unto them,

"Let us go over unto the other side of the lake."

And they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed, He fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filling with water and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we perish!" Then He arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And He said unto them,

"Where is your faith?"

And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, "What manner of man is this? For he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him!"

♦♦26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.* 27 And when He went forth to land, there met Him from the city a certain man who had had devils a long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Thou Son of God Most High? I beseech Thee, torment me not!" 29 (For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the devil into the wilderness.) 30 And Jesus asked him, saying,

"What is thy name?"

And he said, "Legion," because many devils had entered into him.

*16 Mt 5:15, Mk 4:21. *17 Mt 10:26, Mk 4:22, Lk 12:2. *18 Mt 13:12, 25:29, Mk 4:25, Lk 19:26.

*19 Mt 12:46-50, Mk 3:19-21, 31-35. *22 Mt 8:18-27, Mk 4:35-47. *26 Mt 8:28-34, Mk 5:1-20.

<sup>31</sup>And they besought Him that He would not command them to go out into the deep. <sup>32</sup>And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain. And they besought Him that He would suffer them to enter into them. And He suffered them. <sup>33</sup>Then went the devils out of the man and entered into the swine, and the herd ran violently down a steep slope into the lake and were drowned. <sup>34</sup>When those who fed them saw what was done, they fled and went and told it in the city and in the country. <sup>35</sup>Then they went out to see what was done. And they came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind. And they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Those also who had seen it told them by what means he that had been possessed of the devils was healed. <sup>37</sup>Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes and round about besought Him to depart from them, for they were taken with great fear. And He went up into the boat, and returned back again.

<sup>38</sup>Now the man out of whom the devils had departed, besought Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying,

And he went his way, and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done unto him. ♦

<sup>40</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had returned, the people gladly received Him, for they were all waiting for Him.* <sup>41</sup>And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and besought Him that He would come into his house, <sup>42</sup>for he had one daughter only, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying.

But as He went, the people thronged Him. <sup>43</sup>And a woman having an issue of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians but could not be healed by any, <sup>44</sup>came behind Him and touched the border of His garment; and immediately her issue of blood was stanch'd. <sup>45</sup>And Jesus said,

"Who touched Me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those who were with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, 'Who touched me?'" <sup>46</sup>And Jesus said,

"Somebody hath touched Me, for I perceive that virtue is gone out of Me."

<sup>47</sup>And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before Him, she declared unto Him before all the people for what cause she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup>And He said unto her,

"Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. Go in peace."

<sup>49</sup>While He yet spoke, there came one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Thy daughter is dead. Trouble not the Master." <sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying,

"Fear not; believe only, and she shall be made whole."

<sup>51</sup>And when He came into the house, He suffered no man to go in except Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. <sup>52</sup>And all wept and bewailed her, but He said,

"Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth."

<sup>53</sup>And they laughed Him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. <sup>54</sup>And He put them all out, and took her by the hand and called, saying,

"Maid, arise."

<sup>55</sup>And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway, and He commanded to give her meat. <sup>56</sup>And her parents were astonished, but He charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

<sup>1</sup>Then He called His twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils and to cure diseases.* <sup>2</sup>And He sent them to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>And He said unto them,

*"Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor pack, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.* <sup>4</sup>And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide and thence depart. <sup>5</sup>And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them."*

<sup>7</sup>Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that had been done by Him. And he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John was risen from the dead;* <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets was risen again. <sup>9</sup>And Herod said, "John have I beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" And he desired to see Him.

<sup>10</sup>And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. And He took them and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.* <sup>11</sup>And the people, when they learned of it, followed Him. And He received them and spoke unto them of the Kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

<sup>12</sup>And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve and said unto Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about and lodge and get provisions, for we are here in a desert place. <sup>13</sup>But He said to them,

"Give ye them to eat."

And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we should go and buy meat for all these people." <sup>14</sup>For they were about five thousand men. And He said to His disciples,

"Make them sit down by fifties in a company."

<sup>15</sup>And they did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup>Then He took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to Heaven, He blessed them and broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>17</sup>And they ate and were all filled, and there were taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

<sup>18</sup>And it came to pass as He was alone praying, His disciples were with Him, and He asked them, saying,

*"Who say the people that I am?"**

<sup>19</sup>They answering said, "John the Baptist; but some say Elijah, and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again." <sup>20</sup>He said to them,

"But who say ye that I am?"

Peter answering said, "The Christ of God!" <sup>21</sup>And He strictly charged them and commanded them to tell no man this thing, <sup>22</sup>saying,

*"The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and scribes, and be slain and be raised the third day."**

<sup>23</sup>And He said to them all,

*"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow Me.* <sup>24</sup>For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his life for My sake, the same shall save it. <sup>25</sup>For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself or be cast away? <sup>26</sup>For whosoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My words, of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed when He shall come in His own glory and in His Father's and of the holy angels.* <sup>27</sup>But I tell you in truth, there are some standing here that shall not taste of death until they see the Kingdom of God."*

♦♦<sup>28</sup>And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, He took Peter and John and James, and went up onto a mountain to pray.*
<sup>29</sup>And as He prayed, the appearance of His countenance was altered, and His raiment was white and glistening. <sup>30</sup>And behold, there talked with Him two men, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who appeared in glory and spoke of His decease which He should accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>But Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep. And when they awakened, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him. <sup>33</sup>And it came to pass as they departed from Him, Peter said unto Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he was saying. <sup>34</sup>While he thus spoke, there came a cloud and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup>And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "THIS IS MY BELOVED SON. HEAR HIM!" <sup>36</sup>And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>And it came to pass that on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, many people met Him.* <sup>38</sup>And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, "Master, I beseech Thee, look upon my son, for he is mine only child. <sup>39</sup>And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him so that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him. <sup>40</sup>And I besought Thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not." <sup>41</sup>And Jesus answering said,

"O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and suffer you? Bring thy son hither."

<sup>42</sup>And as he was yet coming, the devil threw him down and tore him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. <sup>43</sup>And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God.

But while they wondered every one at all the things which Jesus did, He said unto His disciples,♦

*"Let these sayings sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man shall be delivered into the hands of men."**

<sup>45</sup>But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not; and they were afraid to ask Him about that saying.

<sup>46</sup>Then there arose a reasoning among them as to which of them should be greatest.* <sup>47</sup>And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child and set him by Him, <sup>48</sup>and said unto them,

"Whosoever shall receive this child in My name receiveth Me; and whosoever shall receive Me receiveth Him that sent Me. For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great."

<sup>49</sup>And John answered and said, "Master, we saw one casting out devils in Thy name, and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us." <sup>50</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Forbid him not; for he that is not against us, is for us."

♦<sup>51</sup>And it came to pass, when the time had come that He should be received up, He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, <sup>52</sup>and He sent messengers before His face. And they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for Him: <sup>53</sup>But they did not receive Him, because His face was set toward Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, wilt Thou that we command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did?"* <sup>55</sup>But He turned and rebuked them and said,

"Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. <sup>56</sup>For the Son of Man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

And they went to another village. <sup>57</sup>And it came to pass that, as they went along the way, a certain man said unto Him, "Lord, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest."* <sup>58</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man hath nowhere to lay His head."

<sup>59</sup>And He said unto another,

"Follow Me."

But he said, "Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father." <sup>60</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"Let the dead bury their dead, but go thou and preach the Kingdom of God."

<sup>61</sup>And another also said, "Lord, I will follow Thee, but let me first go bid those farewell who are at home at my house." <sup>62</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"No man, having put his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God."

*"The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest.** <sup>3</sup>*Go your ways; behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves,** <sup>4</sup>carrying neither purse, nor pack, nor shoes; and salute no man by the way. <sup>5</sup>And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' <sup>6</sup>And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it; if not, it shall return to you again. <sup>7</sup>*And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give, for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.** <sup>8</sup>And into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. <sup>9</sup>*And heal the sick that are therein and say unto them, 'The Kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.*'* <sup>10</sup>But into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same and say, <sup>11</sup>'Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you. Notwithstanding, be ye sure of this: that the Kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.' <sup>12</sup>But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, "Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through Thy name." <sup>18</sup>And He said unto them,

"I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. <sup>19</sup>Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. <sup>20</sup>Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice because your names are written in Heaven." ♦

*2 Mt 9:37. *3 Mt 10:16. *5 Mt 10:11. *7 Mt 10:10, 1 Tm 5:18. *9 Mt 10:7. *13 Mt 11:21.

*16 Mt 10:40, Jn 13:20.

<sup>21</sup>In that hour Jesus rejoiced in Spirit and said,
*"I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, that Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight.** <sup>22</sup>All things are delivered to Me by My Father, and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son and he to whom the Son will reveal Him."

<sup>23</sup>And He turned unto His disciples and said privately,
*"Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.** <sup>24</sup>For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them."

♦<sup>25</sup>And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying,
*"Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"** <sup>26</sup>He said unto him,
"What is written in the law? How readest thou?"

<sup>27</sup>And he answering said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.'"<sup>28</sup> And He said unto him,
"Thou hast answered right; this do, and thou shalt live."

<sup>29</sup>But he, wanting to justify himself, said unto Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" <sup>30</sup>And Jesus answering said,

*"A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his raiment and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>And by chance there came down a certain priest that way. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him and passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was.
 And when he saw him he had compassion on him, <sup>34</sup>and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host and said unto him, 'Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee.'*
<sup>36</sup>Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves?"

<sup>37</sup>And he said, "He that showed mercy on him." Then said Jesus unto him,

*21 Mt 11:25. *23 Mt 13:16. *25 Mt 22:35, Mk 12:28. *27 Dt 6:5, Lev 19:18.

"Go and do thou likewise."

<sup>38</sup>Now it came to pass as they went, that He entered into a certain village; and a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house. <sup>39</sup>And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard His Word. <sup>40</sup>But Martha was encumbered with much serving, and came to Him and said, "Lord, dost Thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore that she help me."
<sup>41</sup>And Jesus answered and said unto her,

"Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things. <sup>42</sup>But one thing is needful, and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass that as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His disciples said unto Him, "Lord, teach us to pray as John also taught his disciples." <sup>2</sup>And He said unto them,

"When ye pray, say:

Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy Kingdom come.

*Thy will be done,
as in Heaven, so on earth.*

<sup>4</sup>And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."*

"Which of you shall have a friend and shall go unto him at midnight and say unto him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, <sup>6</sup>for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him'; <sup>7</sup>and he from within shall answer and say, 'Trouble me not; the door is now shut and my children are with me in bed, and I cannot rise and give to thee'? <sup>8</sup>I say unto you, though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his

*importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. <sup>9</sup>And I say unto you: ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.* <sup>10</sup>For every one that asketh receiveth, and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.*

<sup>11</sup>If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? <sup>12</sup>Or if he shall ask for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?"♦

*<sup>14</sup>And He was casting out a devil; and it was dumb. And it came to pass when the devil had gone out, the dumb one spoke; and the people wondered.* <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, "He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils."* <sup>16</sup>And others, testing Him, sought from Him a sign from Heaven. <sup>17</sup>But He, knowing their thoughts, said unto them,*

*"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. <sup>18</sup>If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand—because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub? <sup>19</sup>And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore shall they be your judges.* <sup>20</sup>But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, doubt not the Kingdom of God is come upon you. <sup>21</sup>When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace. <sup>22</sup>But when one stronger than he shall come upon him and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. <sup>23</sup>He that is not with Me, is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me, scattereth.*

*<sup>24</sup>When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, 'I will return unto my house whence I came out.* <sup>25</sup>And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and prepared. <sup>26</sup>Then he goeth and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first."*

of the company lifted up her voice and said unto Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore Thee and the breasts which Thou hast sucked."<sup>28</sup> But He said,

*"Yea rather, blessed rather are they that hear the Word of God and keep it."**

<sup>29</sup> And when the people were gathered thick together, He began to say,

*"This is an evil generation. They seek a sign, and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet.**

<sup>30</sup> *For as Jonah was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of Man be to this generation.** <sup>31</sup> *The queen of the South shall rise up in the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.** <sup>32</sup> The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the Judgment with this generation and shall condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>33</sup> *"No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they that come in may see the light.** <sup>34</sup> *The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light. But when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.** <sup>35</sup> Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. <sup>36</sup> If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light."

<sup>37</sup> And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee besought Him to dine with him. And He went in and sat down to meat. <sup>38</sup> And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that He had not first washed before dinner. <sup>39</sup> And the Lord said unto him,

*"Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter, but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.** <sup>40</sup> Ye fools! Did not He that made that which is without, make that which is within also? <sup>41</sup> But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and behold, all things are clean unto you.

<sup>45</sup>Then answered one of the lawyers and said unto Him, "Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also." <sup>46</sup>And He said,

*"Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! For ye laden men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe unto you! For ye build the sepulchers of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.* <sup>48</sup>Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them; and ye build their sepulchers.*

<sup>49</sup>"Therefore also said the wisdom of God: 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute,' <sup>50</sup>that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the temple. Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup>Woe unto you, lawyers! For ye have taken away the key of knowledge. Ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in, ye hindered."*

<sup>53</sup>And as He said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press Him vehemently and to provoke Him to speak of many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in wait for Him and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>In the meantime, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trod one upon another, He began to say unto His disciples first of all, whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

<sup>4</sup>"And I say unto you, My friends, be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. <sup>5</sup>But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear Him that, after He hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, fear Him! <sup>6</sup>Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? <sup>7</sup>But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup>"Also I say unto you, whosoever shall confess Me before men, him shall the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God.* <sup>9</sup>But he that denieth Me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.* <sup>10</sup>And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven.*

<sup>11</sup>"And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say.* <sup>12</sup>For the Holy Spirit shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say."

♦<sup>13</sup>And one of the company said unto Him, "Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me." <sup>14</sup>And He said unto him,

"Man, who made Me a judge or a divider over you?"

<sup>15</sup>And He said unto them,

"Take heed and beware of covetousness, for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth."

<sup>16</sup>And He spoke a parable unto them, saying,
 "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully. <sup>17</sup>And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, because I have no room to store my fruits?' <sup>18</sup>And he said, 'This will I do. I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there will I store all my fruits and my goods. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years. Take thine ease; eat, drink, and be merry.' <sup>20</sup>But God said unto him, 'Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee. Then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?' <sup>21</sup>So is he that layeth up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God." ♦

<sup>22</sup>And He said unto His disciples,

"Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.* <sup>23</sup>The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment. <sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap, they neither have storehouse nor barn, and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls? <sup>25</sup>And which of you by taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? <sup>26</sup>If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest? <sup>27</sup>Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>28</sup>If then God so clothe the grass, which is today in the field and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O ye of little faith?

*if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not have suffered his house to be broken into.** <sup>40</sup>Be ye therefore ready also, for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not." ♦

*"Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?** <sup>43</sup>Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing. <sup>44</sup>In truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. <sup>45</sup>But if that servant say in his heart, 'My lord delayeth his coming,' and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink and be drunken, <sup>46</sup>the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him asunder and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. <sup>47</sup>And that servant, who knew his lord's will and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. <sup>48</sup>But he that knew not and committed things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

♦♦<sup>49</sup>"I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?. <sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to be baptised with, and how I am straitened until it be accomplished! <sup>51</sup>*Suppose ye that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather division.** <sup>52</sup>For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided: three against two, and two against three. <sup>53</sup>The father shall be divided against the son and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

<sup>54</sup>And He said also to the people,

*"When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, 'There cometh a shower'; and so it is.** <sup>55</sup>And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, 'There will be heat'; and it cometh to pass. <sup>56</sup>Ye hypocrites! Ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it that ye do not discern this time? ♦

*<sup>57</sup>“Yea, and why even for yourselves judge ye not what is right? <sup>58</sup>When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art on the way, be diligent that thou mayest be delivered from him, lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.* <sup>59</sup>I tell thee, thou shall not depart thence until thou hast paid the very last mite.”*

CHAPTER 13

“Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup>I tell you, nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen upon whom the tower of Siloam fell and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all other men that dwelt in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>I tell you, nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

<sup>6</sup>He spoke also this parable:

*“A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. <sup>7</sup>Then said he unto the keeper of his vineyard, ‘Behold, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down. Why cumbereth it the ground?’ <sup>8</sup>And he answering said unto him, ‘Lord, let it alone this year also, until I shall dig around it and dung it. <sup>9</sup>And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.’”**

<sup>10</sup>And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. <sup>11</sup>And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years, and was bowed down and could in no way lift herself up. <sup>12</sup>And when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said unto her,

<sup>13</sup>And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. <sup>14</sup>But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, "There are six days in which men ought to work; in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day."*

<sup>15</sup>The Lord then answered him and said,

"Thou hypocrite! Doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall and lead him away to watering? <sup>16</sup>And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>17</sup>And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed; and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him. ♦

<sup>18</sup>Then said He,

*"What is the Kingdom of God like? And unto what shall I compare it?*" <sup>19</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew and waxed a great tree, and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it."*

<sup>20</sup>And again He said,

"Unto what shall I liken the Kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened."

<sup>22</sup>And He went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem.* <sup>23</sup>Then said one unto Him, "Lord, are there few who are saved?" And He said unto them,

*<sup>24</sup>"Strive to enter in at the narrow gate, for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in and shall not be able.* <sup>25</sup>When once the master of the house is risen up and hath shut the door, and ye begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open unto us,' and He shall answer and say unto you, 'I know you not from whence ye are,' <sup>26</sup>then shall ye begin to say, 'We have eaten and drunk in Thy presence, and Thou hast taught in our streets.' <sup>27</sup>But He shall say, 'I tell you, I know you not from whence ye are. Depart from Me, all ye workers of iniquity.'*" <sup>28</sup>There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. <sup>29</sup>And they shall come from the east and from* the west, and from the north and from the south, and shall sit down in the Kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>And behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last."*

♦♦<sup>31</sup>The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto Him, "Get thee out and depart hence, for Herod will kill thee." <sup>32</sup>And He said unto them,

"Go ye and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out devils and I do cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.' <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless I must walk today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup>*O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!** <sup>35</sup>Behold, your house is left unto you desolate; and verily I say unto you, ye shall not see Me until the time come when ye shall say, 'Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.'"*

CHAPTER 14

"Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>4</sup>But they remained silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go. <sup>5</sup>And He answered them, saying,

"Which of you shall have an ox or an ass fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?"

♦♦<sup>7</sup>And He put forth a parable to those who were invited, when He marked how they chose out the chief places, saying unto them,

"When thou art bidden by any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest place, lest a more honorable man than thou be bidden by him, <sup>9</sup>and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, 'Give this man thy place,' and thou *begin with shame to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup>But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then shalt thou have worth in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.* <sup>11</sup>For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."**

<sup>12</sup>Then said He also to him who invited Him, "When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen nor thy rich neighbors, lest they also bid thee again and a recompense be made to thee. <sup>13</sup>But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind, <sup>14</sup>and thou shalt be blessed, for they cannot recompense thee. For thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just." ♦

*"A certain man made a great supper and bade many. <sup>17</sup>And he sent his servant at suppertime to say to them that were bidden, 'Come, for all things are now ready.' <sup>18</sup>And they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said unto him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I need to go and see it. I pray thee have me excused.' <sup>19</sup>And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to test them. I pray thee have me excused.' <sup>20</sup>And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' <sup>21</sup>So that servant came and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and the maimed and the halt and the blind.' <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, 'Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.' <sup>23</sup>And the lord said unto the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I say unto you that none of those men who were bidden shall taste of my supper.'"**

♦<sup>25</sup>And there went great multitudes with Him, and He turned and said unto them,

<sup>26</sup>"If any man come to Me and hate not his father and mother, and wife and children, and brethren and sisters,

yea, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple.* <sup>27</sup>And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. <sup>28</sup>For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? <sup>29</sup>Lest it may happen, after he hath laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all who behold it begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup>saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' <sup>31</sup>Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an envoy and asketh conditions of peace. <sup>33</sup>So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be My disciple.♦

<sup>34</sup>"Salt is good; but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned?*" <sup>35</sup>It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>5</sup>And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup>And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' <sup>7</sup>I say unto you that likewise more joy shall be in Heaven over one sinner that repenteth, than over ninety and nine just persons who need no repentance.

<sup>8</sup>"Or what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle and sweep the house and seek diligently until she find it? <sup>9</sup>And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost!' <sup>10</sup>Likewise I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth."

"A certain man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me.' And he divided unto them his estate. <sup>13</sup>And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. <sup>14</sup>And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land, and he began to be in want. <sup>15</sup>And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. <sup>16</sup>And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine ate, and no man gave unto him. <sup>17</sup>And when he came to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! <sup>18</sup>I will arise and go to my father and will say unto him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee, <sup>19</sup>and am no more worthy to be called thy son. Make me as one of thy hired servants."' <sup>20</sup>And he arose and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>And the son said unto him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.' <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his servants, 'Bring forth the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet. <sup>23</sup>And bring hither the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; <sup>24</sup>for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to be merry.

<sup>25</sup>"Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. <sup>27</sup>And he said unto him, 'Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.' <sup>28</sup>And he was angry and would not go in; therefore came his father out and entreated him. <sup>29</sup>And he answering said to his father, 'Lo, these many years have I served thee, neither transgressed

I at any time thy commandment; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. <sup>30</sup>But as soon as this thy son was come who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.' <sup>31</sup>And he said unto him, 'Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. <sup>32</sup>It was meet that we should make merry and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.'"

"There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. <sup>2</sup>And he called him and said unto him, 'How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship, for thou mayest be no longer steward.' <sup>3</sup>Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my lord taketh away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. <sup>4</sup>I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.' <sup>5</sup>So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, 'How much owest thou unto my lord?' <sup>6</sup>And he said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take thy bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' <sup>7</sup>Then said he to another, 'And how much owest thou?' And he said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' And he said unto him, 'Take thy bill and write fourscore.' <sup>8</sup>And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely; for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. <sup>9</sup>And I say unto you, make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. <sup>10</sup>He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much. <sup>11</sup>If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? <sup>12</sup>And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? <sup>13</sup>No servant can serve two mas- *ters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."**♦

<sup>14</sup>And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided Him. <sup>15</sup>And He said unto them,

"Ye are they who justify yourselves before men, but God knoweth your hearts. For that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup>*"The Law and the Prophets were until John. Since that time the Kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.** <sup>17</sup>*And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than one tittle of the law to fail.**

<sup>20</sup>And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of sores <sup>21</sup>and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>22</sup>And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. <sup>23</sup>And in hell, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off and Lazarus in his bosom.

<sup>24</sup>And he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.' <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime received thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and thou art tormented.

<sup>26</sup>And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they who would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from there.' <sup>27</sup>Then he said, 'I pray thee therefore, father, that thou would send him to my father's house,

<sup>28</sup>for I have five brethren, that he may testify unto them lest they also come into this place of torment.' <sup>29</sup>Abraham said unto him, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.'

<sup>30</sup>And he said, 'Nay, father Abraham; but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.' <sup>31</sup>And Abraham

*13 Mt 6:24. *16 Mt 11:12. *17 Mt 5:18. *18 Mt 5:32, 19:9, Mk 10:11.

said unto him, 'If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.'" ♦

"It is impossible but that offenses will come, but woe unto him through whom they come!" <sup>2</sup>It were better for him that a millstone were hung about his neck and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall.

<sup>3</sup>*"Take heed to yourselves. If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.** <sup>4</sup>And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, 'I repent,' thou shalt forgive him."*

*"If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, 'Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea,'* and it should obey you. <sup>7</sup>But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by when he is come from the field, 'Go and sit down to meat'? <sup>8</sup>But will you not rather say unto him, 'Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself and serve me until I have eaten and drunk, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink'? <sup>9</sup>Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not! <sup>10</sup>So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done that which was our duty to do.'"*

<sup>11</sup>And it came to pass as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>And as He entered into a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, who stood afar off. <sup>13</sup>And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" <sup>14</sup>And when He saw them, He said unto them,

"Go, show yourselves unto the priests."*

And it came to pass that as they went, they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup>And one of them when he saw that he was healed, turned back and with a loud voice glorified God, <sup>16</sup>and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup>And Jesus answering said,

"Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?"

<sup>18</sup>There are none found that returned to give glory to God, except this stranger."

<sup>19</sup>And He said unto him,

"Arise; go thy way. Thy faith hath made thee whole." ♦

<sup>20</sup>And when the Pharisees had demanded of Him when the Kingdom of God should come, He answered them and said,

"The Kingdom of God cometh not with outward show.

<sup>22</sup>And He said unto the disciples,

*"The days will come when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and ye shall not see it. <sup>23</sup>And they shall say to you, 'See, here!' or 'See, there!' Go not after them, nor follow them.* <sup>24</sup>For as the lightning that lighteneth one part under heaven shineth unto the other part under heaven, so shall also the Son of Man be in His day.*

*<sup>28</sup>Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;* <sup>29</sup>but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.*

*<sup>30</sup>Even thus shall it be in the Day when the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>In that Day, he that shall be upon the housetop and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. <sup>32</sup>Remember Lot's wife.**

shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left. <sup>36</sup>Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left."

<sup>37</sup>And they answered and said unto Him, "Where, Lord?" And He said unto them,

"Wheresoever the body is, thither will the vultures be gathered together."

"There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, neither regarded man. <sup>3</sup>And there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, 'Avenge me of mine adversary.' <sup>4</sup>And for a while he would not, but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I fear not God nor regard man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow troubleth me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

<sup>6</sup>And the Lord said,

"Hear what the unjust judge saith. <sup>7</sup>And shall not God avenge His own elect, who cry day and night unto Him, though He bear long with them? <sup>8</sup>I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of Man cometh, shall He find faith on the earth?"

<sup>9</sup>And He spoke this parable unto certain ones who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

<sup>10</sup>"Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank Thee that I am not as other men are: extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' <sup>13</sup>And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' <sup>14</sup>I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other; for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted." *♦

<sup>15</sup>And they brought unto Him also infants, that He would touch them; but when His disciples saw it, they rebuked them.* <sup>16</sup>But Jesus called them unto Him and said,

"Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein."

<sup>18</sup>And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"* <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Why callest thou Me good? None is good but One, that is, God. <sup>20</sup>Thou knowest the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery.' 'Do not kill.' 'Do not steal.' 'Do not bear false witness.' 'Honor thy father and thy mother.'"*

<sup>21</sup>And he said, "All these have I kept from my youth up." <sup>22</sup>Now when Jesus heard these things, He said unto him,

"Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that thou hast and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow Me."

<sup>23</sup>And when he heard this he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup>And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, He said,

"How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the Kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>And those who heard it said, "Who then can be saved?" <sup>27</sup>And He said,

"The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter said, "Lo, we have left all and followed Thee." <sup>29</sup>And He said unto them,

"Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house or parents or brethren or wife or children for the Kingdom of God's sake, <sup>30</sup>who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting."

<sup>31</sup>Then He took unto Him the twelve and said unto them, *"Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man shall be accomplished.* <sup>32</sup>For He shall be delivered unto the*

*<sup>14</sup> Mt 23:12, Lk 14:11. *<sup>15</sup> Mt 19:13-15, Mk 10:13-16. *<sup>18</sup> Mt 19:16-30, Mk 10:17-31. *<sup>20</sup> Ex 20:12-16, Dt 5:16-20. *<sup>31</sup> Mt 20:17-19, 17:22, Mk 9:30,10:32-34, Lk 9:44, 24:7.

Gentiles, and shall be mocked and spitefully treated and spit upon; <sup>33</sup>and they shall scourge Him and put Him to death, and the third day He shall rise again."

<sup>34</sup>And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hidden from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

<sup>35</sup>And it came to pass that as He was coming nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging.* <sup>36</sup>And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant. <sup>37</sup>And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. <sup>38</sup>And he cried, saying, "Jesus, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>39</sup>And those who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cried out all the more, "Thou Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>40</sup>And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought unto Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, <sup>41</sup>saying,

"What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee?"

And he said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight." <sup>42</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Receive thy sight; thy faith hath saved thee."

<sup>43</sup>And immediately he received his sight and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

♦♦<sup>1</sup>And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. <sup>2</sup>And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup>And he sought to see Jesus, who He was, but could not for the press of the crowd, because he was short in stature. <sup>4</sup>And he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was to pass that way. <sup>5</sup>And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said unto him,

"Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must abide at thy house."

<sup>6</sup>And he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup>And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying that He had gone to be the guest of a man who was a sinner. <sup>8</sup>And Zacchaeus stood and said unto the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore to him fourfold." <sup>9</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"This day is salvation come to this house, in that he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."♦♦

<sup>11</sup>And as they heard these things, He added and spoke a parable, because He was nigh to Jerusalem and because they thought that the Kingdom of God should immediately appear. <sup>12</sup>He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.* <sup>13</sup>And he called his ten servants and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, 'Take possession till I come.' <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him and sent a message after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.' <sup>15</sup>And it came to pass that when he had returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup>Then came the first, saying, 'Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.' <sup>17</sup>And he said unto him, 'Well done, thou good servant; because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.' <sup>18</sup>And the second came, saying, 'Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.' <sup>19</sup>And he said likewise to him, 'Be thou also over five cities.' <sup>20</sup>And another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid away in a napkin. <sup>21</sup>For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up what thou layest not down, and reapest what thou didst not sow.' <sup>22</sup>And he said unto him, 'Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up what I laid not down and reaping what I did not sow. <sup>23</sup>Why then gavest not thou my money unto the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with interest?' <sup>24</sup>And he said unto them that stood by, 'Take from him the pound and give it to him that hath ten pounds.' <sup>25</sup>(And they said unto him, 'Lord, he hath ten pounds!') <sup>26</sup>'For I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him.* <sup>27</sup>But those mine enemies, who would not that I should reign over them, bring them hither and slay them before me.'"

"Go ye into the village opposite you, in which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat. Loose him and bring him hither. <sup>31</sup>And if any man ask you, 'Why do ye loose him?' thus shall ye say unto him, 'Because the Lord hath need of him.'"

<sup>32</sup>And those who were sent went their way and found even as He had said unto them. <sup>33</sup>And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, 'Why loose ye the colt?' <sup>34</sup>And they said, 'The Lord hath need of him.' <sup>35</sup>And they brought him to Jesus, and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon. <sup>36</sup>And as He went, they spread their clothes along the way. <sup>37</sup>And when He had come nigh, even now at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying,

"Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord!

*Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"**

<sup>39</sup>And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto Him, "Master, rebuke thy disciples." <sup>40</sup>And He answered and said unto them,

"I tell you that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out." ♦

<sup>41</sup>And when He had come near, He beheld the city and wept over it, <sup>42</sup>saying,

*"If thou had known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which must be for thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes. <sup>43</sup>For the days shall come upon thee that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee around, and keep thee in on every side. <sup>44</sup>And they shall lay thee even with the ground and thy children within thee; and they shalt not leave in thee one stone upon another, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation."**

<sup>45</sup>And He went into the temple and began to cast out those who sold therein and those who bought,* <sup>46</sup>saying unto them,

*"It is written, 'My house is the house of prayer,' but ye have made it a den of thieves."**

<sup>47</sup>And He taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy Him; <sup>48</sup>and they could not find what they might do, for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass that on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the Gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon Him with the elders* <sup>2</sup>and spoke unto Him, saying, "Tell us by what authority doest thou these things? Or who is he who gave thee this authority?" <sup>3</sup>And He answered and said unto them,

"I will also ask you one thing, and answer me: <sup>4</sup>The baptism of John—was it from Heaven, or of men?"

<sup>5</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say 'From Heaven,' he will say, 'Why then have ye not believed him?' <sup>6</sup>But if we say, 'Of men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup>And they answered that they could not tell from whence it was. <sup>8</sup>And Jesus said unto them,

"Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>9</sup>Then He began to speak to the people this parable:

*"A certain man planted a vineyard and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.**

<sup>10</sup>And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen beat him and sent him away empty.

<sup>11</sup>And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. <sup>12</sup>And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

<sup>13</sup>Then said the lord of the vineyard, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will reverence him when they see him.' <sup>14</sup>But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' <sup>15</sup>So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? <sup>16</sup>He shall come and destroy these husbandmen and shall give the vineyard to others."

And when they heard it they said, "God forbid!" <sup>17</sup>And He beheld them and said,

*"What is this then that is written,
"The stone which the builders rejected,*

18Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder."

<sup>19</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes that same hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people; for they perceived that He had spoken this parable against them.

<sup>20</sup>And they watched Him and sent forth spies, who should feign themselves to be just men, that they might take hold of His words and so they might deliver Him unto the power and authority of the governor.* <sup>21</sup>And they asked Him, saying, "Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly. <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar or no?" <sup>23</sup>But He perceived their craftiness and said unto them,

"Why tempt ye Me? <sup>24</sup>Show Me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it?"

They answered and said, "Caesar's." <sup>25</sup>And He said unto them,

"Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things which are God's."

<sup>26</sup>And they could not take hold of His words before the people. And they marveled at His answer and held their peace.

♦<sup>27</sup>Then came to Him certain of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection, and they asked Him,* <sup>28</sup>saying, "Master, Moses wrote unto us that if any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife and raise up seed unto his brother.* <sup>29</sup>There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife and died without children. <sup>30</sup>And the second took her to wife, and he died childless. <sup>31</sup>And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children, and died. <sup>32</sup>Last of all the woman died also. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection whose wife is she, for seven had her as wife?" <sup>34</sup>And Jesus answering said unto them,

*"The children of this world marry and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup>But they that shall be accounted worthy to obtain that World and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage, <sup>36</sup>neither can they die any more; for they are equal unto the angels and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup>Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' * <sup>38</sup>For He is not a*

<sup>39</sup>Then certain of the scribes answering said, "Master, thou hast said well." <sup>40</sup>And after that they dared not ask Him any question at all.

<sup>41</sup>And He said unto them,

*"How say they that Christ is David's son?*" <sup>42</sup>For David himself saith in the book of Psalms:*

'The LORD said unto my Lord,

"Sit Thou on My right hand,

<sup>46</sup>*"Beware of the scribes who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;* <sup>47</sup>who devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers. The same shall receive greater damnation."*

CHAPTER 21

"In truth I say unto you that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all. <sup>4</sup>For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God, but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had."

♦<sup>5</sup>And when some spoke of the temple and how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, He said,*

<sup>7</sup>And they asked Him, saying, "Master, but when shall these things be? And what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?" <sup>8</sup>And He said,

"Take heed that ye be not deceived, for many shall come in My name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and, 'the time draweth near.' Go ye not therefore after them. <sup>9</sup>But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified, for these

<sup>10</sup>Then said He unto them,

*"Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, <sup>11</sup>and great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines and pestilences. And fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and into prisons, and you will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake.* <sup>13</sup>And it shall turn to you to bear testimony. <sup>14</sup>Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand what ye shall answer. <sup>15</sup>For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. <sup>16</sup>And ye shall be betrayed both by parents and brethren and kinsfolk and friends, and some of you they shall cause to be put to death.* <sup>17</sup>And ye shall be hated by all men for My name's sake. <sup>18</sup>But there shall not a hair of your head perish. <sup>19</sup>In your patience possess ye your souls.♦*

<sup>20</sup>"And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. <sup>21</sup>Then let them that are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let them that are in the midst of it depart out, and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. <sup>22</sup>For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup>But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. <sup>24</sup>And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

*♦<sup>25</sup>"And there shall be signs in the sun and in the moon and in the stars; and upon the earth distress among nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring.* <sup>26</sup>Men's hearts will fail them for fear and for looking upon those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of Heaven shall be shaken. <sup>27</sup>And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.* <sup>28</sup>And when these things begin to come to pass,*

then look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh."

<sup>29</sup>And He spoke to them a parable:

"Behold the fig tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When they begin to shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. <sup>31</sup>So likewise ye, when you see these things come to pass, know ye that the Kingdom of God is nigh at hand. <sup>32</sup>Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass away, until all be fulfilled. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

<sup>37</sup>And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple; and at night He went out and stayed on the mount that is called the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup>And all the people came early in the morning to Him in the temple to hear Him.

<sup>7</sup>Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread when the Passover lamb must be killed.* <sup>8</sup>And He sent Peter and John, saying,

"Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat."

<sup>9</sup>And they said unto Him, "Where wilt Thou have us prepare?" <sup>10</sup>And

He said unto them,

"Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house where he entereth in. <sup>11</sup>And ye shall say unto the head of the house, 'The Mastersaith unto thee, 'Where is the guestchamber where I shall eat the Passover with My disciples?'" <sup>12</sup>And he shall show you a large upper room furnished. There make ready."

<sup>13</sup>And they went and found as He had said unto them. And they made ready the Passover.

♦<sup>14</sup>And when the hour had come, He sat down and the twelve apostles with Him.* <sup>15</sup>And He said unto them,

*"With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; * <sup>16</sup>for I say unto you, I will not anymore eat thereof until it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."*

<sup>17</sup>And He took the cup, and gave thanks and said,

"Take this, and divide it among yourselves; <sup>18</sup>for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the Kingdom of God shall come."

<sup>19</sup>And He took bread, and gave thanks and broke it and gave it unto them, saying,

"This is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

<sup>20</sup>Likewise also He took the cup after supper, saying,

*"This cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you. <sup>21</sup>But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth Me is with Me on the table.* <sup>22</sup>And truly the Son of Man goeth as it was determined; but woe unto that man by whom He is betrayed!"*

<sup>23</sup>And they began to inquire among themselves which of them it was that should do this thing.

<sup>24</sup>And there was also a contention among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. <sup>25</sup>And He said unto them,

*"The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.' * <sup>26</sup>But ye shall not be so; but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. <sup>27</sup>For who is greater, he that sitteth at meat or he that serveth? Is it not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as He that serveth."*

temptations. <sup>29</sup>And I appoint unto you a Kingdom, as My Father hath appointed unto Me, <sup>30</sup>that ye may eat and drink at My table in My Kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."*

<sup>31</sup>And the Lord said,

*"Simon, Simon! Behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat.* <sup>32</sup>But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren."*

<sup>33</sup>And Peter said unto Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with Thee, both into prison and to death."*

<sup>34</sup>And He said, "I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day before thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest Me."

<sup>35</sup>And He said unto them,

*"When I sent you without purse and pack and shoes, lacked ye anything?"**

And they said, "Nothing." <sup>36</sup>Then said He unto them,

"But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it and likewise his pack; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. <sup>37</sup>For I say unto you that this that is written must yet be accomplished in Me:

'And He was reckoned among the transgressors.'

*For the things concerning Me have an end."**

<sup>38</sup>And they said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." And He said unto them,

"It is enough."

<sup>39</sup>And He came out and went, as He was wont, to the Mount of Olives; and His disciples also followed Him.* <sup>40</sup>And when He was at the place, He said unto them,

"Pray that ye enter not into temptation."

<sup>41</sup>And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and kneeled down and prayed, <sup>42</sup>saying,

"Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Thine be done."

<sup>43</sup>And there appeared an angel unto Him from Heaven, strengthening Him. <sup>44</sup>And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was, as it were, great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

<sup>45</sup>And when He rose up from prayer and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping for sorrow. <sup>46</sup>And He said unto them,

"Why sleep ye? Rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation."

<sup>47</sup>And while He yet spoke, behold, a multitude; and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near unto Jesus to kiss Him.* <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said unto him,

"Judas, betrayest thou the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>49</sup>When those who were about Him saw what would follow, they said unto Him, "Lord, shall we smite with the sword?" <sup>50</sup>And one of them smote the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup>And Jesus answered and said,

"Suffer ye thus far."

And He touched his ear and healed him. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said unto the chief priests and captains of the temple and the elders, who had come to Him,

"Have ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves? <sup>53</sup>When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against Me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

<sup>54</sup>Then they took Him and led Him, and brought Him into the high priest's house.* And Peter followed afar off. <sup>55</sup>And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall and had sat down together, Peter sat down among them. <sup>56</sup>But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him and said, "This man was also with him." <sup>57</sup>And he denied Him, saying, "Woman, I know him not." <sup>58</sup>And after a little while another saw him and said, "Thou art also of them." And Peter said, "Man, I am not!" <sup>59</sup>And after the space of about an hour, another confidently affirmed; saying, "In truth this fellow also was with him, for he is a Galilean." <sup>60</sup>And Peter said, "Man, I know not what thou sayest!" And immediately, while he yet spoke, the cock crowed. <sup>61</sup>And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said unto him, "Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny Me thrice." <sup>62</sup>And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>And the men who held Jesus mocked Him and smote Him.* <sup>64</sup>And when they had blindfolded Him, they struck Him on the face and asked Him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is it that smote thee?" <sup>65</sup>And many other things they spoke blasphemously against Him.

<sup>66</sup>And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led Him into their council, saying,

*"If I tell you, ye will not believe, <sup>68</sup>And if I also ask you, ye will not answer Me nor let Me go. <sup>69</sup>Hereafter shall the Son of Man sit on the right hand of the power of God."**

<sup>70</sup>Then said they all, "Art thou then the Son of God?" And He said unto them, <sup>71</sup>And they said, "What need we any further witness? For we ourselves have heard it from his own mouth."

CHAPTER 23

<sup>2</sup>And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow perverting the nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a king." <sup>3</sup>And Pilate asked Him, saying, "Art thou the king of the Jews?" And He answered him and said,

"Thou sayest it."

<sup>4</sup>Then said Pilate to the chief priests and the people, "I find no fault in this man." <sup>5</sup>And they became the more fierce, saying, "He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place." <sup>6</sup>When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the Man were a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>And as soon as he learned that He belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup>And when Herod saw Jesus he was exceedingly glad, for he had been desirous to see Him for a long time, because he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. <sup>9</sup>Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him nothing. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. <sup>11</sup>And Herod, with his soldiers, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, and arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him again to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>And on the same day, Pilate and Herod were made friends together, for before that there was enmity between them.

<sup>13</sup>And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,* <sup>14</sup>said unto them, "Ye have brought this man unto me as one who perverteth the people. And behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man concerning those things whereof ye accuse him. <sup>15</sup>No, nor yet Herod; for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done by him. <sup>16</sup>I will therefore chastise him and release him." <sup>17</sup>(For of necessity he must release one unto them at the Feast.) <sup>18</sup>And they all cried out at once, saying, "Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas," <sup>19</sup>(who had been cast into prison for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder). <sup>20</sup>Pilate therefore, desiring to release Jesus, spoke again to them. <sup>21</sup>But they cried, saying, "Crucify him, crucify him!" <sup>22</sup>And he said unto them the third time, "Why? What evil hath he done? I have found no cause for death in him. I will therefore chastise him and let him go." <sup>23</sup>But they were instant with loud voices, requiring that He might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. <sup>24</sup>And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. <sup>25</sup>And he released unto them the one who for sedition and murder had been cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

<sup>26</sup>And as they led Him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.* <sup>27</sup>And there followed Him a great company of people, and of women who also bewailed and lamented Him. <sup>28</sup>But Jesus, turning unto them, said,

*"Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>For behold, the days are coming in which they shall say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore and the breasts which never gave suck.' <sup>30</sup>Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' * and to the hills, 'Cover us!' <sup>31</sup>For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?"*

<sup>32</sup>And there were also two others, malefactors, led with Him to be put to death.* <sup>33</sup>And when they had come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left.* <sup>34</sup>Then Jesus said,

"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

And they parted His raiment and cast lots.* <sup>35</sup>And the people stood beholding. And the rulers who were also with them derided Him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he be Christ, the chosen of God." <sup>36</sup>And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him and offering Him vinegar <sup>37</sup>and saying, "If thou art the king of the Jews, save thyself." <sup>38</sup>And a superscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek and Latin and Hebrew: This is the King of the Jews.

<sup>39</sup>And one of the malefactors who was hanged railed against Him, saying, "If thou be Christ, save thyself and us!" <sup>40</sup>But the other answering rebuked him, saying, "Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art under the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup>And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds. But this Man hath done nothing amiss." <sup>42</sup>And he said unto Jesus, "Lord, remember me when Thou comest into Thy Kingdom." <sup>43</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise."

44And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.* 45And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. 46And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said,

*"Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit."**

And having said thus, He gave up His spirit.

47Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man!" 48And all the people who came together to that sight, beholding the things which had been done, smote their breasts and returned. 49And all His acquaintances and the women who had followed Him from Galilee stood afar off, beholding these things.*

50And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a council member, and he was a good man and a just.* 51(The same had not consented to their counsel and deed.) He was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who himself also waited for the Kingdom of God. 52This man went unto Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. 53And he took it down and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcher that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near. 55And the women also, who came with Him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulcher and how His body was laid. 56And they returned and prepared spices and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

1Now upon the first day of the week very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulcher, bringing the spices which they had prepared; and certain others were with them.* 2And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulcher. 3And they entered in and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. 4And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.* 5And as they were afraid and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, "Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen! Remember how He spoke unto you when He was yet in Galilee, 7saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'" * 8And they remembered His words, 9and returned from the sepulcher and told all these things unto the eleven and to all the rest.*

10It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and other women who were with them, who told these things unto the apostles. 11And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not. 12Then arose Peter and ran unto the sepulcher; and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloths laid by themselves. And he departed, wondering to himself at that which had come to pass.*

13And behold, two of them were going that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about seven miles.* 14And they talked together of all these things which had happened. 15And it came to pass that while they communed and reasoned together, Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. 16But their eyes were held, that they should not know Him. 17And He said unto them,

"What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk and are sad?"

18And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto Him, "Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which have come to pass there in these days?" 19And He said unto them,

"What things?"

And they said unto Him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death and have crucified him. 21But we trusted that it had been he who should have redeemed Israel. And beside all this, today is the third day since these things were done. 22Yea, and certain women also of our company, who were early at the sepulcher, made us astonished. 23And when they found not his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24And certain of those who were with us went to the sepulcher and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not." 25Then He said unto them,

"O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26Ought not Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?"

27And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

28And they drew nigh unto the village whither they were going, and He made as though He would have gone further. 29But they constrained Him, saying, "Abide with us, for it is toward evening and the day is far spent." And He went in to tarry with them.

30And it came to pass, as He sat at meat with them, He took bread and blessed it, and broke and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup>And their eyes were opened and they knew Him. And He vanished out of their sight. <sup>32</sup>And they said to one another, "Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked with us on the way and while He opened to us the Scriptures?" <sup>33</sup>And they rose up that same hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them, <sup>34</sup>saying, "The Lord is risen indeed and hath appeared to Simon!" <sup>35</sup>And they told what things were done on the way, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

<sup>36</sup>And as they thus spoke, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them and said unto them,

*"Peace be unto you."**

<sup>37</sup>But they were terrified and afraid, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. <sup>38</sup>And He said unto them,

"Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup>Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see Me to have."

<sup>40</sup>And when He had thus spoken, He showed them His hands and His feet. <sup>41</sup>And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, He said unto them,

"Have ye here any meat?"

<sup>43</sup>And He took it and ate before them. <sup>44</sup>And He said unto them,

"These are the words which I spoke unto you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms concerning Me."

<sup>45</sup>Then opened He their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures, <sup>46</sup>and said unto them,

*"Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup>and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>And ye are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup>And behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem until ye be endued with power from on high."**

<sup>50</sup>And He led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. <sup>51</sup>And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them and carried up into Heaven.* <sup>52</sup>And they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup>and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

THE

John

♦<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.* <sup>2</sup>The same was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things were made by Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made.* <sup>4</sup>In Him was life, and that life was the light of men.* <sup>5</sup>And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.*

<sup>6</sup>There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.* <sup>7</sup>The same came as a witness to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. <sup>8</sup>He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. <sup>9</sup>That was the true Light which lighteth every man who cometh into the world.

<sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. <sup>11</sup>He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to those who believe in His name, <sup>13</sup>who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup>And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us; and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup>John bore witness of Him and cried, saying, "This was He of whom I spoke, 'He that cometh after me is preferred before me, for He was before me.'" <sup>16</sup>And of His fullness have we all received, and grace for grace.* <sup>17</sup>For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him.*

<sup>19</sup>And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who art thou?" <sup>20</sup>And he confessed and denied not, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."* <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, "What then? Art thou Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Art thou that Prophet?" And he answered, "No." <sup>22</sup>Then said they unto him, "Who art thou, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What sayest thou of thyself?" <sup>23</sup>He said, "I am 'the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' ' as said the prophet Isaiah." *

*1 Gen 1:1. *3 Col 1:16. *4 Jn 3:19. *5 Jn 8:12, 9:5. *6 Mt 3:1, Mk 1:4, Lk 3:2. *16 Col 1:19. *18 1 Jn 4:12. *20 Jn 3:28.

<sup>24</sup>And those who were sent were of the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup>And they asked him, and said unto him, "Why dost thou baptize then if thou art not that Christ, nor Elijah, neither that Prophet?"* <sup>26</sup>John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water, but there standeth One among you whom ye know not. <sup>27</sup>He it is who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's strap I am not worthy to unloose." <sup>28</sup>These things were done in Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

<sup>29</sup>The next day John saw Jesus coming unto him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is He of whom I said, 'After me cometh a Man who is preferred before me, for He was before me.' <sup>31</sup>And I knew Him not; but that He should be made manifest to Israel, therefore have I come baptizing with water."

<sup>32</sup>And John bore record, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from Heaven like a dove, and It abode upon Him.* <sup>33</sup>And I knew Him not. But He that sent me to baptize with water, the Same said unto me, 'Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on Him, the Same is He that baptizeth with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup>And I saw and bore record that this is the Son of God."

<sup>35</sup>Again the next day John stood with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup>and looking upon Jesus as He walked, he said, "Behold the Lamb of God!" <sup>37</sup>And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>Then Jesus turned and saw them following, and said unto them,

"What seek ye?"

They said unto Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, "Master"), "where dwellest Thou?" <sup>39</sup>He said unto them,

"Come and see."

They came and saw where He dwelt and stayed with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.

<sup>40</sup>One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. <sup>41</sup>He first found his own brother Simon and said unto him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is, being interpreted, "the Christ"). <sup>42</sup>And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, He said,

*"Thou art Simon, the son of Jonah. Thou shalt be called Cephas"**

(which is by interpretation, "a stone").

<sup>43</sup>The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and found Philip and said unto him,

"Follow Me."

*23 Isa 40:3, Mt 3:3, Mk 1:2, Lk 3:4. *25 Mt 3:11, Mk 1:8, Lk 3:16, Acts 19:4. *32 Mt 3:16, Mk 1:9, Lk 3:21. *42 Mt 16:18.

<sup>44</sup>Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip found Nathanael and said unto him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the Law and the Prophets wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." <sup>46</sup>And Nathanael said unto him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said unto him, "Come and see." <sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and said of him,

"Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!"

<sup>48</sup>Nathanael said unto Him, "How knowest Thou me?" Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee."

<sup>49</sup>Nathanael answered and said unto Him, "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel." <sup>50</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Because I said unto thee, 'I saw thee under the fig tree,' believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these."

<sup>51</sup>And He said unto him,

"Verily, verily I say unto you, hereafter ye shall see Heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And on the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; <sup>2</sup>and both Jesus and His disciples were called to the marriage. <sup>3</sup>And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said unto Him, "They have no wine." <sup>4</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Woman, what have I to do with thee? Mine hour is not yet come."

<sup>5</sup>His mother said unto the servants, " whatsoever He saith unto you, do it." <sup>6</sup>And there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, holding twenty to thirty gallons apiece. <sup>7</sup>Jesus said unto them,

"Fill the waterpots with water."

And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup>And He said unto them,

"Draw some out now, and bear it unto the governor of the feast."

And they took it. <sup>9</sup>When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, not knowing from whence it had come (but the servants who drew the water knew), the governor of the feast called the bridegroom <sup>10</sup>and said unto him, "Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have drunk well, then that which is worse; but thou hast kept the good wine until now."

<sup>12</sup>After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and His brethren and His disciples; and they did not continue there many days.

♦♦<sup>13</sup>And the Jews' Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem <sup>14</sup>and found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves; and also the changers of money sitting there. <sup>15</sup>And when He had made a scourge of small cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overthrew the tables. <sup>16</sup>And He said unto those who sold doves,

"Take these things hence! Make not My Father's house a house of merchandise!"

<sup>17</sup>And His disciples remembered that it was written: "The zeal of Thine house hath eaten me up."* <sup>18</sup>Then the Jews answered and said unto Him, "What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?" <sup>19</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them,

*"Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."**

<sup>20</sup>Then said the Jews, "Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days?" <sup>21</sup>But He spoke of the temple of His body. <sup>22</sup>When therefore He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this unto them. And they believed the Scripture and the Word which Jesus had said. ♦

<sup>23</sup>Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover on the feast day, many believed in His name when they saw the miracles which He did. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus did not commit Himself unto them, because He knew all men, <sup>25</sup>and needed not that any should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

♦♦<sup>1</sup>There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.* <sup>2</sup>The same came to Jesus by night and said unto Him, "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, unless God be with him." <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him,

"Verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

<sup>4</sup>Nicodemus said unto Him, "How can a man be born when he is old?

Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"
 5Jesus answered,

"Verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. 6That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7Marvel not that I said unto thee, 'Ye must be born again.' 8The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit."

9Nicodemus answered and said unto Him, "How can these things be?" 10Jesus answered and said unto him,

*"Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? 11Verily, verily I say unto thee, we speak what we know and testify what we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. 12If I have told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of Heavenly things? 13And no man hath ascended up to Heaven, but He that came down from Heaven, even the Son of Man who is in Heaven.* 14And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up,* 15that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.*

*16"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.* 17For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.**

*18"He that believeth in Him is not condemned; but He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19And this is the condemnation: that Light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.* 20For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." ♦*

22After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He tarried with them, and baptized.* 23And John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. And they came and were baptized, <sup>24</sup>for John had not yet been cast into prison.

<sup>25</sup>Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. <sup>26</sup>And they came unto John and said unto him, "Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou bearest witness—behold, the same baptizeth and all men come to him." <sup>27</sup>John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing, unless it be given him from Heaven. <sup>28</sup>Ye yourselves bear me witness that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but that 'I am sent before Him.'* <sup>29</sup>He that hath the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy, therefore, is fulfilled. <sup>30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease.

"Give Me to drink."

<sup>8</sup>(For His disciples had gone away unto the city to buy meat.) <sup>9</sup>Then said the woman of Samaria unto Him, "How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest a drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria?" For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said unto her,

"If thou knewest the gift of God and who it is that saith to thee, 'Give Me to drink,' thou wouldest have asked of Him, and He would have given thee living water."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said unto Him, "Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From whence then hast thou that living water?"

<sup>12</sup>Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank thereof himself, and his children and his cattle?" <sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said unto her,

"Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."

<sup>15</sup>The woman said unto Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw." <sup>16</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Go, call thy husband, and come hither."

<sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said unto her,

"Thou hast well said, 'I have no husband'; <sup>18</sup>for thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband. In that thou saidst truly."

<sup>19</sup>The woman said unto Him, "Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

<sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and ye say that Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. <sup>21</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Woman, believe Me, the hour cometh when ye shall neither on this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. <sup>22</sup>Ye worship ye know not what; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. <sup>23</sup>But the hour cometh and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. <sup>24</sup>God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."*

<sup>25</sup>The woman said unto Him, "I know that Messiah cometh, who is called Christ. When He has come, He will tell us all things." <sup>26</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"I that speak unto thee am He."

"I have meat to eat that ye know not of."

<sup>33</sup>Therefore the disciples said one to another, "Hath any man brought Him aught to eat?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus said unto them,

"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent Me, and to finish His work. <sup>35</sup>Say not ye, 'There are yet four months and then cometh the harvest'? Behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already for harvest. <sup>36</sup>And he that reapeth receiveth wages and gathereth fruit unto life eternal, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>And herein is that saying true, 'One soweth and another reapeth.' <sup>38</sup>I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labor; other men labored, and ye have entered into their labors."

<sup>39</sup>And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the saying of the woman who testified, "He told me all that ever I did." <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans had come unto Him, they besought Him that He would tarry with them; and He abode there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of His own word, <sup>42</sup>and said unto the woman, "Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard Him ourselves and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." ♦

<sup>44</sup>For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet hath no honor in his own country.* <sup>45</sup>Then when He had come into Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did at Jerusalem at the feast; for they also had gone to the feast.

<sup>46</sup>So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto Him and besought Him that He would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said unto him,

"Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe."

<sup>49</sup>The nobleman said unto Him, "Sir, come down ere my child die!" <sup>50</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"Go thy way; thy son liveth."

And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. <sup>51</sup>And as he was going back home, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Thy son liveth!" <sup>52</sup>Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to be healed. And they said unto him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." <sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus had said unto him, *43 Mt 4:12, Mk 1:14, Lk 4:14. *44 Mt 13:57, Mk 6:4, Lk 4:24.

"Thy son liveth." And he himself believed, and his whole house.

<sup>54</sup>This is again the second miracle that Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

♦<sup>1</sup>After this there was a feast of the Jews,* and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. <sup>3</sup>In these lay a great multitude of invalid folk—blind, halt, withered—waiting for the moving of the water. <sup>4</sup>For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool and troubled the water. Whosoever then was first to step in after the troubling of the water, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. <sup>5</sup>And a certain man was there who had an infirmity for thirty and eight years. <sup>6</sup>When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been in that state a long time, He said unto him,

"Wilt thou be made whole?"

<sup>7</sup>The infirm man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool; but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me." <sup>8</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"Rise, take up thy bed, and walk."

<sup>9</sup>And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.*

Now it was the Sabbath on that day. ♦ <sup>10</sup>The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, "It is the Sabbath day; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed."* <sup>11</sup>He answered them, "He that made me whole said unto me, 'Take up thy bed and walk.'" <sup>12</sup>Then they asked him, "What man is that who said unto thee, 'Take up thy bed and walk?'" <sup>13</sup>And he that was healed knew not who it was, for Jesus had removed Himself away, a multitude being in that place. <sup>14</sup>Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said unto him,

"Behold, thou art made whole. Sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

<sup>15</sup>The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole.

<sup>16</sup>And therefor did the Jews persecute Jesus and sought to slay Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath day. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus answered them,

"My Father worketh hitherto, and I work."

<sup>18</sup>Therefor the Jews sought the more to kill Him, because He not only had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God.* <sup>19</sup>Then answered Jesus and said unto them,

"Verily, verily I say unto you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He seeth the Father do; for whatsoever things He doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. <sup>20</sup>For the Father loveth the Son and showeth Him all things that He Himself doeth; and He will show Him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. <sup>21</sup>For as the Father raiseth up the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son quickeneth whom He will. <sup>22</sup>For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son, <sup>23</sup>that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father who hath sent Him. <sup>24</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, he that heareth My Word and believeth in Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.

*<sup>25</sup>"Verily, verily I say unto you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. <sup>26</sup>For as the Father hath life in Himself, so hath He given to the Son to have life in Himself, <sup>27</sup>and hath given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice <sup>29</sup>and shall come forth—they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation.**

<sup>30</sup>"I can of Mine own Self do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, because I seek not Mine own will, but the will of the Father who hath sent Me. <sup>31</sup>If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true. <sup>32</sup>There is Another that beareth witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesseth of Me is true.

*the Father hath sent Me. <sup>37</sup>And the Father Himself, who hath sent Me, hath borne witness of Me.* Ye have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His shape. <sup>38</sup>And ye have not His Word abiding in you; for Whom He hath sent, Him ye believe not.*

*<sup>39</sup>Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and it is they which testify of Me. <sup>40</sup>And yet ye will not come to Me, that ye might have life. <sup>41</sup>I receive not honor from men. <sup>42</sup>But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup>I have come in My Father's name, and ye receive Me not; if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. <sup>44</sup>How can ye believe, who receive honor from one another, and seek not the honor that cometh from God only?* <sup>45</sup>Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. <sup>46</sup>For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed Me, for he wrote of Me.* <sup>47</sup>But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe My words?"*

CHAPTER 6

♦<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee which is the Sea of Tiberias.* <sup>2</sup>And a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His miracles which He did on those who were diseased. <sup>3</sup>And Jesus went up onto a mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

<sup>4</sup>Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. <sup>5</sup>And when Jesus lifted up His eyes and saw a great company coming unto Him, He said unto Philip,

"Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?"

<sup>6</sup>And this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do. <sup>7</sup>Philip answered Him, "Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little." <sup>8</sup>One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said unto Him, <sup>9</sup>"There is a lad here who hath five barley loaves and two small fishes, but what are they among so many?" <sup>10</sup>And Jesus said,

"Make the men sit down."

Now there was much grass in the place, so the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup>And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they wanted.* <sup>12</sup>When they were filled, He said unto His disciples,

<sup>13</sup>So they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above that which had been eaten.

<sup>14</sup>Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus had done, said, “This is in truth that Prophet who is to come into the world!” <sup>15</sup>When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take Him by force to make Him a king, He departed again alone unto a mountain.

<sup>16</sup>And when evening had come, His disciples went down unto the sea,* <sup>17</sup>and entered into a boat and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. <sup>18</sup>And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. <sup>19</sup>So when they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing nigh unto the boat; and they were afraid. <sup>20</sup>But He said unto them,

“It is I; be not afraid.”

<sup>21</sup>Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land whither they were going. ♦

<sup>22</sup>The day following, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one into which His disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not gone with His disciples into the boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone <sup>23</sup>(however it be there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they had eaten bread after the Lord had given thanks)—♦♦<sup>24</sup>when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither His disciples, they also took boats and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. <sup>25</sup>And when they had found Him on the other side of the sea, they said unto Him, “Rabbi, when camest thou hither?” <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered them and said,

*“Verily, verily I say unto you, ye seek Me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup>Labor not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of Man shall give unto you; for on Him hath God the Father set His seal.”**

<sup>28</sup>Then said they unto Him, “What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them,

*11 2 Kg 4:43. *16 Mt 14:22-33, Mk 6:45-56. *27 Mt 3:17.

*"This is the work of God: that ye believe in Him whom He hath sent."**

<sup>30</sup>They said therefore unto Him, "What sign showest thou then, that we may see and believe thee? What works dost thou do? <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate manna in the desert;*" as it is written: 'He gave them bread from Heaven to eat.'** <sup>32</sup>Then Jesus said unto them,

"Verily, verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from Heaven, but My Father giveth you the true bread from Heaven. <sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is He that cometh down from Heaven, and giveth life unto the world."

<sup>34</sup>Then they said unto Him, "Lord, evermore give us this bread."

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus said unto them,

"I am the Bread of Life. He that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth in Me shall never thirst.♦

<sup>36</sup>But I said unto you that ye also have seen Me, and believe not. <sup>37</sup>All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me, and him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out. <sup>38</sup>For I came down from Heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the will of Him that sent Me. <sup>39</sup>And this is the Father's will who hath sent Me, that of all which He hath given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the Last Day. <sup>40</sup>And this is the will of Him that sent Me: that every one who seeth the Son and believeth in Him may have everlasting life, and I will raise him up at the Last Day."

♦<sup>41</sup>The Jews then murmured at Him, because He said, "I am the Bread which came down from Heaven." <sup>42</sup>And they said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that he saith, 'I came down from Heaven?'"* <sup>43</sup>Jesus therefore answered and said unto them,

*"Murmur not among yourselves. <sup>44</sup>No man can come to Me unless the Father who hath sent Me draw him; and I will raise him up at the Last Day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the Prophets: 'And they shall all be taught by God.'* Every man therefore that hath heard and hath learned from the Father cometh unto Me. <sup>46</sup>Not that any man hath seen the Father, except He that is of God; He hath seen the Father.* <sup>47</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth in Me hath everlasting life. <sup>48</sup>I am that Bread of Life. <sup>49</sup>Your fathers* ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead. <sup>50</sup>This is the Bread which cometh down from Heaven, that a man may eat thereof and not die. <sup>51</sup>I am the living Bread which came down from Heaven. If any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever; and the Bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

<sup>52</sup>The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" <sup>53</sup>Then Jesus said unto them,

"Verily, verily I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you.

<sup>56</sup>He that eateth My flesh and drinketh My blood dwelleth in Me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>As the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth Me, even he shall live by Me. <sup>58</sup>This is that Bread which came down from Heaven, not as your fathers ate manna and are dead; he that eateth of this Bread shall live for ever."

<sup>59</sup>These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum. <sup>60</sup>Many of His disciples, therefore, when they had heard this, said, "This is a hard saying; who can hear it?" <sup>61</sup>When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples murmured at it, He said unto them,

"Doth this offend you? <sup>62</sup>What if ye shall see the Son of Man ascend up where He was before? <sup>63</sup>It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing. The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who believed not and who should betray Him. <sup>65</sup>And He said,

"Therefore I said unto you, that no man can come unto Me, except it were given unto him by My Father."

<sup>66</sup>From that time many of His disciples went back and walked no more with Him. <sup>67</sup>Then Jesus said unto the twelve,

"Will ye also go away?"

<sup>68</sup>Then Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life, <sup>69</sup>and we believe and are sure that Thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."* ♦ <sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them,

"Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

<sup>71</sup>He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for he it was who should betray Him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of His kinsmen, <sup>10</sup>goeth up from Galilee to the Feast of Tabernacles, <sup>14</sup>teacheth in the temple. <sup>40</sup>Divers opinions of Him among the people. <sup>45</sup>The Pharisees are angry that their officers took Him not, and chide Nicodemus for taking His part.

<sup>1</sup>After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee, for He would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill Him. <sup>2</sup>Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand.* <sup>3</sup>His brethren therefore said unto Him, "Depart hence and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. <sup>4</sup>For no man doeth anything in secret, if he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the world." <sup>5</sup>For neither did His brethren believe in Him. <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus said unto them,

"My time is not yet come, but your time is always ready.

*<sup>7</sup>The world cannot hate you, but Me it hateth, because I testify of it that the works thereof are evil. <sup>8</sup>Go ye up unto this feast. I go not up yet unto this feast, for My time is not yet fully come."**

<sup>9</sup>When He had said these words unto them, He remained still in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>But when His brethren had gone up, then He also went up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. <sup>11</sup>Then the Jews sought Him at the feast and said, "Where is he?" <sup>12</sup>And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him. For some said, "He is a good man," and others said, "Nay, for he deceiveth the people." <sup>13</sup>Yet no man spoke openly of Him for fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews marveled, saying, "How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?" <sup>16</sup>Jesus answered them and said,

*"My doctrine is not Mine, but His that sent Me. <sup>17</sup>If any man will do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it be from God, or whether I speak from Myself. <sup>18</sup>He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory; but he that seeketh the glory of Him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. <sup>19</sup>Did not Moses give you the law,* and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill Me?"**

<sup>20</sup>The people answered and said, "Thou hast a devil. Who goeth about to kill thee?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them,

*"I have done one work, and ye all marvel. <sup>22</sup>Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.* <sup>23</sup>If a man receive circumcision on the*

*Sabbath day, that the Law of Moses be not broken, are ye angry at Me because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day? <sup>24</sup>Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. <sup>25</sup>**

<sup>25</sup>Then said some of them from Jerusalem, "Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? <sup>26</sup>But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? <sup>27</sup>Yet we know from whence this man comes; but when Christ cometh, no man will know from whence He comes."

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus cried out in the temple as He taught, saying, "Ye both know Me, and ye know from whence I am. And I am not come of Myself, but He that sent Me is true, whom ye know not. <sup>29</sup>But I know Him, for I am from Him, and He hath sent Me."

<sup>30</sup>Then they sought to take Him; but no man laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup>And many of the people believed in Him and said, "When Christ cometh, will He do more miracles than these which this man hath done?" <sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him.

<sup>33</sup>Then said Jesus unto them, "Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto Him that sent Me. <sup>34</sup>Ye shall seek Me, and shall not find Me; and where I am, thither ye cannot come. <sup>35</sup>."

<sup>35</sup>Then the Jews said among themselves, "Whither will he go that we shall not find him? Will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? <sup>36</sup>What manner of saying is this that he said, 'Ye shall seek me and shall not find me; and where I am, thither ye cannot come?'"

♦♦<sup>37</sup>On the last day, that great day of the feast,* Jesus stood and cried out, saying,

"If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink. <sup>38</sup>He that believeth in Me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

<sup>39</sup>(But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believe in Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)*♦

<sup>40</sup>Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, "In truth this is the Prophet." <sup>41</sup>Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Shall Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>42</sup>Hath not the Scripture said that Christ cometh from the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem where David was?"* <sup>43</sup>So there was a division among the people because of Him. <sup>44</sup>And some of them would have taken Him, but no man laid hands on Him.

<sup>45</sup>Then came the officers to the chief priests and the Pharisees, who said unto them, "Why have ye not brought him?" <sup>46</sup>The officers answered, "Never did man speak like this man!" <sup>47</sup>Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are ye also deceived? <sup>48</sup>Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in him? <sup>49</sup>But this people, who knoweth not the law, are cursed." <sup>50</sup>Nicodemus said unto them (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them),* <sup>51</sup>"Doth our law judge any man before it hear him and know what he doeth?"* <sup>52</sup>They answered and said unto him, "Art thou also from Galilee? Search and look, for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet." <sup>53</sup>And every man went unto his own house.

<sup>1</sup>Jesus went unto the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup>And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came unto Him; and He sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto Him a woman taken in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst, <sup>4</sup>they said unto Him, "Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. <sup>5</sup>Now Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned, but what sayest thou?"* <sup>6</sup>This they said testing Him, that they might have cause to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He heard them not. <sup>7</sup>So when they continued asking Him, He lifted Himself up and said unto them,

*"He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."**

<sup>8</sup>And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground. <sup>9</sup>And they who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the eldest even unto the last, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing in the midst. <sup>10</sup>When Jesus had lifted Himself up and saw none but the woman, He said unto her,

"Woman, where are those thine accusers? Hath no man condemned thee?"

<sup>11</sup>She said, "No man, Lord." And Jesus said unto her,

"Neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more."

<sup>12</sup>Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying,

*"I am the Light of the world. He that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."**

*50 Jn 3:2. *51 Dt 17:10, 19:15. *5 Lev 20:10. *7 Dt 17:7. *12 Jn 1:5, 9:5.

<sup>13</sup>The Pharisees therefore said unto Him, "Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true." <sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them,

*"Though I bear record of Myself, yet My record is true, for I know whence I came and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come and whither I go. <sup>15</sup>Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. <sup>16</sup>And yet if I judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me. <sup>17</sup>It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.* <sup>18</sup>I am One that bear witness of Myself, and the Father that sent Me beareth witness of Me."*

<sup>19</sup>Then they said unto Him, "Where is thy father?" Jesus answered, "Ye neither know Me, nor My Father. If ye had known Me, ye should have known My Father also."

<sup>20</sup>These words spoke Jesus in the treasury as He taught in the temple, and no man laid hands on Him, for His hour was not yet come.*

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said again unto them,

"I go My way, and ye shall seek Me, and shall die in your sins. Whither I go, ye cannot come."

<sup>22</sup>Then said the Jews, "Will he kill himself, because he saith, 'Whither I go ye cannot come'?" <sup>23</sup>And He said unto them,

"Ye are from beneath; I am from above. Ye are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup>I said therefore unto you that ye shall die in your sins; for if ye believe not that I am He, ye shall die in your sins."

<sup>25</sup>Then they said unto Him, "Who art thou?" And Jesus said unto them,

"Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

<sup>26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge of you, but He that sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of Him."

<sup>27</sup>They understood not that He spoke to them of the Father. <sup>28</sup>Then said Jesus unto them,

"When ye have lifted up the Son of Man, then shall ye know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father hath taught Me, I speak these things. <sup>29</sup>And He that sent Me is with Me. The Father hath not left Me alone, for I do always those things that please Him."

<sup>30</sup>As He spoke these words, many believed in Him.

<sup>31</sup>Then said Jesus to those Jews who believed in Him, "If ye continue in My Word, then are ye My disciples indeed. <sup>32</sup>And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

*17 Dt 17:6, 19:15, Mt 18:16. *20 Jn 7:8.

<sup>33</sup>They answered Him, "We are Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man. How sayest Thou, 'Ye shall be made free'?"

*"Verily, verily I say unto you, whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.* <sup>35</sup>And the servant abideth not in the house for ever, but the Son abideth ever. <sup>36</sup>If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. <sup>37</sup>I know that ye are Abraham's seed, but ye seek to kill Me, because My Word hath no place in you. <sup>38</sup>I speak that which I have seen with My Father, and ye do that which ye have seen with your father."*

<sup>39</sup>They answered and said unto Him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said unto them,

"If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup>But now ye seek to kill Me, a Man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard from God; this did not Abraham. <sup>41</sup>Ye do the deeds of your father."

Then they said to Him, "We are not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God." <sup>42</sup>Jesus said unto them,

*"If God were your Father, ye would love Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of Myself, but He sent Me. <sup>43</sup>Why do ye not understand My speech? It is because ye cannot hear My Word. <sup>44</sup>Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.* <sup>45</sup>And because I tell you the truth, ye believe Me not. <sup>46</sup>Which of you convicteth Me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe Me? <sup>47</sup>He that is of God heareth God's words; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."**

<sup>48</sup>Then the Jews answered and said unto Him, "Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan and hast a devil?" <sup>49</sup>Jesus answered,

"I have not a devil, but I honor My Father, and ye do dishonor Me. <sup>50</sup>And I seek not Mine own glory; there is One that seeketh and judgeth. <sup>51</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, if a man keep My saying, he shall never see death."

<sup>52</sup>Then said the Jews unto Him, "Now we know that thou hast a devil! Abraham is dead and the prophets; and thou sayest, 'If a man keep my saying he shall never taste of death.' <sup>53</sup>Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Whom makest thou thyself?" <sup>54</sup>Jesus answered,

"If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. It is My Father that honoreth Me, of whom ye say that He is your God.

<sup>55</sup>Yet ye have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I should say, 'I know Him not,' I would be a liar like unto you. But I know Him and keep His saying. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day; and He saw it and was glad."

<sup>57</sup>Then said the Jews unto Him, "Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?" <sup>58</sup>Jesus said unto them,

"Verily, verily I say unto you, before Abraham was, I am!"

<sup>59</sup>Then they took up stones to cast at Him; but Jesus hid Himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9

♦<sup>1</sup>And as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from his birth. <sup>2</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Master, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered,

"Neither hath this man sinned nor his parents, but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. <sup>4</sup>I must work the works of Him that sent Me while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work. <sup>5</sup>As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world."*

<sup>6</sup>When He had thus spoken, He spat on the ground and made clay with the spittle; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay* <sup>7</sup>and said unto him,

"Go, wash in the pool of Siloam"

(which interpreted means, "Sent"). He went his way therefore and washed, and came back seeing. <sup>8</sup>The neighbors therefore, and those who before had seen that he was blind, said, "Is not this he that sat and begged?" <sup>9</sup>Some said, "This is he." Others said, "He is like him." But he said, "I am he!" <sup>10</sup>Therefore they said unto him, "How were thine eyes opened?" <sup>11</sup>He answered and said, "A man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' And I went and washed, and I received sight." <sup>12</sup>Then they said unto him, "Where is he?" He said, "I know not."

<sup>14</sup>And it was the Sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup>Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, "He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed and do see." <sup>16</sup>Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such miracles?" And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup>They said unto the blind man again, "What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

<sup>18</sup>But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see?" <sup>20</sup>His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup>but by what means he now seeth we know not, or who hath opened his eyes we know not. He is of age; ask him. He shall speak for himself." <sup>22</sup>These words spoke his parents, because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had agreed already that if any man confessed that He was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>Therefore said his parents, "He is of age; ask him."

<sup>24</sup>Then they again called the man who was blind and said unto him, "Give God the praise! We know that this man is a sinner." <sup>25</sup>He answered and said, "Whether he be a sinner or not, I know not. One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see." <sup>26</sup>Then said they to him again, "What did he do to thee? How opened he thine eyes?" <sup>27</sup>He answered them, "I have told you already, and ye did not hear. Why would ye hear it again? Will ye also be his disciples?"

<sup>28</sup>Then they reviled him and said, "Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. <sup>29</sup>We know that God spoke unto Moses. As for this fellow, we know not from whence he comes." <sup>30</sup>The man answered and said unto them, "Why, herein is a marvelous thing: that ye know not from whence he comes, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. <sup>31</sup>Now we know that God heareth not sinners, but if any man be a worshiper of God and doeth His will, him He heareth. <sup>32</sup>Since the world began it was not heard that any man opened the eyes of one who was born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." <sup>34</sup>They answered and said unto him, "Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us?" And they cast him out.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had cast him out. And when He had found him, He said unto him,

"Dost thou believe in the Son of God?"

<sup>36</sup>He answered and said, "Who is he, Lord, that I might believe in him?" <sup>37</sup>And Jesus said unto him,

"Thou hast both seen Him, and it is He that talketh with thee."

<sup>38</sup>And he said, "Lord, I believe!" And he worshiped Him. <sup>39</sup>And Jesus said,

"For judgment I am come into this world, that they who see not might see, and that they that see might be made blind."

<sup>40</sup>And some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said unto Him, "Are we blind also?" <sup>41</sup>Jesus said unto them,

"If ye were blind, ye should have no sin; but now ye say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remaineth."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>"Verily, verily I say unto you, he that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>To him the doorkeeper openeth, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name and leadeth them out. <sup>4</sup>And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him, for they know not the voice of strangers."

<sup>6</sup>This parable Jesus spoke unto them, but they understood not the things of which He spoke unto them.

<sup>7</sup>Then said Jesus unto them again,

*"Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All that ever came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup>I am the door; by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief cometh not but to steal and to kill and to destroy. I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. <sup>11</sup>I am the Good Shepherd; the Good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.* <sup>12</sup>But he that is a hireling and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and leaveth the sheep and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them and scattereth the sheep. <sup>13</sup>The hireling fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I am the Good Shepherd, and know My sheep and am known by Mine."*

*11 Ps 23:1, Isa 40:11, Ezk 34:23, Zch 11:17.

<sup>15</sup>As the Father knoweth Me, even so know I the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold. Them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd.* <sup>17</sup>Therefore doth My Father love Me, because I lay down My life, that I might take it again.* <sup>18</sup>No man taketh it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received from My Father." ♦

<sup>19</sup>There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. <sup>20</sup>And many of them said, "He hath a devil and is mad. Why hear ye him?" <sup>21</sup>Others said, "These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?"

♦<sup>22</sup>And it was at Jerusalem the Feast of the Dedication, and it was winter. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's Porch. <sup>24</sup>Then came the Jews round about Him and said unto Him, "How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly." <sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them,

"I told you, and ye believed not. The works that I do in My Father's name, they bear witness of Me. <sup>26</sup>But ye believe not, because ye are not of My sheep, as I said unto you. <sup>27</sup>My sheep hear My voice, and I know them and they follow Me. <sup>28</sup>And I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand. <sup>29</sup>My Father, who gave them to Me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of My Father's hand. <sup>30</sup>I and My Father are one." ♦

"Many good works have I shown you from My Father. For which of those works do ye stone Me?"

<sup>33</sup>The Jews answered Him, saying, "For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy, and because thou, being a man, makest thyself God." <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them,

*"Is it not written in your law, 'I said "Ye are gods"'? * <sup>35</sup>If He called them gods unto whom the Word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), <sup>36</sup>do ye say of Him whom the Father hath sanctified and sent into the world, 'Thou blasphemest,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? <sup>37</sup>If I do not the works of My Father, believe Me not. <sup>38</sup>But if I do, though ye believe not Me, believe the works, that* ye may know and believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him."

<sup>39</sup>Therefore for they sought again to take Him, but He escaped out of their hand, <sup>40</sup>and went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John had first baptized; and there He abode. <sup>41</sup>And many resorted unto Him, and said that John did no miracle, but all things that John spoke of this man were true. <sup>42</sup>And many believed in Him there.

"This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby."

<sup>5</sup>Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup>When He heard therefore that Lazarus was sick, He stayed two days still in the same place where He was. <sup>7</sup>Then after that He said to His disciples, "Let us go into Judea again."

<sup>8</sup>His disciples said unto Him, "Master, the Jews of late sought to stone Thee, and goest Thou thither again?" <sup>9</sup>Jesus answered,

"Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth because there is no light in him."

<sup>11</sup>These things said He, and after that He said unto them,

"Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awaken him out of sleep."

<sup>12</sup>Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleep he shall do well." <sup>13</sup>How-ever Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He had spoken of the taking of rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said unto them plainly,

"Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent that ye may believe. Nevertheless let us go unto him."

<sup>16</sup>Then Thomas, who was called Didymus, said unto his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

*1 Mt 26:7, Lk 13:22.

<sup>17</sup>Then when Jesus came, He found that he had lain in the grave four days already. <sup>18</sup>Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about two miles away, <sup>19</sup>and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary to comfort them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup>Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him; but Mary sat still in the house. <sup>21</sup>Then Martha said unto Jesus, "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But I know that even now, whatsoever Thou wilt ask of God, God will give it Thee." <sup>23</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Thy brother shall rise again."

<sup>24</sup>Martha said unto Him, "I know that he shall rise again at the Resurrection on the last day."* <sup>25</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"I am the Resurrection and the Life. He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; <sup>26</sup>and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

<sup>27</sup>She said unto Him, "Yéa, Lord. I believe that Thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world."

<sup>28</sup>And when she had so said, she went her way and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, "The Master has come, and calleth for thee."

<sup>29</sup>As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came unto Him.

<sup>30</sup>Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met Him. <sup>31</sup>The Jews then, who were with her in the house and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, "She goeth unto the grave to weep there."

<sup>32</sup>Then when Mary had come where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying unto Him, "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup>When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled, <sup>34</sup>and said,

"Where have ye laid him?"

They said unto Him, "Lord, come and see."

<sup>36</sup>Then said the Jews, "Behold, how he loved him!" <sup>37</sup>And some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?"* <sup>38</sup>Jesus therefore again, groaning in Himself, came to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said,

"Take ye away the stone."

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said unto Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he hath been dead four days." <sup>40</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Said I not unto thee that if thou would believe, thou

should see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup>Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said,

"Father, I thank Thee that Thou hast heard Me. <sup>42</sup>And I knew that Thou hearest Me always, but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that Thou hast sent Me."

<sup>43</sup>And when He thus had spoken, He cried with a loud voice,

"Lazarus, come forth!"

<sup>44</sup>And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes, and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus said unto them,

"Loose him, and let him go."

<sup>45</sup>Then many of the Jews who came to Mary and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed in Him. ♦ <sup>46</sup>But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup>Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council and said, "What shall we do? For this man doeth many miracles. <sup>48</sup>If we let him thus alone, all men will believe in him, and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation." <sup>49</sup>And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, "Ye know nothing at all, <sup>50</sup>nor consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish."* <sup>51</sup>And he spoke this not of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; <sup>52</sup>and not for that nation only, but that also He should gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup>So from that day forth, they took counsel together to put Him to death.* <sup>54</sup>Jesus therefore walked no longer openly among the Jews, but went thence unto a region near the wilderness into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with His disciples.

<sup>55</sup>And the Jews' Passover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>Then they sought for Jesus and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, saying, "What think ye—that he will not come to the feast?" <sup>57</sup>Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command that if any man knew where He was, he should report it, that they might take Him.

believe, but do not confess Him. <sup>44</sup>Therefore Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

♦<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus, six days before the Passover, came to Bethany where Lazarus was, who had been dead and whom He had raised from the dead.* <sup>2</sup>There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. <sup>4</sup>Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son who was to betray Him, said, <sup>5</sup>"Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence and given to the poor?" <sup>6</sup>This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money bag and took from what was put therein.* <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said,

"Let her alone; against the day of My burying hath she kept this. <sup>8</sup>For the poor always ye have with you, but Me ye have not always."

<sup>9</sup>Many people of the Jews therefore knew that He was there. And they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death, <sup>11</sup>because by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>On the next day many people who had come to the feast,* when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took branches of palm trees and went forth to meet Him and cried, "Hosanna!

Blessed is the King of Israel

that cometh in the name of the Lord!"*

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus, when He had found a young ass, sat thereon, as it was written:

behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt."*

<sup>16</sup>These things the disciples understood not at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things unto Him. ♦ <sup>17</sup>The people therefore who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his grave and raised him from the dead, bore record. <sup>18</sup>For this cause the people also met Him, for they heard that He had done this miracle. <sup>19</sup>The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "Perceive ye how ye prevail not at all? Behold, the world has gone after him!"

♦<sup>20</sup>And there were certain Greeks among them, who came up to worship at the feast.* <sup>21</sup>They came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we would see Jesus."

*1 Mt 26:6, Mk 14:3, Lk 7:36. *6 Jn 13:29. *12 Mt 21:1-11, 17, Mk 11:1-11, Lk 19:29-44, 12:12-19. *13 Ps 118:26. *15 Isa 62:11, Zch 9:9. *20 2 Chr 6:32.

<sup>22</sup>Philip went and told Andrew, and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus answered them, saying,

"The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified.

<sup>27</sup>"Now is My soul troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this cause came I unto this hour. <sup>28</sup>Father, glorify Thy name."

Then there came a voice from Heaven, saying, "I HAVE BOTH GLORIFIED IT, AND WILL GLORIFY IT AGAIN." <sup>29</sup>The people therefore who stood by and heard it, said that it thundered. Others said, "An angel spoke to him."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus answered and said,

"This voice came not because of Me, but for your sakes.

<sup>31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. <sup>32</sup>And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me."

<sup>33</sup>This He said, signifying what death He should die. <sup>34</sup>The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that Christ abideth for ever; and how sayest thou, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this son of man?"* <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said unto them,

"Yet a little while is the Light with you. Walk while ye have the Light, lest darkness come upon you; for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

These things spoke Jesus, and departed and hid Himself from them. ♦

<sup>37</sup>But though He had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not in Him, <sup>38</sup>that the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke:

"Lord, who hath believed our report?

*And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?"**

and hardened their heart,

that they should not see with their eyes,

nor understand with their heart,

*<sup>25</sup> Mt 10:39. *<sup>34</sup> Ps 110:4. *<sup>35-36</sup> Mt 26:1-5, 14-16, Mk 14:1,2,10,11, Lk 22:1-6. *<sup>38</sup> Isa 53:1, Rom 10:16.

and be converted,
and I should heal them."*

<sup>41</sup>These things said Isaiah when he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

<sup>42</sup>Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; <sup>43</sup>for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.*

<sup>44</sup>Jesus cried out and said,

*"He that believeth in Me, believeth not in Me, but in Him that sent Me. <sup>45</sup>And he that seeth Me, seeth Him that sent Me. <sup>46</sup>I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth in Me should not abide in darkness. <sup>47</sup>And if any man hear My words and believe not, I judge him not; for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.* <sup>48</sup>He that rejecteth Me and receiveth not My words, hath One that judgeth him; the Word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.* <sup>49</sup>For I have not spoken of Myself; but the Father who sent Me, He gave Me a commandment, what I should say and what I should speak. <sup>50</sup>And I know that His commandment is life everlasting. Whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto Me, so I speak."*

♦♦Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them unto the end. <sup>2</sup>And supper being ended, and the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him, <sup>3</sup>Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands and that He had come from God and was going to God, <sup>4</sup>rose from supper and laid aside His garments, and took a towel and girded himself. <sup>5</sup>After that He poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel wherewith He was girded. <sup>6</sup>Then came He to Simon Peter, and Peter said unto Him, "Lord, dost Thou wash my feet?" <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him,

<sup>8</sup>Peter said unto Him, "Thou shalt never wash my feet." Jesus answered him,

"If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me."

<sup>9</sup>Simon Peter said unto Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head." <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to him,

*"He that is washed needeth not but to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. And ye are clean, but not all."**

<sup>11</sup>(For He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "Ye are not all clean.")

<sup>12</sup>So after He had washed their feet and had taken His garments and had sat down again, He said unto them,

*"Know ye what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup>Ye call Me Master and Lord; and ye say well, for so I am. <sup>14</sup>If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup>For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, the servant is not greater than his lord, neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.* <sup>17</sup>If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.♦*

*<sup>18</sup>"I speak not of you all. I know whom I have chosen; but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He that eateth bread with Me hath lifted up his heel against Me.'* <sup>19</sup>Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am He. <sup>20</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, he that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth Me; and he that receiveth Me, receiveth Him that sent Me."**

♦<sup>21</sup>When Jesus had thus said, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said,

*"Verily, verily I say unto you that one of you shall betray Me."**

<sup>22</sup>Then the disciples looked at one another, not knowing of whom He spoke. <sup>23</sup>Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.* <sup>24</sup>Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom He spoke. <sup>25</sup>He then, leaning on Jesus' breast, said unto Him, "Lord, who is it?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered,

"He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it."

And when He had dipped the sop, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27</sup>And after taking the sop, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said unto him,

<sup>28</sup>Now no man at the table knew with what intent He spoke this unto him. <sup>29</sup>For some of them thought because Judas had the money bag, that Jesus had said unto him, "Buy those things that we have need of for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.* <sup>30</sup>Judas then, having received the sop, went immediately out. And it was night.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus said,
*"Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in Him. <sup>32</sup>If God be glorified in Him, God shall also glorify Him in Himself, and shall straightway glorify Him. <sup>33</sup>Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek Me; and as I said unto the Jews, 'Whither I go ye cannot come,' so now say I to you.* <sup>34</sup>A new commandment I give unto you: that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.* <sup>35</sup>By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one for another." ♦*

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter said unto Him, "Lord, whither goest Thou?" Jesus answered him,

*"Whither I go thou canst not follow Me now, but thou shalt follow Me afterwards."**

<sup>37</sup>Peter said unto Him, "Lord, why cannot I follow Thee now? I will lay down my life for Thy sake." <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered him,

"Wilt thou lay down thy life for My sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, the cock shall not crow until thou hast denied Me thrice."

CHAPTER 14

♦ "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God; believe also in Me. <sup>2</sup>In My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. <sup>4</sup>And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said unto Him, "Lord, we know not whither Thou goest; and how can we know the way?" <sup>6</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no man cometh

unto the Father, but by Me. <sup>7</sup>If ye had known Me, ye should have known My Father also; and from henceforth ye know Him, and have seen Him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said unto Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it will suffice." <sup>9</sup>Jesus said unto him,

*"Have I been so long a time with you, and yet hast thou not known Me, Philip? He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, 'Show us the Father'? <sup>10</sup>Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of Myself; but the Father that dwelleth in Me, He doeth the works. <sup>11</sup>Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me; or else believe Me for the very works' sake. <sup>12</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you, he that believeth in Me, the works that I do he shall do also; and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto My Father. <sup>13</sup>And whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.* <sup>14</sup>If ye shall ask anything in My name, I will do it.*

<sup>15</sup>"If ye love Me, keep My commandments. <sup>16</sup>And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you for ever— <sup>17</sup>even the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him. But ye know Him, for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

<sup>18</sup>"I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Yet a little while and the world seeth Me no more, but ye see Me. Because I live, ye shall live also. <sup>20</sup>At that day ye shall know that I am in My Father, and ye in Me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup>He that hath My commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth Me; and he that loveth Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him." ♦

♦♦<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him,

"If a man love Me, he will keep My words; and My Father will love him, and We will come unto him and make our abode with him. <sup>24</sup>He that loveth Me not, keepeth not My sayings. And the Word which ye hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

<sup>25</sup> "These things have I spoken unto you; being yet present with you. <sup>26</sup> But the Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.*

<sup>27</sup> "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup> Ye have heard how I said unto you, 'I go away and come again unto you.' If ye loved Me, ye would rejoice because I said, 'I go unto the Father,' for My Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.♦

<sup>30</sup> "Hereafter I will not talk much with you, for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in Me. <sup>31</sup> But that the world may know that I love the Father, as the Father gave Me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

♦<sup>1</sup> "I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman. <sup>2</sup> Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. <sup>3</sup> Now are ye clean through the Word which I have spoken unto you.*

<sup>4</sup> "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in Me.

<sup>5</sup> "I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in Me and I in Him, the same bringeth forth much fruit, for without Me ye can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch and is withered; and men gather them and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>7</sup> If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. <sup>8</sup> Herein is My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be My disciples.

Continue ye in My love. <sup>10</sup>If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love, even as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love. <sup>11</sup>These things have I spoken unto you, that My joy might remain in you and that your joy might be full.

<sup>18</sup>"If the world hate you, ye know that it hated Me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup>If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said unto you: 'The servant is not greater than his lord.' If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept My saying, they will keep yours also.* <sup>21</sup>But all these things will they do unto you for My name's sake, because they know not Him that sent Me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin, but now they have no cloak for their sin. <sup>23</sup>He that hateth Me hateth My Father also. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done among them the works which no other man did, they would not have had sin; but now they have both seen and hated both Me and My Father. <sup>25</sup>But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law:

'They hated Me without a cause.' *

♦<sup>26</sup>"But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of Truth who proceedeth from the Father, He shall testify of Me.* <sup>27</sup>And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with Me from the beginning. ♦

<sup>1</sup>"These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not lose faith. <sup>2</sup>They shall put you out of the synagogues; yea, the time cometh that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.* <sup>3</sup>And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. <sup>4</sup>But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them.

♦<sup>5</sup>"And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup>But now I go My way to Him that sent Me, and none of you asketh Me, 'Whither goest Thou?' <sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send Him unto you. <sup>8</sup>And when He is come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: <sup>9</sup>of sin, because they believe not in Me; <sup>10</sup>of righteousness, because I go to My Father and ye see Me no more; <sup>11</sup>of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

<sup>12</sup>"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup>However when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth; for He shall not speak of Himself, but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak; and He will show you things to come. <sup>14</sup>He shall glorify Me, for He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it unto you. <sup>15</sup>All things that the Father hath are Mine; therefore I said that He shall take of Mine, and shall show it unto you.♦

<sup>17</sup>Then said some of His disciples among themselves, "What is this that He saith unto us, 'A little while, and ye shall not see Me; and again a little while, and ye shall see Me,' and, 'because I go to the Father'?"

<sup>18</sup>They said therefore, "What is this that He saith, 'A little while'? We cannot tell what He saith." <sup>19</sup>Now Jesus knew that they were desirous of asking Him, and said unto them,

*2 Mt 10:17, 2, Lk 21:12.

*"Do ye inquire among yourselves of what I said, 'A little while, and ye shall not see Me; and again a little while, and ye shall see Me'? <sup>20</sup>Verily, verily I say unto you that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. <sup>21</sup>A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. <sup>22</sup>And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. <sup>23</sup>And in that day ye shall ask Me nothing. Verily, verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My name, He will give it to you.* <sup>24</sup>Hitherto have ye asked nothing in My name. Ask and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.**

*<sup>25</sup>"These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs; but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day ye shall ask in My name, and I say not unto you that I will pray the Father for you; <sup>27</sup>for the Father Himself loveth you, because ye have loved Me and have believed that I came out from God.* <sup>28</sup>I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."*

<sup>29</sup>His disciples said unto Him, "Lo, now speakest Thou plainly and speakest no proverb. <sup>30</sup>Now are we sure that Thou knowest all things and needest not that any man should ask Thee. By this we believe that Thou camest forth from God." <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them,

*"Do ye now believe? <sup>32</sup>Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave Me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.* <sup>33</sup>These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."*

<sup>1</sup>Christ prayeth to His Father to glorify Him; <sup>6</sup>to preserve His apostles <sup>11</sup>in unity <sup>17</sup>and truth; <sup>20</sup>to glorify them and all other believers with Him in Heaven.

♦♦These words spoke Jesus and lifted up His eyes to Heaven and said,

*"Father, the hour is come. Glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee, <sup>2</sup>as Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him.* <sup>3</sup>And this is life eternal: that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent. <sup>4</sup>I have glorified Thee on the earth; I have finished the work which Thou gavest Me to do. <sup>5</sup>And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine own Self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was.*

*<sup>6</sup>"I have manifested Thy name unto the men whom Thou gavest Me out of the world. Thine they were, and Thou gavest them to Me, and they have kept Thy Word. <sup>7</sup>Now they have known that all things whatsoever Thou hast given Me are of Thee. <sup>8</sup>For I have given unto them the Words which Thou gavest Me; and they have received them and have known surely that I came out from Thee, and they have believed that Thou didst send Me.* <sup>9</sup>I pray for them; I pray not for the world, but for them whom Thou hast given Me, for they are Thine. <sup>10</sup>And all Mine are Thine, and Thine are Mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep through Thine own name those whom Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, as We are. <sup>12</sup>While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Thy name. Those that Thou gavest Me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.**

<sup>13</sup>"And now I come to Thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have My joy fulfilled in themselves. <sup>14</sup>I have given them Thy Word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup>I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil. <sup>16</sup>They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them through Thy truth: Thy Word is truth. <sup>18</sup>As Thou hast sent Me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

*2 Mt 28:18. *8 Jn 16:27. *12 Jn 18:9, Ps 109:7.

20 "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also who shall believe in Me through their word, 21 that they all may be one, as Thou, Father, art in Me and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me. 22 And the glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them, that they may be one, even as We are one: 23 I in them and Thou in Me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that Thou hast sent Me and hast loved them, as Thou hast loved Me.

24 "Father, I will that they also, whom Thou hast given Me, be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which Thou hast given Me; for Thou loved Me before the foundation of the world.

25 "O righteous Father, the world hath not known Thee, but I have known Thee, and these have known that Thou hast sent Me. 26 And I have declared unto them Thy name, and will declare it, that the love wherewith Thou hast loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

"Whom seek ye?"

<sup>5</sup>They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said unto them, "I am He."

And Judas also, who betrayed Him, stood with them. <sup>6</sup>As soon then as He had said unto them, "I am He," they went backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then He asked them again,

"Whom seek ye?"

And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered,

*1 Mt 26:36-46, Mk 14:32-42, Lk 22:39-46. *2 Mt 26:47-56, Mk 14:43-52, Lk 22:47-53.

"I have told you that I am He. If therefore ye seek Me, let these go their way,"

<sup>9</sup>that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, "Of them which Thou gavest Me, have I lost none."* <sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and smote the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Then said Jesus unto Peter,

"Put up thy sword into the sheath. The cup which My Father hath given Me, shall I not drink it?"

<sup>12</sup>Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus and bound Him, <sup>13</sup>and led Him away to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.* <sup>14</sup>Now it was Caiaphas who gave counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.*

<sup>15</sup>And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. <sup>16</sup>But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known unto the high priest, went out and spoke unto her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>17</sup>Then the damsel who kept the door said unto Peter, "Art not thou also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not." <sup>18</sup>And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, for it was cold and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

"I spoke openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue and in the temple whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing. <sup>21</sup>Why askest thou Me? Ask them that heard Me what I have said unto them. Behold, they know what I said."

<sup>22</sup>And when He had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Answerest thou the high priest so?" <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him,

"If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou Me?"

<sup>25</sup>And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, "Art not thou also one of his disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not." <sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, being kinsman of the one whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did not I see thee in the garden with him?" <sup>27</sup>Peter then denied again; and immediately the cock crowed.

*9 Jn 17:12. *13 Mt 26:57,58,69-75, Mk 14:53-54, 66-72, Lk 22:54-62. *14 Jn 11:50. *19 Mt 26:59-68, Mk 14:55-65, Lk 22:63-71.

<sup>28</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas into the hall of judgment. And it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.* <sup>29</sup>Pilate then went out unto them and said, "What accusation bring ye against this man?" <sup>30</sup>They answered and said unto him, "If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee." <sup>31</sup>Then Pilate said unto them, "Take ye him and judge him according to your law." The Jews therefore said unto him, "It is not lawful for us to put any man to death," <sup>32</sup>that the saying which Jesus had spoken,* signifying what death He should die, might be fulfilled.

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus and said unto Him, "Art thou the King of the Jews?*" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered him,

"Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of Me?"

<sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done?" <sup>36</sup>Jesus answered,

"My Kingdom is not of this world. If My Kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews. But now is My Kingdom not from hence."

<sup>37</sup>Pilate therefore said unto Him, "Art thou a king then?" Jesus answered,

"Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth My voice."

<sup>38</sup>Pilate said unto Him, "What is truth?"

And when he said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and said unto them, "I find in him no fault at all. <sup>39</sup>But ye have a custom that I should release unto you one at the Passover. Will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?*" <sup>40</sup>Then cried they all again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.*

on Him a purple robe <sup>3</sup>and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they smote Him with their hands. <sup>4</sup>Pilate therefore went forth again and said unto them, "Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him." <sup>5</sup>Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said unto them, "Behold the man!" <sup>6</sup>When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said unto them, "Ye take him and crucify him, for I find no fault in him." <sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

<sup>8</sup>When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid. <sup>9</sup>And he went again into the judgment hall and said unto Jesus, "From whence art thou?" But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup>Then said Pilate unto Him, "Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?" <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered,

"Thou couldest have no power at all against Me, except it were given thee from above. Therefore he that delivered Me unto thee hath the greater sin."

<sup>12</sup>And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend. Whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar." <sup>13</sup>When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. <sup>14</sup>And it was the preparation of the Passover and about the sixth hour, and Pilate said unto the Jews, "Behold your King!" <sup>15</sup>But they cried out, "Away with him, away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said unto them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!" <sup>16</sup>Then he delivered Him therefore unto them to be crucified.*

And they took Jesus and led Him away. <sup>17</sup>And He, bearing His cross, went forth into a place called the Place of a Skull (which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha) <sup>18</sup>where they crucified Him and two others with Him, one on either side and Jesus in the midst.* <sup>19</sup>And Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>20</sup>Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city, and it was written in Hebrew and Greek and Latin. <sup>21</sup>Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, "Write not 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, I am King of the Jews.'" <sup>22</sup>Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.* 24They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled which saith,

"They parted My raiment among them, and for My vesture did they cast lots."*

These things therefore the soldiers did.

25Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.* 26When Jesus therefore saw His mother and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He said unto His mother,

"Woman, behold thy son!"

27Then said He to the disciple,

"Behold thy mother!"

And from that hour, that disciple took her unto his own home. 28After this Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said,

*"I thirst."**

29Now there was set there a vessel full of vinegar; and they filled a sponge with vinegar and put it upon hyssop, and put it to His mouth. 30When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said,

"It is finished."

And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

31The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, and so that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath day (for that Sabbath day was a high day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away.* 32Then came the soldiers and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. 33But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was dead already, they broke not His legs, 34but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced His side, and forthwith there came out blood and water. 35And he that saw it bore record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith truly, that ye might believe. 36For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled:

*"A bone of Him shall not be broken."**

37And again another Scripture saith,

*"They shall look on Him whom they pierced."**

38And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus. 39And there came also Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds in weight. <sup>40</sup>Then took they the body of Jesus and wound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the manner of the Jews for burial.

<sup>41</sup>Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulcher wherein was never man yet laid. <sup>42</sup>There they laid Jesus therefore because of the Jews' Preparation Day, for the sepulcher was nigh at hand.

<sup>1</sup>On the first day of the week came Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulcher and saw the stone taken away from the sepulcher.* <sup>2</sup>Then she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and said unto them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulcher, and we know not where they have laid Him!"* <sup>3</sup>Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulcher.* <sup>4</sup>And they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came first to the sepulcher. <sup>5</sup>And stooping down and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he went not in. <sup>6</sup>Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulcher and saw the linen cloths as they lay <sup>7</sup>and the napkin that had been about His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped together in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup>Then the other disciple, who came first to the sepulcher, went in also; and he saw, and believed. <sup>9</sup>For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary stood outside at the sepulcher weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the sepulcher,* <sup>12</sup>and saw two angels in white, sitting one at the head and the other at the feet where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>And they said unto her, "Woman, why weepest thou?" She said unto them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him." <sup>14</sup>And when she had thus said, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou?"

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said unto Him, "Sir, if thou have borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, and I will take Him away." <sup>16</sup>Jesus said unto her,

"Mary!"

She turned herself and said unto Him, "Rabboni!" (which is to say, "Master"). <sup>17</sup>Jesus said unto her,

*1 Mt 28:1, Mk 16:1-4, Lk 24:1-3. *2 Jn 13:23, 21:20. *3 Lk 24:12. *11 Mk 16:9-11.

"Touch Me not, for I am not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brethren and say unto them, 'I ascend unto My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.'"

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things unto her.

<sup>19</sup>Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in their midst and said unto them,
*"Peace be unto you."**

<sup>20</sup>And when He had so said, He showed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Then said Jesus to them again,

"Peace be unto you. As My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you."

<sup>22</sup>And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said unto them,

*"Receive ye the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>Whosoever's sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever's sins ye retain, they are retained."**

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>The other disciples therefore said unto him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said unto them, "Unless I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup>And after eight days the disciples were again within, and Thomas was with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in their midst and said,

"Peace be unto you."

<sup>27</sup>Then said He to Thomas,

"Reach hither thy finger and behold My hands, and reach hither thy hand and thrust it into My side: and be not faithless, but believing."

<sup>28</sup>And Thomas answered and said unto Him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"Thomas, because thou hast seen Me, thou hast believed. Blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed."

<sup>30</sup>And many other signs truly did Jesus * in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup>But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing, ye might have life through His name.

And they answered Him, "No." <sup>6</sup>And He said unto them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find."

They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fishes. <sup>7</sup>Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said unto Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his fisher's coat around him (for he was naked) and cast himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup>And the other disciples came in a little boat (for they were not far from land, but as it were, two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fishes. <sup>9</sup>As soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon and bread. <sup>10</sup>Jesus said unto them,

"Bring of the fish which ye have now caught."

<sup>11</sup>Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty three; and though there were so many, yet the net was not broken.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus said unto them, "Come and dine."

And none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who art Thou?" knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Jesus then came and took bread and gave it to them, and fish likewise. <sup>14</sup>This is now the third time that Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was risen from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>So when they had dined, Jesus said to Simon Peter,

"Simon, son of Jonah, lovest thou Me more than these?"

He said unto Him, "Yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee." He said unto him,

"Feed My lambs."

<sup>16</sup>He said to him again the second time,

"Simon, son of Jonah, lovest thou Me?"

He said unto Him, "Yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee." He said unto him,

"Feed My sheep."

<sup>17</sup>He said unto him the third time,

"Simon, son of Jonah, lovest thou Me?"

Peter was grieved because He said unto him the third time, "Lovest thou Me?" And he said unto Him, "Lord, Thou knowest all things. Thou knowest that I love Thee." Jesus said unto him,

"Feed My sheep."

<sup>18</sup>"Verily, verily I say unto thee, when thou wast young, thou girded thyself and walked whither thou wouldest; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee and carry thee whither thou wouldest not."

<sup>19</sup>This spoke He, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said unto him,

"Follow Me." ♦

<sup>20</sup>Then Peter, turning about, saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following,* who also had leaned on His breast at supper, and said, "Lord, who is he that betrayeth Thee?" <sup>21</sup>Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, and what shall this man do?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus said unto him,

"If I will that he tarry until I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou Me."

<sup>23</sup>Then this saying went abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die. Yet Jesus had not said unto him, "He shall not die," but, "If I will that he tarry until I come, what is that to thee?" <sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who testifieth of these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup>And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if every one of them should be written, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written.*

Amen.

The Acts

OF THE APOSTLES

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Christ, preparing His apostles for the beholding of His ascension, gathereth them together unto Mount Olivet, commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Spirit, and promiseth after a few days to send it, by virtue whereof they should be witnesses unto Him even to the utmost parts of the earth. <sup>9</sup>After His ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon His second coming. <sup>12</sup>They accordingly return, and giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias as apostle in the place of Judas.

♦♦In the former treatise, O Theophilus, I gave an account of all that Jesus began both to do and to teach <sup>2</sup>up to the day in which He was taken up, after He had given commandments through the Holy Spirit unto the apostles, whom He had chosen. <sup>3</sup>To these also He showed Himself alive after His passion by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>And being assembled together with them, He commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father,*

*"which," saith He, "ye have heard from Me; <sup>5</sup>for John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence."**

<sup>6</sup>When they therefore had come together, they asked of Him, saying, "Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" <sup>7</sup>And He said unto them,

"It is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father hath put in His own power. <sup>8</sup>But ye shall receive power after the Holy Spirit is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

<sup>9</sup>And when He had spoken these things, while they beheld, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight* <sup>10</sup>And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, <sup>11</sup>who also said, "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who is taken up from you into Heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven."

*4 Lk 24:49. *5 Mt 3:11. *9 Lk 24:51.

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath day's journey. <sup>13</sup>And when they had come in, they went into an upper room where abode both Peter and James, and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. <sup>14</sup>These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brethren.

<sup>15</sup>And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples (the number altogether were about a hundred and twenty) and said, <sup>16</sup>"Men and brethren, it was necessary that this Scripture be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who was the guide to those who took Jesus.* <sup>17</sup>For he was numbered with us, and had obtained a part of this ministry. ♦ <sup>18</sup>Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the middle, and all his bowels gushed out.* <sup>19</sup>And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, so that the field is called in their proper tongue, Akel Dama, that is to say, the Field of Blood.* <sup>20</sup>For it is written in the book of Psalms:

'Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein;'

and,

'His bishopric let another take.'

♦♦<sup>21</sup>Therefore from these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John until that same day that He was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of His resurrection." <sup>23</sup>And they appointed two: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And they prayed and said, "Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show us which of these two Thou hast chosen, <sup>25</sup>that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place." <sup>26</sup>And they cast their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>The apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit and speaking divers languages, are admired by some and derided by others. <sup>14</sup>Peter, disproving these, showeth that the apostles spoke by the power of the Holy Spirit that Jesus had risen from the dead, ascended into Heaven, had poured down the same Holy Spirit, and was the Messiah, a man known to them to be approved of God by His miracles, wonders and signs, and not crucified without God's established plan and foreknowledge. <sup>37</sup>He baptizeth a great number who were converted. <sup>41</sup>who afterwards devoutly and charitably converse together, the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing His church.

one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>And there appeared unto them cloven tongues as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.*

<sup>5</sup>And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men out of every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup>Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together and were confounded, because every man heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup>And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, "Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans?" <sup>8</sup>And how then do we each hear them speaking in our own tongue wherein we were born? <sup>9</sup>Parthians, Medes, Elamites and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup>Cretans and Arabians—we hear them speak in our own tongues the wonderful works of God." <sup>12</sup>And they were all amazed and were in doubt, saying one to another, "What meaneth this?" <sup>13</sup>Others mocking said, "These men are full of new wine."

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said unto them, "Ye men of Judea and all ye who dwell in Jerusalem, be this known to you, and hearken to my words. <sup>15</sup>For these are not drunken as you suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day; <sup>16</sup>but this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>And it shall come to pass
in the last days, saith God,
I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh;
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.*

<sup>18</sup>And on My servants and on My handmaidens I will pour out in those days My Spirit, and they shall prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath—blood and fire and vapor of smoke.

<sup>20</sup>The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood
before that great and notable Day of the Lord come.

<sup>21</sup>And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.*

<sup>22</sup>"Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man approved of God among you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which *4 Lk 16:17. *17 Isa 44:3. *17-21 Joel 2:28-32.

God did through Him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know—23Him, being delivered up in accordance with the established plan and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. 24But God hath raised Him up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held. 25For David speaketh concerning Him:

‘I beheld the Lord always before my face, for He is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

26Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad;
 moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope,

27because Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt Thou permit Thine Holy One to see corruption.

28Thou hast made known to me the ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of joy with Thy countenance.’*

29Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David. He is both dead and buried, and his sepulcher is with us unto this day.*

30Therefore, being a prophet and knowing that God had sworn an oath to him, that from the fruit of his loins He would raise up Christ in the flesh to sit on his throne,* 31David, foreseeing this, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that ‘His soul was not left in hell, neither did His flesh see corruption.’* 32This Jesus hath God raised up, of which we are all witnesses. ♦ 33Therefore, being exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He hath poured forth this which ye now see and hear. 34For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he himself saith,

‘The LORD said unto my Lord, “Sit Thou on My right hand
 35 until I make Thy foes Thy footstool.” ’ * *

♦♦36Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

37Now when they heard this, they were pierced in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, “Men and brethren, what shall we do?” 38Then Peter said unto them, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all who are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.”

40And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, “Save yourselves from this untoward generation.” 41Then those who gladly received his words were baptized, and that same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in the breaking of bread and in prayers. 43And fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. <sup>44</sup>And all who believed were together and had all things in common, <sup>45</sup>and they sold their possessions and goods and divided them among all men, as every man had need. <sup>46</sup>And continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, <sup>47</sup>praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. ♦

CHAPTER 3

Peter, preaching to the people who came to see a lame man restored to his feet, <sup>12</sup>professeth the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power or holiness, but by God and His Son Jesus, through faith in His name. <sup>13</sup>Thereupon he reprehendeth them for crucifying Jesus, <sup>17</sup>which they did through ignorance, and thereby fulfilled God's established plan and the Scriptures. <sup>19</sup>He exhorteth them, by repentance and faith, to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

<sup>11</sup>And as the lame man who had been healed held onto Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch, which is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. ♦♦<sup>12</sup>And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, "Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? Or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man walk? <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified His Son Jesus, whom ye delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate when he was determined to let Him go. <sup>14</sup>But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you,* <sup>15</sup>and killed the Prince of Life whom God hath raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>And His name, through faith in His name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know. Yea, the faith which is by Him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17“And now, brethren, I know that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. 18But those things which God before had shown by the mouth of all His prophets, that Christ should suffer, He hath thus fulfilled. 19Repent ye therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. ♦ 20Then He shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached unto you, 21whom Heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began. 22For Moses truly said unto the fathers, ‘A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from your brethren, like unto me; Him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever He shall say unto you.’ * 23And it shall come to pass that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people.’ * 24Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. 25Ye are children of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, ‘And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.’ * 26Unto you first, God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to bless you in turning every one of you away from his iniquities.”

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>The rulers of the Jews, offended with Peter's sermon <sup>4</sup>(though thousands of the people were converted that heard the Word), imprison him and John. <sup>5</sup>Afterward, upon examination, Peter boldly avowing the lame man to have been healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only, we must be eternally saved, <sup>13</sup>they command him and John to preach no more in that Name, adding also threats, <sup>23</sup>whereupon the church fleeth to prayer. <sup>31</sup>And God, by moving the place where they were assembled, testified that He heard their prayer, confirming the church with the gift of the Holy Spirit, and with mutual love and charity.

1And as they spoke unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, 2being aggrieved that they taught the people and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3And they laid hands on them and put them in hold until the next day, for it was now eventide. 4However, many of those who had heard the Word believed, the number of the men being about five thousand.

♦5And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes, 6and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and those who were kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. 7And when they had set them in their midst, they asked, “By what power, or by what name have ye done this?” 8Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, “Ye rulers of the people and elders of Israel, <sup>9</sup>if we this day are examined about the good deed done to the infirm man, and by what means he is made whole, <sup>10</sup>be it known unto you all and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified and whom God raised from the dead, even by Him doth this man stand here before you whole. <sup>11</sup>This is 'the stone which was set at nought by you builders* and which has become the head of the corner.' <sup>12</sup>Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved."♦

<sup>13</sup>Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took note of them that they had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>15</sup>But when they had commanded them to go outside the council, they conferred among themselves, <sup>16</sup>saying, "What shall we do with these men? For indeed, that a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. <sup>17</sup>But so that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name." <sup>18</sup>And they called them back and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But Peter and John answered and said unto them, "Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than to God, judge ye; <sup>20</sup>for we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." <sup>21</sup>So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing for which they might punish them, because of the people; for all men glorified God for that which had been done. <sup>22</sup>For the man on whom this miracle of healing was shown was over forty years old.

<sup>23</sup>And being let go, they went to their own company and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said unto them. <sup>24</sup>And when they heard this, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord and said, "Lord, Thou art God who hast made heaven and earth and the sea and all that is in them, <sup>25</sup>who by the mouth of Thy servant David hast said,

'Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?
<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against His Christ.' *

<sup>27</sup>For truly against Thy holy Child Jesus, whom Thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel had gathered together, <sup>28</sup>to do whatsoever Thy hand and Thy counsel determined before to be done. <sup>29</sup>And now, Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant unto Thy servants that with all boldness they may speak Thy Word, <sup>30</sup>by stretching forth Thine hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of Thy holy child Jesus." <sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the Word of God with boldness.

♦♦<sup>32</sup>And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul; neither said any one of them that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. <sup>33</sup>And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>Neither was there any among them that lacked, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold <sup>35</sup>and laid them down at the apostles' feet. And distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. ♦ <sup>36</sup>And Joses, who was surnamed by the apostles Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, "the Son of Consolation"), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, <sup>37</sup>having land, sold it and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5

After Ananias and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisy at Peter's rebuke had fallen down dead, <sup>12</sup>and the rest of the apostles had wrought many miracles, <sup>14</sup>to the increase of the faith, <sup>17</sup>the apostles are again imprisoned, <sup>19</sup>but delivered by an angel bidding them to preach openly to all. <sup>21</sup>After their teaching accordingly in the temple <sup>29</sup>and before the council, <sup>33</sup>when they are in danger of being killed, through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counselor among the Jews, they are kept alive <sup>40</sup>and are but beaten, for which they glorify God and cease no day from preaching.

<sup>7</sup>And it was about the space of three hours later when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. <sup>8</sup>And Peter said unto her, "Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much?" And she said, "Yea, for so much." <sup>9</sup>Then Peter said unto her, "How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried thy husband are at the door and shall carry thee out." <sup>10</sup>Then she fell down straightway at his feet and yielded up her spirit. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. <sup>11</sup>And great fear came upon all the church and upon as many as heard these things.

<sup>12</sup>And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people, and they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch. <sup>13</sup>But of the rest, no man dared join himself to them, but the people magnified them. <sup>14</sup>And more believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women, <sup>15</sup>insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. <sup>16</sup>There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks and those who were beset with unclean spirits; and they were healed, every one.

<sup>17</sup>Then the high priest rose up and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees); and they were filled with indignation, <sup>18</sup>and laid their hands upon the apostles, and put them in the common prison. <sup>19</sup>But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth and said, <sup>20</sup>"Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life." <sup>21</sup>And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning and taught.

But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together with all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup>But when the officers came and found them not in the prison, they returned and reported, saying, <sup>23</sup>"The prison truly found we shut with all safety and the keepers standing outside before the doors; but when we had opened them, we found no man within." <sup>24</sup>Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were in doubt about them as to where this would grow. <sup>25</sup>Then there came one and told them, saying, "Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." <sup>26</sup>Then the captain went with his officers and brought them without violence, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

♦<sup>27</sup>And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, <sup>28</sup>saying, "Did not we strictly command you that ye should not teach in this name? And behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine and intend to bring this man's blood upon us." <sup>29</sup>Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, "We ought to obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. <sup>31</sup>Him hath God exalted with His right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. <sup>32</sup>And we are His witnesses of these things, and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey Him."♦

<sup>33</sup>When they heard this, they were cut to the heart and took counsel to slay them. <sup>34</sup>Then there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law held in honor among all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside a little while. <sup>35</sup>And he said unto them, "Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do concerning these men. <sup>36</sup>For before these days Theudas rose up, boasting himself to be somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and brought to nought. <sup>37</sup>After this man, rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed. <sup>38</sup>And now I say unto you, refrain from these men and let them alone, for if this counsel or this work is of men, it will come to nought; <sup>39</sup>but if it is of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest it may happen ye be found even to fight against God." <sup>40</sup>And with him they agreed. And when they had called the apostles back and had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

<sup>41</sup>And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name. <sup>42</sup>And daily in the temple and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>The apostles, desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, and also careful themselves to dispense the Word of God, the food of the soul, <sup>3</sup>appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men, <sup>5</sup>of whom Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, is one. <sup>12</sup>He is taken by those whom he confounded in disputing, <sup>13</sup>and afterward falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

<sup>1</sup>And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. <sup>2</sup>Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them and said, "It is not fitting that we should leave the Word of God to serve tables. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, brethren, look ye out among you for seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. <sup>4</sup>But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the Word." <sup>5</sup>And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip and Prochorus and Nicanor, and Timon and Parmenas and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch, <sup>6</sup>whom they set before the apostles. And when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

<sup>7</sup>And the Word of God increased; and the number of disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly, and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

<sup>8</sup>And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. <sup>9</sup>Then there arose certain from the synagogue which is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, and Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and those of Cilicia and of Asia, and they disputed with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. <sup>11</sup>Then they suborned men who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God." <sup>12</sup>And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and came upon him and caught him, and brought him to the council. <sup>13</sup>And they set up false witnesses, who said, "This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law; <sup>14</sup>for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered to us." <sup>15</sup>And all who sat on the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw that his face was as though it were the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Then said the high priest, "Are these things so?" <sup>2</sup>And Stephen said, "Men, brethren and fathers, hearken! The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, <sup>3</sup>and said unto him, 'Get thee out of thy country and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee.' * <sup>4</sup>Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran; and from thence, when his father was dead, He removed himself into this land wherein ye now dwell.* <sup>5</sup>And He gave him no inheritance in it—no, not enough to set his foot on; yet He promised that He would give it to him as his possession and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.* <sup>6</sup>And God spoke, saying this: that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should be brought into bondage and be mistreated for four hundred years.* <sup>7</sup>And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge,' said God, 'and after that shall they come forth, and serve Me in this place.' * <sup>8</sup>And He gave him the covenant of circumcision.* And so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; * and Isaac begot Jacob,* and Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.* <sup>9</sup>And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt.* But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his house.*

11" Now there came a famine and great affliction over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he first sent out our fathers.* 13 And on the second visit Joseph was made known to his brethren, and Joseph's kindred were made known unto Pharaoh.* 14 Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob to him and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.* 15 So Jacob went down into Egypt and died, he and our fathers.* 16 And they were carried back into Shechem, and laid in the sepulcher that Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

17" But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 until another king arose who knew not Joseph. 19 He dealt craft-ily with our kindred and ill-treated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end that they might not live. 20 At that time Moses was born and was exceedingly fair,* and was nourished in his father's house three months.* 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up and nourished him as her own son. 22 And Moses became learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23" And when he was fully forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian,* 25 for he supposed his brethren would have understood how God, by his hand, would deliver them; but they understood not. 26 And the next day he showed himself unto those who were quarreling, and would have set them at one again, saying, 'Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one another?' * 27 But he that was doing his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, 'Who made thee a ruler and judge over us? 28 Wilt thou kill me as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 Then Moses fled at this saying and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begot two sons.

30" And when forty years had expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai an angel of the Lord, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, saying, 32 'I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' Then Moses trembled and dared not behold. 33 Then said the Lord to him, 'Put off thy shoes from thy feet, for the place where thou standest is holy ground. 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.' *

<sup>35</sup>"This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made thee a ruler and a judge?',"* was the one whom God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer, by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup>He brought them out* after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.* <sup>37</sup>This is that Moses who said unto the children of Israel, 'A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from your brethren, like unto me; Him shall ye hear.'* <sup>38</sup>This is he, who in the church in the wilderness was with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers—the one who received the living oracles to give unto us,* <sup>39</sup>to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, <sup>40</sup>saying unto Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what has become of him.'* <sup>41</sup>And they made a calf in those days and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

<sup>42</sup>"Then God turned, and gave them up to the worship of the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets: 'O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to Me slain beasts and sacrifices for the space of forty years in the wilderness? <sup>43</sup>Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Remphan, and images which ye made to worship them. And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'*

<sup>44</sup>"Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as He had appointed, speaking unto Moses that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen,* <sup>45</sup>which also our fathers, who came later, brought with Joshua into the territory of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the days of David. <sup>46</sup>David found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. <sup>47</sup>But Solomon built Him a house.*

<sup>49</sup>Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool.

What house will ye build Me? saith the Lord.

Or what is the place of My rest?

<sup>51</sup>"Ye stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so do ye! <sup>52</sup>Which of the prophets have your fathers not persecuted? And they have slain those who announced in advance the coming of the Just One. Of Him ye have now been the betrayers and murderers, <sup>53</sup>ye who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it."

<sup>54</sup>When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed with their teeth at him. <sup>45</sup>But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, <sup>56</sup>and he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." <sup>57</sup>Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, <sup>58</sup>and cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of the young man whose name was Saul. <sup>59</sup>And they stoned Stephen as he called upon God and said, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" <sup>60</sup>And he kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, charge not this sin against them."* And when he had said this, he fell asleep. ♦

CHAPTER 8

On occasion of the persecution in Jerusalem, the church, being planted in Samaria, <sup>5</sup>by Philip the deacon who preached did miracles and baptized many, among whom was Simon the sorcerer, a great seducer of the people. <sup>14</sup>Peter and John come to confirm and enlarge the church: here by prayer and laying on of hands and giving the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>When Simon would have bought the same power from them, <sup>20</sup>Peter sharply reproves his hypocrisy and covetousness, and exhorts him to repentance. Together with John, preaching the Word of the Lord, they return to Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>But the angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>2</sup>And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. <sup>3</sup>As for Saul, he made havoc of the church. Entering into every house and haling men and women, he committed them to prison.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore those who were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the Word. <sup>5</sup>Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. <sup>6</sup>And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. <sup>7</sup>For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed with them; and many taken with palsies and who were lame, were healed.* <sup>8</sup>And there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup>But there was a certain man called Simon, who earlier in the same city, had used sorcery and bewitched the people of Samaria, claiming that he himself was someone great, <sup>10</sup>to whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is great with the power of God." <sup>11</sup>And for him they had regard, because for a long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. <sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip's preaching of the things concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup>Then

*60 Mt 5:44. *7 Isa 35:6.

Simon himself believed also; and when he was baptized he continued on with Philip and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

♦♦<sup>14</sup>Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John, <sup>15</sup>who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>(For as yet, He had fallen upon none of them, for they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). <sup>17</sup>Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ♦ <sup>18</sup>And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup>saying, "Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." <sup>20</sup>But Peter said unto him, "Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money! <sup>21</sup>Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. <sup>22</sup>Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God that perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. <sup>23</sup>For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity." <sup>24</sup>Then Simon answered and said, "Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me." <sup>25</sup>And they, when they had testified and preached the Word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

♦♦<sup>26</sup>And the angel of the Lord spoke unto Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south onto the road that goeth down from Jerusalem into Gaza, which is desert." <sup>27</sup>And he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasure and had come to Jerusalem to worship,* <sup>28</sup>was returning; and sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet. <sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit said unto Philip, "Go near and join thyself to this chariot." <sup>30</sup>And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Understandest thou what thou readest?" <sup>31</sup>And he said, "How can I, unless some man should guide me?" And he besought Philip that he would come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup>The place of the Scripture from which he read was this:

"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
and like a lamb before his shearer is dumb,
so opened He not His mouth.

<sup>33</sup>In His humiliation, His judgment was taken away.

And who shall declare His generation?

For His life is taken from the earth."*

<sup>34</sup>And the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? Of himself, or of some other man?" <sup>35</sup>Then *27 2 Chr 6:32. *32-33 Isa 53:7-8.

Philip opened his mouth and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What doth hinder me from being baptized?" <sup>37</sup>And Philip said, "If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." <sup>38</sup>And he commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. <sup>39</sup>And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip. And the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus, and passing through, he preached in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

<sup>1</sup>And Saul, still breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest <sup>2</sup>and asked of him letters to the synagogues at Damascus, that if he found any who were of this Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And as he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shone round about him a light from heaven. <sup>4</sup>And he fell to the earth and heard a voice saying unto him,

"Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"

<sup>5</sup>And he said, "Who art thou, Lord?" And the Lord said,

"I am Jesus whom thou persecutest; it is hard for thee to kick against the goads."

<sup>6</sup>And he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" And the Lord said unto him,

"Arise and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do."

<sup>7</sup>And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no man. <sup>8</sup>And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he could see no man; but they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>And he was three days without sight, and neither did he eat nor drink.

<sup>10</sup>And there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision,

"Ananias."

And he said, "Behold, I am here, Lord." <sup>11</sup>And the Lord said unto him,

"Arise and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for the one called Saul of Tarsus; for behold, he prayeth <sup>12</sup>and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight."

<sup>13</sup>Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many of this man, and how much evil he hath done to Thy saints in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Thy name." <sup>15</sup>But the Lord said unto him,

"Go thy way, for he is a chosen vessel unto Me, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. <sup>16</sup>For I will show him how greatly he must suffer for My name's sake."

<sup>17</sup>And Ananias went his way and entered into the house, and putting his hand on him said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus who appeared unto thee on the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." <sup>18</sup>And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received sight forthwith; and he arose and was baptized. <sup>19</sup>And when he had received meat, he was strengthened.

Then was Saul certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus. <sup>20</sup>And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God. ♦ <sup>21</sup>But all that heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this he that destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither with the intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?" <sup>22</sup>But Saul increased the more in strength and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that Jesus is the very Christ.

<sup>23</sup>And after many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him. <sup>24</sup>But their lying in wait became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.* <sup>25</sup>Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall in a basket.

<sup>26</sup>And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him and believed not that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord on the way and that He had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>And he was with them, coming in and going out at Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup>And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and debated with the Grecian Jews, but they went about to slay him. <sup>30</sup>And when the brethren found this out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him forth to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>Then the churches throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had rest and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.

<sup>32</sup>And it came to pass, as Peter was passing throughout all quarters,

he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda. <sup>33</sup>And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years and was sick with the palsy. <sup>34</sup>And Peter said unto him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed." And he arose immediately. <sup>35</sup>And all who dwelt in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and turned to the Lord.

♦♦<sup>36</sup>Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha (which interpreted means Dorcas). This woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. <sup>37</sup>And it came to pass in those days that she was sick and died; and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. <sup>38</sup>And inasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, entreating him that he should not delay to come to them. <sup>39</sup>Then Peter arose and went with them. And when he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber; and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup>But Peter put them all outside and kneeled down and prayed, and turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. <sup>41</sup>And he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and calling in the saints and widows, he presented her to them alive. <sup>42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup>And it came to pass that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner. ♦

<sup>1</sup>There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian Band, <sup>2</sup>a devout man and one who feared God with all his house, who gave many alms to the people and prayed to God always. <sup>3</sup>He saw in a vision clearly, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him and saying unto him, "Cornelius!" <sup>4</sup>And when he looked at him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said unto him, "Thy prayers and thine alms have risen up as a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup>And now send men to Joppa and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter. <sup>6</sup>He lodgeth with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside; he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do." <sup>7</sup>And when the angel who spoke unto Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from those who waited on him continually. <sup>8</sup>And when he had related all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup>On the morrow, as they went on their journey and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup>And he became very hungry and desired to eat; but while they were making ready, he fell into a trance, <sup>11</sup>and saw heaven opened and a certain vessel descending unto him as though it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners and let down to the earth, <sup>12</sup>wherein were all kinds of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the air. <sup>13</sup>And there came a voice to him,

"Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

<sup>14</sup>But Peter said, "Not so, Lord, for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."* <sup>15</sup>And the voice spoke unto him again the second time,

"What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common."

<sup>16</sup>This was done thrice, and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

<sup>17</sup>Now while Peter wondered to himself what this vision which he had seen could mean, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house and stood before the gate, <sup>18</sup>and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodged there. <sup>19</sup>While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, "Behold, three men seek thee. <sup>20</sup>Arise therefore, and get thee down and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them." <sup>21</sup>Then Peter went down to the men who were sent unto him from Cornelius and said, "Behold, I am he whom ye seek: What is the cause for which ye have come?" <sup>22</sup>And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man and one who feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house and to hear words from thee." <sup>23</sup>Then Peter called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>24</sup>And the day after that they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. <sup>25</sup>And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter took him up, saying, "Stand up; I myself also am a man." <sup>27</sup>And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. <sup>28</sup>And he said unto them, "Ye know that it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to keep company with or to come unto one of another nation. But God hath shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean." <sup>29</sup>Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying as soon as I was sent for. I ask therefore, with what intent ye have sent for me?" <sup>30</sup>And Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>31</sup>and said, 'Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms have been remembered in the sight of God. <sup>32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter. He is lodged in the house of one Simon, a tanner, by the seaside. He, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.<sup>33</sup> Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast done well, that thou hast come. Now therefore are we all here present before God to hear all things which are commanded thee from God."

♦♦<sup>34</sup>Then Peter opened his mouth and said, "In truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons,* <sup>35</sup>but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness is accepted by Him. <sup>36</sup>The Word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ (He is Lord of all)—<sup>37</sup>that Word, I say, ye know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: <sup>38</sup>how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him. <sup>39</sup>And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem—He whom they hanged on a tree and slew. <sup>40</sup>Him God raised up the third day and showed Him openly, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen in advance by God, even to us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>And He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained of God to be the Judge of the living and dead. <sup>43</sup>To Him all the prophets bear witness, that through His name whosoever believeth in Him shall receive remission of sins."*

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the Word. <sup>45</sup>And those of the Circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out also on the Gentiles. <sup>46</sup>For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then answered Peter, <sup>47</sup>"Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit, as well as we?" <sup>48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they entreated him to tarry certain days.

<sup>1</sup>And the apostles and the brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the Word of God. <sup>2</sup>And when Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the Circumcision contended with him, <sup>3</sup>saying, "Thou wentest into the houses of uncircumcised men and didst eat with them." <sup>4</sup>But Peter reviewed the matter from the beginning and expounded it in order unto them, saying, <sup>5</sup>"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. A certain vessel descended as though it had been a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me. <sup>6</sup>And when I had fastened my eyes on it, I considered it and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things and fowls of the air. <sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice saying unto me, 'Arise, Peter; slay and eat.' <sup>8</sup>But I said, 'Not so, Lord, for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.' <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.' <sup>10</sup>And this was done three times, and all were then drawn up again into heaven. <sup>11</sup>And behold, immediately three men had already come into the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me. <sup>12</sup>And the Spirit bade me go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house. <sup>13</sup>And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said unto him, 'Send men to Joppa and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter, <sup>14</sup>who shall tell thee words whereby thou and all of thy house shall be saved.' <sup>15</sup>And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.* <sup>16</sup>Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'* <sup>17</sup>If therefore God gave them the same gift as He did unto us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?" <sup>18</sup>When they heard these things, they fell silent, and glorified God, saying, "Then hath God also granted repentance unto life to the Gentiles."♦

<sup>19</sup>Now those who had been scattered abroad in the persecution that arose on account of Stephen, traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the Word to none except unto the Jews only.* <sup>20</sup>And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke unto the Greeks, preaching the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned unto the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. <sup>23</sup>And when he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad and exhorted them all, that with steadfast heart they would cleave unto the Lord, <sup>24</sup>for he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And many people were added unto the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus to seek out Saul; <sup>26</sup>and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that for a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught many people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

that there would be a great famine throughout all the world, which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. <sup>29</sup>Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren who dwelt in Judea. <sup>30</sup>This they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>6</sup>And when Herod would have brought him forth, that same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers were guarding the door of the prison. <sup>7</sup>And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison; and he smote Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise up quickly." And his chains fell off from his hands. <sup>8</sup>And the angel said unto him, "Gird thyself and bind on thy sandals." And so he did. And the angel said unto him, "Cast thy garment about thee and follow me." <sup>9</sup>And he went out and followed him, and knew not whether what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. <sup>10</sup>When they had passed the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord. And they went out and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup>And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know in truth that the Lord hath sent His angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod and from all the expectations of the people of the Jews." <sup>12</sup>And when he had reflected thereon, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying. <sup>13</sup>And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup>And when she recognized Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in and told how Peter stood before the gate. <sup>15</sup>And they said unto her, "Thou art mad." But she continued to affirm that it was even so. Then they said, "It is his angel." <sup>16</sup>But Peter continued knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. <sup>17</sup>But he, beckoning unto them with his hand for quiet, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go and tell these things unto James and to the brethren." And he departed and went into another place.

<sup>18</sup>Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup>And when Herod had sought him and found him not, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

<sup>20</sup>And Herod was highly displeased with those from Tyre and Sidon. But they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was nourished by the king's country. <sup>21</sup>And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne and delivered an oration unto them. <sup>22</sup>And the people gave a shout, saying, "It is the voice of a god, and not of a man!" <sup>23</sup>And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory; and he was eaten by worms and gave up the ghost.

<sup>1</sup>Now there were in the church at Antioch certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup>As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." <sup>3</sup>And when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

<sup>4</sup>So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>And when they were at Salamis, they preached the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John in their ministry.

<sup>6</sup>And when they had gone through the whole isle to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus. <sup>7</sup>He was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the Word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) opposed them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. <sup>9</sup>Then Saul (who also is called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him <sup>10</sup>and said, "O, full of all guile and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness, and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Now when Paul and his company cast loose from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. <sup>15</sup>And after the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, "Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on." <sup>16</sup>Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said:

"Men of Israel and ye that fear God, give attention! <sup>17</sup>The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt,* and with uplifted arm He brought them out of it.* <sup>18</sup>And for about forty years, He bore with their ways in the wilderness.* <sup>19</sup>And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He divided their land among them by lot.* <sup>20</sup>And after that, He gave unto them judges for about the space of four hundred and fifty years,* until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>And afterward they desired a king, and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years.* <sup>22</sup>And when He had removed him, He raised up unto them David to be their king,* to whom also He gave testimony and said, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after Mine own heart, who shall fulfill all My will.' * <sup>23</sup>Of this man's seed hath God, according to His promise, raised unto Israel a Savior, Jesus.* <sup>24</sup>John had first preached before His coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.* <sup>25</sup>And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'Whom think ye that I am? I am not He. But behold, there cometh One after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.' *

<sup>26</sup>"Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. <sup>27</sup>For those who dwell in Jerusalem and their rulers, because they knew Him not, nor did they understand the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning Him. <sup>28</sup>And though they found no cause for death in Him, yet they asked Pilate that He should be slain.* <sup>29</sup>And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a sepulcher. <sup>30</sup>But God raised Him from the dead,* <sup>31</sup>and He was seen many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses unto the people. <sup>32</sup>And we declare unto you glad tidings of the promise which was made unto the fathers: <sup>33</sup>God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that He hath raised up Jesus again, as it is also written in the second Psalm:

‘Thou art My Son;
this day have I begotten Thee.’ *

<sup>34</sup>And concerning that He raised Him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, He said thus:

‘I will give you the sure mercies of David.’ *

<sup>35</sup>Wherefore He saith also in another Psalm:

‘Thou shalt not permit Thine Holy One to see corruption.’ *

<sup>36</sup>For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers,* and saw corruption. <sup>37</sup>But He whom God raised again saw no corruption. <sup>38</sup>Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; <sup>39</sup>and by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the Law of Moses. <sup>40</sup>Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the Prophets:

and wonder and perish;
for I work a work in your days,
a work in which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.’**

<sup>42</sup>And when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. <sup>43</sup>Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup>And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the Word of God. <sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the multitudes they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. <sup>46</sup>Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold and said, “It was necessary that the Word of God should first have been spoken to you. But seeing ye put it from you and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.* <sup>47</sup>For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

‘I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest bring salvation unto the ends of the earth.'''*

<sup>48</sup>And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the Word of the Lord; and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

<sup>49</sup>And the Word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women and the chief men of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their borders. <sup>51</sup>But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.* <sup>52</sup>And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass in Iconium that together they both went into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude of both the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and planted evil in their minds against the brethren. <sup>3</sup>A long time therefore they tarried among them, speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of His grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup>But the multitude of the city was divided, and part held with the Jews and part with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>And when there was an assault arranged, by both the Gentiles and also the Jews with their rulers, to use them spitefully and to stone them, <sup>6</sup>they were aware of it and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about. <sup>7</sup>And there they preached the Gospel.

<sup>8</sup>And there sat at Lystra a certain man, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. <sup>9</sup>This same one heard Paul speak, who, steadfastly beholding him and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup>said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on thy feet!" And he leaped and walked.* <sup>11</sup>And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men." <sup>12</sup>And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup>Then the priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates and would have done sacrifice along with the people. <sup>14</sup>But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they rent their clothes and ran in among the people, crying out and saying, <sup>15</sup>"Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions as you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all things that are therein,* 16and who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.*

 17Nevertheless, He left not Himself without witness, in that He did good, and gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." 18But even with these sayings they were scarcely able to restrain the people from doing sacrifice unto them.

19And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium who persuaded the people; and having stoned Paul,* they dragged him out of the city, supposing he was dead. 20However, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up and came into the city; and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21And when they had preached the Gospel to that city and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra and to Iconium and Antioch, 22confirming the souls of the disciples and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God. 23And when they had ordained elders in every church and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they believed.

24And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 25And when they had preached the Word in Perga, they went down into Attalia 26and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27And when they had come and had gathered the church together, they recounted all that God had done with them, and how He had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. 28And there they remained for some time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15

Great dissension ariseth concerning circumcision. 6The apostles consult about it, 22and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, quarrel and depart separately.

1And certain men who came down from Judea were teaching the brethren and saying, "Unless ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."* 2When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. 3And being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles, and causing great joy unto all the brethren. 4And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and by the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed,

*15 Gen 1, Ps 146:6, Rev 14:7. *16 Ps 81:13. *19 2 Cor 11:25. *1 Gal 5:1.

saying that it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses. <sup>6</sup>And the apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter. <sup>7</sup>And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, "Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made a choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the Word of the Gospel and believe.* <sup>8</sup>And God, who knoweth the hearts, bore them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit even as He did unto us, <sup>9</sup>and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.*

<sup>10</sup>Now therefore why test ye God to put a yoke upon the necks of the disciples,* which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they."

<sup>16</sup>After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down.

And I will build again the ruins thereof,
and I will set it up,

<sup>17</sup>that the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom My name is called, saith the Lord who doeth all these things.*

<sup>18</sup>Known unto God are all His works from the beginning of the world. <sup>19</sup>Therefore my judgment is that we trouble not those from among the Gentiles who are turned to God, <sup>20</sup>but that we write unto them that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. <sup>21</sup>For Moses from olden times hath in every city those who preach him, he being read in the synagogues every Sabbath day."

we gave no such commandment—<sup>25</sup>it seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men who have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. <sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup>that ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication. If ye keep yourselves from these things, ye shall do well. Fare ye well!”

<sup>30</sup>So when they were sent off, they went to Antioch. And when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle; <sup>31</sup>and when they had read it, they rejoiced in its consolation. <sup>32</sup>And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup>And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace by the brethren to return unto the apostles. <sup>34</sup>Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to remain there still.

<sup>35</sup>Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the Word of the Lord, with many others also. <sup>36</sup>And some days later, Paul said unto Barnabas, “Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the Word of the Lord, and see how they do.” <sup>37</sup>And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul thought it not good to take him with them, as he had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them in their work. <sup>39</sup>And the contention was so sharp between them that they parted asunder, one from the other; and so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren unto the grace of God. <sup>41</sup>And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

<sup>1</sup>Then Paul came to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there named Timothy,* the son of a certain woman who was a Jewess who believed, but his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup>He was well reported of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted to have him go forth with him, and took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those quarters, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>And as they went through the cities, they delivered unto them the decrees to keep, that had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.* <sup>5</sup>And so were the

<sup>6</sup>Now when they went throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the Word in Asia. <sup>7</sup>After they had come to Mysia, they considered going into Bithynia, but the Spirit did not permit them. <sup>8</sup>And passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. <sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: there stood a man of Macedonia beseeching him, saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." <sup>10</sup>And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the Gospel unto them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore setting sail from Troas we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day Neapolis, <sup>12</sup>and from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony. And we stayed in that city a number of days. <sup>13</sup>And on the Sabbath, we went out of the city by a riverside where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down and spoke unto the women who resorted thither. <sup>14</sup>And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God, heard us; and the Lord opened her heart to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>15</sup>And when she was baptized with her household, she besought us, saying, "If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and abide there." And she prevailed upon us.

<sup>16</sup>And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed by a spirit of divination met us. She had brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. <sup>17</sup>The same followed Paul and us, crying out and saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who show unto us the way of salvation." <sup>18</sup>And this she did many days. But Paul, being provoked, turned and said to the spirit, "I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that same hour.* <sup>19</sup>And when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they caught Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace unto the rulers, <sup>20</sup>and brought them to the magistrates, saying, "These men, being Jews, trouble our city exceedingly, <sup>21</sup>and teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive nor to observe, being Romans." <sup>22</sup>And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates rent off their clothes and commanded that they be beaten.* <sup>23</sup>And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely. <sup>24</sup>He, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison and made their feet fast in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup>And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises unto God, and the prisoners heard them. <sup>26</sup>And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's bonds were loosed. <sup>27</sup>And the keeper of the prison, awaking out of his sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew out his sword and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. <sup>28</sup>But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do thyself no harm, for we are all here!" <sup>29</sup>Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling and fell down before Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup>and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" <sup>31</sup>And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." <sup>32</sup>And they spoke unto him the Word of the Lord, and to all who were in his house. <sup>33</sup>And he took them that same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his family straightway. <sup>34</sup>And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. ♦

<sup>35</sup>And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go." <sup>36</sup>And the keeper of the prison told these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent word to let you go; now therefore depart and go in peace." <sup>37</sup>But Paul said unto them, "They have beaten us openly, uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison. And now do they thrust us out privily? Nay verily! Let them come themselves and fetch us out." <sup>38</sup>And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates, and they feared when they heard that they were Romans. <sup>39</sup>And they came and besought them and brought them out, and entreated them to depart out of the city. <sup>40</sup>And they went out of the prison and entered into the house of Lydia.* And when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them and departed.

<sup>1</sup>Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>And Paul, as was his custom, went in unto them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>expounding and alleging that it was necessary for Christ to have suffered and risen again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach unto you is Christ." <sup>4</sup>And some of them believed, and joined themselves with Paul and Silas, as did a great multitude of the devout Greeks and not a few of the chief women.

<sup>5</sup>But the Jews who believed not, moved with envy, engaged certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a crowd and set all the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason and sought to bring them out to the people. <sup>6</sup>And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, "These that have turned the world upside down have come hither also, <sup>7</sup>and Jason hath received them; and they all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus." <sup>8</sup>And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city when they heard these things: <sup>9</sup>And when they had taken security of Jason and the others, they let them go.

<sup>10</sup>And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea, who arriving there, went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the Word with all readiness of mind and searched the Scriptures daily to see whether those things were so. <sup>12</sup>Therefore many of them believed, also honorable women who were Greeks, and of men not a few. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews of Thessalonica became aware that the Word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the people. <sup>14</sup>And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go down to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there still. <sup>15</sup>Those who conducted Paul brought him unto Athens, and having received direction for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. <sup>17</sup>Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the marketplace daily with those who met with him. <sup>18</sup>Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans and of the Stoics encountered him. And some said, "What will this babblers say?" And some others said, "He seemeth to be a proclaimer of strange gods," because he preached unto them Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup>And they took him and brought him unto the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is whereof thou speakest? <sup>20</sup>For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears, and we would know therefore what these things mean." <sup>21</sup>(For all the Athenians and strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else than either telling or hearing some new thing.)

♦<sup>22</sup>Then Paul stood in their midst on Mars' Hill and said, "Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. <sup>23</sup>For as I passed by and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription: 'To the Unknown God'. Whom therefore ye worship in ignorance, Him I declare unto you. <sup>24</sup>God who made the world and all things therein, seeing that He is Lord of Heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.* <sup>25</sup>Neither is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything,* seeing He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things. <sup>26</sup>And He hath made of one blood all nations of men, and caused them to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined their appointed times, and the bounds of their habitation, <sup>27</sup>that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after Him and find Him, though He be not far from every one of us. <sup>28</sup>'For in Him we live, and move, and have our being.' As also certain of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'

<sup>29</sup>'For inasmuch, then, as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold or silver or stone, graven by art and of man's devising.* <sup>30</sup>The times of this ignorance God overlooked, but now He commandeth all men everywhere to repent, <sup>31</sup>because He hath appointed a Day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom He hath ordained. Of this He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead."†

<sup>32</sup>But when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked and others said, "We will hear thee again on this matter."

<sup>5</sup>And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. <sup>6</sup>But when they began opposing him and blaspheming, he shook his raiment and said unto them,* "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean. From henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles."

<sup>7</sup>And he departed thence and entered into a certain man's house named Justus, one who worshiped God and whose house was adjoining the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, with all his house.* And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized. <sup>9</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Paul in the night through a vision, saying,

"Be not afraid, but speak and keep not silent. <sup>10</sup>For I am

with thee, and no man shall set upon thee to hurt thee, for I have many people in this city."

<sup>11</sup>And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the Word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup>And when Gallio was deputy of Achaia, the Jews with one accord began an insurrection against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, <sup>13</sup>saying, "This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law." <sup>14</sup>And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would have it that I should bear with you. <sup>15</sup>But if it be a question of words and names and your own law, look ye to it; for I will not be judge of such matters." <sup>16</sup>And he drove them from the judgment seat. <sup>17</sup>Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio was concerned about none of those things.

<sup>18</sup>And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila, having shorn his head at Cenchrea, for he had made a vow. <sup>19</sup>And he came to Ephesus and left them there, but he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>When they desired him to tarry a longer time with them, he consented not, <sup>21</sup>but bade them farewell, saying, "I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem, but I will return again unto you, if God wills."* And he sailed from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>And when he had landed at Caesarea and had gone up and saluted the church, he went on to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went through all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup>And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.* <sup>25</sup>This man was instructed in the Way of the Lord; and being fervent in the Spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of the Lord, though he knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla had heard him, they took him unto them and expounded unto him the Way of God more perfectly. <sup>27</sup>And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting his disciples to receive him. And when he had come, he helped them much who had believed through grace; <sup>28</sup>for he mightily refuted the Jews (and that publicly), showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

books are burnt. <sup>24</sup>Demetrius, for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, <sup>35</sup>which is appeased by the toun clerk.

♦♦<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper regions, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples, <sup>2</sup>he said unto them, "Have ye received the Holy Spirit, having believed?" And they said unto him, "We have not so much as heard whether there is any Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup>And he said unto them, "Unto what then were ye baptized?" And they said, "Unto John's baptism." <sup>4</sup>Then said Paul, "John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people that they should believe in Him who should come after him, that is, in Christ Jesus."* <sup>5</sup>When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup>And there were about twelve men in all. ♦

<sup>8</sup>And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But when divers ones were hardened and believed not, but spoke evil of that Way before the multitude, he departed from them and took away the disciples, holding discussions daily in the school of one Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>And this continued for the space of two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the Word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>11</sup>And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup>so that handkerchiefs or aprons from his body were brought unto the sick, and the diseases departed from them and the evil spirits went out of them.

<sup>13</sup>And then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took it upon themselves to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth." <sup>14</sup>And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew and chief of the priests, who did so. <sup>15</sup>And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?" <sup>16</sup>And the man in whom the evil spirit dwelt leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>And this became known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling in Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup>And many who believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds. <sup>19</sup>Many of those also who used occult arts brought their books together and burned them before all men; and they counted up the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>So the Word of God grew mightily and prevailed.

<sup>21</sup>After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." <sup>22</sup>So he sent into Macedonia two of those who had ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

<sup>23</sup>And the same time, there arose no small stir about that Way. <sup>24</sup>For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen. <sup>25</sup>These he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth. <sup>26</sup>Moreover, ye see and hear that, not alone at Ephesus but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away many people, saying that there are no gods which are made with hands, <sup>27</sup>so that not only this our craft is in danger of being set at nought, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshipeth." <sup>28</sup>And when they heard these things, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" <sup>29</sup>And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia who were Paul's companions in his travel, they rushed with one accord into the theater. <sup>30</sup>And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples would not let him. <sup>31</sup>And certain of the Asian chiefs, who were his friends, sent unto him, urging that he would not venture into the theater.

<sup>32</sup>Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was in confusion, and the greater part knew not for what purpose they had come together. <sup>33</sup>And they drew Alexander out from the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made his defense unto the people; <sup>34</sup>but when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for about the space of two hours cried out, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" <sup>35</sup>And when the town clerk had appeased the people, he said, "Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? <sup>36</sup>Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly; <sup>37</sup>for ye have brought hither these men who are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>38</sup>Therefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against any man, the law is open and there are deputies. Let them charge one another. <sup>39</sup>But if ye enquire of anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. <sup>40</sup>For we are in danger of being called in question for this day's uproar; there being no cause whereby we can give an account of this concourse." <sup>41</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

<sup>1</sup>And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>And when he had gone through those parts and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. <sup>3</sup>And there he abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him as he was about to sail for Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and from Asia, Tychichus and Trophimus. <sup>5</sup>These men, going ahead, tarried for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread and joined them five days later at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>7</sup>And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread,* Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight: <sup>8</sup>And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together. <sup>9</sup>And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, having fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long in preaching, he sank down with sleep and fell down from the third floor and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup>And Paul went down and fell on him, and embracing him, said, "Trouble not yourselves, for his life is in him." <sup>11</sup>When he therefore had come up again, and had broken bread and eaten and talked for a long while, even until break of day, he departed. <sup>12</sup>And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

<sup>13</sup>And we went ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, there intending to take aboard Paul; for so had he arranged, intending himself to go on foot. <sup>14</sup>And when he met with us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>And we sailed thence and arrived the next day off Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he was in haste, that it might be possible for him to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup>And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called for the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>And when they had come to him, he said unto them, "Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, in what manner I have been with you in all seasons, <sup>19</sup>servng the Lord in all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befell me through the lying in wait of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>and how I kept back nothing that was profitable for you, but have shown you and have taught you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup>testifying both to the Jews and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>And now behold, bound by the Spirit, I go unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there, <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup>But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy and the ministry which I have received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the Gospel of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the Kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I take you to record this day that I am pure from the blood of all men, <sup>27</sup>for I have not shrunk from declaring unto you all the counsel of God. <sup>28</sup>Take heed therefore unto yourselves and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God which He hath purchased with His own blood. <sup>29</sup>For I know this: that after my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after them. <sup>31</sup>Therefore watch and remember that for the space of three years I ceased not to warn everyone night and day with tears.

<sup>36</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>And they all wept sorely and fell on Paul’s neck and kissed him, <sup>38</sup>sorrowing most of all because of the words which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21

Paul will not by any means be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Philip’s daughters are prophetesses. <sup>17</sup>Paul cometh to Jerusalem <sup>27</sup>where he is apprehended and in great danger, <sup>31</sup>but by the chief captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass that after we had parted from them and had set sail, we came on a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara. <sup>2</sup>And finding a ship sailing over unto Phoenicia, we went aboard and set forth. <sup>3</sup>Now when we had sighted Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to discharge her burden. <sup>4</sup>And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days. They told Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>And when his days there had been accomplished, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, until we were out of the city. And we kneeled down on the shore and prayed. <sup>6</sup>And when we had taken our leave one of another, we boarded ship, and they returned home again.

<sup>7</sup>And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais and saluted the brethren, and stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup>The next day, we who were in Paul's company departed and came unto Caesarea, and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven,* and lodged with him. <sup>9</sup>And this man had four daughters, virgins who prophesied. <sup>10</sup>And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet named Agabus. <sup>11</sup>And when he had come unto us, he took Paul's girdle and bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus saith the Holy Spirit, 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'" <sup>12</sup>And when we heard these things, both we and those at that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, "What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? For I am not only ready to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup>And when he would not be dissuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

<sup>15</sup>And after those days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, who brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we were to lodge. <sup>17</sup>And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

<sup>18</sup>And the day following, Paul went with us unto James, and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. <sup>20</sup>And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord and said unto him, "Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe, and they are all zealous for the law. <sup>21</sup>And they are informed about thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, nor walk according to the customs. <sup>22</sup>What is therefore to be done? The multitude will be coming together, for they will hear that thou art come. <sup>23</sup>Do therefore this which we say to thee: We have four men who have taken a vow upon themselves. <sup>24</sup>Take them and purify thyself with them, and bear their charges with them, that they may shave their heads;* and all may know that those things of which they have been informed concerning thee are nothing, but that thou thyself also walkest orderly and keepest the law. <sup>25</sup>And as to the Gentiles who believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, except only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication.** <sup>26</sup>Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purifying himself with them, he entered into the temple to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until an offering should be offered for every one of them.*

<sup>27</sup>And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews who were from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people and laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup>crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teacheth all men everywhere against the people and the law and this place, and furthermore brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place." <sup>29</sup>(For they had seen previously with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) <sup>30</sup>And all the city was moved and the people ran together, and they took Paul and dragged him out of the temple; and forthwith the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down unto them; and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left off beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then the chief captain came near, and took him and commanded that he be bound with two chains, and demanded who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude. And when he could learn nothing with certainty because of the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. <sup>35</sup>And when Paul came upon the stairs, so it was that he had to be borne by the soldiers because of the violence of the people. <sup>36</sup>For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, "Away with him."

<sup>37</sup>And as Paul was about to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, "May I speak unto thee?" And he said, "Canst thou speak Greek? <sup>38</sup>Art not thou that Egyptian who prior to these days madest an uproar and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men who were murderers?*" <sup>39</sup>But Paul said, "I am a man who is a Jew of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people." <sup>40</sup>And when he had given him leave, Paul stood on the stairs and beckoned with his hand unto the people. And when there fell a great silence, he spoke unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying:

*24 Num 6:18, Acts 18:18. *25 Acts 15:20. *26 Num 6:13. *38 Acts 5:36.

<sup>1</sup>"Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defense which I make now unto you." <sup>2</sup>(And when they heard that he spoke in the Hebrew tongue to them, they were the more silent.) And he said, <sup>3</sup>"I am verily a man who am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of our fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.* <sup>4</sup>And I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,* <sup>5</sup>as also the high priest doth bear me witness and all the council of the elders. From them I also received letters unto the brethren, and I went to Damascus to bring those who were there bound unto Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>"And it came to pass that, as I made my journey and had come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. <sup>7</sup>And I fell unto the ground and heard a voice saying unto me, 'Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?' <sup>8</sup>And I answered, 'Who art Thou, Lord?' And He said unto me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.' <sup>9</sup>And those who were with me saw indeed the light and were afraid, but they heard not the voice of Him that spoke to me. <sup>10</sup>And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said unto me, 'Arise and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all the things which are appointed for thee to do.' <sup>11</sup>And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>"And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, of good report among all the Jews who dwelt there, <sup>13</sup>came unto me and stood and said unto me, 'Brother Saul, receive thy sight!' And that same hour I looked up upon him. <sup>14</sup>And he said, 'The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know His will and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of His mouth. <sup>15</sup>For thou shalt be His witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And now why dost thou tarry? Arise and be baptized and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

<sup>17</sup>"And it came to pass that when I had come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance <sup>18</sup>and saw Him saying unto me, 'Make haste and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning Me.' <sup>19</sup>And I said, 'Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in Thee. <sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by and consenting unto his death and kept the raiment of those who slew him.'* <sup>21</sup>And He said unto me, *3 Acts 21:39. *4 Acts 8:3. *20 Acts 7:58.

'Depart, for I will send thee far hence, unto the Gentiles.'"

<sup>22</sup>And the crowd gave him an audience up to this word; and then they lifted up their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth, for it is not fit that he should live!" <sup>23</sup>And as they cried out and cast off their clothes and threw dust into the air, <sup>24</sup>the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and directed that he should be examined by scourging, so that he might find out why they cried so against him. <sup>25</sup>And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?" <sup>26</sup>When the centurion heard this, he went and told the chief captain, saying, "Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman." <sup>27</sup>Then the chief captain came and said unto him, "Tell me, art thou a Roman?" And he said, "Yea." <sup>28</sup>And the chief captain answered, "With a great sum I obtained this freedom." And Paul said, "But I was free born." <sup>29</sup>Then straightway those who were to examine him departed from him, and the chief captain also was afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

<sup>30</sup>On the morrow, because he would know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

<sup>1</sup>And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, "Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God to this day." <sup>2</sup>And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to smite him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then said Paul unto him, "God shall smite thee, thou whited wall! For sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?" <sup>4</sup>And those who stood by said, "Revilest thou God's high priest?" <sup>5</sup>Then said Paul, "I knew not brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written: 'Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.'"*

<sup>6</sup>But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out to the council, "Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; * of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called into question!"* <sup>7</sup>And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. <sup>8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.* <sup>9</sup>And there arose a great cry, and the scribes who were on the Pharisees' side arose and strove, saying, "We find no evil in this man; but if a spirit or angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God." <sup>10</sup>And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

<sup>11</sup>And that night the Lord stood by him and said,

"Be of good cheer, Paul; for as thou hast testified for Me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome."

<sup>12</sup>And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>And there were more than forty who entered into this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup>And they came to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now, therefore, ye, with consent of the council, ask the chief captain that he bring him down unto you tomorrow, as though ye would enquire more thoroughly concerning him; and we, even before he comes near, are ready to kill him."

<sup>16</sup>But when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle and told Paul. <sup>17</sup>Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him and said, "Bring this young man unto the chief captain, for he hath a certain thing to tell him." <sup>18</sup>So he took him and brought him to the chief captain and said, "Paul, the prisoner, called me unto him and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, as he hath something to say unto thee." <sup>19</sup>Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside with him privately, asked him, "What is it that thou hast to tell me?" <sup>20</sup>And he said, "The Jews have agreed to request thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though they had intended to enquire of him more completely. <sup>21</sup>But do not thou yield unto them, for there lie in wait for him more than forty of their men, who have bound themselves with an oath that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, looking for consent from thee." <sup>22</sup>So the chief captain then let the young man depart and charged him, "See thou tell no man that thou hast revealed these things to me." <sup>23</sup>And he called unto him two centurions, saying, "Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and threescore and ten horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night; <sup>24</sup>and provide them with beasts that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor." <sup>25</sup>And he wrote a letter in this manner: <sup>26</sup>"Claudius Lysias, unto the most excellent governor Felix, send-eth greeting: <sup>27</sup>This man was taken by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them. Then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. <sup>28</sup>And desiring to know the cause whereof they accused him,

I brought him forth into their council. <sup>29</sup>I perceived him to be accused about questions of their law, but there was nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>30</sup>And when it was told me how the Jews had lain in wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and gave a command to his accusers to speak before thee also what they have against him. Farewell."

<sup>31</sup>Then the soldiers took Paul, as it was commanded them, and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him and returned to the castle, <sup>33</sup>who when they had come to Caesarea and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. <sup>34</sup>And when the governor had read the letter, he asked what province Paul came from. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, "I will hear thee when thine accusers have also come." And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

<sup>1</sup>And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders and with him a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup>And when Paul was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by thee we enjoy much quietness, most noble Felix, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, <sup>3</sup>we accept it always and in all places with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>Notwithstanding, that I be not tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear from us in thy clemency a few words. <sup>5</sup>For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect called the Nazarenes, <sup>6</sup>who also hath gone about profaning the temple. Him we took and would have judged according to our law. <sup>7</sup>But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, <sup>8</sup>commanding his accusers to come unto thee, so that by examining him thyself, thou mayest have knowledge of all of these things whereof we accuse him." <sup>9</sup>And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup>Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that thou hast been for many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself. <sup>11</sup>For thou mayest understand that there have been yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>12</sup>And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither stirring up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city. <sup>13</sup>Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup>But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way, which they call heresy, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets. <sup>15</sup>And I have hope in God, which they themselves also hold, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. <sup>16</sup>And herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and toward men.

<sup>17</sup>Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings, <sup>18</sup>whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, with neither crowd nor tumult.* <sup>19</sup>These ought to have been here before thee to object if they had anything against me; <sup>20</sup>or else let these same say here if they have found any evil-doing in me when I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup>unless it be for this one utterance that I cried out standing among them: 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am called into question by you this day.'***

<sup>22</sup>And when Felix heard these things, having a more complete knowledge of that Way, he deferred the hearing and said, "When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter." <sup>23</sup>And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, but to let him have some liberties, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintances to minister or come unto him.

<sup>24</sup>And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. <sup>25</sup>And as Paul reasoned about righteousness, temperance, and the Judgment to come, Felix trembled and answered, "Go thy way for this time. When I have a convenient occasion I will call for thee." <sup>26</sup>He hoped also that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore he sent for him the oftener and communed with him.

<sup>6</sup>And when he had tarried among them more than ten days; he went down into Caesarea. And the next day, sitting in the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup>And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood round about and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove, <sup>8</sup>while Paul answered for himself: "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor yet against Caesar have I offended any thing at all." <sup>9</sup>But Festus, desiring to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem and there be judged of these things before me?" <sup>10</sup>Then said Paul, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. <sup>11</sup>For if I am an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I should refuse not to die; but if there is nothing to these things whereof they accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar." <sup>12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? Unto Caesar shalt thou go!"

<sup>13</sup>Some days later, King Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus. <sup>14</sup>And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, "There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix, <sup>15</sup>about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him. <sup>16</sup>I answered them, that it is not in the manner of Romans to deliver any man to die before he who is accused has the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. <sup>17</sup>Therefore when they had come hither, without any delay on the morrow, I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought forth, <sup>18</sup>against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed, <sup>19</sup>but had certain questions against him concerning their own superstition and of one Jesus, who was dead and whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>20</sup>And because I was in doubt as to this manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged on these matters. <sup>21</sup>But when Paul appealed to be reserved for a hearing by Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar." <sup>22</sup>Then Agrippa said unto Festus, "I would also hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," said he, "thou shalt hear him."

<sup>23</sup>And on the morrow, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered into the place of hearing with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Festus' command Paul was brought forth. <sup>24</sup>And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all men who are here present with us, ye see this man about whom all the multitude of the Jews have applied to me, both at Jerusalem and also here, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But when I found that he hath committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. <sup>26</sup>Of him I have nothing certain to write unto my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before thee, O King Agrippa, that after we have examined him I might have something to write. <sup>27</sup>For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to specify the crimes laid against him."

CHAPTER 26

Then Paul stretched forth his hand and answered for himself: <sup>2</sup>"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee concerning all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews, <sup>3</sup>especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions, which are among the Jews. Therefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

<sup>4</sup>"My manner of life from my youth, which was from the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, is known to all the Jews. <sup>5</sup>They knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup>And now I stand and am judged because of the hope in the promise made by God unto our fathers, <sup>7</sup>unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God day and night, hope to come. For this hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. <sup>8</sup>Why should it be thought an incredible thing by you, that God should raise the dead?

<sup>9</sup>"I myself verily thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth, <sup>10</sup>which things I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.* <sup>11</sup>And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly angry against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities.

upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose: to make thee a minister and a witness, both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in which I will appear unto thee, <sup>17</sup>delivering thee from the people and from the Gentiles unto whom now I send thee, <sup>18</sup>to open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith that is in Me.'

<sup>24</sup>And as he thus spoke for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, thou art beside thyself! Much learning doth make thee mad!" <sup>25</sup>But Paul said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. <sup>26</sup>For the king himself knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely; for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest." <sup>28</sup>Then Agrippa said unto Paul, "Thou almost persuadest me to be a Christian." <sup>29</sup>And Paul said, "I would to God that not only thou, but also all who hear me this day, were both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these bonds."

<sup>30</sup>And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and also the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them. <sup>31</sup>And when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, "This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds." <sup>32</sup>Then said Agrippa unto Festus, "This man might have been set at liberty if he had not appealed unto Caesar."

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And when it was determined that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. <sup>2</sup>And entering into a ship from Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup>And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul courteously, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. <sup>4</sup>And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard. <sup>7</sup>And when we had sailed slowly many days and scarcely had come as far as Cnidus, the wind not permitting us, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone; <sup>8</sup>and with difficulty passing by it, we came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens, nigh unto the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>Now after much time had been lost, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the Fast was now already past, Paul admonished them <sup>10</sup>and said unto them, "Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be attended by hurt and much damage, not only to the lading and ship, but also to our lives." <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and owner of the ship, rather than those things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the greater number advised to depart thence also, hoping that by some means they might attain Phoenix, which is a haven of Crete and lieth toward the southwest and northwest, and there to winter.

<sup>13</sup>And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing anchor, they sailed close by Crete. <sup>14</sup>But not long after, there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. <sup>15</sup>And when the ship was caught and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. <sup>16</sup>And running under the lee of a certain island, which is called Clauda, we had much work in securing the boat, <sup>17</sup>which when they had taken up, they used helps to undergird the ship. And fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, they struck sail, and so were driven. <sup>18</sup>And being exceedingly tossed by a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; <sup>19</sup>and the third day we cast out with our own hands the ship's tackle. <sup>20</sup>And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

<sup>21</sup>But after long abstinence from food, Paul stood forth in the midst of them and said, "Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and should not have set out from Crete and suffered this harm and loss. <sup>22</sup>And now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship only. <sup>23</sup>For there stood by me this night the angel of God, to whom I belong and whom I serve, <sup>24</sup>saying, 'Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar. And lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.' <sup>25</sup>Therefore sirs, be of good cheer, for I believe God, and that it shall be even as it was told to me. <sup>26</sup>Nonetheless, we must be cast upon a certain island."

<sup>27</sup>But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven up and down in the Adriatic, about midnight the shipmen deemed that we were drawing near to some land. <sup>28</sup>And they took a sounding and found it to be twenty fathoms deep; and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again and found it fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup>Then, fearing lest we should be driven upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. <sup>30</sup>And as the shipmen were about to flee from the ship, and had let down the boat into the sea under the pretext that they would cast anchors out of the prow, <sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these remain in the ship, ye cannot be saved." <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

<sup>33</sup>And as the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup>Therefore I pray you to take some meat, for this is for your health; for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you."* <sup>35</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat. <sup>36</sup>Then they were all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. <sup>37</sup>And we were in all on the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. <sup>38</sup>And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and cast out the wheat into the sea.

<sup>39</sup>And when it was day, they knew not the land, but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. <sup>40</sup>And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder ropes, and hoisted up the mainsail into the wind, and made toward shore. <sup>41</sup>And falling into a shoal where two currents met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up with the violence of the waves. <sup>42</sup>And the soldier's counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea and get to land, <sup>44</sup>and the rest, some on boards and some on broken pieces of the ship.

And so it came to pass that they all escaped safely to land.

<sup>1</sup>And when they had escaped, they then learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness, for they kindled a fire and received us every one, because the rains had come and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup>And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup>And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hanging from his hand, they said among themselves, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live." <sup>5</sup>And he shook off the beast into the fire and felt no harm.* <sup>6</sup>Now they were expecting that he should have swollen or suddenly fallen down dead; but after watching a great while and seeing no harm come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>In the same quarters were the lands of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and lodged us three days courteously. <sup>8</sup>And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever and a bloody flux, to whom Paul entered in and prayed, and laid his hands on him and healed him. <sup>9</sup>So when this was done, others also on the island who had diseases, came and were healed. <sup>10</sup>These also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they ladened us with such things as were necessary.

<sup>11</sup>And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered on the isle and whose sign was Castor and Pollux. <sup>12</sup>And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. <sup>13</sup>And from thence we followed a circuitous course and came to Rhegium. A day later the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup>There we found brethren and were invited to tarry with them seven days; and so we went toward Rome. <sup>15</sup>And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as the Appii Forum and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup>And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier who kept him.

<sup>17</sup>And it came to pass that after three days Paul called the chief Jews together; and when they had come together, he said unto them, "Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup>who, when they had examined me, would have let me go because there was no cause deserving of death in me. <sup>19</sup>But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar, not that I had anything to accuse my nation of. <sup>20</sup>For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you and to speak with you, because it is for the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain. <sup>21</sup>And they said unto him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren who came show or speak any harm of thee. <sup>22</sup>But we desire to hear from thee what thou thinkest; for concerning this sect, we know that everywhere it is spoken against.

<sup>23</sup>And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the Kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. <sup>25</sup>And when they were unable to agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word: "Well spoke the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers, <sup>26</sup>saying,

'Go unto this people and say,
"Hearing, ye shall hear and shall not understand;
and seeing, ye shall see and not perceive.***

<sup>27</sup>For the heart of this people has waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed;
lest they should see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and should be converted,
and I should heal them." ' ' ***

<sup>28</sup>"Be it known therefore unto you that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it." <sup>29</sup>And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had great reasoning among themselves.

<sup>30</sup> And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house and received all that came unto him, <sup>31</sup>preaching the Kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

Romans

<sup>7</sup>To all who are in Rome, beloved of God and called to be saints:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.♦

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. <sup>9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>10</sup>making request that now at length and by whatever means I might be prospered by the will of God to journey unto you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift to the end that ye may be established: <sup>12</sup>that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith of both you and me.

<sup>13</sup>Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I have purposed to come unto you (but was prevented hitherto), that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup>I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise; <sup>15</sup>so, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also who are at Rome.

♦<sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believeth, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith; as it is written: "The just shall live by faith."* ♦

<sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup>because that which may be known of God is manifest in them, for God hath shown it unto them. <sup>20</sup>For from the creation of the world the invisible things of Him are clearly seen, being understood through the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup>For when they knew God, they neither glorified Him as God, nor were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. <sup>22</sup>Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, <sup>23</sup>and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and to birds and four-footed beasts and creeping things.* <sup>24</sup>Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies among themselves. <sup>25</sup>They changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

things. <sup>3</sup>And thinkest thou this, O man, who judgest those who do such things and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or despisest thou the riches of His goodness and forbearance and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeeth thee to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But because of thy hardness and impenitence of heart, thou treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the Day of Wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,* <sup>6</sup>who will render to every man according to his deeds;* <sup>7</sup>to those who by patient continuance in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality: eternal life; <sup>8</sup>but unto those who are contentious, and do not obey the truth but obey unrighteousness: indignation and wrath, <sup>9</sup>tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man who doeth evil, upon the Jew first and also upon the Gentile; <sup>10</sup>but glory, honor and peace to every man who worketh good, to the Jew first and also to the Gentile. <sup>11</sup>For there is no respect of persons with God.***

<sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned apart from the law shall also perish apart from the law, and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law. (<sup>13</sup>For it is not the hearers of the law who are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.* <sup>14</sup>For when the Gentiles, who have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, they, not having the law, are a law unto themselves, <sup>15</sup>which shows the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts meanwhile either accusing or excusing one another.) <sup>16</sup>Thus will it be on the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel.*

<sup>17</sup>Behold, thou art called a Jew and retest in the law and makest thy boast of God, <sup>18</sup>and knowest His will and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed from the law, <sup>19</sup>and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. <sup>21</sup>Thou therefore who teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? <sup>22</sup>Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? Thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? <sup>23</sup>Thou that makest thy boast in the law, dost thou dishonor God through breaking the law? <sup>24</sup>For, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you,"* as it is written.

who having the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? <sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh.* <sup>29</sup>But he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and whose circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit and not in the letter, and whose praise is not from men, but from God.

<sup>1</sup>What advantage then hath the Jew? Or what profit is there in circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Much in every way; chiefly because unto them were committed the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup>For what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? <sup>4</sup>God forbid! Yea, let God be true, though every man a liar. As it is written:

"That Thou mightest be justified in Thy sayings, and mightest overcome when Thou art judged."*

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.) <sup>6</sup>God forbid! For then how shall God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>For if the truth of God through my lie hath abounded more unto His glory, why also am I yet judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And why not say rather (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come"? Their damnation is just!

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better than they? No, in no wise! For we have before proved that both Jews and Gentiles are all under sin. <sup>10</sup>As it is written:

"There is none righteous,
no, not one;

<sup>11</sup>there is none that understandeth;
there is none that seeketh after God.

<sup>12</sup>They have all gone from the way;
they have together become unprofitable;
there is none that doeth good,
no, not one."*

<sup>13</sup>"Their throat is an open sepulcher; with their tongues they have used deceit."*

"The poison of asps is under their lips,"*

<sup>21</sup>But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, <sup>22</sup>even the righteousness of God, which is by faith in Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all those who believe. ♦♦For there is no difference, <sup>23</sup>for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup>Him God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood, to declare His righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; <sup>26</sup>to declare, I say, His righteousness at this time, that He might be just, and the justifier of him who believeth in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? Nay, but by the law of faith. <sup>28</sup>Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law. <sup>29</sup>Is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup>seeing it is one God who shall justify the Circumcision by faith, and Uncircumcision through faith. <sup>31</sup>Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid! Yea, we establish the law.

<sup>1</sup>Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness. <sup>10</sup>before he was circumcised. <sup>13</sup>By faith only he and his seed received the promise. <sup>16</sup>Abraham is the father of all who believe. <sup>24</sup>Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

<sup>1</sup>What shall we say then that Abraham our father hath found pertaining to the flesh? <sup>2</sup>For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath reason to glory, but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what saith the Scripture? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness."* <sup>4</sup>Now to him that worketh, his reward is reckoned not according to grace, but according to debt. <sup>5</sup>But to him that worketh not, but believeth in Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness, ♦ even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying,

and whose sins are covered.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin."*

<sup>9</sup>Cometh this blessedness then upon the Circumcision only, or upon the Uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>10</sup>How was it then reckoned? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision! <sup>11</sup>And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also, <sup>12</sup>and the father of circumcision to those who are not of the Circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

♦♦<sup>13</sup>For the promise that he should be the heir of the world came not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if those who are of the law be heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, <sup>15</sup>because the law worketh wrath; for where there is no law, there is no transgression. <sup>16</sup>Therefore it is of faith, that it might be given by grace to the end that the promise might be made sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all <sup>17</sup>(as it is written: "I have made thee a father of many nations"*), in the presence of Him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead and calleth those things which are not, as though they were.

<sup>18</sup>Abraham, against all hope, believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So shall thy seed be."* <sup>19</sup>And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, nor yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. <sup>20</sup>He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, <sup>21</sup>and being fully persuaded that what He had promised, He was able also to perform. <sup>22</sup>And therefore "it was imputed to him for righteousness."

<sup>23</sup>Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, <sup>24</sup>but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed if we believe in Him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup>who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Being justified by faith, we have peace with God <sup>2</sup>and joy in our hope, <sup>8</sup>that, since we were reconciled by His blood when we were enemies, <sup>10</sup>we shall much more be saved, being reconciled. <sup>12</sup>As sin and death came by Adam, <sup>17</sup>so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. <sup>20</sup>Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience; <sup>4</sup>and patience, experience; and experience, hope; <sup>5</sup>and hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who is given unto us.

<sup>6</sup>For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup>For scarcely will one die for a righteous man, yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. <sup>8</sup>But God commendeth His love toward us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup>Much more then, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. <sup>10</sup>For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. <sup>11</sup>And not only that, but we shall also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, so death passed onto all men, for all have sinned. <sup>13</sup>For until the law, sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the similitude of Adam's transgression, he being the figure of Him that was to come. <sup>15</sup>But not as the offense, so also is the free gift: For if through the offense of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one Man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. <sup>16</sup>And not as it was by one who sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses unto justification. <sup>17</sup>For if by one man's offense death reigned by one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by One, Jesus Christ.

<sup>20</sup>Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound, <sup>21</sup>that, as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>What shall we say then? ♦♦ Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>God forbid! How shall we, who are dead to sin, live any longer therein? <sup>3</sup>Know ye not that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? <sup>4</sup>Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup>For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, so we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection, <sup>6</sup>knowing this: that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. <sup>7</sup>For he that is dead is freed from sin. <sup>8</sup>Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over Him. <sup>10</sup>For in that He died, He died unto sin once; but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God. <sup>11</sup>Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. <sup>13</sup>Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin, but yield yourselves unto God as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. <sup>14</sup>For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

<sup>15</sup>What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid! <sup>16</sup>Know ye not that to whomever ye yield yourselves as servants to obey, his servants ye become whom ye obey, whether of sin which leads unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But God be thanked that though ye were the servants of sin, now ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. <sup>18</sup>Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>I speak in the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh. For as ye have yielded your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now yield your members as servants to righteousness unto holiness. <sup>20</sup>For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. <sup>21</sup>What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup>But now, being made free from sin and having become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto holiness and the end, everlasting life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. ♦

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>Know ye not, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), how the law hath dominion over man as long as he liveth? <sup>2</sup>For the woman who hath a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. <sup>3</sup>So then, if while her husband liveth she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brethren, ye also have become dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another, even to Him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were by the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. <sup>6</sup>But now we are delivered from the law, being dead wherein we were held, that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid! Nay, I would not have known sin, but through the law; for I would not have known lust, except that the law had said, "Thou shalt not covet."* <sup>8</sup>But sin, taking occasion through the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence; for without the law sin was dead. <sup>9</sup>For I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died; <sup>10</sup>and the commandment which was ordained to bring life, I found to be unto death. <sup>11</sup>For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me and by it slew me. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

<sup>13</sup>Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid! But sin, that it might appear as sin, was working death in me by that which is good, that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. <sup>14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold under sin. ♦<sup>15</sup>For that which I do, I approve not. For what I would do, that do I not; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>16</sup>If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. <sup>18</sup>For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing; for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good, I find not. <sup>19</sup>For the good that I would do, I do not; but the evil which I would not do, that I do. <sup>20</sup>Now if I do that which I would not do, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

<sup>21</sup>I find then a law that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. <sup>22</sup>For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. <sup>23</sup>But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. <sup>24</sup>O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? <sup>25</sup>I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! ♦

So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

*7 Ex 20:17, Dt 5:21.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>Those who are in Christ and live according to the Spirit are free from condemnation.

♦♦There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. <sup>2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup>For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For those who are according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh; but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace, <sup>7</sup>because the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. <sup>8</sup>So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so it be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His. <sup>10</sup>And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup>But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh to live according to the flesh, <sup>13</sup>for if ye live according to the flesh ye shall die, but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body ye shall live. <sup>14</sup>For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. <sup>15</sup>For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, "Abba! Father!" <sup>16</sup>The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God; <sup>17</sup>and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if so it be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together.

<sup>18</sup>For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. <sup>19</sup>For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup>For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him who hath subjected the same in hope, <sup>21</sup>because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. <sup>22</sup>For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup>And not only they, but ourselves also,* who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For we are saved by hope; but hope that is seen is not hope, for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for it? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

<sup>26</sup>Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities; for we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. <sup>27</sup>And He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because He maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. <sup>28</sup>And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. <sup>29</sup>For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the first-born among many brethren. <sup>30</sup>Moreover, whom He predestined, those He also called; and whom He called, those He also justified; and whom He justified, those He also glorified.

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say of these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup>He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who shall lay anything to the charge against God's elect? It is God who justifieth. <sup>34</sup>Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ who died, yea rather, who is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, and who also maketh intercession for us.

<sup>35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup>As it is written:

“For Thy sake we are killed all the day long;
we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.”*

<sup>37</sup>Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>1</sup>I speak the truth in Christ—I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit—<sup>2</sup>that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites and to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; <sup>5</sup>of whom are the fathers, and from whom, according to the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. ♦

<sup>6</sup>It is not as though the Word of God hath taken no effect. For they are not all Israel, who are of Israel; <sup>7</sup>neither because they are the seed of Abraham are they all children; but, "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." <sup>8</sup>That is, they who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; rather, the children of the promise are counted as the seed. <sup>9</sup>For this is the word of promise: "At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son." <sup>10</sup>And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac <sup>11</sup>(for the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, in order that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not by works, but by Him that calleth), <sup>12</sup>it was said unto her, "The elder shall serve the younger." <sup>13</sup>As it is written: "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."*

<sup>14</sup>What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid! <sup>15</sup>For He saith to Moses,

"I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom
I will have compassion."*

<sup>16</sup>So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God who showeth mercy. <sup>17</sup>For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, "Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show My power in thee, and that My name might be declared throughout all the earth."* <sup>18</sup>Therefore hath He mercy on whom He will have mercy, and whom He will, He hardeneth.

<sup>19</sup>Thou wilt say then unto me, "Why doth He yet find fault, for who hath resisted His will?"* <sup>20</sup>But nay, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, "Why hast thou made me thus?"* <sup>21</sup>Hath not the potter power over the clay to make from the same lump one vessel unto honor and another unto dishonor?* <sup>22</sup>What if God, choosing to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted for destruction; <sup>23</sup>and this that He might make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, whom He had prepared before unto glory, <sup>24</sup>even us whom He hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup>As He saith also in Hosea: "I will call them 'My people,' who were not My people, and 'her beloved' who was not beloved."* <sup>26</sup>And, "It shall come to pass that in the place where it was said unto them, 'Ye are not My people,' there shall they be called the children of the living God."* <sup>27</sup>Isaiah also crieth concerning Israel:

*7 Gen 21:12. *9 Gen 18:10, 14. *12 Gen 25:23. *13 Mal 1:2-3. *15 Ex 33:19. *17 Ex 9:16.
*19 Gen 50:20, 2 Chr 20:6, Dan 4:35. *20 Isa 29:16, 45:9, 64:8. *21 Jer 18:1-6. *25 Hos 2:23, 1 Pt 2:10. *26 Hos 1:10.

“Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. <sup>28</sup>For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.”* <sup>29</sup>And as Isaiah said before: “Unless the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we would have been as Sodom and been made like unto Gomorrah.”*

<sup>30</sup>What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith; <sup>31</sup>but Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. <sup>32</sup>Why so? Because they sought it not by faith but, as it were, by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling stone.* <sup>33</sup>As it is written:

“Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense, and whosoever believeth in Him shall not be ashamed.”*

CHAPTER 10

<sup>5</sup>The Scripture showeth the difference between the righteousness of the law, and that of faith, <sup>11</sup>and that all, both Jew and Gentile who believe, shall not be confounded, <sup>18</sup>and that the Gentiles shall receive the Word and believe. <sup>19</sup>Israel was not ignorant of these things.

<sup>1</sup>Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved. <sup>2</sup>For I bear them record that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth.

♦<sup>5</sup>For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law: that “the man who doeth those things shall live by them.”* <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh in this manner: “Say not in thine heart, ‘Who shall ascend into Heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down from above) <sup>7</sup>or, “‘Who shall descend into the deep?’” (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead). <sup>8</sup>But what saith it? “The Word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth and in thy heart,”* that is, the word of faith which we preach: <sup>9</sup>that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the Scripture saith, “Whosoever believeth in Him shall not be ashamed.”* <sup>12</sup>For there is no difference between the Jew

*27-28 Isa 10:21-23. *29 Isa 1:9. *32 Lk 2:34. *33 Isa 8:14, 28:16, 1 Pt 2:6. *5 Lev 18:5, Neh 9:29, Ezk 20:11, Gal 3:12. *6-8 Dt 30:12-14. *11 Ps 25:3, Isa 28:16.

and the Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich unto all who call upon Him. <sup>13</sup>For "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."* <sup>14</sup>How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup>And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

"How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things!"*♦

<sup>16</sup>But they have not all obeyed the Gospel. For Isaiah saith, "Lord, who hath believed our report?"* <sup>17</sup>So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.

<sup>18</sup>But I ask, have they not heard? Yes, verily:

"Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world."*

<sup>19</sup>But I ask, did not Israel know? First Moses saith,

"I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you."*

<sup>20</sup>But Isaiah is very bold and saith,

"I was found by them that sought Me not;
I was made manifest unto them that asked not after Me."*

<sup>21</sup>But to Israel he saith,

"All day long I have stretched forth My hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people."*

♦♦I ask then: Hath God cast away His people? God forbid! For I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup>God hath not cast away His people whom He foreknew. ♦ Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elijah, how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, <sup>3</sup>"Lord, they have killed Thy prophets and torn down Thine altars, and I am left alone and they seek my life"?*

<sup>4</sup>But what saith the answer of God unto him? "I have reserved to Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal."* <sup>5</sup>Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup>And if by grace, then it is no longer by works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it be by works, then it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

<sup>7</sup>What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded, <sup>8</sup>according as it is written:

“God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this day.”*

<sup>9</sup>And David saith,

“Let their table be made a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a recompense unto them.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their backs always.”*

<sup>11</sup>I ask then: Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid! But rather, through their fall salvation has come unto the Gentiles to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fullness?

<sup>13</sup>For I speak to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my office, <sup>14</sup>that by any means I may provoke to emulation those who are my flesh, and might save some of them. <sup>15</sup>For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup>For if the firstfruit be holy, the whole lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches. <sup>17</sup>And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup>boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. <sup>19</sup>Thou wilt say then, “The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.” <sup>20</sup>Thou sayest well! Because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear; <sup>21</sup>for if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest He also spare not thee.

<sup>22</sup>Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in His goodness. Otherwise, thou also shalt be cut off. <sup>23</sup>And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup>For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup>For I, brethren, would not have you be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits: that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. <sup>26</sup>And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written:

“There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer,

*8 Dt 29:4, Isa 29:10,6:9, Jer 5:21, Mt 13:14b. *9-10 Ps 69:22-23.

and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

<sup>27</sup>For this is My covenant unto them when I shall take away their sins."*

<sup>28</sup>Concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. ♦♦<sup>29</sup>For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. <sup>30</sup>For as in times past ye have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief, <sup>31</sup>even so have these also now not believed, that through the mercy shown to you they also may obtain mercy. <sup>32</sup>For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that He might have mercy upon all. ♦

<sup>34</sup>"For who hath known the mind of the Lord?
Or who hath been His counselor?"*

<sup>35</sup>Or,

"who hath first given to Him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?"*

<sup>36</sup>For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things, to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12

♦♦I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. <sup>2</sup>And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

<sup>3</sup>For I say to every man that is among you, through the grace given unto me, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. <sup>4</sup>For as we have many members in one body and all members have not the same office, <sup>5</sup>so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. <sup>6</sup>Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us: if prophecy, let us prophesy according to our portion of faith; <sup>7</sup>or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching;* <sup>8</sup>or he that exhorteth, on exhortation; he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.*

<sup>9</sup>Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.* <sup>10</sup>Have kindly affection one for another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another; <sup>11</sup>not slothful in business; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; <sup>12</sup>rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer; <sup>13</sup>distributing to the necessity of saints, given to hospitality. <sup>14</sup>Bless those who persecute you; bless and curse not. <sup>15</sup>Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup>Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.* <sup>17</sup>Recompense no man evil for evil.* Provide things honest in the sight of all men. <sup>18</sup>If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. <sup>19</sup>Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."* <sup>20</sup>Therefore:

*26-27 Isa 59:20-21. *33 Job 28:12-21. *34 Job 15:8, Isa 40:13, 55:8-9, 1 Cor 2:16. *35 Job 35:7, 41:11. *7 Pr 11:25, Mt 5:39. *8 Mt 6:2. *9 Amos 5:15.

"If thine enemy hunger, feed him;
if he thirst, give him drink.

For in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head."*

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but from God; the powers that be are ordained by God. <sup>2</sup>Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God, and those who resist shall receive for themselves damnation. <sup>3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same, <sup>4</sup>for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid, for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is the minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore ye must be subject not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

♦<sup>8</sup>Owe no man anything, but to love one another, for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.* <sup>9</sup>For this: "Thou shalt not commit adultery," "Thou shalt not kill," "Thou shalt not steal," "Thou shalt not bear false witness," "Thou shalt not covet,"* and if there be any other commandment, all are briefly comprehended in this saying, namely: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."* <sup>10</sup>Love worketh no ill to his

<sup>11</sup>And this: knowing the time, that now it is high time to awaken out of sleep. For now is our salvation nearer than when we first believed.

<sup>12</sup>The night is far spent; the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup>Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in lewdness and wantonness, not in strife and envying.* <sup>14</sup>But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>Receive ye him that is weak in the faith, but not with doubtful disputations. <sup>2</sup>For one believeth that he may eat all things, while another who is weak eateth herbs. <sup>3</sup>Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him who eateth not, judge him that eateth; for God hath received him. <sup>4</sup>Who art thou who judgest another man's servant? To his own master he standeth or falleth; yea, he shall be held up, for God is able to make him stand.

“As I live,” saith the Lord,
 ‘every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God.’”*

<sup>12</sup>So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.♦ <sup>13</sup>Let us not therefore judge one another any more, but judge this rather: that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

<sup>14</sup>I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him that regardeth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. <sup>15</sup>But if thy brother be grieved because of thy meat, thou walkest no longer charitably. Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>Let not your good be spoken of as evil; <sup>17</sup>for the Kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God and approved by men.

*13 Pr 23:20. *10 Ecl 12:14, Mt 26:64, 2 Cor 5:10. *11 Isa 49:18, 45:23.

<sup>19</sup>Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and the things wherewith one may edify another. <sup>20</sup>Destroy not the work of God for the sake of meat. All things indeed are pure,* but it is evil for that man to eat what causeth offense. <sup>21</sup>It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.* <sup>22</sup>Hast thou faith? Have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. <sup>23</sup>And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not from faith; for whatsoever is not from faith is sin.

<sup>1</sup>We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let every one of us please his neighbor for his neighbor's good to edification. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ pleased not Himself, but as it is written: "The reproaches of them that reproached Thee fell on Me."* <sup>4</sup>For whatsoever things were written in times past, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. <sup>5</sup>Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus,* <sup>6</sup>that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup>Therefore receive ye one another as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup>Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the Circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers, <sup>9</sup>and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy; as it is written:

"For this cause I will confess Thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto Thy name."*

<sup>10</sup>And again he saith, "Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with His people."*

<sup>11</sup>And again,

"Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud Him, all ye people."*

*<sup>20</sup> Ti 1:15. *<sup>21</sup> 1 Cor 8:13. *<sup>3</sup> Ps 69:9. *<sup>5</sup> 1 Cor 1:10. *<sup>9</sup> 2 Sam 22:50, Ps 18:49-50. *<sup>10</sup> Dt 32:43. *<sup>11</sup> Ps 117:1.

"There shall be a root of Jesse, and He that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in Him shall the Gentiles trust."*

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. ♦

<sup>14</sup>And I myself also am persuaded about you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. <sup>15</sup>Nevertheless, brethren, I have written even more boldly unto you in some measure to remind you, because of the grace that is given to me from God, <sup>16</sup>that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>I have therefore cause that I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. <sup>18</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient by word and deed, <sup>19</sup>through mighty signs and wonders by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem and round about into Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ. <sup>20</sup>Yea, so have I striven to preach the Gospel not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation; <sup>21</sup>but as it is written:

"To whom He was not spoken of, they shall see;
and they that have not heard shall understand."*

<sup>22</sup>For this cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I make my journey unto Spain I will come to you. For I trust to see you on my journey, and to be brought on my way thither by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company. <sup>25</sup>But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. <sup>26</sup>For it hath pleased those of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints who are at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>It hath pleased them verily, and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers in their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. <sup>28</sup>When therefore I have performed this, and have secured to them this fruit, I will come to you on my way to Spain. <sup>29</sup>And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup>that I may be delivered from those who do not believe in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted by the saints, <sup>32</sup>and that I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. <sup>33</sup>Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>3</sup>Paul enjoyneth the brethren to greet many, <sup>17</sup>and adviseth them to take heed of those who cause dissension and offenses, <sup>21</sup>and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

<sup>1</sup>I commend unto you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup>that ye receive her in the Lord as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you. For she hath been a succorer of many, and of myself also.

<sup>17</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, mark those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned, and avoid them. <sup>18</sup>For such as they serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. <sup>19</sup>For your obedience has become known abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf; but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. <sup>20</sup>And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you. <sup>22</sup>(I, Tertius, who wrote down this epistle, salute you in the Lord.) <sup>23</sup>Gaius, my host and host of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, saluteth you, and Quartus, a brother. <sup>24</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

◆◆<sup>25</sup>Now to Him who has the power to establish you according to my Gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, <sup>26</sup>but now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: <sup>27</sup>to God alone wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever.

Amen.◆

First Corinthians

(THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE CORINTHIANS)

After his salutation and thanksgiving, <sup>10</sup>he exhorteth them to unite, <sup>12</sup>and reproveth their dissension. <sup>18</sup>God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise <sup>21</sup>by the foolishness of preaching, <sup>26</sup>and calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, <sup>27</sup>but the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

♦♦<sup>1</sup>Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

<sup>2</sup>Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all who in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their Lord and ours.*

<sup>3</sup>Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; <sup>5</sup>that in every thing ye are enriched by Him, in all utterance and in all knowledge, <sup>6</sup>even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, <sup>7</sup>so that ye fall behind in no gift, waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup>He shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless on the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.*

<sup>10</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup>For it hath been reported unto me about you, my brethren, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup>Now this I say, when every one of you saith, "I am of Paul," and "I of Apollos,"* and "I of Cephas," and "I of Christ": <sup>13</sup>Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup>I thank God that I baptized none of you but Crispus and Gaius,* <sup>15</sup>lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. <sup>16</sup>And I baptized also the household of Stephanas. Besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. <sup>17</sup>For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, and not with the wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.*

18For the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish; but unto us who are saved, it is the power of God.* 19For it is written:

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.”***

20Where is the wise?* Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? 21For since, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.*

22For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom;* 23but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishness, 24but unto those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ, the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26For ye see in your calling, brethren, how not many wise men according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. 27But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; 28and base things of the world and things which are despised hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things which are, 29that no flesh should glory in His presence. 30But because of Him are ye in Christ Jesus, who from God is made unto us wisdom and righteousness, and sanctification and redemption, 31that according as it is written:

“He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.”***

CHAPTER 2

He declareth that his preaching, <sup>1</sup>though it bring not excellency of speech or of <sup>4</sup>human wisdom, yet it consisteth in the <sup>5</sup>power of God, and so far excelleth <sup>6</sup>the wisdom of this world and <sup>9</sup>human sense that <sup>14</sup>the natural man cannot understand it.

1And I, brethren, when I came to you declaring unto you the testimony of God, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom. 2For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 3And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. 4And my speech and my preaching were not with enticing words of man's wisdom,* but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5that your faith should not stand on the wisdom of man, but on the power of God.

6However, we speak wisdom among those who are perfect, yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, who are coming to nought. <sup>7</sup>But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world for our glory—<sup>8</sup>wisdom which none of the princes of this world knew; for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory. <sup>9</sup>But as it is written:

*17 2 Pt 1:16. *18 Rom 1:16. *19 Isa 29:14. *20 Isa 33:18. *21 Rom 1:20. *22 Mt 12:38.

*31 Jer 9:24. *4 2 Pt 1:10.

“Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard,* neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.”

<sup>10</sup>But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit. For the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup>For what man knoweth the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? Even so no man knoweth the things of God, but the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know <sup>13</sup>the things that are freely given to us by God. <sup>13</sup>These things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.* <sup>14</sup>But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>But he that is spiritual judgeth all things,* yet he himself is judged by no man. <sup>16</sup>“For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct Him?”* But we have the mind of Christ.

<sup>1</sup>And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I have fed you with milk and not with meat; for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able, <sup>3</sup>for ye are yet carnal. For if there is among you envying and strife and divisions, are ye not carnal and walk as men? <sup>4</sup>For while one saith, “I am of Paul,” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are ye not carnal? <sup>5</sup>Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye came to believe, even as the Lord gave to every man? <sup>6</sup>I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. <sup>7</sup>So then, neither is he that planteth anything, nor he that watereth, but God who giveth the increase. <sup>8</sup>Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one, and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.* <sup>9</sup>For we are laborers together with God; ye are God’s husbandry; ye are God’s building.

*2:9 Ps 31:19, Isa 64:4. *13 2 Pt 1:16. *15 Pr 27:19. *16 Rom 11:34, Isa 40:13. *3:8 Ps 62:12, Gal 6:5.

<sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

<sup>18</sup>Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written: "He taketh the wise in their own craftiness";* <sup>20</sup>and again, "The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain."** <sup>21</sup>Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours, <sup>23</sup>and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

<sup>1</sup>Let us be accounted by a man as ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup>Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful. <sup>3</sup>But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yea, I judge not mine own self. <sup>4</sup>For I know nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified; but He that judgeth me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time,* until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God. ♦

<sup>6</sup>And these things, brethren, I have in a sense applied to myself and to Apollos for your sakes, that ye may learn through us not to regard men above what is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. <sup>7</sup>For who maketh thee to differ from another? And what hast thou that thou did not receive? Now if thou did receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou had not been given it?

us! And I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you! <sup>9</sup>For I think that God hath set forth us, the apostles, last, as it were condemned to death; for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. <sup>10</sup>We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honorable, but we are despised. <sup>11</sup>Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place, <sup>12</sup>and we labor, working with our own hands.* Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it; <sup>13</sup>being defamed, we entreat.* We are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

<sup>14</sup>I write these things not to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved sons. <sup>15</sup>For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet ye have not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. <sup>17</sup>For this cause I have sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved son and faithful in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

<sup>18</sup>Now some are puffed up as though I would not come to you. <sup>19</sup>But I will come to you shortly,* if the Lord wills, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup>For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

<sup>21</sup>What will ye have? Shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and in the spirit of meekness?

<sup>1</sup>It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, of such a kind as is not so much as even named among the Gentiles: that one should have his father's wife. <sup>2</sup>And ye are puffed up and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. <sup>3</sup>For I verily, though absent in body but present in spirit, have judged already as though I were present concerning him who hath so done this deed:* <sup>4</sup>In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, I being there in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>5</sup>deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus.*

<sup>6</sup>Your glorying is not good. ♦♦Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?* <sup>7</sup>Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ, our Passover, is sacrificed for us. <sup>8</sup>Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. ♦

<sup>9</sup>I wrote unto you in an epistle not to keep company with fornicators—<sup>10</sup>yet not meaning altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters, for to do so ye would need to go out of the world. <sup>11</sup>But I now have written unto you not to keep company with any man who is called a brother if he is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. With such a one you are not even to eat. <sup>12</sup>For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do not ye judge those who are within? <sup>13</sup>For those who are outside, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.*

♦<sup>12</sup>"All things are lawful unto me," but all things are not expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of any. <sup>13</sup>"Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats," but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>And God hath both raised up the Lord and will also raise up us by His own power. <sup>15</sup>Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid! <sup>16</sup>What? Know ye not that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? "For two," saith He, "shall be one flesh."* <sup>17</sup>But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit with Him.

<sup>18</sup>Flee fornication. Every other sin which a man doeth is outside the body, but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. <sup>19</sup>What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you and which ye have from God, and that ye are not your own? <sup>20</sup>For ye are bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.♦

<sup>8</sup>I say therefore to the unmarried and widows: It is good for them if they remain even as I. <sup>9</sup>But if they cannot contain themselves, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>And unto the married I command (yet not I, but the Lord): let not the wife depart from her husband.* <sup>11</sup>But if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And let not the husband put away his wife.*

<sup>12</sup>But to the rest I speak (not the Lord): if any brother hath a wife who believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. <sup>13</sup>And the woman who hath a husband who believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>But if the unbelieving spouse depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases, for God hath called us to peace. <sup>16</sup>For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

<sup>17</sup>But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches. <sup>18</sup>Is any man called, being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called, being uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup>Let every man abide in the same calling as when he was called. <sup>21</sup>Art thou a servant when called? Be not concerned; but if thou mayest be made free, then make use of it. <sup>22</sup>For he that is called in the Lord when he is a servant, is the Lord's freeman; likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. <sup>23</sup>Ye are bought with a price; be ye not the servants of men. <sup>24</sup>Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, abide with God.

<sup>25</sup>Now concerning virgins: I have no commandment from the Lord, yet I give my judgment as one who hath obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful. <sup>26</sup>I suppose therefore that in this present distress, I say, it is good for a man to remain as he is. <sup>27</sup>Art thou bound unto a wife? Seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? Seek not a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such people shall have trouble in the flesh, and I would spare you.

♦♦<sup>29</sup>But this I say, brethren: the time is short. It remaineth that those who have wives should be as though they had none; <sup>30</sup>and those who weep, as though they wept not; and those who rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those who buy, as though they possessed not; <sup>31</sup>and those who use this world, as not abusing it. For the fashion of this world passeth away. ♦ <sup>32</sup>But I would have you be without cares. He that is unmarried careth for the things which belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord; <sup>33</sup>but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>34</sup>There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup>And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and so that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

<sup>36</sup>But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age and need so require, let him do what he will—he sinneth not; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. <sup>38</sup>So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well, but he who giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

<sup>39</sup>The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth. But if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, but only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>But in my judgment she is happier if she so remain, and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>To abstain from meats offered to idols: <sup>8-9</sup>we must not abuse our Christian liberty to the offense of our brethren, <sup>11</sup>but must bridle our knowledge with charity.

♦<sup>1</sup>Now concerning things offered unto idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. <sup>2</sup>And if any man think that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup>But if any man love God, the same is known by Him.

<sup>4</sup>Concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but One.* <sup>5</sup>For though there be what are called "gods," whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many "gods" and many "lords"), <sup>6</sup>yet to us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we in Him, and one Lord Jesus Christ by whom are all things, and we by Him.* <sup>7</sup>However that be, such knowledge is not possessed by every man. For some being conscious of the idol until this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup>But meat commendeth us not to God, for neither are we the better if we eat, nor the worse if we eat not. <sup>9</sup>But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. <sup>10</sup>For if any man see thee, who hast knowledge, sitting at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols, <sup>11</sup>and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? <sup>12</sup>For when ye sin so against the brethren and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. ♦

<sup>1</sup>Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are not ye my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you. For ye are the seal of mine apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Mine answer to those who examine me is this: <sup>4</sup>Have we not power to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup>Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as do other apostles and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or is it I only and Barnabas who have not power to forbear working? <sup>7</sup>Who goeth to war at any time at his own expense? Who planteth a vineyard and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flock and eateth not of the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup>Say I these things as a man, or saith not the law the same also? <sup>9</sup>For it is written in the Law of Moses: "Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn."* Doth God take care for oxen, <sup>10</sup>or doth He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope, and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. <sup>11</sup>If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it so great a thing if we should reap your worldly things? <sup>12</sup>If others are partakers of this power over you, may we not claim even more? Nevertheless we have not used this power, but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Do ye not know that those who minister concerning holy things live off the things of the temple, and those who wait upon the altar are partakers with the offering of the altar? <sup>14</sup>Even so hath the Lord ordained that those who preach the Gospel should live from the Gospel. <sup>15</sup>But I have used none of these things; neither have I written, that these things should be so done unto me. For it would be better for me to die than that any man should make my glorying void. ♦♦<sup>16</sup>For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory about, for necessity is laid upon me. Yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel! <sup>17</sup>For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, a dispensing of the Gospel is committed unto me. <sup>18</sup>What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the Gospel, I may make the Gospel of Christ free without charge, that I abuse not my power in the Gospel.

<sup>19</sup>For though I am free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. <sup>20</sup>And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; <sup>21</sup>to those who are outside the law, as outside the law (though not outside the law of God, but under the law of Christ), that I might gain those who are outside the law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>And this I do for the Gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

<sup>24</sup>Know ye not that those who run in a race all run, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain it. <sup>25</sup>And every man that striveth for mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>26</sup>I therefore so run, but not with uncertainty; I so fight, but not as one that beateth the air. <sup>27</sup>But *9 Dt 25:4. *11 Rom 15:27. *13 Dt 18:1.

I keep down my body, and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup>I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. <sup>16</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless: is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break: is it not the communion of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>For we, being many, are one bread and one body, for we are all partakers of that one Bread. <sup>18</sup>Behold Israel according to the flesh: are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? <sup>19</sup>What say I then? That the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? <sup>20</sup>But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils and not to God;* and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. <sup>21</sup>Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of devils. <sup>22</sup>Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

*1 Ex 13:21, 14:22. *3 Ex 16:15. *4 Ex 17:6, Ps 78:15, 105:41. *6 Num 11:4, Ps 106:14. *7 Ex 32:6. *8 Num 25:9. *9 Num 21:6. *10 Num 14:37. *20 Dt 32:17, Ps 106:37.

<sup>27</sup>If any of those who do not believe bid you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go, whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience' sake. <sup>28</sup>But if any man say unto you, "This is offered in sacrifice unto idols," then eat it not for his sake who showed it, and for conscience' sake; for, "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof."* <sup>29</sup>I do not mean thine own conscience, but the other's. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? <sup>30</sup>For if I by grace be a partaker, why is evil spoken of me for that for which I give thanks? <sup>31</sup>Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup>Give no offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God, <sup>33</sup>even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things and keep the ordinances as I have delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup>Every man who prayeth or prophesieth, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoreth her head, for that is one and the same as if she were shaven. <sup>6</sup>For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, inasmuch as he is the image and glory of God; * but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>8</sup>For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man. <sup>9</sup>Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man. <sup>10</sup>For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the angels. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, nor the woman without the man, in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God.

God uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Doth not even nature itself teach you that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? <sup>15</sup>But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given her for a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup>Now in this I declare unto you that I praise you not: that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>19</sup>For there must be also heresies among you, that those who are approved may be made manifest among you. <sup>20</sup>When ye therefore come together into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's Supper. <sup>21</sup>For in eating, every one taketh his own supper ahead of another, and one is hungry and another is drunken. <sup>22</sup>What? Have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise ye the church of God, and shame those who have not? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I praise you not!

♦<sup>23</sup>For I have received from the Lord that which also I delivered unto you: that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread; <sup>24</sup>and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me."* <sup>25</sup>In the same manner also He took the cup when He had supped, saying, "This cup is the new testament in My blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me." <sup>26</sup>For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death until He come. ♦

<sup>27</sup>Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty against the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and then let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup. <sup>29</sup>For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. <sup>30</sup>For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. <sup>31</sup>For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

And the rest will I set in order when I come.

<sup>4</sup>Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all in all. <sup>7</sup>But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal: <sup>8</sup>For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; <sup>10</sup>to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup>But all of these that one and the selfsame Spirit worketh, apportioning to every man individually as He will.

<sup>12</sup>For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup>For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles, whether we are bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot shall say, "Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? <sup>16</sup>And if the ear shall say, "Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? <sup>18</sup>But now hath God set the members, each one of them, in the body as it hath pleased Him. <sup>19</sup>And if they were all one member, where would be the body? <sup>20</sup>But now there are many members, yet but one body. <sup>21</sup>And the eye cannot say unto the hand, "I have no need of thee"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." <sup>22</sup>Nay, much more those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary. <sup>23</sup>And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. <sup>24</sup>For our more comely parts have no need, but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked, <sup>25</sup>that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care one for another. <sup>26</sup>And whenever one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

thirdly teachers, after that miracle workers, then those with gifts of healing, helpers, administrators, and those with diversity of tongues. <sup>29</sup>Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? <sup>30</sup>Have all the gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

<sup>31</sup>But covet earnestly the best gifts, and yet show I unto you a more excellent way.

♦<sup>1</sup>Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. <sup>2</sup>And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith so that I could remove mountains, but have not charity, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. <sup>4</sup>Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up; <sup>5</sup>doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own way, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; <sup>6</sup>rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; <sup>7</sup>beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

<sup>8</sup>Charity never faileth. But whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. <sup>9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup>But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. <sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. <sup>12</sup>For now we see through a glass, darkly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then shall I know, even as also I am known.

<sup>13</sup>And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. ♦

<sup>1</sup>Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather so that ye may prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God, for no man understandeth him, however it may be that in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. <sup>3</sup>But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men for edification and exhortation and comfort. <sup>4</sup>He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself, but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. <sup>5</sup>I would that ye all spoke with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, unless he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

<sup>6</sup>Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I shall speak to you either by revelation or by knowledge, or by prophesying or by doctrine? <sup>7</sup>And even things without life, making sounds, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>8</sup>For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle? <sup>9</sup>So likewise ye, unless ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken, for ye shall be speaking into the air? <sup>10</sup>There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. <sup>12</sup>Even so ye, inasmuch as ye are zealous to possess spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup>What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>16</sup>Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say "Amen" at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? <sup>17</sup>For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. <sup>18</sup>I thank my God that I speak with tongues more than ye all. <sup>19</sup>Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

<sup>21</sup>In the law it is written:

"With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people;

and yet for all that they will not hear Me,"*

saith the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those who believe not; but prophesying serveth not those who believe not, but those who believe. <sup>23</sup>If therefore the whole church come together into one place and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned or unbelievers, will they say that ye are mad? <sup>24</sup>But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not or is unlearned, he is convinced by all and is judged by all, <sup>25</sup>and thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God and report that God is in you in truth.

<sup>26</sup>How is it then, brethren? When ye come together every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. <sup>27</sup>If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two or at the most by three, and then in turn, and let one interpret. <sup>28</sup>But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. <sup>30</sup>If anything be revealed to another who sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. <sup>31</sup>For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be comforted. <sup>32</sup>The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, <sup>33</sup>for God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as it is in all churches of the saints.

<sup>34</sup>Let your women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.* <sup>35</sup>And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. <sup>36</sup>What? Did the Word of God come out from you? Or did it come unto you only? <sup>37</sup>If any man think himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. <sup>38</sup>But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>39</sup>Therefore, brethren, aspire to prophecy, and forbid not the speaking with tongues. <sup>40</sup>Let all things be done decently and in order.

♦<sup>1</sup>Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which ye also have received, and whereon ye stand, <sup>2</sup>by which ye also are saved if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you—unless ye have believed in vain. <sup>3</sup>For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received: how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that He was buried, and that He arose again the third day according to the Scriptures,* <sup>5</sup>and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. <sup>6</sup>After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom a greater part remain unto this present day, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup>After that

He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>And last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all—yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>11</sup>Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is preached, that He rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: <sup>14</sup>and if Christ be not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain. <sup>15</sup>Yea, and we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up, if so it be that the dead rise not. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead rise not, then is Christ not raised; <sup>17</sup>and if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup>If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

<sup>20</sup>But now Christ is risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of those who slept. <sup>21</sup>For since by man came death, by Man came also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive; <sup>23</sup>but every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward those who are Christ's at His coming. <sup>24</sup>Then cometh the end when He shall have delivered up the Kingdom to God, even the Father, when He shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For He must reign until He hath put all enemies under His feet.* <sup>26</sup>The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death, ♦ <sup>27</sup>for "He hath put all things under His feet."* But when He saith "all things" are put under Him, it is manifest that He is excepted, who did put all things under Him. <sup>28</sup>And when all things shall be subdued unto Him, then shall the Son Himself also be subject unto Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup>Else, what shall they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? <sup>30</sup>And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? <sup>31</sup>I declare by my rejoicing in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord: I die daily. <sup>32</sup>If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is there to me, if the dead rise not? "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"* <sup>33</sup>Be not deceived: "Evil communications corrupt good manners." <sup>34</sup>Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have no knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.

♦<sup>35</sup>But some man will say, "How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?" <sup>36</sup>Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickeneth, unless it die. <sup>37</sup>And that which thou sowest is not that body which shall be, but bare grain, by chance of wheat or of some other grain. <sup>38</sup>But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body. ♦ <sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. <sup>40</sup>There are also celestial bodies and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. <sup>41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

♦♦<sup>42</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead: It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. <sup>43</sup>It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup>It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>And so it is written: "The first man Adam was made a living soul."* The last Adam was made a quickening Spirit. <sup>46</sup>However that which is spiritual was not first, but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second Man is the Lord from Heaven.* <sup>48</sup>As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>49</sup>And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

O grave, where is thy victory?"**

<sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

<sup>58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. ♦

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the collection for the saints: As I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. <sup>2</sup>Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay aside in store as God hath prospered him, so that there need be no gatherings when I come. <sup>3</sup>And when I come, whomever ye shall approve by your letters I will send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

<sup>5</sup>Now I will come unto you when I shall pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia). <sup>6</sup>And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may send me on my journey whithersoever I go. <sup>7</sup>For I will not see you now on my way, as I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. <sup>8</sup>But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>For a great door, and effectual, has opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

<sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear, for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>11</sup>Let no man therefore despise him, but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me; for I look for him with the brethren.

<sup>12</sup>Now concerning our brother Apollos: I greatly desired that he should come unto you with the brethren, but it was not at all his will to come at this time; but he will come when it shall be convenient.

<sup>15</sup>I beseech you, brethren (ye know the household of Stephanas and that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints), <sup>16</sup>that ye submit yourselves unto such and to everyone that helpeth with us and laboreth. <sup>17</sup>I am glad about the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied. <sup>18</sup>For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge ye those who are such.

Amen.

Second Corinthians

(THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE CORINTHIANS)

CHAPTER 1

<sup>3</sup>The apostle encourageth them against troubles by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, <sup>8</sup>so particularly in his late danger in Asia. <sup>12</sup>And calling both his own conscience and theirs to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the Gospel, <sup>15</sup>he excuseth his not coming to them as proceeding not from thoughtlessness, but from his leniency towards them.

Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, together with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

<sup>2</sup>Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. <sup>6</sup>And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in teaching you to endure the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. <sup>7</sup>And our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

<sup>8</sup>For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, of our trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were pressed beyond measure, beyond strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves but in God who raiseth the dead, <sup>10</sup>who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver us, and in whom we trust that He will yet deliver us. <sup>11</sup>Ye also helped by praying together for us, so that for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

<sup>12</sup>For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience: that we have had our discourse in the world, and more abundantly toward you, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God in simplicity and godly sincerity. <sup>13</sup>For we write no other things unto you than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end, <sup>14</sup>as ye also have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the Day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>And in this confidence, I was minded to come unto you before this, that ye might have a second benefit: <sup>16</sup>to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to come again to you on my way out of Macedonia, and be sent by you on my way toward Judea. <sup>17</sup>When therefore I was thus minded, did I decide lightly? Or the things which I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be "yea, yea" and "nay, nay"? ♦<sup>18</sup>But as God is true, our word toward you was not "yea" and "nay." <sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not "yea" and "nay," but in Him was "yea." <sup>20</sup>For all the promises of God in Him are "yea"; and in Him "amen" unto the glory of God by us. <sup>21</sup>Now He who establisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God, <sup>22</sup>who hath also put His seal upon us, and given us the earnest payment of the Spirit in our hearts. ♦

<sup>23</sup>Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that it was to spare you that I came not as yet unto Corinth, <sup>24</sup>not that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers in your joy. For by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Having shown the reason why he came not to them, <sup>6</sup>he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, <sup>10</sup>even as he himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, <sup>12</sup>declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, <sup>14</sup>and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

<sup>1</sup>But I determined this within myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness: <sup>2</sup>For if I make you sorry, who is he then who maketh me glad, but the same who is made sorrowful by me? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote as I did unto you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from those of whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all. <sup>4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears, not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly for you.

<sup>5</sup>But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part—that I may not overcharge you all. <sup>6</sup>Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many, <sup>7</sup>so that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. <sup>8</sup>Therefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. <sup>9</sup>For to this end also did I write, that I might have proof from you, whether ye be obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup>To whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also; for if I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it, I forgave it for your sakes in the person of Christ, <sup>11</sup>lest Satan should get an advantage over us. For we are not ignorant of his devices.

<sup>12</sup>Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's Gospel, and a door was opened unto me by the Lord, <sup>13</sup>I had no rest in my spirit because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>Now thanks be unto God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ and who maketh manifest through us the savor of His knowledge in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are unto God a sweet savor of Christ, among those who are saved and among those who are perishing: <sup>16</sup>to the one we are the savor of death unto death, and to the other the savor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup>For we are not as many, who corrupt the Word of God; but as out of sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

♦<sup>1</sup>Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? <sup>2</sup>Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; <sup>3</sup>for ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but in fleshy tablets of the heart.

<sup>4</sup>And such is the trust we have through Christ toward God. <sup>5</sup>Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as coming from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, <sup>6</sup>who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament—not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. ♦

<sup>7</sup>But if the ministration of death, written and engraved in stones was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away with, <sup>8</sup>how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious? <sup>9</sup>For if the ministration of condemnation is glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory! <sup>10</sup>For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. <sup>11</sup>For if that which is done away with was glorious, much more is the glory of that which remaineth.

♦<sup>12</sup>Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech—<sup>13</sup>and not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which was being abolished.* <sup>14</sup>But their minds were blinded; and up until this day the same veil remaineth untaken away in the reading of the old testament, which veil is done away with in Christ. <sup>15</sup>But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their hearts. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless when they shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

<sup>17</sup>Now the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.* <sup>18</sup>But we all, with open faces beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the Gospel, <sup>7</sup>and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, <sup>12</sup>to the benefit of the church, <sup>16</sup>and to the apostles' own eternal glory.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy we faint not, <sup>2</sup>but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty. We walk not in craftiness, nor handle the Word of God deceitfully; but by manifesting the truth we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup>But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to those who are lost, <sup>4</sup>whose unbelieving minds the god of this world hath blinded, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. <sup>5</sup>For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness,* hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be from God, and not from us. <sup>8</sup>We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; <sup>9</sup>persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; <sup>10</sup>always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. <sup>11</sup>For we who live are always being delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup>So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

<sup>13</sup>We, having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written: "I believed and therefore have I spoken"*—we also believe and therefore speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. <sup>15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, that, through the thanksgiving of many, the abundant grace might redound to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup>For this cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, <sup>18</sup>while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>That in his assured hope of immortal glory, <sup>9</sup>and in expectance of it and of the general Judgment, he laboreth to keep a good conscience, <sup>12</sup>not that he may herein boast of himself, <sup>14</sup>but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoreth to live as a new creature to Christ only, <sup>18</sup>and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

♦♦<sup>6</sup>Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; <sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted by Him. <sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.*

<sup>11</sup>Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. <sup>12</sup>For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have something to answer those who glory in appearance and not in heart. <sup>13</sup>For if we be beside ourselves, it is for God; if we be sober-minded, it is for your cause. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge that if One died for all, then all were dead; <sup>15</sup>and that He died for all, that those who live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him who died for them and rose again. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, henceforth we regard no man according to the flesh; yea, though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now henceforth we know Him so no more.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things have become new.* <sup>18</sup>And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup>to wit, that God was in

*1 Job 4:19. *10 Job 34:11, Ps 62:12. *5:17 Isa 43:19, Rev 21:5.

Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath committed unto us the Word of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup>Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were beseeching you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For He hath made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>We then, as workers together with Him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. <sup>2</sup>(For He saith,

"I have heard thee at an accepted time, and in the day of salvation have I succored thee."*)

Behold, now is the accepted time! Behold, now is the day of salvation!)

<sup>3</sup>We give no offense in anything, that the ministry be not blamed; <sup>4</sup>but in all things we commend ourselves as the ministers of God in much patience: in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, <sup>5</sup>in floggings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; <sup>6</sup>by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned, <sup>7</sup>by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left; <sup>8</sup>through honor and dishonor, through evil report and good report; though counted as deceivers and yet true, <sup>9</sup>as unknowns and yet well known, as dying and yet behold we live, as chastened and not killed, <sup>10</sup>as sorrowful yet always rejoicing; as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>O ye Corinthians, our mouth is opened unto you, and our heart is opened wide. <sup>12</sup>Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. <sup>13</sup>Now as a recompense for this (I speak as unto my children), be ye also opened wide. ♦

<sup>14</sup>Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what concord hath Christ with Belial? Or what hath he that believeth with an infidel? <sup>16</sup>And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? For ye are the temple of the living God. As God hath said:

"I will dwell in them and walk in them";

"and I will be their God, and they shall be My people." *

*2 Isa 49:8. *16 Ex 29:45, Lev 26:12, Ezk 37:27.

“Come out from among them,
and be ye separate,” saith the Lord.

“And touch not the unclean thing,* and I will receive you,*

<sup>18</sup>and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be My sons and daughters,”*
saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, <sup>2</sup>and to bear him like affection as he doeth to them. <sup>3</sup>Whereof, lest he might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, <sup>13</sup>and of their loving kindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

<sup>1</sup>Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>2</sup>Receive us: we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. <sup>3</sup>I speak this not to condemn you, for I have said before that ye are in our hearts, to die and live with you. <sup>4</sup>Great is my boldness of speech toward you; great is my glorying of you. I am filled with comfort; I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation. <sup>5</sup>For when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side: without were fightings, within were fears. <sup>6</sup>Nevertheless God, who comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus, <sup>7</sup>and not by his coming only, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoiced the more. <sup>8</sup>For though I caused you sorrow with a letter, I do not repent, though I did regret it; for I perceive that the same epistle hath caused you sorrow, though it were but for a season. <sup>9</sup>Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorrowful, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For ye were made sorrowful in a godly manner, that ye might receive injury from us in nothing. <sup>10</sup>For godly sorrow is not to be repented of, but worketh repentance unto salvation; but the sorrow of the world worketh death. <sup>11</sup>For behold this selfsame thing, when ye sorrowed in a godly manner: what earnest concern it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what requital! In all these things ye have proved yourselves to be clear in this matter. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, though I wrote unto you, I did not do so for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for his sake who suffered wrong, but that our concern for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

*17a Isa 52:11. *17b Ezk 20:34. *18 2 Sam 7:14, Jer 31:1.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore we were comforted in your comfort. Yea, we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup>For if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed, but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found to be true. <sup>15</sup>And his inward affection is more abundant toward you whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. <sup>16</sup>I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

<sup>8</sup>I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forthcoming of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. <sup>9</sup>For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich. <sup>10</sup>And herein I give my advice, for this is expedient for you, who began earlier not only to do, but also to be in the forefront a year ago. <sup>11</sup>Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. <sup>12</sup>For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man hath, and not according to what he hath not. <sup>13</sup>For I do not mean that other men should be eased and ye burdened, <sup>14</sup>but that there be an equality: that now at this time your abundance may supply their want, that their abundance may also supply your want, that there may be equality. <sup>15</sup>As it is written: "He that had gathered much had nothing left over, and he that had gathered little had no lack." ♦* of Titus for you. <sup>17</sup>For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being even more zealous, of his own accord he went unto you. <sup>18</sup>And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the churches. <sup>19</sup>And not that only, but he was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and to declare your ready mind. <sup>20</sup>For we are avoiding having any man blame us in this abundance which is administered by us, <sup>21</sup>providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of men. <sup>22</sup>And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent because of the great confidence which I have in you. <sup>23</sup>If any should enquire about Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you. Or if our brethren be enquired about, they are the messengers of the churches and the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup>For I know the forwardness of your thinking, for which I boast of you to those of Macedonia that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath called forth very many. <sup>3</sup>Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you on this account should be in vain, that, as I said, ye may be ready; <sup>4</sup>lest it might happen, if those of Macedonia come with me and find you unprepared, that we (that we say not "ye") should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. <sup>5</sup>Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to go ahead unto you and make up your bounty beforehand (whereof ye had notice beforehand), that the same might be ready as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

♦♦But this I say: He who soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly, and he who soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. <sup>7</sup>As every man purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly or out of compulsion; for God loveth the cheerful giver.* <sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye, always having a sufficiency in all things, may abound in every good work. <sup>9</sup>As it is written:

"He hath dispersed abroad,
he hath given to the poor;
his righteousness remaineth for ever."*

<sup>10</sup>Now may He that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread

*7 Pr 11:25, Rom 12:8. *9 Ps 112:9.

for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness,* <sup>11</sup>ye being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. <sup>12</sup>For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also in much thanksgiving unto God, <sup>13</sup>while by the experience of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them and unto all men, <sup>14</sup>and by their prayer for you, they who long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

CHAPTER 10

Against the false apostles, who disparaged the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority with which he is armed against all adversary powers, <sup>7</sup>assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word as he now, being absent, is in writing, <sup>12</sup>and withal charging them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass and vaunting themselves into other men's labors.

<sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I, who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you— <sup>2</sup>I beseech you that when I am present I need not be bold with that confidence with which I have in mind to be bold against some, who think of us as though we walked according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. <sup>4</sup>For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God for the pulling down of strongholds, <sup>5</sup>casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ, <sup>6</sup>and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

<sup>7</sup>Do ye look on things according to the outward appearance? If any man trust himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. <sup>8</sup>For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed, <sup>9</sup>that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. <sup>10</sup>"For his letters," say they, "are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible." <sup>11</sup>Let such a one think this: that as we are in word by letters when we are absent, so will we be also in deed when we are present.

<sup>12</sup>For we dare not number ourselves, or compare ourselves, with some who commend themselves. For in measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, they are not wise. <sup>13</sup>But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. <sup>14</sup>For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you. For we have come as far as to you also in preaching the Gospel of Christ, <sup>15</sup>not boasting of things beyond our own measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope that, when your faith has increased, we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, <sup>16</sup>to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's accomplishments, which he made ready for our hand. <sup>17</sup>But "he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord." <sup>18</sup>For it is not he that commendeth himself that is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly—and indeed ye do bear with me. <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy; for I have espoused you to one Husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I fear lest by some means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety,* so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit which ye have not received, or another gospel which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. <sup>5</sup>For I consider myself not a whit lower than the very chiefest apostles. <sup>6</sup>Though I am rude in speech, yet I am not in knowledge; for we have been made thoroughly manifest among you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the Gospel of God without charge? <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to do you service. <sup>9</sup>And when I was present with you and was in want, I was a burden to no man, for that which I lacked the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

<sup>10</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why so? Because I love you not? God knoweth! <sup>12</sup>But what I do, that I will continue to do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion, that wherein they glory they may be found even as we. <sup>13</sup>For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup>I say again, let no man think me a fool. But if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast of myself a little. <sup>17</sup>(That which I now speak, I speak it not from the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this boastful confidence. <sup>18</sup>Since many glory in the flesh, I will glory also.) <sup>19</sup>For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise! <sup>20</sup>Ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, or if a man devour you, if a man take from you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. <sup>21</sup>I speak with reproach, as though we had been weak! However it be, whereinsoever anyone is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more—in labors more abundant, in floggings beyond measure, in prisons more frequent, near death more often. <sup>24</sup>From the Jews five times I received forty stripes less one.* <sup>25</sup>Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned; thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day adrift in the deep; <sup>26</sup>in journeyings often, in perils from waters, in perils from robbers, in perils from my own countrymen, in perils from the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; <sup>27</sup>in weariness and painfulness, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

<sup>28</sup>Besides these things which are external, there is that which cometh upon me daily: the care for all the churches! <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I burn not? <sup>30</sup>If I must glory, I will glory in the things which concern mine infirmities. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. <sup>32</sup>In Damascus, the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me; <sup>33</sup>but I was let down by the wall in a basket through a window, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>It is doubtless not expedient for me to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord:

♦<sup>2</sup>I knew a man in Christ more than fourteen years ago (whether in the body I cannot tell, or whether out of the body I cannot tell—God knoweth). Such a one was caught up to the third Heaven. <sup>3</sup>And I knew such a man (whether in the body or out of the body I cannot tell—God knoweth), <sup>4</sup>and how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words which are not lawful for a man to utter. <sup>5</sup>Of such a one will I glory, yet for myself I will not glory, except in mine infirmities. <sup>6</sup>For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool, for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me more highly than that which he seeth me to be, or than he heareth of me. <sup>7</sup>And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh,* the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. <sup>8</sup>For this thing, I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup>And He said unto me, “My grace is sufficient for thee, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” Most gladly therefore will I glory rather in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in privations, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong. ♦

<sup>11</sup>I have become a fool in glorying. Ye have compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you. For in nothing am I inferior to the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds. <sup>13</sup>For in what are ye inferior to other churches, unless it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

<sup>14</sup>Behold, for the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be burdensome to you, for I seek not yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you, though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved. <sup>16</sup>But be it so, I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile. <sup>17</sup>Did I gain from you by any of those whom I sent unto you? <sup>18</sup>I desired Titus to go, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make any gain from you? Walked we not in the same spirit? Walked we not in the same steps?

<sup>19</sup>Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ; but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. <sup>20</sup>For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found by you as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wrath, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, boastings, tumults; <sup>21</sup>and lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many who have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

<sup>1</sup>This is the third time I am coming to you. "In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established."* <sup>2</sup>I told you before, and fortell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent now I write to those who heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare—<sup>3</sup>since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you. <sup>4</sup>For though He was crucified through weakness, yet He liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward you.

<sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith. Prove your own selves. Know ye not yourselves how Jesus Christ is in you, unless ye be reprobates? <sup>6</sup>But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

<sup>7</sup>Now I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we should appear to be approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. <sup>8</sup>For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we are glad when we are weak and ye are strong. And this also we wish: even your perfection. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I write these things being absent, lest, were I present, I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me for edification, and not for destruction.

♦♦<sup>11</sup>Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

<sup>14</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Amen.

EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

Galatians

CHAPTER 1

<sup>6</sup>He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the Gospel, <sup>8</sup>and accurseth those who preach any other Gospel than he did. <sup>11</sup>He learned the Gospel not from men, but from God; <sup>14</sup>and showeth what he was before his calling, <sup>17</sup>and what he did presently after it.

♦<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), <sup>2</sup>and all the brethren who are with me,

Unto the churches of Galatia:

<sup>3</sup>Grace be unto you and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father, <sup>5</sup>to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>I marvel that ye are so soon removed from Him, that called you into the grace of Christ, for another gospel. <sup>7</sup>For there is not another; but there are some who trouble you and would pervert the Gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But should we, or an angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed. <sup>9</sup>As we said before, so say I now again: If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that which ye have received, let him be accursed! <sup>10</sup>For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet sought to please men, I should not be the servant of Christ. <sup>11</sup>But I certify to you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached by me is not according to man; <sup>12</sup>for I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup>For ye have heard of my participation in times past in the Jews' religion, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and wasted it. <sup>14</sup>I profited in the Jews' religion beyond many of my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup>But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me by His grace, <sup>16</sup>to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the heathen, I conferred not immediately with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia and returned again unto Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup>(Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.) <sup>21</sup>Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, <sup>22</sup>and was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ; <sup>23</sup>but they had heard only that, "He who persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed." <sup>24</sup>And they glorified God in me. ♦

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>He showeth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose; <sup>3</sup>and that Titus was not circumcised; <sup>11</sup>and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason <sup>14</sup>why he and others, being Jews, believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works, <sup>20</sup>and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

<sup>1</sup>Then fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. <sup>2</sup>And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. <sup>3</sup>But neither was Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, compelled to be circumcised; <sup>4</sup>and that because false brethren were brought in by stealth, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage. <sup>5</sup>To them we gave place by submission not even for an hour, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

<sup>6</sup>But of those who seemed to be something (whosoever they were, it maketh no difference to me: God accepteth no man's person)—those who seemed to be somewhat in charge added nothing to me;* <sup>7</sup>but contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel to the Uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the Gospel to the Circumcision was unto Peter <sup>8</sup>(for He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the Circumcision, that Same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles), <sup>9</sup>and when James, Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen and they unto the Circumcision. <sup>10</sup>Only they would that we should remember the poor, the same as I also was eager to do.

<sup>11</sup>But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed. <sup>12</sup>For before certain ones came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself from them, fearing those who were of the Circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him, so much that Barnabas also was carried away by their dissimulation. <sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, "If thou, being a Jew, lives after the manner of Gentiles and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? ♦♦<sup>15</sup>We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, <sup>16</sup>knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.* <sup>17</sup>But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sin? God forbid! <sup>18</sup>For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. <sup>19</sup>For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. <sup>20</sup>I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me. And the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not frustrate the grace of God; for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." ♦

<sup>10</sup> foolish Galatians! Who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been clearly set forth, crucified among you? <sup>2</sup>This only would I learn of you: Did ye receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? <sup>4</sup>Have ye suffered so many things in vain—if it be yet in vain? <sup>5</sup>He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit and worketh miracles among you, doeth He it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness."*

<sup>7</sup>Know ye therefore that those who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached beforehand the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, "In thee shall all nations be blessed."* <sup>9</sup>So then, those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

to the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

<sup>15</sup>Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: A covenant, though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man annulleth or addeth thereto. <sup>16</sup>Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, "and to seeds," as though many; but as though one: "and to thy Seed," who is Christ.* <sup>17</sup>And this I say, that the Covenant which was confirmed earlier by God in Christ cannot be annulled by the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, so as to make the promise of no effect.* <sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

<sup>19</sup>For what then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels through the hand of a mediator. <sup>20</sup>Now a mediator is not a mediator for one, but God is one.

<sup>21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should then have come by the law. <sup>22</sup>But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

♦<sup>23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept under the law, being shut apart from the faith which should afterwards be revealed. <sup>24</sup>Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But after faith has come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. <sup>26</sup>For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>And if ye be Christ's, then ye are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.♦

<sup>1</sup>We were under the law until Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian until he is of age. <sup>2</sup>But Christ freed us from the law: <sup>3</sup>therefore we are servants no longer to it. <sup>4</sup>He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them, <sup>5</sup>and showeth that we are the sons of Abraham by the freewomen.

<sup>1</sup>Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth in nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all. <sup>2</sup>But he is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup>Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. ♦♦<sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law, <sup>5</sup>to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. <sup>6</sup>And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba, Father." <sup>7</sup>Therefore thou art no more a servant but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. ♦

<sup>8</sup>However that be, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto those which by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup>But now after ye have known God, or rather are known by God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements unto which ye desire again to be in bondage? <sup>10</sup>Ye observe days and months and times and years. <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain.

<sup>12</sup>Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am, for I am as ye are. Ye have not injured me at all. <sup>13</sup>Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the Gospel unto you at the first. <sup>14</sup>And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Where is then the blessedness ye spoke of? For I bear you record that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes and have given them to me. <sup>16</sup>Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth? <sup>17</sup>They zealously seek after you, but for no good; yea, they would exclude you from us, that ye might seek after them. <sup>18</sup>But it is good to be zealously sought after, always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. <sup>19</sup>My little children, over whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, <sup>20</sup>I desire to be present with you now and to change my tone of voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, ye who desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.* <sup>23</sup>But he who was of the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, but he of the freewoman was by promise. <sup>24</sup>These things are an allegory, for these are the two covenants: The one is from Mount Sinai, which engendereth bondage; this is Hagar. <sup>25</sup>For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and answereth to Jerusalem as it is now, and is in bondage with her children. <sup>26</sup>But the Jerusalem which is above is free, and is the mother of us all. <sup>27</sup>For it is written:

"Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
break forth and cry, thou that travailest not;
for the desolate hath many more children than she who hath a husband."*

<sup>28</sup>Now we, brethren, as was Isaac, are the children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But as then, he that was born according to the flesh persecuted him that was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now. <sup>30</sup>Nevertheless what saith the Scripture? "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."* <sup>31</sup>So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

*<sup>22</sup> Gen 21:1, 9-10. *<sup>27</sup> Isa 54:1. *<sup>30</sup> Gen 21:10.

♦♦Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.♦ <sup>2</sup>Behold, I, Paul, say unto you that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>For I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to keep the whole law. <sup>4</sup>Christ then becomes of no effect unto you, whosoever of you claim justification by the law; ye are fallen from grace. <sup>5</sup>For we, through the Spirit, wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. <sup>6</sup>For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.

<sup>7</sup>Ye were running well; who hindered you, that ye should not obey the truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion cometh not from Him that calleth you. <sup>9</sup>A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence in you through the Lord that ye will be not otherwise minded; but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. <sup>11</sup>And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why then do I yet suffer persecution? Then would the offense of the cross cease. <sup>12</sup>I would that they were even cut off which trouble you!

♦♦<sup>13</sup>For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion of the flesh, but by love serve one another. <sup>14</sup>For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."* <sup>15</sup>But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye not be consumed one by another:

<sup>16</sup>This I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. <sup>18</sup>But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are manifest, and they are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, quarreling, rivalry, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, <sup>21</sup>envying, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like. About these things I tell you again, as I have also told you in times past: that those who do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. <sup>22</sup>But the fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, <sup>23</sup>meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. <sup>24</sup>And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its affections and lusts. <sup>25</sup>If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.♦ <sup>26</sup>Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another and envying one another.

*14 Lev 19:18, Mt 22:39.

<sup>7</sup>Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. <sup>8</sup>For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. <sup>9</sup>And let us not be weary in welldoing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. <sup>10</sup>As we therefore have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto those who are of the household of faith.

Ephesians

<sup>1</sup>After the salutation <sup>2</sup>and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, <sup>4</sup>he treateth of our election <sup>6</sup>and adoption by grace, <sup>11</sup>which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation. <sup>13</sup>And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained unto, <sup>16</sup>he prayeth that they may come <sup>16</sup>to the full knowledge and <sup>20</sup>possession thereof in Christ.

To the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:
<sup>2</sup>Grace be to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

♦♦Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in the heavenly places in Christ. <sup>4</sup>He hath chosen us in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love. <sup>5</sup>He predestined us to be His own adopted children by Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved. <sup>7</sup>In Christ we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace, <sup>8</sup>wherein He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence. <sup>9</sup>He hath made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself, <sup>10</sup>that in the dispensation of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth, even in Him.

<sup>11</sup>In Christ also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will, <sup>12</sup>that we, who first trusted in Christ, should be to the praise of His glory. <sup>13</sup>In Christ ye also trusted after ye heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation. In Him also after ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup>which is the pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession—unto the praise of His glory.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, <sup>16</sup>cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers. <sup>17</sup>I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, <sup>18</sup>the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power, <sup>20</sup>which He wrought in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and set Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup>far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. <sup>22</sup>and God hath put all things under His feet, and hath given Him to be the head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup>which is His body, the fullness of Him who filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And you hath He quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins, <sup>2</sup>wherein in times past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. <sup>3</sup>Among these also we all in times past had our manner of living in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. <sup>4</sup>But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love wherewith He loved us, <sup>5</sup>even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ (by grace ye are saved), <sup>6</sup>and hath raised us up together and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup>that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God— <sup>9</sup>not by works, lest any man should boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath beforehand ordained, that we should walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, remember that ye, being in times past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by those who are called the Circumcision in the flesh so made by hands— <sup>12</sup>remember that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and being without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus, ye who once were far off have been brought nigh by the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>For He is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us, <sup>15</sup>having abolished in His flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that He might make in Himself one new man out of the two, so making peace, <sup>16</sup>and that He might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. <sup>17</sup>He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were nigh; <sup>18</sup>for through Him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

<sup>19</sup>Now therefore, ye are strangers and foreigners no more, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. <sup>20</sup>Ye are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, <sup>21</sup>in whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord. <sup>22</sup>In Him ye also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>2</sup>if ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me towards you, <sup>3</sup>how by revelation He made known unto me the mystery (as I wrote before a few words on this, <sup>4</sup>whereby when ye read this, ye may understand my knowledge of the mystery of Christ), <sup>5</sup>which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ by the Gospel. <sup>7</sup>For this I was made a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of His power. <sup>8</sup>Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>with the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, <sup>11</sup>according to the eternal purpose which He hath purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence by faith in Him. ♦ <sup>13</sup>Therefore, I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which are your glory.

♦♦<sup>14</sup>For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup>from whom the whole family in Heaven and earth is named, <sup>16</sup>that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; <sup>17</sup>that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup>may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, <sup>19</sup>and to know the love of Christ, which surpasseth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>Now unto Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, <sup>21</sup>unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

I therefore, the prisoner for the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, <sup>2</sup>with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love, <sup>3</sup>endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. ♦ <sup>7</sup>But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Therefore he saith,

“When He ascended up on high,

He led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.”*

<sup>9</sup>(Now the saying, “He ascended”—what does it mean but that He also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? <sup>10</sup>He that descended is the same who also ascended up far above all heavens, that He might fill all things.) <sup>11</sup>And He appointed some to be apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers,* <sup>12</sup>for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, and for the edifying of the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup>until we all come into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, and become perfect men, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, <sup>14</sup>that we henceforth be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight of men and their cunning and craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; <sup>15</sup>but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, who is the Head, even Christ, <sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.*♦

<sup>17</sup>This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, <sup>18</sup>having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them because of the blindness of their heart.* <sup>19</sup>They, being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>20</sup>But ye have not so learned Christ, <sup>21</sup>if so it be that ye have heard Him and have been taught by Him as the truth is in Jesus: <sup>22</sup>that ye put off, concerning your former manner of living, the old man which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, <sup>23</sup>and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, <sup>24</sup>and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

<sup>1</sup>Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; <sup>2</sup>and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor.♦ <sup>3</sup>But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let them not once be named among you, as becometh saints; <sup>4</sup>neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not befitting, but rather giving of thanks. <sup>5</sup>For this ye know: that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>6</sup>Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Be ye not therefore partakers with them.

reproved are made manifest by the light, for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore he saith:

“Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.”*

<sup>15</sup>See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,* <sup>16</sup>redeeming the time, because the days are evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, be ye not unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. <sup>18</sup>And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup>speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, <sup>20</sup>giving thanks always for all things unto God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, † <sup>21</sup>submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

Lord; <sup>23</sup>for the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church, and He is the savior of the body. <sup>24</sup>Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it, <sup>26</sup>that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word, <sup>27</sup>that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. <sup>28</sup>So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. <sup>29</sup>For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church. <sup>30</sup>For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. <sup>31</sup>“For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.”* <sup>32</sup>This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

life is a warfare, <sup>12</sup>not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. <sup>13</sup>The complete armor of a Christian, <sup>18</sup>and how it ought to be used. <sup>21</sup>Tychicus is commended.

thy father and mother,” which is the first commandment with a promise, <sup>3</sup>“that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.”* <sup>4</sup>And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ, <sup>6</sup>not with eyeservice as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, <sup>7</sup>with good will doing *14 Isa 60:1. *15 Col 4:5. *31 Gen 2:23-24, Mt 19:5. *2-3 Ex 20:12, Dt 5:16.

service, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>8</sup>knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive from the Lord, whether he is in bondage or free.*

<sup>9</sup>And ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening, knowing that your Master also is in Heaven; neither is there respect of persons with Him.*

◆<sup>10</sup>Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. <sup>11</sup>Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. <sup>12</sup>For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. <sup>14</sup>Stand therefore, having your loins girded about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup>and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace. <sup>16</sup>Above all, take the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. <sup>17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God,* <sup>18</sup>praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. <sup>19</sup>And pray for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the Gospel, <sup>20</sup>for which I am an ambassador in bonds, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.◆

<sup>21</sup>But that ye also may know my affairs and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things. <sup>22</sup>I have sent him unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.

Amen.

THE
EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

Philippians

CHAPTER 1

<sup>3</sup>He testifieth of his thankfulness to God and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith and fellowship in his sufferings, <sup>9</sup>daily praying to Him for their increase in grace. <sup>12</sup>He showeth what good the faith of Christ had received through his troubles at Rome, <sup>21</sup>and how ready he is to glorify Christ either by his life or death, <sup>27</sup>exhorting them to unite, <sup>28</sup>and to fortitude in persecution.

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ,
To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

<sup>2</sup>Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

♦<sup>3</sup>I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup>always in my every prayer for you making request with joy, <sup>5</sup>for your fellowship in the Gospel from the first day until now. <sup>6</sup>And I am confident of this very thing, that He who hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the Day of Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup>It is meet for me to think thus of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, ye are all partakers with me in grace. <sup>8</sup>For God is my record how greatly I long for you all in the compassion of Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment, <sup>10</sup>that ye may approve things that are excellent, and that ye may be sincere and without offense until the Day of Christ, <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. ♦

<sup>12</sup>But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which have happened unto me have turned out unto the furtherance of the Gospel, <sup>13</sup>so that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace and in all other places; <sup>14</sup>and many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much bolder to speak the Word without fear. <sup>15</sup>Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. <sup>16</sup>The one preaches Christ out of contention and not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds; <sup>17</sup>but the other out of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the Gospel.

<sup>18</sup>What then? Notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. <sup>19</sup>For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and my hope that in nothing shall I be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death. ♦<sup>21</sup>For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup>But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor; yet what I shall choose I know not. <sup>23</sup>For I am in a strait between the two, having a desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better; <sup>24</sup>nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. <sup>25</sup>And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup>that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

<sup>27</sup>Only let your manner of living be as becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you or else am absent, I may hear of your affairs that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the Gospel, <sup>28</sup>and terrified in nothing by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God. <sup>29</sup>For unto you it is given on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, <sup>30</sup>having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

He exhorteth them to unite, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation, <sup>12</sup>and to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, <sup>16</sup>and a comfort to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. <sup>19</sup>He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, <sup>25</sup>as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

<sup>1</sup>If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship in the Spirit, if any tenderness and mercies, <sup>2</sup>fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord and of one mind. <sup>3</sup>Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem the other better than himself. <sup>4</sup>Look not every man to his own things, but every man also to the things of others. <sup>5</sup>Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus,

thought it not robbery to be equal with God, <sup>7</sup>but made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant,
and was made in the likeness of men.***

*7 Mt 20:28.

8And being found in the fashion of a man,
He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death—
even the death on the cross.

9Therefore God also hath highly exalted Him,
and given Him a name which is above every name,

10that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in Heaven and things on earth
and things under the earth,

11and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.***

12Therefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13For it is God who worketh in you, both to will and to do of His good pleasure. ♦ 14Do all things without murmuring and disputing, 15that ye may be blameless and unoffending, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world, 16holding forth the Word of Life, that I may rejoice in the Day of Christ that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain. 17Yea, and if I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am joyful and rejoice with you all. 18For the same cause also be ye joyful, and rejoice with me.

19But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be comforted when I know of your state; 20for I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state. 21For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. 22But ye know the proof of him, how as a son with a father he hath served with me in the Gospel. 23Him therefore I hope to send presently, as soon as I shall see how it will go with me. 24But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25Yet I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labor and fellow soldier, who as your messenger ministered to my wants. 26For he longed after you all and was full of heaviness, because ye had heard that he had been sick. 27For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again ye may rejoice, and I may be the less sorrowful. 29Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in high honor, 30because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not having regard for his own life, to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

*10-11 Isa 45:23.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you indeed is not burdensome to me, but it is a safeguard for you. <sup>2</sup>Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. <sup>3</sup>For we are the Circumcision who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh— <sup>4</sup>though I might also have confidence in the flesh. ♦If any other man thinketh that he hath grounds to trust in the flesh, I have more: <sup>5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>concerning zeal, persecuting the church; as to the righteousness before the law, blameless. <sup>7</sup>But what things were gain to me, those I counted as loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup>Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things and count them but dung, that I may win Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in Him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith, <sup>10</sup>that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death, <sup>11</sup>so that by some means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

<sup>12</sup>It is not as though I had already attained it, nor were already perfect; but I follow after, that I may sieze hold of that for which Christ Jesus also seized hold of me. <sup>13</sup>Brethren, I count not myself to have possessed it, but this one thing I do: forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, <sup>14</sup>I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ♦<sup>15</sup>Let us therefore, as many as would be perfect, be thus minded; and if in anything ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless, however much we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

♦<sup>17</sup>Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark those who so walk, as ye have us for an example. <sup>18</sup>(For many walk, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even with weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ. <sup>19</sup>Their end is destruction, their God is their belly, and their glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) <sup>20</sup>For our abiding is in Heaven, from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my dearly beloved and longed-for brethren, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. <sup>2</sup>I beseech Euodias and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women who labored with me in the Gospel, with Clement also and with my other fellow laborers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things. <sup>9</sup>Those things which ye have both learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you. ♦

<sup>10</sup>But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me hath flourished again; though ye always cared, ye lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak in respect to want, for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. <sup>12</sup>I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I am instructed both how to be full and how to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me. <sup>14</sup>Notwithstanding, ye have done well that ye participated in my affliction.

<sup>15</sup>Now ye Philippians know also that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. <sup>16</sup>For even in Thessalonica, ye sent time and again unto my needs. <sup>17</sup>Not that I desire a gift, but I desire the fruit that may abound to your account. <sup>18</sup>But I have all, and abound; I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, a sweet fragrance, a sacrifice acceptable and well pleasing to God. <sup>19</sup>But my God shall supply all your need, according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

<sup>20</sup>Now unto our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Amen.

EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

Colossians

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4</sup>since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which ye have for all the saints, <sup>5</sup>for the hope which is laid up for you in Heaven, of which ye heard before in the word of the truth of the Gospel, <sup>6</sup>which has come unto you, as it has in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you since the day ye heard of it and knew the grace of God in truth. <sup>7</sup>Ye also learned of it from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ, <sup>8</sup>and who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; <sup>10</sup>that ye might walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>11</sup>strengthened with all might according to His glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness; <sup>12</sup>giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light. <sup>13</sup>He hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the Kingdom of His dear Son, <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins. <sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature. <sup>16</sup>For by Him were all things created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions or princi- palities or powers: all things were created by Him and for Him.* <sup>17</sup>And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist.* <sup>18</sup>And He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in all things He might have the preeminence. <sup>19</sup>For it pleased the Father that in Him should all fullness dwell, <sup>20</sup>and having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him to reconcile all things unto Himself—by Him, I say, whether they be things on earth or things in heaven.

<sup>21</sup>And you, who were once alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath He reconciled <sup>22</sup>in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and unblamable and unreprouvable in His sight, <sup>23</sup>if ye continue grounded and settled in the faith, and be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard and which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which I, Paul, am made a minister.

<sup>24</sup>I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for His body's sake, which is the church, <sup>25</sup>whereof I am made a minister according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfill the Word of God—<sup>26</sup>even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to His saints. <sup>27</sup>To them God would make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. <sup>28</sup>Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. ♦ <sup>29</sup>For this I also labor, striving according to His working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>For I would that ye knew how great is my conflict for you and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, <sup>2</sup>that their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and possessing all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may acknowledge the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ, <sup>3</sup>in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. <sup>4</sup>And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words; <sup>5</sup>for though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

♦♦ As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him, <sup>7</sup>rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, following the tradition of men according to the rudiments of the world, and not in accordance with Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. <sup>10</sup>And ye are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power, <sup>11</sup>and in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. <sup>12</sup>Ye are buried with Him in baptism, wherein ye also are risen with Him through the faith in the operation of God, who hath raised Him from the dead. <sup>13</sup>And you, being dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath He quickened together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, <sup>14</sup>blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us. He took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross; <sup>15</sup>and having despoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>16</sup>Let no man therefore judge you in regard to meat or drink, or in respect to a holy day or the new moon or the sabbath days, <sup>17</sup>which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ. <sup>18</sup>Let no man beguile you of your reward in voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, being vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>19</sup>and not holding to the Head, from whom all the body, having nourishment ministered and knit together by joints and bands, increaseth with the increase from God. ♦

<sup>20</sup>Therefore if ye be dead with Christ to the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to its ordinances <sup>21</sup>("Touch not", "Taste not", "Handle not", <sup>22</sup>which all are to perish with the using), according to the commandments and doctrines of men? <sup>23</sup>These things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship and humility and neglecting of the body; but are not in any honor against the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

♦If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God.* <sup>2</sup>Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. <sup>3</sup>For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory. <sup>5</sup>Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness which is idolatry. <sup>6</sup>Because of these, the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobe- dience, <sup>7</sup>in which ye also once walked, when ye lived in them. <sup>8</sup>But now ye also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. <sup>9</sup>Do not lie one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds, <sup>10</sup>and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of Him that created him,* <sup>11</sup>where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, holy and beloved, as the elect of God, put on hearts of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering, <sup>13</sup>forbearing one another and forgiving one another if any man have a quarrel against another: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. <sup>14</sup>And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also ye are called in one body, and be ye thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father by Him.♦

<sup>22</sup>Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

<sup>23</sup>And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not unto men, <sup>24</sup>knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance, for ye serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done, and there is no respect of persons.*

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, <sup>5</sup>to walk wisely toward those who have not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. <sup>10</sup>He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

<sup>1</sup>Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equitable, knowing that ye also have a Master in Heaven.* <sup>2</sup>Continue in prayer and watch therein with thanksgiving, <sup>3</sup>withal praying also for us that God would open unto us a door of utterance to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds, <sup>4</sup>that I may make it manifest, as *10 Gen 1:26. *25 Dt 10:17, Job 34:19. *1 Lev 25:43, 53.

I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward those who are outsiders, redeeming the time. <sup>6</sup>Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus, who is a beloved brother and a faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord, shall declare unto you all my circumstances. <sup>8</sup>I have sent him unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your state and comfort your hearts, <sup>9</sup>and with him Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus my fellow prisoner saluteth you, and also Mark, Barnabas' sister's son (concerning whom ye received instructions that if he come unto you, receive him), <sup>11</sup>and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of the Circumcision. These only are my fellow workers for the Kingdom of God, who have been a comfort unto me. <sup>12</sup>Epaphras, a servant of Christ who is one of you, saluteth you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup>For I bear him record that he hath a great zeal for you and for those who are in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. <sup>15</sup>Salute the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas and the church which is in his house. <sup>16</sup>And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. <sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it."

<sup>18</sup>This salutation by the hand of me, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you.

Amen.

First Thessalonians

(THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE THESSALONIANS)

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them St. Paul was at all times in thanksgiving and prayer, <sup>5</sup>and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith and conversion to God.

Unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of our God and Father, <sup>4</sup>knowing, brethren beloved, of your election by God. <sup>5</sup>For our Gospel came unto you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup>And ye became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the Word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup>so that ye were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>8</sup>For from you sounded forth the Word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to Godward is spread abroad, so that we need not speak anything. <sup>9</sup>For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, <sup>10</sup>and to wait for His Son from Heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

In what manner the Gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what manner also they received it. <sup>18</sup>A reason is rendered both why St. Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

<sup>1</sup>For you yourselves, brethren, know that our coming among you was not in vain. <sup>2</sup>But even after we had suffered before and were shamefully treated at Philippi, as ye know, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the Gospel of God amidst much contention. <sup>3</sup>For our exhortation was not from deceit, nor from uncleanness, nor from guile; <sup>4</sup>but as we were allowed by God to be entrusted with the Gospel, even so we speak not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is our witness), <sup>6</sup>nor sought we glory from men, neither from you nor yet from others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup>But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children. <sup>8</sup>So being affectionately desirous for you, we were willing to have imparted unto you not the Gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. <sup>9</sup>For ye remember, brethren, our labor and travail; for laboring night and day, because we would not be a burden unto any of you, we preached unto you the Gospel of God. <sup>10</sup>Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe. <sup>11</sup>Ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, <sup>12</sup>that ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto His Kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>For this cause also we thank God without ceasing; because when ye received the Word of God, which ye heard from us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the Word of God, which also worketh effectually in you who believe. ♦ <sup>14</sup>For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God in Judea which are in Christ Jesus; for ye also have suffered like things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the Jews, <sup>15</sup>who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us. They please not God and are contrary to all men, <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, thus heaping up their sins always. But the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost!

<sup>17</sup>But we, brethren, being taken away from you for a short time (in presence, but not in heart), endeavored the more abundantly and with great desire to see your face. <sup>18</sup>Therefore we would have come unto you—even I, Paul, time and again—but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? <sup>20</sup>For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone, <sup>2</sup>and sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God and our fellow laborer in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you and to comfort you concerning your faith, <sup>3</sup>that no man should be moved by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that thereunto we are appointed. <sup>4</sup>For verily, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, as ye know. <sup>5</sup>For this cause, when I could no longer forbear it, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter might have tempted you, and our labor be in vain.

<sup>6</sup>But now that Timothy has come from you unto us, and has brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have a good remembrance of us always and desire greatly to see us (as we also desire to see you), <sup>7</sup>therefore brethren, we were comforted about you in all our affliction and distress by your faith; <sup>8</sup>for now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. ♦<sup>9</sup>For what thanks can we render to God again for you for all the joy wherewith we rejoice for your sakes before our God, <sup>10</sup>as we pray earnestly night and day that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup>Now may God Himself, our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way unto you. <sup>12</sup>And may the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another and toward all men, even as we do toward you, <sup>13</sup>to the end that He may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints. ♦

He exhorteth them to go forward in all manner of godliness, <sup>6</sup>to live in holiness and justly, <sup>9</sup>to love one another, <sup>11</sup>and quietly to follow their own business; <sup>13</sup>and last of all, to sorrow moderately for the dead. <sup>17</sup>And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the Resurrection and second coming of Christ to Judgment.

<sup>1</sup>Furthermore then, we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so should ye abound more and more. <sup>2</sup>For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: <sup>4</sup>that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, <sup>5</sup>not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles who know not God; <sup>6</sup>that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup>For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. <sup>8</sup>He therefore that despiseth this, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us His Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>But concerning brotherly love, ye have no need that I write unto you, for ye yourselves are taught by God to love one another;* <sup>10</sup>and indeed ye do it toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we beseech you, brethren, that ye do so more and more, <sup>11</sup>and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, <sup>12</sup>that ye may walk honestly toward those who are outsiders, and that ye may have need of nothing.

♦♦<sup>13</sup>But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so will God bring with Him those also who sleep in Jesus. <sup>15</sup>For this we say unto you by the Word of the Lord: that we who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who are asleep. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first;* <sup>17</sup>then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so shall we ever be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Therefore comfort one another with these words.

<sup>1</sup>But as to the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know perfectly that the Day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.* <sup>3</sup>For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction cometh upon them as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. <sup>4</sup>But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that Day should overtake you as a thief. <sup>5</sup>Ye are all the children of light and the children of the day; we are not of the night, nor of darkness. <sup>6</sup>Therefore let us not sleep, as do others, but let us watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup>For those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who are drunken are drunken in the night. <sup>8</sup>But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.* <sup>9</sup>For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>10</sup>who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore comfort yourselves together and edify one another, even as also ye do.♦

<sup>12</sup>And we beseech you, brethren, that you come to know those who labor among you, and are over you and admonish you in the Lord, <sup>13</sup>and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

that none render evil for evil unto any man, but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves and with all men.* ♦♦<sup>16</sup>Rejoice evermore. <sup>17</sup>Pray without ceasing.* <sup>18</sup>In every thing give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. <sup>19</sup>Quench not the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Despise not prophesyings. <sup>21</sup>Test all things; hold fast to that which is good. <sup>22</sup>Abstain from all appearance of evil. <sup>23</sup>And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Faithful is He that calleth you; He also will do it.♦

<sup>28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Amen.

Second Thessalonians

(THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE THESSALONIANS)

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>St. Paul assureth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love and patience; <sup>11</sup>and therewith useth divers reasons for comforting them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgment of God.

Unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup>Grace unto you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you toward each other aboundeth, <sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all persecutions and tribulations that ye endure, ♦ <sup>5</sup>which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer. <sup>6</sup>For it is a righteous thing with God to recompense with tribulation those who trouble you; <sup>7</sup>and to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from Heaven with His mighty angels, <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who know not God, and who obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, <sup>10</sup>when He shall come on that Day to be glorified in His saints and to be admired in all those who believe, because our testimony among you was believed.

♦<sup>11</sup>Therefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power, <sup>12</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>He willeth them to continue steadfast in the truth received, <sup>3</sup>showeth that there shall be a departure from the faith <sup>9</sup>and a discovery of Antichrist before the Day of the Lord come, <sup>15</sup>and thereupon repeateth his former exhortation and prayeth for them.

<sup>1</sup>Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and by our gathering together unto Him, <sup>2</sup>that ye be not soon shaken in mind or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as if from us that the Day of Christ is at hand. <sup>3</sup>Let no man deceive you by any means, for that Day shall not come, unless there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,* <sup>4</sup>who opposeth God and exalteth himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sitteth as God in the temple of God, showing himself to be God.* <sup>5</sup>Remember ye not that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?♦ <sup>6</sup>And now ye know what holdeth him back, that he might be revealed in his time. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now holdeth back will hold him back, until he is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup>And then shall that wicked one be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming—* <sup>9</sup>even him, whose coming is according to the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all the deceit of unrighteousness in those who perish, because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup>And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie, <sup>12</sup>that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

♦♦<sup>13</sup>But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you for salvation, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth,* <sup>14</sup>whereunto He called you by our Gospel, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>Therefore brethren, stand fast and hold to the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our epistle.*

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, even our Father, who hath loved us and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.♦

He craveth their prayers for himself, <sup>3</sup>testifieth what confidence he hath in them, <sup>5</sup>maketh request to God on their behalf, <sup>6</sup>giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness and ill company, <sup>16</sup>and last of all concludeth with prayer and salutation.

<sup>1</sup>Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you, <sup>2</sup>and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for not all men have faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you and keep you from evil. <sup>4</sup>And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that ye both do, and will do, the things which we command you. <sup>5</sup>And may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

◆◆<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother who walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know how ye ought to follow us, for we did not behave disorderly among you; <sup>8</sup>neither did we eat any man's bread for naught, but wrought with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you, <sup>9</sup>not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an example unto you to follow us. <sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, this we commanded you: that if any would not work, neither should he eat.* <sup>11</sup>For we hear that there are some among you who walk disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. <sup>12</sup>Now those who are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ that they work with quietness and eat their own bread.

<sup>13</sup>But ye, brethren, be not weary in welldoing.* ◆ <sup>14</sup>And if any man obey not our word in this epistle, note that man and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.* <sup>15</sup>Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup>Now the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup>This salutation of Paul is with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

Amen.

First Timothy

(THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY)

Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>As I besought thee when I went into Macedonia to abide still at Ephesus, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, <sup>4</sup>neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which promote questions rather than godly edifying in the faith, so do!

♦<sup>12</sup>And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, that He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry— <sup>13</sup>I, who was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief; <sup>14</sup>and the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and love, which are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance: that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. <sup>16</sup>However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering as a pattern for those who should hereafter believe in Him to life everlasting. <sup>17</sup>Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory for ever and ever.* Amen.♦

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. <sup>9</sup>How women should be attired. <sup>12</sup>They are not permitted to teach. <sup>15</sup>They shall be saved in childbirth, notwithstanding the testimonies of God's wrath, if they continue in faith.

♦♦I exhort therefore first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, <sup>2</sup>for kings and for all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. <sup>3</sup>For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, <sup>4</sup>who will have all men to be saved and come unto the knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup>For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, <sup>7</sup>for which I am ordained a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ and lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.♦

<sup>8</sup>It is my will therefore that the men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting. <sup>9</sup>In like manner also, women should adorn themselves in modest apparel, with restraint and sober-mindedness, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly array, <sup>10</sup>but, as becometh women professing godliness, with good works. <sup>11</sup>Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. <sup>12</sup>But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was first formed, then Eve.* <sup>14</sup>And Adam was not deceived; but the woman, being deceived, was in the transgression.* <sup>15</sup>Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sober-mindedness.

CHAPTER 3

How bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be qualified, <sup>14</sup>and to what end St. Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. <sup>15</sup>Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

<sup>1</sup>This is a true saying: If a man desire the office of bishop, he desireth a good work. <sup>2</sup>A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt at teaching; <sup>3</sup>not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; <sup>4</sup>one who ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all due authority <sup>5</sup>(for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?). <sup>6</sup>He must not be a novice in the faith, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil. <sup>7</sup>Moreover he must have a good reputation with those who are outsiders, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

<sup>12</sup>Let each deacon be the husband of one wife, ruling his children and his own house well. <sup>13</sup>For they that have used the office of deacon well purchase for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>These things I write unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly, <sup>15</sup>but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou ought to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>16</sup>And beyond controversy, great is the mystery of godliness:

God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world,
received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4

He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. <sup>6</sup>And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

<sup>6</sup>If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the words of faith and of good doctrine unto which thou hast attained. <sup>7</sup>But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. <sup>8</sup>For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. <sup>9</sup>This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>10</sup>For therefor we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. <sup>11</sup>These things command and teach.

<sup>12</sup>Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in manner of living, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. <sup>14</sup>Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of hands by the presbytery.

<sup>15</sup>Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear to all. <sup>16</sup>Take heed unto thyself and unto the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and those who hear thee.

<sup>3</sup>Honor widows who are truly widows. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety at home and to requite their parents, for that is good and acceptable before God. <sup>5</sup>Now she that is indeed a widow, and desolate, trusteth in God and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. <sup>7</sup>And these things charge them, that they may be blameless. <sup>8</sup>But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel.

<sup>9</sup>Let not a widow be taken into the number under three score years old, having been the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup>well reported of for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work. <sup>11</sup>But the younger widows refuse, for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry, <sup>12</sup>having damnation because they have cast off their first faith. <sup>13</sup>And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. <sup>14</sup>It is my will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. <sup>15</sup>For some have already turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any man or woman who believeth have widows, let them relieve them and let not the church be burdened, that it may assist those who are widows indeed.

<sup>24</sup>Some men's sins are open beforehand, going on to judgment; and in some men they follow after. <sup>25</sup>Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand, but they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

<sup>1</sup>Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and His doctrine be not blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>And those who have believing masters must not despise them because they are brethren, but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

<sup>3</sup>If any man teach otherwise and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes over words, from which cometh envy, strife, railings, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>perverse disputings by men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness. From such withdraw thyself.

♦<sup>6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.* <sup>8</sup>And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content. <sup>9</sup>But those who would be rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all evil; and while some have coveted after it, they have erred from the faith and pierced themselves through* with many sorrows.

*18a Dt 25:4, 1 Cor 9:9. *18b Mt 10:10, Lk 10:7, 1 Cor 9:14. *19 Dt 19:15. *7 Job 1:21. *9-10 Pr 23:4.

<sup>17</sup>Charge those who are rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;* <sup>18</sup>that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate, <sup>19</sup>laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.*♦

Grace be with thee.

Amen.

Second Timothy

(THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY)

CHAPTER 1

Paul's love for Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother. <sup>6</sup>He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, <sup>8</sup>to be steadfast and patient in persecution, <sup>13</sup>and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned from him. <sup>15</sup>Phygelus and Hermogenes and such like are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

♦<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>To Timothy, my dearly beloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that I have thee in remembrance in my prayers night and day without ceasing. <sup>4</sup>I greatly desire to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy <sup>5</sup>when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, is in thee also.* <sup>6</sup>Therefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

<sup>8</sup>Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner; but be thou a partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup>who hath saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but in accordance with His own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began, <sup>10</sup>but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. <sup>11</sup>For this I am appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher of the Gentiles. <sup>12</sup>For this cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed. For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that Day.

*5 Acts 16:1.

<sup>13</sup>Hold fast to the form of sound words, which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep, by the Holy Spirit who dwelleth in us. ♦

<sup>15</sup>This thou knowest, that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains; <sup>17</sup>but when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently and found me. <sup>18</sup>The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that Day! In how many things he ministered unto me in Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord in dividing the word aright, and eschewing profane and vain babblings.

<sup>1</sup>Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And the things that thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, commit thou the same to faithful men who shall be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>Endure thou therefore hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>No man who warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. <sup>5</sup>And if also a man strive for masteries, he is not crowned unless he strive lawfully. <sup>6</sup>The husbandman who laboreth must be the first partaker of the fruits. <sup>7</sup>Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

♦♦Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my Gospel, <sup>9</sup>wherein I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even unto bonds. But the Word of God is not bound. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

For if we be dead with Him,
we shall also live with Him;

<sup>12</sup>if we suffer,
we shall also reign with Him.

If we deny Him,
He also will deny us;*

<sup>13</sup>if we believe not, yet He abideth faithful.

He cannot deny Himself.

the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. <sup>15</sup>Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman who needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ♦ <sup>16</sup>But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase unto more ungodliness, <sup>17</sup>and their word will eat as doth a canker—among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup>who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and overthrowing the faith of some. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal: “The Lord knoweth those who are His,”* and, “Let every one who nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

<sup>20</sup>But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some to honor, and some to dishonor. <sup>21</sup>If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified and meet for the Master’s use, and prepared for every good work.

<sup>22</sup>Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>23</sup>But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they engender strifes. <sup>24</sup>And the servant of the Lord must not engender strifes, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, <sup>25</sup>in meekness instructing those who oppose themselves. Perhaps God will give them repentance, that they may acknowledge the truth, <sup>26</sup>and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, afflictions which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. But out of them all, the Lord delivered me.* <sup>12</sup>Yea, and all who will live a godly life in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. <sup>13</sup>But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

♦<sup>14</sup>But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou hast learned them, <sup>15</sup>and that from childhood thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, <sup>17</sup>that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly equipped for all good works.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, <sup>6</sup>assureth him of the nearness of his death, <sup>9</sup>willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him and certain other things which he wrote for. <sup>14</sup>He warneth him to beware of Alexander the smith; <sup>16</sup>informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering, <sup>19</sup>and soon after he concludeth.

<sup>1</sup>I charge thee therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom: <sup>2</sup>preach the Word. Be instant in season and out of season. Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. <sup>3</sup>For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but having itching ears, they shall heap to themselves teachers in accordance with their own lusts. <sup>4</sup>And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall turn toward fables. <sup>5</sup>But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill thy ministry.

<sup>6</sup>For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. <sup>7</sup>I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me on that Day—and not to me only, but unto all those also who love His appearing.♦

<sup>9</sup>Use diligence to come shortly unto me, <sup>10</sup>for Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee, for he is profitable to me for the ministry. <sup>12</sup>And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. <sup>14</sup>Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works. <sup>15</sup>Beware thou also of him, for he hath greatly withstood our words.

*3:11 Acts 13:14-52, 14:1-20, 16:1-5.

◆<sup>16</sup>At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me. I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. <sup>17</sup>Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup>And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me unto His heavenly Kingdom, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.◆

EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

Titus

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness, <sup>2</sup>in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began, <sup>3</sup>but hath in due times manifested His Word through preaching which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Savior,

<sup>4</sup>To Titus, my own son in the common faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the Circumcision, <sup>11</sup>whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not for the sake of filthy lucre. <sup>12</sup>One among themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, "The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, slothful gluttons." <sup>13</sup>This witness is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. <sup>15</sup>Unto the pure, all things are pure; but unto those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but even their mind and conscience is defiled. <sup>16</sup>They profess

that they know God, but in their works they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. <sup>9</sup>The duty of servants, and in general, of all Christians.

<sup>9</sup>Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not talking back, <sup>10</sup>not purloining, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

♦♦<sup>11</sup>For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, <sup>12</sup>teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, <sup>13</sup>looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ, <sup>14</sup>who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purify unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous for good works.*♦

<sup>15</sup>These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should and should not teach. <sup>10</sup>He is enjoined also to reject obstinate heretics; <sup>12</sup>which done, he appointeth him both time and place wherein he should come unto him, and so concludeth.

<sup>1</sup>Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to speak evil of no man, not to be brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men. <sup>3</sup>For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. ♦♦<sup>4</sup>But after the kindness and love of God our Savior

toward man appeared, <sup>5</sup>He saved us not by works of righteousness which we had done, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration, and by the renewing of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup>that, being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. ♦

<sup>8</sup>This is a faithful saying, and these things I enjoin that thou affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men. <sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and disputes about the law, for they are unprofitable and vain.* <sup>10</sup>If a man is a heretic, after the first and second admonition reject him, <sup>11</sup>knowing that such as he is subverted and sinneth, being condemned by himself.

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas unto thee or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me in Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. <sup>13</sup>Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. <sup>14</sup>And let our own also learn to perform good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>All that are with me salute thee. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all.
Amen.

EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

Philemon

Unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow laborer, <sup>2</sup>and to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in thy house:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>having heard of thy love and faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus and toward all saints, <sup>6</sup>that the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the hearts of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, though I might be bold enough in Christ to enjoin thee to do that which is befitting, <sup>9</sup>yet for love's sake rather I beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup>I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds.* <sup>11</sup>In time past he was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me. <sup>12</sup>I am sending him back. Thou therefore receive him: he is mine own heart. <sup>13</sup>I would have retained him with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the Gospel; <sup>14</sup>but without thy mind would I do nothing, that thy goodness should not be, as it were, of necessity, but willingly.

<sup>15</sup>For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him back for ever—<sup>16</sup>not now as a servant, but more than a servant: as a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. <sup>18</sup>If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee aught, put that on mine account. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, have written this with mine own hand: I will repay it; albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. <sup>20</sup>Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord; refresh my soul in the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. ♦ <sup>22</sup>But withal prepare me also a lodging, for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

Amen.

EPISTLE TO THE

Hebrews

♦<sup>1</sup>God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in times past unto the fathers by the prophets, <sup>2</sup>hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, whom He hath appointed Heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds. <sup>3</sup>He is the brightness of God's glory and the express image of His person, upholding all things by the word of His power. When He had by Himself purged our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, <sup>4</sup>being made so much better than the angels, as He hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. <sup>5</sup>For unto which of the angels said God at any time,

"Thou art My Son;*"
this day have I begotten Thee"?

And again,

"I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son"?"*

<sup>6</sup>And again, when He bringeth in the First-Begotten into the world, He saith,

"And let all the angels of God worship Him."**

<sup>7</sup>And of the angels He saith,

"Who maketh His angels spirits and His ministers a flame of fire."**

<sup>8</sup>But unto the Son He saith,

"Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy Kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity;
therefore God, even Thy God, hath anointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy fellows."**

<sup>10</sup>And,

"Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth,

*5a Ps 2:7. *5b 2 Sam 7:14. *6 Dt 32:43, Ps 97:7. *7 Ps 104:4. *8-9 Ps 45:6-7.

and the heavens are the works of Thine hands.

<sup>11</sup>They shall perish, but Thou remainest;
and they all shall wax old as doth a garment.*

<sup>12</sup>And as a vesture shalt Thou fold them up, and they shall be changed.

But Thou art the same,
and Thy years shall not fail.**♦

<sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels said He at any time,
"Sit on My right hand

until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool"??*

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, <sup>5</sup>and that because He guaranteed to take our nature upon Him, <sup>14</sup>as it was necessary.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore we ought to give even more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. <sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward, <sup>3</sup>how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord and was confirmed unto us by those who heard Him, <sup>4</sup>God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders and with divers miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will?*

♦♦<sup>5</sup>For it was not unto angels that He put in subjection the world to come, of which we speak. <sup>6</sup>But one at a certain place testified, saying,

"What is man, that Thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that Thou visitest him?

<sup>7</sup>Thou madest him a little lower than the angels;

Thou crowned him with glory and honor and set him over the works of Thy hands.

For in putting all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now as yet we see not all things put under him.

<sup>9</sup>But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that He by the grace of God should taste death for every man. <sup>10</sup>For it became Him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

<sup>11</sup>For both He that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of One, for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brethren,

*1:11 Isa 34:4. *10-12 Ps 102:25-27. *13 Ps 110:1, Mt 22:44. *4 Mk 16:20b *6-8 Job 7:17, Ps 8:4-6.

<sup>12</sup>saying,

"I will declare Thy name unto My brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto Thee."*

<sup>13</sup>And again,

"I will put My trust in Him."*

And again,

"Behold I and the children whom God hath given Me."*

<sup>14</sup>Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took on part of the same, that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death—that is, the devil—<sup>15</sup>and deliver those who all their lifetime were subject to bondage through fear of death. <sup>16</sup>For verily He took not on Himself the nature of angels, but He took on Him the seed of Abraham. <sup>17</sup>Therefore in all things it behooved Him to be made like unto His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup>For in that He Himself hath suffered, being tempted, He is able to succor those who are tempted. ♦

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Christ is more worthy than Moses; <sup>7</sup>therefore if we believe not in Him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hardhearted Israel.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>who was faithful to Him that appointed Him, as also Moses was faithful in all His house.* <sup>3</sup>For this Man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who hath built the house hath more honor than the house. <sup>4</sup>For every house is built by some man, but He that built all things is God. <sup>5</sup>And Moses verily was faithful in all His house as a servant, as a testimony of those things which were to be spoken thereafter; <sup>6</sup>but Christ was faithful as a Son over His own house, whose house are we if we hold fast the confidence and rejoicing of the hope, firm unto the end.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore as the Holy Spirit saith:

"Today, if ye will hear His voice,

<sup>8</sup>harden not your hearts as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness,

<sup>9</sup>when your fathers tempted Me, tested Me, and saw My works forty years.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, 'They do always err in their heart, and they have not known My ways.'

“They shall not enter into My rest.”**

<sup>12</sup>Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. <sup>13</sup>But exhort one another daily, while it is still called “today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup>For we are made partakers of Christ if we hold the confidence we had in the beginning steadfast unto the end, <sup>15</sup>while it is said,

“Today if ye will hear His voice,

harden not your hearts as in the provocation.”**

<sup>16</sup>For some, when they had heard, did provoke, however not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. <sup>17</sup>But with whom was He grieved forty years? Was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup>And to whom did He swear that they should not enter into His rest, but to those who believed not? <sup>19</sup>So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>The rest of Christians is attained by faith. <sup>12</sup>The power of God’s word. <sup>14</sup>By our High Priest, Jesus, the son of God, subject to infirmities but not sin, <sup>16</sup>we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

<sup>1</sup>Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left to us of entering into His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. <sup>2</sup>For unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto them; but the Word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

<sup>3</sup>For we who have believed do enter into rest, as He said,

“As I have sworn in My wrath,

‘If they shall enter into My rest’”—**

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

“If they shall enter into My rest”—**

<sup>6</sup>Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief, <sup>7</sup>again He designates a certain day, saying in David “today,” after so long a time, as it is said, “Today, if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts.”**

<sup>8</sup>For if Jesus had given them rest, then He would not afterwards have spoken of another day. <sup>9</sup>There remaineth therefore a rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup>For he that has entered into His rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from His. <sup>11</sup>Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall according to the same example of unbelief: ♦♦<sup>12</sup>For the Word of God is living and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. <sup>13</sup>Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight, but all things are naked and open unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

*7-11 Ps 95:7-11. *15 Ps 95:7-8. *3 Ps 95:11. *4 Gen 2:2, Dt 5:14. *5 Ps 95:11. *7 Ps 95:7-8.

<sup>14</sup>Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed into the Heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast to our profession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a High Priest who cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

<sup>1</sup>For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; <sup>2</sup>who can have compassion on the ignorant and on those who are outside of the Way, since he himself is also encompassed by infirmity. <sup>3</sup>And by reason thereof, he ought, both for the people and also for himself, to make offering for sins. <sup>4</sup>And no man taketh this honor unto himself, except he that is called of God, as was Aaron. <sup>5</sup>So also Christ glorified not Himself to be made a high priest, but He that said unto Him,

"Thou art My Son;
today have I begotten Thee."*

<sup>6</sup>And He saith also in another place,

"Thou art a priest for ever
after the order of Melchizedek."*

<sup>7</sup>Christ, in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto Him that was able to save Him from death, and was heard in that He feared, <sup>8</sup>though He were a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered. <sup>9</sup>And being made perfect, He became the author of eternal salvation unto all those who obey Him, <sup>10</sup>being called of God as a high priest after the order of Melchizedek, ♦ <sup>11</sup>of whom we have many things to say, which are hard to utter seeing ye are dull of hearing.

<sup>12</sup>For at the time when ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God, and have become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. <sup>13</sup>For every one that useth milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. <sup>14</sup>But strong meat belongeth to those who are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, leaving the principle of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup>of the doctrine of baptisms and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead and of eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will do, if God permit. <sup>4</sup>For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>and have tasted the good Word of God and the powers of the world to come, <sup>6</sup>if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance, seeing that they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh and put Him to open shame. <sup>7</sup>For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for those by whom it is tilled, receiveth blessing from God. <sup>8</sup>But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected and is nigh unto being cursed, and its end is to be burned.

<sup>9</sup>But, beloved, though we thus speak, we are persuaded that there are better things for you, things that accompany salvation. <sup>10</sup>For God is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have shown toward His name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. <sup>11</sup>And we desire that every one of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end, <sup>12</sup>that ye be not slothful, but followers of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup>For when God made promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no greater, He swore by Himself, <sup>14</sup>saying, "Surely in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thee."* <sup>15</sup>And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup>For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath of confirmation is to them an end to all strife. <sup>17</sup>Thereby God, willing more abundantly to show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath,* <sup>18</sup>that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we, who have fled for refuge, might have strong consolation to lay hold upon the hope set before us. <sup>19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil, <sup>20</sup>where the Forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, who is made a high priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>1</sup>Christ Jesus is a priest according to the order of Melchizedek; <sup>7</sup>and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

<sup>1</sup>For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham, who was returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him. <sup>2</sup>To him also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, Melchizedek first being by interpretation "king of righteousness," and after that also king of Salem, which means "king of peace."* <sup>3</sup>Without father, without mother and without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God, he abideth a priest continually. <sup>4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils.* <sup>5</sup>And verily, those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law—that is, from their brethren—though they come out of the loins of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>But Melchizedek, whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes from Abraham and blessed him that had the promises. <sup>7</sup>And beyond all contradiction, the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup>And here men who die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. <sup>9</sup>And, as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, <sup>10</sup>for he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met Abraham.

<sup>11</sup>If therefore perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. <sup>13</sup>For He of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. <sup>14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>15</sup>And this is yet far more evident when there ariseth another priest according to the similitude of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup>who is made not according to the law of a carnal commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. <sup>17</sup>For He testifieth:

"Thou art a priest for ever
after the order of Melchizedek."*

<sup>18</sup>For there is verily an annulling of the former commandment because of the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. <sup>19</sup>For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did, by which we draw nigh unto God.

<sup>20</sup>And inasmuch as it was not without an oath that He was made priest <sup>21</sup>(for those priests were made without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said unto Him: "The Lord swore and will not repent,

*1-2 Gen 14:17-20. *4 Gen 14:20. *17 Ps 110:4.

‘Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.’”)* <sup>22</sup>by so much more was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. ♦<sup>23</sup>And those priests truly were many, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death; <sup>24</sup>but this Man, because He continueth forever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. <sup>25</sup>Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost those who come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup>For such a High Priest was befitting for us, He being holy, undisposed to harm, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens, <sup>27</sup>who needeth not, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice daily first for their own sins and then for the people’s; for this He did once when He offered up Himself. <sup>28</sup>For the law maketh men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which came since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. ♦

<sup>1</sup>Now of the things of which we have spoken, this is the sum: We have such a High Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup>a minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. <sup>3</sup>For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices; therefore it is necessary that this Man have something else to offer. <sup>4</sup>For if He were on earth, He should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests who offer gifts according to the law, <sup>5</sup>and who serve unto the copy and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle. For, “See,” saith He, “that thou make all things according to the pattern shown to thee on the mount.”* <sup>6</sup>But now hath He obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also He is the Mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. <sup>7</sup>For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. <sup>8</sup>For finding fault with them, He saith, “Behold, the days come,” saith the Lord,

 “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—*

<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in My covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

*<sup>21</sup> Ps 110:4. *<sup>5</sup> Ex 25:40, 26:30. *<sup>8</sup> Jer 31:31.

<sup>10</sup>For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days, saith the Lord:
I will put My laws into their minds and write them in their hearts, and I will be to them a God,
and they shall be to Me a people.

<sup>11</sup>And they shall not teach every man his neighbor and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for all shall know Me, from the least to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more."*

<sup>13</sup>In that He saith "a new covenant,"* He hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, <sup>11</sup>far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

<sup>1</sup>Then verily, the first covenant also had ordinances of divine service and a worldly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup>For there was a tabernacle made, the first, wherein was the candlestick and the table and the showbread, which is called the sanctuary. <sup>3</sup>And after the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, <sup>4</sup>which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; <sup>5</sup>and over it were the cheru-bim of glory shadowing the mercy seat, of which we cannot now speak particularly. <sup>6</sup>Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service to God. <sup>7</sup>But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people. <sup>8</sup>By this the Holy Spirit was signifying that the way into the Holiest of All was not yet made manifest, so long as the first tabernacle was yet standing. <sup>9</sup>This was a figure for the time then present in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, which could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience, <sup>10</sup>since it concerned only meats and drinks and divers washings and carnal ordinances imposed on them until the time of reformation.

◆<sup>11</sup>But Christ, having come a High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands (that is to say, not of this creation), <sup>12</sup>neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood, entered in once into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. <sup>13</sup>For if sprinkling the unclean with the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh,* <sup>14</sup>how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

<sup>15</sup>And for this cause He is the Mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were covered under the first testament, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. ♦ <sup>16</sup>For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. <sup>17</sup>For a testament is of force after men are dead, otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth. <sup>18</sup>And so not even the first testament was dedicated without blood. <sup>19</sup>For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, "This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you."* <sup>21</sup>Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. <sup>22</sup>And by the law almost all things are purged with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

<sup>23</sup>It was therefore necessary that the copies of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ♦♦<sup>24</sup>For Christ has not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. <sup>25</sup>Nor yet should He offer Himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place with blood of others every year; <sup>26</sup>for then He would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now once, in the end of the world, hath He appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. <sup>27</sup>And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the Judgment, <sup>28</sup>so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto those who look for Him shall He appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation. ♦

<sup>1</sup>For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come and not the very image of those things, can never, with those sacrifices which are offered continually year by year, make those who come unto it perfect. <sup>2</sup>For then would not sacrifices have ceased to be offered? For worshippers once purged should have had no more consciousness of sins. <sup>3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year, <sup>4</sup>for it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.* <sup>5</sup>Therefore when He cometh into the world, He saith,

"Sacrifice and offering Thou wouldest not have,
but a body hast Thou prepared for Me.

<sup>6</sup>In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
Thou hast had no pleasure.

<sup>7</sup>Then said I, 'Lo, I come (in the volume of the Book it is written of Me)
to do Thy will, O God.'**

<sup>8</sup>When He said above, "Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings, and offering for sin Thou wouldest not have, neither hadst pleasure therein" (which are offered in accordance with the law), <sup>9</sup>then said He, "Lo, I come to do Thy will, O God," He taketh away the first, that He may establish the second. <sup>10</sup>By this will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. <sup>11</sup>And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering time and again the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down at the right hand of God, <sup>13</sup>from henceforth expecting until His enemies be made His footstool. <sup>14</sup>For by one offering He hath perfected for ever those who are sanctified. <sup>15</sup>Of this the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us; for after having said before,

<sup>16</sup>"This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, saith the Lord:
I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them...

<sup>17</sup>and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more,**

<sup>18</sup>now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

<sup>19</sup>Having therefore boldness, brethren, to enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by a new and living Way, which He hath consecrated for us through the veil (that is to say, His flesh), <sup>21</sup>and having a High Priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold fast to the profession of our faith without wavering (for He is faithful who promised), <sup>24</sup>and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works, <sup>25</sup>not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as ye see the Day approaching.♦

truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup>but the certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. <sup>28</sup>He that despised Moses' law died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.* <sup>29</sup>Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath accounted the blood of the Covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath despised the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup>For we know Him that hath said, "Vengeance belongeth unto Me; I will recompense,"* saith the Lord. And again, "The Lord shall judge His people." <sup>31</sup>It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup>But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions, <sup>33</sup>partly while ye were being made a gazingstock by both reproaches and afflictions, and partly while ye became companions of those who were so used. <sup>34</sup>For ye had compassion on me in my bonds and took joyfully the despoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in Heaven a better and an enduring substance.

<sup>35</sup>Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. <sup>36</sup>For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise,

<sup>37</sup>For ye a little while,
and He that shall come will come,
and will not tarry.

<sup>38</sup>Now the just shall live by faith;
but if any man draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him.**

<sup>39</sup>But we are not of those who draw back unto perdition, but of those who believe, to the saving of the soul.

¶ Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. <sup>2</sup>For by it the elders obtained a good report. <sup>3</sup>Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.***

<sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he, being dead, yet speaketh.*

<sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, "and was not found because God had translated him."* For before his translation he had this testimony: that he pleased God. 6But without faith it is impossible to please Him. For he that cometh to God must believe that He is; and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

<sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house,* by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

♦<sup>8</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should later receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. <sup>9</sup>By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.* <sup>10</sup>For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

<sup>11</sup>Through faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised.* <sup>12</sup>Therefore there sprang even from one, and him as good as dead, as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

<sup>13</sup>These all died in faith, not having received the promises but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded by them and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.* <sup>14</sup>For those who say such things declare plainly that they are seeking a country of their own. <sup>15</sup>And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. <sup>16</sup>But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He hath prepared for them a City.♦

<sup>17</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,* <sup>18</sup>of whom it was said, "In Isaac shall thy seed be called,"* <sup>19</sup>accounting that God was able to raise him up even from the dead, from whence he also received him, in a figurative sense. <sup>20</sup>By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.* <sup>21</sup>By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph and worshiped, leaning upon the top of his staff.* <sup>22</sup>By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.*

<sup>23</sup>By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents; because they saw he was a handsome child; and they were not afraid of the king's edict.* <sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, when he had come to manhood, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, <sup>25</sup>choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, <sup>26</sup>esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as if seeing Him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup>Through faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

♦<sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, which the Egyptians, attempting to do, were drowned.* <sup>30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed about for seven days.* <sup>31</sup>By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with those who believed not, having received the spies with peace.*

<sup>32</sup>And what shall I say more? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and of Barak and of Samson and of Jephthah, of David also and Samuel and of the prophets, <sup>33</sup>who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup>quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword. Out of weakness they were made strong, waxed valiant in battle, and turned to flight the armies of the aliens. <sup>35</sup>Women received their dead raised to life again, and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup>And others endured the trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented <sup>38</sup>(of whom the world was not worthy). They wandered in deserts and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

<sup>39</sup>And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise, <sup>40</sup>God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, seeing we also are compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup>looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup>For consider Him that endured such contradiction from sinners against Himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.♦ <sup>4</sup>In striving against sin, ye have not yet resisted unto bloodshed. <sup>5</sup>And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children:

“My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked by Him;
for whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth.”*

7If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? 8But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then ye are bastards and not sons. 9Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence. Shall we not far rather be in subjection unto the Father of Spirits, and live? 10For verily they chastened us for a few days according to their own pleasure, but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness. 11Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto those who are exercised thereby.

12Therefore, lift up the hands which hang down and the feeble knees,* 13and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed. 14Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord, 15looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness spring up to trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; 16lest there be any fornicator or profane person as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.* 17For ye know how afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.*

♦♦18For ye have not come unto the mount which might be touched and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness and darkness and tempest,* 19and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, which voice those who heard entreated that the Word should not be spoken to them any more. 20(For they could not endure that which was commanded, that: “if even so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned or thrust through with a dart.”* 21And so terrible was the sight that Moses said, “I fear exceedingly and quake.”*) 22But ye have come unto Mount Zion and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, 23to the general assembly and church of the first-born, who are written in Heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. 25See that ye refuse not Him that speaketh, for if they escaped not who refused Him that spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him that speaketh from Heaven, 26whose voice then shook the earth. But now He hath promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven."* <sup>27</sup>And these words "yet once more" signifieth the removing of those things which can be shaken, such as things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, receiving a Kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear. <sup>29</sup>For our God is a consuming fire.*

<sup>1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.* <sup>3</sup>Remember those who are in bonds as though you were bound with them, and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

<sup>4</sup>Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. <sup>5</sup>Let your manner of living be without covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have; for He hath said,

"I will never leave thee,
nor forsake thee."*

<sup>6</sup>So that we may boldly say,

"The Lord is my helper;
and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."*

<sup>7</sup>Remember those who have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the Word of God. Follow their faith, considering the outcome of their manner of living. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and for ever. ♦

<sup>9</sup>Be not carried away with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, not with meats which have not profited those who have been occupied therewith. <sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup>For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.* <sup>12</sup>Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate. <sup>13</sup>Let us go forth therefore unto Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. <sup>14</sup>For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

♦♦<sup>15</sup>By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His name. <sup>16</sup>But to do good and to communicate forget not, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.♦

<sup>17</sup>Obey those who have the rule over you and submit yourselves, for they keep watch over your souls as ones who must give an account, that they may do it with joy and not with grief, for that is unprofitable for you.

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us, for we trust we have a good conscience in all things, willing to live honestly. <sup>19</sup>But I beseech you the more earnestly to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

<sup>20</sup>Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, <sup>21</sup>make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written this letter unto you with few words. <sup>23</sup>Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty, with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

<sup>24</sup>Salute all those who have the rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy salute you.

<sup>25</sup>Grace be with you all.

Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

James

CHAPTER 1

We are to rejoice under the cross, <sup>5</sup>to ask patience of God, <sup>13</sup>and in our trials not to impute our weakness or sins unto Him; <sup>19</sup>but rather to hearken to the Word, to meditate on it, and to do thereafter. <sup>26</sup>Otherwise men may seem, but never be, truly religious.

<sup>1</sup>James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,
To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:
Greetings.

<sup>9</sup>Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted, <sup>10</sup>but the rich in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.* <sup>11</sup>For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat than it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth. So also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he has been tried, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to those who love Him: <sup>13</sup>Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth He any man. <sup>14</sup>But every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. <sup>15</sup>Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

<sup>16</sup>Do not err, my beloved brethren. <sup>17</sup>Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. <sup>18</sup>Of His own will, He begot us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

*5 Pr 2:6. *10 Ps 102:11.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; <sup>20</sup>for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup>Therefore lay apart all filthiness and the superfluity of wickedness, and receive with meekness the engrafted Word, which is able to save your souls.

<sup>26</sup>If any man among you seem to be religious and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. <sup>27</sup>Pure religion, undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren. <sup>13</sup>Rather we are to be loving and merciful, <sup>14</sup>and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, <sup>17</sup>which is but a dead faith, <sup>19</sup>the faith of devils, <sup>21</sup>not of Abraham <sup>25</sup>and Rahab.

<sup>1</sup>My brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. <sup>2</sup>For if there come into your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment, <sup>3</sup>and ye have respect for him that weareth the grand clothing and say unto him, "Sit thou here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "Stand thou there," or, "Sit here under my footstool," <sup>4</sup>are ye not then partial in yourselves and have become judges with evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup>Hearken, my beloved brethren: Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, to be heirs of the Kingdom which He hath promised to those who love Him? <sup>6</sup>But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you and drag you before the judgment seats? <sup>7</sup>Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by which ye are called?

<sup>8</sup>If ye fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself,"* ye do well. <sup>9</sup>But if ye have respect of persons, ye commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.* <sup>10</sup>For whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend on one point, he is guilty of all.* <sup>11</sup>For He that said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not kill."* Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>So speak ye, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. <sup>13</sup>For he shall have judgment without mercy, who hath shown no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and hath not works? Can faith save him? 15If a brother or sister be naked and destitute of daily food,* 16and one of you say unto them, "Depart in peace; be ye warmed and filled," without giving them those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit? 17Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.♦

18Yea, a man may say, "Thou hast faith, and I have works." Show me thy faith apart from thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. 19Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe—and tremble. 20But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? 21Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?* 22Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and how by works faith was made perfect? 23And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, "Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness";* and he was called the friend of God. 24Ye see then how by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. 25Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works when she had received the messengers and had sent them out another way?* 26For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead-also.

CHAPTER 3

♦1My brethren, let not many be masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.* 2For in many things we all offend. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man and able also to bridle the whole body. 3Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body. 4Behold also the ships, which though they be so great and are driven by fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the helmsman pleases. 5Even so the tongue is a little member and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a forest a little fire kindleth! 6And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. So is the tongue among our members that it defileth the whole body and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire from hell. 7For every kind of beast and bird and serpent and thing in the sea is tamed, and hath been tamed, by mankind. 8But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9Therewith we bless God, even the Father, and therewith we curse men who are made in the similtude of God.

<sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. <sup>11</sup>Doth a fountain send forth from the same place sweet water and bitter? <sup>12</sup>Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries, or a vine figs? So no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.

<sup>13</sup>Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show his works out of good conduct and with the meekness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup>But if ye have bitter envy and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. <sup>15</sup>Such wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. <sup>16</sup>For where envy and strife are, there is confusion and every evil work. <sup>17</sup>But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup>And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of those who make peace.

<sup>1</sup>From whence come wars and fightings among you? Do they not come even from your lusts that war in your members? <sup>2</sup>Ye lust, and have not; ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain. Ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. <sup>3</sup>Ye ask and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. ♦ <sup>4</sup>Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, "The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy"? * <sup>6</sup>But He giveth more grace; therefore He saith,

"God resisteth the proud,
but giveth grace unto the humble." *

♦ <sup>7</sup>Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you. ♦ Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded. <sup>9</sup>Be afflicted and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. <sup>10</sup>Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up.

<sup>11</sup>Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law and judgeth the law. But if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>12</sup>There is one Lawgiver who is able to save and to destroy. Who art thou that judgest another?

<sup>13</sup>Come now, ye that say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a city and continue there a year, and buy and sell and get gain"; <sup>14</sup>whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is but a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.* <sup>15</sup>Instead ye ought to say, "If the Lord will, we shall live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>But now ye rejoice in your boastings. All such rejoicing is evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore to him that knoweth how to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Come now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. <sup>2</sup>Your riches are corrupted and your garments moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver are rusted, and the rusting of them shall be a witness against you and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. <sup>4</sup>Behold, the wage of the laborers who have reaped your fields, which you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. <sup>5</sup>Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth and been wanton. Ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>Ye have condemned and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

♦<sup>7</sup>Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. <sup>8</sup>Be ye also patient; firm up your hearts, for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. <sup>9</sup>Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned. Behold, the Judge standeth before the door! <sup>10</sup>My brethren, take the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering affliction and of patience. ♦ <sup>11</sup>Behold, we count them happy who endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job and how the Lord dealt with him in the end, how the Lord is full of pity and of tender mercy.

<sup>12</sup>But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by Heaven, neither by earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "Yea" be yea, and your "Nay" be nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.*

♦♦<sup>13</sup>Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merry? Let him sing psalms. <sup>14</sup>Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.* <sup>15</sup>And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up. And if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

*4:14 Job 7:7-8, Pr 27:1. *12 Lev 19:12, Mt 5:37. *5:14 Mk 6:13b.

<sup>16</sup>Confess your faults one to another, and pray for one another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are. And he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it rained not on the earth for the space of three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth brought forth her fruit.

<sup>19</sup>Brethren, if any of you err from the truth and one convert him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that he who converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. ♦

First Peter

(THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER)

CHAPTER 1

He blesseth God for His manifold spiritual graces, <sup>10</sup>showing that the salvation in Christ is no news, but a thing prophesied of old; <sup>13</sup>and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly manner of living, inasmuch as they are now born anew by the Word of God.

To the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:*

Grace unto you and peace be multiplied.

♦<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup>to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in Heaven for you, <sup>5</sup>who are kept by the power of God through faith for the salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup>In this ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations, <sup>7</sup>that the trying of your faith (being much more precious than gold that perisheth, though it be tested with fire) might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ,* <sup>8</sup>whom having not seen, ye love. In Him, though now ye see Him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory, <sup>9</sup>receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.♦

<sup>10</sup>Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, and have prophesied of the grace that should come unto you, <sup>11</sup>searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them had signified when He testified beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and the glory that should follow. <sup>12</sup>Unto them it was revealed that they ministered, not unto themselves, but unto us the things which are now reported unto you by those who have preached the Gospel unto you, with the Holy Spirit sent down from Heaven—things which the angels desire to look into.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore gird up the loins of your mind; be sober and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.* <sup>14</sup>As obedient children, do not fashion yourselves according to the former lusts of your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but as He who hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of living, <sup>16</sup>because it is written: "Be ye holy, for I am holy."*

♦♦<sup>17</sup>And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.* <sup>18</sup>For ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, from your vain way of living which ye received by tradition from your fathers, <sup>19</sup>but the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, <sup>20</sup>who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. <sup>21</sup>By Him ye believe in God, who raised Him up from the dead and gave Him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

<sup>22</sup>Seeing ye have purified your souls by obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently, <sup>23</sup>being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God which liveth and abideth for ever;♦

"all flesh is as grass,

and all the glory of man as the flower of grass.

The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away;

<sup>25</sup> but the Word of the Lord endureth for ever."*

And this is the Word which by the Gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2

He dissuadeth them from the breach of charity, <sup>4</sup>showing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built. <sup>11</sup>He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, <sup>13</sup>to be obedient to magistrates, <sup>18</sup>and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, <sup>20</sup>patiently suffering for well-doing after the example of Christ.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore laying aside all malice and all guile, and hypocrisy and envy and all evil speaking, ♦♦<sup>2</sup>as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the Word, that ye may grow thereby, <sup>3</sup>if so it be that ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. <sup>4</sup>Coming to Him as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, <sup>5</sup>ye also as living stones are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture:

"Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious;
and he that believeth in Him shall not be confounded."*

¶Unto you therefore who believe, He is precious; but unto those who are disobedient,

“The stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,”*

<sup>8</sup>and,

“A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense.”*

For they stumble at the Word, being disobedient, unto which also they were appointed.

<sup>9</sup>But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.* <sup>10</sup>In times past ye were not a people, but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.* ♦

<sup>11</sup>Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul, <sup>12</sup>having your way of life honest among the Gentiles, that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God on the day of visitation.*

<sup>13</sup>Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord’s sake, whether it be to the king as supreme, <sup>14</sup>or unto governors as unto those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do well. <sup>15</sup>For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— <sup>16</sup>as free, but not using your liberty as a cloak for maliciousness, but as the servants of God. <sup>17</sup>Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

<sup>18</sup>Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. ♦♦<sup>19</sup>For it is thankworthy if a man, because of his conscience before God, endure grief, suffering wrongfully. <sup>20</sup>For what glory is it if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if when ye do well and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. <sup>21</sup>For even unto this were ye called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow His steps, neither was guile found in His mouth”;

<sup>23</sup>who when He was reviled, reviled not in return; when He suffered, He threatened not, but committed Himself to Him that judgeth righteously; <sup>24</sup>who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed.* <sup>25</sup>For ye were as sheep going astray, but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.* ♦

*7 Ps 118:22. *8 Isa 8:14. *9 Ex 19:2, 5-6, Dt 7:6, Isa 43:9, 43:20, 61:66. *10 Hos 2:23.

*12 Mt 5:16. *22 Isa 53:9. *24 Mt 8:17. *25 Ps 23:1.

CHAPTER 3

He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other, <sup>6</sup>exhorting all men to unity and love, <sup>14</sup>and to suffer persecution. <sup>19</sup>He declarereth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

<sup>1</sup>Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, that if any of them obey not the Word, they also may be won without the Word by the conduct of their wives <sup>2</sup>while they behold your chaste manner of living coupled with fear. <sup>3</sup>When adorning yourselves, let it not be that outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing gold, or of putting on apparel; <sup>4</sup>but let it be the hidden man of the heart which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which in the sight of God is of great price. <sup>5</sup>For in this manner in olden times the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands, <sup>6</sup>even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. Ye are her daughters as long as ye do well and are not afraid with any bewilderment.*

<sup>7</sup>Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with your wives with understanding, giving honor unto the wife as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one for another. Love each other as brethren, be sympathetic, be courteous, <sup>9</sup>not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing, but contrariwise blessing, knowing that ye are called thereto, that ye might inherit a blessing.*
<sup>10</sup>For,

“He that would love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil,
and his lips from speaking guile.

<sup>11</sup>Let him eschew evil and do good;
let him seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup>For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and His ears are open unto their prayers;
but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.”*

♦<sup>13</sup>And who is he that will harm you if ye be followers of that which is good? <sup>14</sup>But if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye. “And be not afraid of their threats; neither be troubled.”* <sup>15</sup>But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man who asketh you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear. <sup>16</sup>Have a good conscience, that, whereas they speak evil of you as of evildoers, they who falsely accuse may be ashamed by your good manner of life in Christ. <sup>17</sup>For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. <sup>18</sup>For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but

*6 Gen 18:12. *9 Pr 17:13, 20:22. *10-12 Ps 34:12-16, 33:18. *14 Isa 8:12-13, Mt 5:10.

quickened by the Spirit, <sup>19</sup>by which also He went and preached unto the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup>who one time were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah while the ark was being prepared, wherein only a few, that is eight souls, were saved by water. <sup>21</sup>In like manner baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who has gone into Heaven and is on the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto Him.

CHAPTER 4

He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth, <sup>12</sup>and comforteth them against persecution.

<sup>1</sup>For inasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind, for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin, <sup>2</sup>that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. <sup>3</sup>For our past life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries. <sup>4</sup>They think it strange that ye run not with them into the same dissolute excess, speaking evil of you; <sup>5</sup>but they shall give account to Him that is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup>For this cause was the Gospel preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

<sup>♦♦12</sup>Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you; <sup>13</sup>but rejoice inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that, when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. <sup>14</sup>If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye, for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part evil is spoken of Him, but on your part He is glorified.♦* <sup>15</sup>But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. <sup>16</sup>Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him be not ashamed, but let him glorify God on this account. <sup>17</sup>For the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God. And if it first begin with us, what shall the end be of those who obey not the Gospel of God?

<sup>18</sup>And,

“If the righteous scarcely are saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?” ***

<sup>19</sup>Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to Him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5

He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks, <sup>5</sup>the younger to obey, <sup>8</sup>and all to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith, <sup>9</sup>and to resist the cruel adversary, the devil.

<sup>1</sup>The elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: <sup>2</sup>feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight of them, not by constraint but willingly, not for filthy lucre but out of a ready mind, <sup>3</sup>neither as being lords over God's heritage, but by being examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup>And when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

<sup>5</sup>Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility; for and giveth grace to the humble.”***

♦♦Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, <sup>7</sup>casting all your cares upon Him, for He careth for you.* <sup>8</sup>Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil walketh about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.* <sup>9</sup>Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren who are in the world. <sup>10</sup>But after ye have suffered a while, may the God of all grace, who hath called us into His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. <sup>11</sup>To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.♦

<sup>12</sup>By Silvanus, whom I account to be a faithful brother unto you, I have written briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

<sup>13</sup>The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth Mark, my son. <sup>14</sup>Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all who are in Christ Jesus.

Amen.

OF PETER)

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, <sup>5</sup>he exhorteth them by faith and good works to make their calling sure, <sup>12</sup>of which he is careful to remind them, knowing that his death is at hand. <sup>16</sup>He warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eye witness of the apostles beholding His majesty, and by the testimony of the Father and the prophets.

To those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, according as <sup>3</sup>His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him that hath called us to glory and virtue. <sup>4</sup>Thereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

<sup>5</sup>And besides this, using all diligence, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, <sup>6</sup>and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness, <sup>7</sup>and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity. <sup>8</sup>For if these things be in you and abound, they make you that ye shall be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>But he that lacketh these things is blind and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. <sup>10</sup>Therefore brethren, give diligence even the more to make your calling and election sure, for if ye do these things ye shall never fall; <sup>11</sup>for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I will not be negligent to keep you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them and are established in the truth present in you. <sup>13</sup>Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this earthly tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance, <sup>14</sup>knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle,* even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shown me. <sup>15</sup>Moreover I will endeavor that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

♦♦<sup>6</sup>For we have not followed cunningly devised fables when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty. <sup>17</sup>For He received from God the Father honor and glory when there came a voice to Him from the Excellent Glory: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."* <sup>18</sup>And this voice, which came from Heaven, we heard when we were with Him on the holy mount.

<sup>19</sup>We have also a more sure word of prophecy, unto which ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn and the day star arise in your hearts, <sup>20</sup>knowing this first: that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For the prophecy came not in olden times by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. ♦

<sup>1</sup>He foretelleth them of false teachers, showing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers, <sup>7</sup>from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom.

<sup>10</sup>He more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, by which they may be the better known and avoided.

<sup>1</sup>But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who secretly shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup>And many shall follow their pernicious ways, by reason of whom evil shall be spoken against the way of truth. <sup>3</sup>And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you—they whose judgment now for a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

<sup>4</sup>For if God spared not the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved unto judgment;* <sup>5</sup>and spared not the old world, but saved Noah, the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the Flood upon the world of the ungodly;* <sup>6</sup>and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to be overthrown, making them an example unto those who thereafter should live ungodly; <sup>7</sup>and if He delivered righteous Lot, vexed with the filthy conduct of the wicked <sup>8</sup>(for that righteous man, having dwelt among them seeing and hearing, was vexed in his righteous soul day after day with their unlawful deeds)— <sup>9</sup>then the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust unto the Day of Judgment to be punished, <sup>10</sup>but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise governance. Presumptuous are they and self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities,* <sup>11</sup>whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption, <sup>13</sup>and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceptions while they feast with you, <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of adultery and who cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls; their hearts they have exercised with covetous practices; accursed children! <sup>15</sup>They have forsaken the right way and have gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness,* <sup>16</sup>but was rebuked for his iniquity; the dumb ass speaking with a man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.*

<sup>17</sup>These are wells without water, clouds that are carried by a tempest, for whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. <sup>18</sup>For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh and through much wantonness those who had clean escaped from those who live in error. <sup>19</sup>While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption; for by whom a man is overcome, by the same is he brought into bondage.* <sup>20</sup>For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.* <sup>21</sup>For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they had known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. <sup>22</sup>But it has happened unto them according to the true proverb: "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and, "the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire."*

CHAPTER 3

He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment against those scorers who dispute against it, <sup>8</sup>warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. <sup>10</sup>He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed, <sup>11</sup>exhorting them, in the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life; <sup>15</sup>and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

<sup>1</sup>This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you, in both of which I stir up your purity of mind by way of remembrance, <sup>2</sup>that ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and of the commandment to us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior.

<sup>3</sup>Know this first: that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts <sup>4</sup>and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.” <sup>5</sup>For of this they are willfully ignorant: that by the Word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water, <sup>6</sup>whereby the world, as it then was, became overflowed with water and perished. <sup>7</sup>But the heavens and the earth which now are, by the same Word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the Day of Judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

♦♦<sup>8</sup>But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing: that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.* <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness, but is long-suffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.* <sup>10</sup>But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat. The earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

<sup>11</sup>Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy manner of living and godliness, <sup>12</sup>looking for and hastening unto the coming of the Day of God, wherein the heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? <sup>13</sup>Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.*

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless. <sup>15</sup>And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation,♦ even as our beloved brother Paul also hath written unto you according to the wisdom given unto him, <sup>16</sup>as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things. Therein are some things hard to understand, which those who are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction.

<sup>17</sup>Ye therefore, beloved, seeing that ye know these things beforehand, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup>But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

To Him be glory both now and for ever.

Amen.

First John

(THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN)

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life by a communion with God; <sup>5</sup>to which we must add holiness of life, to testify the truth of our communion and profession of faith, and also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

♦<sup>1</sup>That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of Life <sup>2</sup>(For the Life was manifested; and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that Eternal Life, which was with the Father and was manifested unto us): <sup>3</sup>That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

<sup>5</sup>This then is the message which we have heard from Him and declare unto you: that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.* <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.* <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.

<sup>1</sup>My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.♦ <sup>3</sup>And hereby we know that we know Him: if we keep His commandments. <sup>4</sup>He that saith, "I know Him," and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup>But whoso keepeth His Word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in Him. <sup>6</sup>He that saith that he abideth in Him, ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked.

<sup>7</sup>Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the Word which ye have heard from the beginning. <sup>8</sup>Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is past and the true light now shineth. <sup>9</sup>He that saith he is in the light and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. <sup>10</sup>He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup>But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.*

<sup>12</sup>I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.

<sup>13</sup> I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known Him that is from the beginning.

I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one.

I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

<sup>14</sup>I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known Him that is from the beginning.

I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the Word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

<sup>15</sup>Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup>For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father, but is of the world. <sup>17</sup>And the world passeth away and the lust thereof, but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

<sup>18</sup>Little children, it is the last time. And as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists, whereby we know that this is the last time. <sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. But they went out, that it might be made manifest that they all were not of us. <sup>20</sup>But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. <sup>21</sup>I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup>Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup>Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father; he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. <sup>24</sup>Let that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>And this is the promise that He hath promised us: even eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>These things have I written unto you concerning those who seduce you. <sup>27</sup>But the anointing which ye have received from Him abideth in you, and ye have no need that any man teach you. But as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth and is no lie, even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in Him.

<sup>28</sup>And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He shall appear we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. <sup>29</sup>If ye know that He is righteous, ye know that every one who doeth righteousness is born of Him.

CHAPTER 3

He declareth the singular love of God towards us in making us His sons, <sup>3</sup>who therefore ought obediently to keep His commandments, <sup>11</sup>and also to love one another brotherly.

♦<sup>1</sup>Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! Therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew Him not. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is. <sup>3</sup>And every man that hath this hope in Him purifieth himself, even as He is pure.

<sup>4</sup>Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law, for sin is the transgression of the law. <sup>5</sup>And ye know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him is no sin. <sup>6</sup>Whosoever abideth in Him sinneth not; whosoever sinneth hath not seen Him, neither known Him.

<sup>7</sup>Little children, let no man deceive you. He that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. ♦ <sup>8</sup>He that committeth sin is of the devil, for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.*

<sup>9</sup>Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for His seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. <sup>10</sup>By this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither is he that loveth not his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning: that we should love one another.* <sup>12</sup>Be not as Cain, who was of that wicked one and slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.*

<sup>13</sup>Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. <sup>15</sup>Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

♦♦<sup>16</sup>Hereby we perceive the love of God: because He laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. <sup>17</sup>But whoso hath this world's goods and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up the compassion of his heart from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? * <sup>18</sup>My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth. <sup>19</sup>And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. <sup>20</sup>For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart and knoweth all things.

<sup>21</sup>Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then we have confidence toward God. <sup>22</sup>And whatsoever we ask we receive of Him, because we keep His commandment and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. <sup>23</sup>And this is His commandment: that we should believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as He gave us commandment. <sup>24</sup>And he that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in Him, and He in him. And hereby we know that He abideth in us: by the Spirit which He hath given us. ♦

<sup>1</sup>He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith; <sup>7</sup>and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, believe not every spirit, but test the spirits whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is of God. <sup>3</sup>And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is not of God; and such is the spirit of Antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come, and even now already it is in the world. <sup>4</sup>Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. <sup>5</sup>They are of the world; therefore they speak of the world, and the world heareth them. <sup>6</sup>We are of God; he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby we know the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. *

♦♦<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God and knoweth God. <sup>8</sup>He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup>In this was manifested the love of God toward us: that God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. * <sup>10</sup>Herein is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. <sup>12</sup>No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us.* <sup>13</sup>Hereby we know that we dwell in Him and He in us: because He hath given us of His Spirit. <sup>14</sup>And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God hath for us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. <sup>17</sup>Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness on the Day of Judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. <sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear; for fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

<sup>19</sup>We love Him, because He first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If a man say, "I love God," and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? <sup>21</sup>And this commandment we have from Him: that he that loveth God love his brother also.*

CHAPTER 5

He that loveth God, loveth His children and keepeth His commandments, <sup>3</sup>which to the faithful are light, and not grievous. <sup>9</sup>Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us <sup>14</sup>and to hear our prayers, which we make for ourselves and for others.

<sup>1</sup>Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and every one that loveth Him that begot, loveth Him also that is begotten by Him. <sup>2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep His commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God: that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not grievous.* <sup>4</sup>For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world. And this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. <sup>5</sup>Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

<sup>6</sup>This is He that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.♦ <sup>7</sup>For there are three that bear record in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. <sup>8</sup>And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three agree in one. ♦♦<sup>9</sup>If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater, for this is the witness of God which He hath testified of His Son. <sup>10</sup>He that believeth in the Son of God hath the witness in himself; he that believeth not God hath made Him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of His Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the record: that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. <sup>12</sup>He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe in the name of the Son of God. ♦ 14And this is the confidence that we have in Him: that if we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us. 15And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him.

16If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask and He shall give him life, for those who sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death. I do not say that he shall pray about it. 17All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not unto death.

18We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not, but He Himself that is begotten of God keepeth, and that wicked one toucheth him not. 19And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. 20And we know that the Son of God is come and hath given us understanding, that we may know Him that is true; and we are in Him that is true, even in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and Eternal Life.

21Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

Amen.

Second John

(THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN)

He exhorteth a certain honorable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, <sup>8</sup>lest they lose the reward of their former profession; <sup>10</sup>and to have nothing to do with those seducers, who bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

Unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth; <sup>2</sup>for the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us and shall be with us for ever:

<sup>3</sup>Grace, mércy, and peace be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning: that we love one another. <sup>6</sup>And this is love: that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

<sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have entered into the world who confess not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. <sup>8</sup>Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we may receive a full reward.

<sup>9</sup>Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ hath both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If there come any unto you and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him Godspeed; <sup>11</sup>for he that biddeth him Godspeed is a partaker of his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup>Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink; but I trust to come unto you and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

<sup>13</sup>The children of thy elect sister greet thee.

Amen.

Third John

(THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN)

He commendeth Gaius for his piety <sup>5</sup>and hospitality <sup>7</sup>to true preachers, <sup>9</sup>complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrefes on the contrary side, <sup>11</sup>whose evil example is not to be followed; <sup>12</sup>and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

Unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. <sup>3</sup>For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren and to strangers, <sup>6</sup>who have borne witness of thy charity before the church. If thou send them on their journey in a godly manner, thou shalt do well, <sup>7</sup>because for His name's sake they went forth, taking nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup>We therefore ought to receive them, that we might be fellow helpers to the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote unto the church, but Diotrefes, who loveth to have pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not. <sup>10</sup>Therefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words. And not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth those who would, and casteth them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God, but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

<sup>12</sup>Demetrius hath received good report of all men, and of the truth itself. Yea, of this we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

<sup>13</sup>I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee; <sup>14</sup>but I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE EPISTLE OF

Jude

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. <sup>14</sup>False teachers have crept in to seduce them, for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared; <sup>20</sup>whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit and prayers to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

<sup>1</sup>Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James,
To those who are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:*

<sup>3</sup>Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it became needful for me to write unto you and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. <sup>4</sup>For there are certain men who have crept in unawares, who were foreordained of old for this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who believed not. <sup>6</sup>And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great Day—<sup>7</sup>even as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication and going after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.*

<sup>8</sup>Likewise also, these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. <sup>9</sup>Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil and disputing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a railing accusation, but said only, "The Lord rebuke thee!"* <sup>10</sup>But these speak evil of those things which they know not; but what they come to know naturally as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. <sup>11</sup>Woe unto them! For they have gone the way of Cain and have run greedily after the error of Balaam for their reward, and perish as in the gainsaying of Korah.* <sup>12</sup>These are spots on your feasts of charity when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear. Clouds they are without water, carried about by winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>13</sup>raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

<sup>14</sup>And Enoch also, the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, "Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of His saints <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their godless deeds which they have godlessly committed, and of all the harsh words which godless sinners have spoken against Him." <sup>16</sup>These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, giving admiration to men's persons to gain advantage.

<sup>17</sup>But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>18</sup>how they told you that in the last times there would be mockers who would walk after their own ungodly lusts. <sup>19</sup>These are they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. <sup>22</sup>And on some have compassion, making a difference; <sup>23</sup>and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.*

<sup>24</sup>Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, <sup>25</sup>to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.

Amen.

The Revelation

to St. John

CHAPTER 1

<sup>4</sup>John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. <sup>7</sup>The coming of Christ. <sup>14</sup>His glorious power and majesty.

<sup>1</sup>The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto Him to show unto His servants things which must shortly come to pass. And He sent and made it known by His angel unto His servant John, <sup>2</sup>who bore record of the Word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. <sup>3</sup>Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein; for the time is at hand.

To the seven churches which are in Asia:

◆Grace be unto you and peace from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne;* <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince over the kings of the earth.*

Unto Him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood, <sup>6</sup>and hath made us kings and priests unto God and His Father,* to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, He cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see Him, and they also who pierced Him;

and all the kindreds of the earth shall wail because of Him.

Even so. Amen.*

<sup>8</sup>"I AM ALPHA AND OMEGA, THE BEGINNING AND THE ENDING," saith the Lord, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.◆

<sup>9</sup>I, John, who also am your brother and companion in tribulation and in the Kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the isle called Patmos, for the Word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet, <sup>11</sup>saying,

"I am Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last,"* and,

"What thou seest, write in a book and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia: unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup>And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; <sup>13</sup>and in the midst of the seven candlesticks One like unto the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to His feet and girded about His breast with a golden girdle.* <sup>14</sup>His head and His hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes were as a flame of fire; <sup>15</sup>and His feet like unto fine brass, as though they burned in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters. <sup>16</sup>And He had in His right hand seven stars, and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance shone as the sun shineth in his strength. <sup>17</sup>And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying unto me,

*"Fear not; I am the First and the Last.*. <sup>18</sup>I am He that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the keys of hell and of death. <sup>19</sup>Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. <sup>20</sup>The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in My right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.*

CHAPTER 2

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches of <sup>1</sup>Ephesus, <sup>8</sup>Smyrna, <sup>12</sup>Pergamos, <sup>18</sup>Thyatira; and what is commended or found wanting in them.

<sup>1</sup>"Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write: 'These things saith He that holdeth the seven stars in His right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks: <sup>2</sup>I know thy works and thy labor and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them that are evil; and how thou hast tried those who say they are apostles and are not, and hast found them liars; <sup>3</sup>and hast borne, and hast patience, and for My name's sake hast labored and hast not fainted. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, I have something against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. <sup>5</sup>Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent and do the works as at first; or else I will come unto thee quickly and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. <sup>6</sup>But this thou hast: that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.'

<sup>8</sup>"And unto the angel of the church of Smyrna write: 'These things saith the First and the Last, who was dead and is alive: <sup>9</sup>I know thy works and tribulation and poverty (but thou art rich), and I know the blasphemy of them that say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup>Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer. Behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of Life. <sup>11</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt by the second death.'

<sup>12</sup>"And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write: 'These things saith He who hath the sharp sword with two edges: <sup>13</sup>I know thy works and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is; and that thou holdest fast My name and hast not denied My faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. <sup>14</sup>But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.* <sup>15</sup>So thou also hast them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. <sup>16</sup>Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth. <sup>17</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth except he that receiveth it.'

know thy works, and charity and service; and faith and thy patience, and that thy last works be more than the first.
<sup>20</sup>*Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce My servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.** <sup>21</sup>And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not. <sup>22</sup>Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. <sup>23</sup>*And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searcheth the thoughts and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.**
<sup>24</sup>But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine and who have not known the depths of Satan (as they say it) I will put upon you no other burden. <sup>25</sup>But that which ye have already, hold fast until I come. <sup>26</sup>And he that overcometh and keepeth My works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations,
<sup>27</sup>and

*“he shall rule them with a rod of iron;
as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers”—**

even as I have received power from My Father. <sup>28</sup>And I will give him the morning star. <sup>29</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches!’

CHAPTER 3

<sup>2</sup>The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, <sup>3</sup>exhorted to repent, and threatened if he does not repent. <sup>8</sup>The angel of the church of Philadelphia <sup>10</sup>is approved for his diligence and patience. <sup>15</sup>The angel of Laodicee rebuked for being neither hot nor cold, <sup>19</sup>and admonished to be more zealous. <sup>20</sup>Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

<sup>1</sup>“And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write: These things saith He that hath the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I know thy works, and that thou hast a name that thou livest, but thou art dead. <sup>2</sup>Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found thy works perfect before God. <sup>3</sup>Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. <sup>4</sup>Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.* <sup>6</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches!

<sup>7</sup>"And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: 'These things saith He that is holy, He that is true, He that hath the key of David, He that openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.*' <sup>8</sup>I know thy works. Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it. For thou hast a little strength, and hast kept My Word, and hast not denied My name. <sup>9</sup>Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but do lie—behold, I will make them to come and worship at thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.*' <sup>10</sup>Because thou hast kept the word of My patience I will also keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world to try them that dwell upon the earth. <sup>11</sup>Behold, I come quickly; hold fast that which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. <sup>12</sup>He that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more; and I will write upon him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, which is New Jerusalem, which cometh down out of Heaven from My God, and I will write upon him My new name: <sup>13</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches!'

<sup>14</sup>"And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write: 'These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God: <sup>15</sup>I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would thou wert cold or hot. <sup>16</sup>So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of My mouth. <sup>17</sup>Because thou sayest, "I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing," and knowest not that thou art wretched and miserable, and poor and blind and naked, <sup>18</sup>I counsel thee to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that thou mayest be rich, and white raiment, that thou *mayest be clothed and that the shame of thy nakedness may not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see. <sup>19</sup>As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.* <sup>20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear My voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me. <sup>21</sup>To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with Me on My throne, even as I also overcame and am set down with My Father on His throne. <sup>22</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches!'"*

CHAPTER 4

<sup>2</sup>John seeth the throne of God in Heaven. <sup>4</sup>The four and twenty elders. <sup>6</sup>The four living beings full of eyes in front and behind. <sup>10</sup>The elders lay down their crowns, and worship Him that sat on the throne.

<sup>1</sup>After this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven; and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, which said, "Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter." <sup>2</sup>And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was set in Heaven, and One sat on the throne. <sup>3</sup>And He that sat thereon was to look upon like a jasper and a sardius stone; and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in appearance like unto an emerald. <sup>4</sup>And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crowns of gold. <sup>5</sup>And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; <sup>6</sup>and before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal. And in the midst of the throne and round about the throne, were four living beings full of eyes in front and behind. <sup>7</sup>And the first being was like a lion, and the second being like a calf, and the third being had the face of a man, and the fourth being was like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>And each of the four living beings had six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within; and they rested not day and night, saying,

"Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come!"*

<sup>9</sup>And when those living beings give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, <sup>10</sup>the four and twenty elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and worship Him who liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

*<sup>19</sup> Pr 3:11,12, Heb 12:5. *<sup>8</sup> Isa 6:3.

11"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power;
for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are, and were created.""*

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>The book sealed with seven seals, <sup>9</sup>which only the Lamb who was slain is worthy to open. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the elders praise Him, <sup>9</sup>and confess that He redeemed them with His blood.

<sup>1</sup>And I saw in the right hand of Him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to loose the seals thereof?" <sup>3</sup>And no man in Heaven, nor on earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>4</sup>And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>5</sup>And one of the elders said unto me, "Weep not! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book and to loose the seven seals thereof.""* <sup>6</sup>And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and the four living beings, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him that sat upon the throne. <sup>8</sup>And when He had taken the book, the four living beings and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps and golden vials full of incense, which are the prayers of saints. <sup>9</sup>And they sang a new song, saying,

"Thou art worthy to take the Book and to open the seals thereof;
for Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy blood, from every kindred and tongue, and people and nation, <sup>10</sup>and hast made us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth.""*

♦<sup>11</sup>And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the living beings and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,* <sup>12</sup>saying with a loud voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing!"

<sup>13</sup>And I heard every creature which is in heaven and on the earth, and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, saying,

*4:11 Rev 5:12. *5 Gen 49:9,10, Isa 11:1,10. *10 1 Pt 2:9. *5:11 Dan 7:10.

"Blessing, honor, glory, and power be unto Him who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever!"*

<sup>14</sup>And the four living beings said, "Amen." And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshiped Him that liveth for ever and ever. ♦

<sup>1</sup>And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four living beings saying, "Come and see!" <sup>2</sup>And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering and to conquer.*

<sup>3</sup>And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second living being say, "Come and see!" <sup>4</sup>And there went out another horse that was red; and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, that they should kill one another; and there was given unto him a great sword.*

<sup>5</sup>And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third living being say, "Come and see!" And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat upon him had a pair of balances in his hand.* <sup>6</sup>And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings say, "A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine!"

<sup>7</sup>And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, "Come and see!" <sup>8</sup>And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over a fourth part of the earth to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.*

<sup>9</sup>And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the Word of God, and for the testimony which they held. <sup>10</sup>And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?" <sup>11</sup>And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants and also their brethren, who were to be killed as they were, should have fulfilled their course.

<sup>12</sup>And I beheld when He had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; <sup>13</sup>and the stars of the heavens fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken by a mighty wind. <sup>14</sup>The heavens departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.* <sup>15</sup>And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; <sup>16</sup>and they said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb!" <sup>17</sup>For the great Day of His wrath has come, and who shall be able to stand?"

CHAPTER 7

<sup>3</sup>An angel sealeth the servants of God on their foreheads. <sup>4</sup>The number of those who were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number. <sup>9</sup>Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, who stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. <sup>14</sup>Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, "Hurt not the earth, neither the sea nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."* <sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of those who were sealed: there were sealed a hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand; <sup>6</sup>of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Manasseh were sealed twelve thousand; <sup>7</sup>of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand; <sup>8</sup>of the tribe of Zebulun were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand; of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

♦♦After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations and kindreds and people and tongues, stood before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes and with palms in their hands. <sup>10</sup>And they cried with a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation to our God who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb."

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living beings, and fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup>saying,

“Amen. Blessing and glory and wisdom, and thanksgiving and honor, and power and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen!”

<sup>13</sup>And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, “Who are these who are arrayed in white robes, and from whence have they come?”

<sup>14</sup>And I said unto him, “Sir, thou knowest.” And he said to me, “These are those who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>Therefore,

“they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple;
and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell
among them.***

<sup>16</sup>They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more;
neither shall the sun light upon them, nor any heat.*

<sup>17</sup>For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.”*♦

CHAPTER 8

<sup>3</sup>Another angel offereth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar. <sup>6</sup>Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow.

<sup>1</sup>And when He had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven about the space of half an hour. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and to them were given seven trumpets. <sup>3</sup>And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which was before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. <sup>5</sup>And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire from the altar, and cast it down upon the earth; and there were voices and thunderings and lightnings, and an earthquake. <sup>6</sup>And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

<sup>7</sup>The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth; and a third part of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

<sup>8</sup>And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and a third part of the sea became blood; <sup>9</sup>and a third part of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died, and a third part of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as if it were a lamp, and it fell upon a third part of the rivers and upon the fountains of waters; <sup>11</sup>and the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>12</sup>And the fourth angel sounded, and a third part of the sun was smitten, and a third part of the moon and a third part of the stars, so that a third part of them was darkened; and a third of the day shone not, and the night likewise. <sup>13</sup>And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three other angels, which are yet to sound!"

<sup>1</sup>At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key to the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup>He openeth the pit and there come forth locusts like scorpions. <sup>12</sup>The first woe past. <sup>13</sup>The sixth trumpet soundeth. <sup>14</sup>Four angels are let loose, that were bound.

<sup>1</sup>And the fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth; and to him was given the key to the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup>And he opened the bottomless pit, and there arose smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. <sup>3</sup>And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>4</sup>And it was commanded to them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those men who have not the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And to the locusts it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion when he striketh a man. <sup>6</sup>And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. <sup>7</sup>And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were, as it were, crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. <sup>8</sup>And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. <sup>9</sup>And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots with many horses running to battle. <sup>10</sup>And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stingers in their tails; and their power was to hurt men five months. <sup>11</sup>And they had a king over them, the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue the name is Apollyon.

<sup>12</sup>One woe is past; and behold, there come two more woes hereafter.

<sup>13</sup>And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which stands before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates." <sup>15</sup>And the four angels were loosed, who had been prepared for an hour and a day and a month and a year, to slay a third part of mankind. <sup>16</sup>And the number of the army of horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand, and I heard the number of them.

<sup>17</sup>And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them had breastplates of fire and of jacinth and brimstone; and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. <sup>18</sup>By these three was the third part of men killed by the fire and by the smoke and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup>For their power is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails were like unto serpents and had heads, and with them they cause hurt.

<sup>20</sup>And the rest of the men, who were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, nor gave up the worship of devils, and idols of gold and silver, and brass and stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;* <sup>21</sup>neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

A mighty, strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. <sup>6</sup>He sweareth by Him who liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. <sup>9</sup>John is commanded to take and eat the book.

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup>And he had in his hand a little book open. And he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, <sup>3</sup>and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth. And when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. <sup>4</sup>And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write, and I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, "Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not." <sup>5</sup>And the angel, whom I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to Heaven. <sup>6</sup>And he swore by Him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, and the sea and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer, <sup>7</sup>but that in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as He hath declared to His servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>And the voice which I heard from Heaven spoke unto me again and said, "Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who standeth upon the sea and upon the earth." <sup>9</sup>And I went unto the angel and said unto him, "Give me the little book." And he said unto me, "Take it and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey." <sup>10</sup>And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey; and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.* <sup>11</sup>And he said unto me, "Thou must prophesy again before many peoples and nations, and tongues and kings."

<sup>3</sup>The two witnesses prophesy. <sup>6</sup>They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. <sup>7</sup>The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. <sup>8</sup>They lie unburied, <sup>11</sup>and after three days and a half, rise again. <sup>14</sup>The second woe is past. <sup>15</sup>The seventh trumpet soundeth.

<sup>1</sup>And there was given me a reed like unto a measuring rod; and the angel stood, saying, "Rise, and measure the temple of God and the altar, and them that worship therein. <sup>2</sup>But the court which is outside the temple, leave out, and measure it not, for it is given unto the Gentiles; and the Holy City shall they tread under foot for forty and two months. <sup>3</sup>And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." <sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.* <sup>5</sup>And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies; and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. <sup>6</sup>These have the power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy, and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. <sup>7</sup>And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. <sup>10</sup>And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth. <sup>11</sup>But after three days and a half, the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them. <sup>12</sup>And they heard a great voice from Heaven, saying unto them, "Come up hither!" And they ascended up to Heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them. <sup>13</sup>And that same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth part of the city fell; and in the earthquake were slain seven thousand men, and the remnant were seized with fear, and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

*10:9-10 Ezk 2:8-3:3. *4 Zch 4:3, 11, 14.

<sup>14</sup>The second woe is past; and behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

<sup>15</sup>And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying,

“The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever!”

<sup>16</sup>And the four and twenty elders, who sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup>saying,

“We give Thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who art, and wast, and art to come, because Thou hast taken to Thee Thy great power, and hast reigned.

<sup>18</sup>And the nations were angry;

and Thy wrath is come,
and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that Thou shouldest give reward unto Thy servants the prophets, and to the saints and them that fear Thy name,
small and great,
and shouldest destroy them that destroy the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>And the temple of God was opened in Heaven; and there was seen in His temple the ark of His testament, and there were lightnings and voices, and thunderings and an earthquake, and great hail.

<sup>1</sup>The woman clothed with the sun travaileth. <sup>4</sup>The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child. <sup>6</sup>When she was delivered she fleeth into the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>Michael and his angels fight with the dragon and prevail. <sup>13</sup>The dragon, being cast down unto the earth, persecuteth the woman.

<sup>1</sup>And there appeared a wondrous sign in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. <sup>2</sup>And she, being with child, cried out, travailing in birth and in pain to be delivered. <sup>3</sup>And there appeared another sign in heaven: behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. <sup>4</sup>And his tail drew a third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, to devour her child as soon as it was born. <sup>5</sup>And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up unto God and to His throne. <sup>6</sup>And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

<sup>7</sup>And there was war in Heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, <sup>8</sup>and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in Heaven. <sup>9</sup>And the great dragon was cast out—that serpent of old called the Devil and Satan, who deceiveth the whole world. He was cast out onto the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a loud voice saying in Heaven, “Now have come salvation and strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ;

for the accuser of our brethren is cast down,
who accused them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup>And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their own lives unto the death.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them!

Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea!
For the devil has come down unto you, full of great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

<sup>13</sup>And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the man child. <sup>14</sup>And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup>And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.* <sup>16</sup>And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened up her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and he went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>1</sup>A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. <sup>11</sup>Another beast cometh up out of the earth; <sup>14</sup>causeth an image to be made to the former beast, <sup>15</sup>and that men should worship it, <sup>16</sup>and receive his mark.

<sup>1</sup>And I stood upon the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. <sup>2</sup>And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. <sup>3</sup>And I saw that one of his heads was as it were wounded unto death, but his deadly wound was healed. And all the world wondered after the beast. <sup>4</sup>And they worshiped the dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

<sup>5</sup>And there was given unto the beast a mouth, speaking great things and blasphemies, and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. <sup>6</sup>And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God to blaspheme His name, and His tabernacle, and them that dwell in Heaven. <sup>7</sup>And it was given unto him to make war with the saints and to overcome them; and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. <sup>8</sup>And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world. <sup>9</sup>If any man have an ear, let him hear:

<sup>10</sup>He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity.*

He that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword.

Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup>And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him; and he causeth the earth and those who dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. <sup>13</sup>And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. <sup>14</sup>And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword and lived. <sup>15</sup>And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause to be killed as many as would not worship the image of the beast. <sup>16</sup>And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, <sup>17</sup>that no man might buy or sell unless he had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

<sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom: Let him who hath understanding count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

<sup>1</sup>And I looked and lo, a Lamb stood on Mount Zion, and with Him a hundred forty and four thousand, having His Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a voice from Heaven as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder, and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps. <sup>3</sup>And they sang as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living beings and the elders; and no man could learn that song, except the hundred and forty and four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup>These are they who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. These are redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup>And in their mouth was found no guile, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel fly in the midst of Heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation and kindred, and tongue and people, <sup>7</sup>saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His Judgment has come. Worship Him who made heaven and earth, and the sea and the fountains of waters."*

<sup>8</sup>And there followed another angel, saying, "Babylon is fallen! Fallen is that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."*

<sup>9</sup>And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup>the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out unmixed into the cup of His indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." <sup>12</sup>Here is the patience of the saints: here are those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from Heaven, saying unto me, "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth.'" "Yea," saith the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

<sup>14</sup>And I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and upon the cloud sat one like unto the Son of Man, having on his head a golden crown and in his hand a sharp sickle. <sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, "Thrust in thy sickle and reap; for the time has come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe."* <sup>16</sup>And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup>And another angel came out of the temple which is in Heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in thy sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." <sup>19</sup>And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. <sup>20</sup>And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even unto the horse bridles, for the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels holding the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God. <sup>2</sup>And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass and holding the harps of God. <sup>3</sup>And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous are Thy works,

Lord God Almighty!

Just and true are Thy ways,

Thou King of saints!***

<sup>4</sup>Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy name?

For Thou only art holy.

For all nations shall come and worship before Thee,

for Thy judgments are made manifest."***

<sup>5</sup>And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in Heaven was opened; <sup>6</sup>and the seven angels, holding the seven plagues, came out of the temple, clothed in pure and white linen and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. <sup>7</sup>And one of the four living beings gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. <sup>8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no man was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

<sup>1</sup>And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth." <sup>2</sup>And the first went and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast and upon those who worshiped his image.

*3 Ex 15:1, Ps 145:17. *4 Jer 10:6-7.

<sup>3</sup>And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man, and every living soul died in the sea.

<sup>4</sup>And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters say,

"Thou art righteous, O Lord, who art, and wast, and shall be,
because Thou hast judged thus;

<sup>6</sup>for they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and Thou hast given them blood to drink,
as they deserve."*

<sup>7</sup>And I heard another out of the altar say,

"Even so, Lord God Almighty, for true and righteous are Thy judgments."

<sup>8</sup>And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. <sup>9</sup>And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues; and they repented not to give Him glory.

<sup>10</sup>And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness, and they gnawed their tongues from pain; <sup>11</sup>and they blasphemed the God of Heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup>And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. <sup>13</sup>And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>14</sup>For they are the spirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world to gather them for the battle on that great Day of God Almighty.

<sup>15</sup>"Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame."*

<sup>16</sup>And he gathered them together at a place called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of Heaven from the throne, saying, "IT IS DONE!" <sup>18</sup>And there were voices and thunders and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as has not been since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake and so great. <sup>19</sup>And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came to remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.* <sup>20</sup>And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>3,4</sup> A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, <sup>5</sup>which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. <sup>9</sup>The interpretation of the seven heads <sup>12</sup>and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The punishment of the whore. <sup>14</sup>The victory of the Lamb.

<sup>1</sup>And there came one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, "Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment upon the great whore who sitteth upon many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication." <sup>3</sup>So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, and having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and bedecked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication; <sup>5</sup>and upon her forehead was a name written: "Mystery, Babylon the Great, Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the Earth". <sup>6</sup>And I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.

And when I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. <sup>7</sup>And the angel said unto me, "Why dost thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that thou sawest was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit and go into perdition; and they that dwell on the earth, and whose names were not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, shall wonder when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

<sup>9</sup>"And this is for the mind which hath wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth. <sup>10</sup>And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other has not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short time. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, yet is one of the seven and goeth into perdition. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet, but will receive power as kings for one hour with the beast. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. <sup>14</sup>These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them; for He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are called, and chosen, and faithful.”*

<sup>15</sup>And he saith unto me, “The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples and multitudes, and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup>For God hath put into their hearts to fulfill His will and to agree, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And the woman whom thou sawest is that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.”

CHAPTER 18

<sup>2</sup>Babylon has fallen. <sup>4</sup>The people of God commanded to depart out of her. <sup>9</sup>The kings of the earth, <sup>11</sup>with the merchants and mariners, lament over her. <sup>20</sup>The saints rejoice for the judgments of God upon her.

<sup>2</sup>And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, “Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils,

and the stronghold of every foul spirit,
and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.*

<sup>3</sup>For all nations have drunk the wine of the wrath of her fornication;

and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have waxed rich through the abundance of her sensuous pleasures.”

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from Heaven, saying,

“Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins,
and that ye receive not of her plagues;*

<sup>5</sup>for her sins have reached unto Heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

<sup>6</sup>Reward her even as she has rewarded you, and double unto her according to her works;
in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

<sup>7</sup>How much she hath glorified herself and lived voluptuously!*

That much torment and sorrow give back to her;
for she saith in her heart, ‘I sit a queen and am no widow, *<sup>14</sup> 1 Tm 6:15, Rev 19:16. *<sup>2</sup> Isa 21:9, Jer 51:8, Rev 14:8. *<sup>4</sup> Isa 52:11, Jer 50:8, 51:6. *<sup>7</sup> Isa 47:7-9.

and shall see no sorrow.'

<sup>8</sup>Therefore shall her plagues come in one day—death and mourning and famine, and she shall be utterly burned with fire;
for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

<sup>9</sup>"And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived in luxury with her, shall bewail her and lament for her when they shall see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>standing afar off for fear of her torment, saying,

'Alas! Alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city!

For in one hour has thy judgment come.'

<sup>11</sup>"And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: <sup>12</sup>the merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls; and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; all scented wood, all manner of vessels of ivory and most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; <sup>13</sup>and cinnamon, and perfumes, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat; and cattle, and sheep, and horses, and chariots; and slaves, and the souls of men.

<sup>14</sup>And the fruits that thy soul lusteth after have departed from thee,
and all things which were dainty and goodly
have departed from thee,
and thou shalt find them no more at all.

<sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing <sup>16</sup>and saying,

'Alas! Alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet,
and bedecked with gold and precious stones and pearls!

<sup>17</sup> For in one hour such great riches have come to nought!'

"And every shipmaster and all the company in ships, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off; <sup>18</sup>and they cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like unto this great city!' <sup>19</sup>And they cast dust on their heads and cried, weeping and wailing, saying,

'Alas! Alas, that great city, wherein all that had ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her extravagances!

For in one hour is she made desolate!'

<sup>20</sup>Rejoice over her, thou Heaven and ye holy apostles and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her."

<sup>21</sup>Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying,

“Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down,
and shall be found no more at all.

<sup>22</sup>And the sound of harpers and musicians, and of pipers and trumpeters
shall be heard no more at all in thee;
and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be,
shall be found any more in thee;
and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

<sup>23</sup>and the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee;
and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee.

For thy merchants were the great men of the earth, for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

<sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.”

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I heard a great voice of a multitude of people in Heaven, saying, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power, be unto the Lord our God,

<sup>2</sup> for true and righteous are His judgments:
He hath judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of His servants at her hand.”

<sup>3</sup>And again they said, “Alleluia! And her smoke rises up for ever and ever.”* <sup>4</sup>And the four and twenty elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying,

“Amen! Alleluia!”

<sup>5</sup>And a voice came out of the throne, saying, “Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great.”

<sup>6</sup>And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and the voice of many waters, and the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, “Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.

<sup>7</sup> Let us be glad and rejoice and give honor to Him,

*3 Isa 34:10.

for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and His wife hath made herself ready."

<sup>8</sup>And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

<sup>9</sup>And the angel said unto me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he said unto me, "These are the true sayings of God." <sup>10</sup>And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said unto me, "See that thou do it not! I am thy fellow servant and one of thy brethren, who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."*

<sup>11</sup>And I saw Heaven opened, and behold, a white horse; and He that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He doth judge and make war. <sup>12</sup>His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns; and He had a name written that no man knew, but He Himself. <sup>13</sup>And He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood, and His name is called, The Word of God.* <sup>14</sup>And the armies which were in Heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him upon white horses. <sup>15</sup>And out of His mouth goeth a sharp sword with which He shall smite the nations, and He shall rule them with a rod of iron; and He treadeth the wine press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. <sup>16</sup>And He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written: King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.*

<sup>17</sup>And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, "Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God, <sup>18</sup>that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great."

<sup>19</sup>And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war against Him that sat on the horse, and against His army.

<sup>20</sup>And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who wrought miracles in his presence, by which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone. <sup>21</sup>And the remnant were slain with the sword of Him who sat upon the horse, whose sword proceeded out of His mouth. And all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

<sup>1</sup>And I saw an angel come down from Heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>And he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season.

<sup>4</sup>And I saw thrones and those who sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the Word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast, nor his image, nor had received his mark upon their foreheads or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. <sup>5</sup>But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup>And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, <sup>8</sup>and shall go out to deceive the nations to the four quarters of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them together for battle, the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.* <sup>9</sup>And they went out over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. <sup>10</sup>And the devil who had deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne and Him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heavens fled away, and there was found no place for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.* <sup>13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to his works. <sup>14</sup>And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. <sup>15</sup>And whosoever was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

<sup>1</sup>A new heaven and a new earth. <sup>10</sup>The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. <sup>23</sup>She needeth no sun; the glory of God is her light. <sup>24</sup>The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

the first earth had passed away, and there was no more sea.* <sup>2</sup>And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them; and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them and be their God. <sup>4</sup>And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."*

<sup>5</sup>And He that sat upon the throne said, "BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW." And He said unto me, "WRITE, FOR THESE WORDS ARE TRUE AND FAITHFUL."* <sup>6</sup>And He said unto me, "IT IS DONE! I AM ALPHA AND OMEGA, THE BEGINNING AND THE END. I WILL GIVE UNTO HIM THAT IS ATHIRST OF THE FOUNTAIN OF THE WATER OF LIFE FREELY.* ♦ <sup>7</sup>HE THAT OVERCOMETH SHALL INHERIT ALL THINGS; AND I WILL BE HIS GOD, AND HE SHALL BE MY SON. <sup>8</sup>BUT THE FEARFUL, AND UNBELIEVING, AND THE ABOMINABLE, AND MURDERERS, AND WHOREMONGERS, AND SORCERERS, AND IDOLATERS, AND ALL LIARS, SHALL HAVE THEIR PART IN THE LAKE WHICH BURNETH WITH FIRE AND BRIMSTONE, WHICH IS THE SECOND DEATH."

<sup>9</sup>And there came unto me one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, "Come hither; I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife." ♦♦<sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the Holy Jerusalem, descending out of Heaven from God, ♦ <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God. And her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>It had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names were written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: <sup>13</sup>on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>And he that talked with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, and the gates thereof and the walls thereof. <sup>16</sup>And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as great as the breadth; and he measured the city with the rod: twelve thousand furlongs; the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. <sup>17</sup>And he measured the wall thereof: a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. <sup>18</sup>And the wall was built of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. <sup>19</sup>And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth sar-

♦<sup>22</sup>And I saw no temple therein, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. <sup>23</sup>And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it; for the glory of God gave it light, and the Lamb is the light thereof.* <sup>24</sup>And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in the light of it, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it.* <sup>25</sup>And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night there,* <sup>26</sup>and they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. <sup>27</sup>And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.***

<sup>1</sup>And he showed me a pure river of the Water of Life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.* <sup>2</sup>In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, there was the Tree of Life, which bore twelve kinds of fruit and yielded her fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him. <sup>4</sup>And they shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there shall be no night there, and they will need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light. And they shall reign for ever and ever.*♦

Blessed is he who keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

<sup>8</sup>And I, John, saw these things and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. <sup>9</sup>Then said he unto me, "See that thou do it not, for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book. Worship God!"**

<sup>18</sup>For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book: If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.* <sup>19</sup>And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the Book of Life and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in this book.*

♦♦<sup>20</sup>He who testifieth these things saith,
"Surely I come quickly."

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Amen.♦

Appendix

The following is the updated and abridged preface to the original King James Version of the Holy Bible. It is entitled The Translators to the Reader and was first published in A.D. 1611. Those portions in brackets [ ] are not part of the original text, but are insertions made by the updaters for clarification.

The Translators to the Reader

The best things have been maliciously misrepresented

Zeal to promote the common good, whether it be by devising anything ourselves, or revising that which is the labor of others, deserveth certainly much respect and esteem, but yet finds but cold reception in the world. It is welcomed with suspicion instead of love, and with envy instead of thanks; and if there be any hole left for cavil to enter, (and cavil, if it does not find a hole, will make one) it is sure to be misconstrued, and in danger to be condemned.

This point will easily be granted by as many as know history or have any experience. For was there ever anything projected that savored in any way of newness or renewing, but the same endured many a storm of gainsaying or opposition? A man would think that civility, wholesome laws, learning and eloquence, synods, and church-maintenance (that we speak of no more things of this kind) should be as safe as a sanctuary, and out of range (as they say) that no man would lift up the heel, no, nor dog move his tongue against the protagonists of them. For by the first [civility], we are distinguished from brute beasts, led by sensuality; by the second [wholesome laws], we are bridled and restrained from outrageous behavior and from doing of injuries, whether by fraud or by violence; by the third [learning and eloquence], we are enabled to inform and reform others by the light and feeling that we have attained unto ourselves; briefly, by the fourth [synods], being brought together to a parley face to face, we sooner compose our differences than by writings, which are endless; and lastly [church maintenance], that the church be sufficiently provided for, is so agreeable to good reason and conscience that those mothers are held to be less cruel who kill their children as soon as they are born, than those nurturing fathers and mothers (wheresoever they be) who withdraw from those who hang upon their breasts (and upon whose breasts again themselves do hang to receive the spiritual and sincere milk of the Word) livelihood and support fit for their estates.

Thus it is apparent that these things of which we speak are of most necessary use, and therefore that no one, indeed without absurdity, can speak against them or, without note of wickedness, can spurn against them.

Yet for all that, the learned know [in reference to civility] that certain worthy men have been brought to untimely death for no other fault but that of seeking to reduce their countrymen to good order and discipline. And [in reference to wholesome laws] that in some commonwealths it was made a capital crime once to give support to the making of a new law for the abrogating of an old, though some were most pernicious. And [in reference to learning and civility] that certain persons who would be counted pillars of the state and patrons of virtue and prudence, could not be brought for a long time to give way to good letters and refined speech, but positioned themselves as averse from them, as from rocks or boxes of poison. And fourthly [as for synods], that he was no child, but a great clerk, who pronounced (and in writing to remain for posterity), in passion perhaps, but yet he pronounced, that he had not seen any profit to come by any synod or meeting of the clergy, but rather the contrary. And lastly, concerning church maintenance and allowance, that in such amount as the ambassadors and messengers of the great King of Kings should be furnished, it is not unknown what a fiction or fable (so it is esteemed, and for no better by the reporter himself, though superstitious) was devised, namely, that at such time as the professors and teachers of Christianity in the Church of Rome... were liberally endowed, a voice indeed was heard from heaven saying: "Now is poison poured down into the church," etc.

"Thus not only as often as we speak," as one saith, "but also as often as we do anything of note or consequence, we subject ourselves to everyone's censure. And happy is he who is least tossed upon language problems, for utterly to escape the grasp of them it is impossible." If any man conceive that this is the lot and portion of the meaner sort only, and that princes are privileged by their high estate, he is deceived. As "the sword devoureth one as well as another," as it is in Samuel (2 Sam 11:25); nay, as the great commander charged his soldiers in a certain battle to strike at no part of the enemy but at the face; and as the king of Syria commanded his chief captains "to fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel" (1 Kg 22:31), so it is too true that envy striketh most spitefully at the fairest and the chiefest. David was a worthy prince, and no man is to be compared to him for his first deeds; and yet for as worthy an act as ever he did (even for bringing back the ark of God in solemnity), he was scorned and scoffed at by his own wife (2 Sam 6:16).

Solomon was greater than David (though not in virtue, yet in power), and by his power and wisdom he built a temple to the LORD, such a one as was the glory of the land of Israel and the wonder of the whole world. But was his magnificence admired by all? We doubt it. Otherwise, why do they lay it to his son's fault and call unto him for easing of the burden: "Make," say they, "the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke, lighter" (1 Kg 12:4). Likely he had charged them with some levies and troubled them with transport. Thereupon they conjured up a crisis, and wished in their hearts the Temple had never been built. So hard a thing it is to please all, even when we please God best, and do seek to approve ourselves to everyone's conscience!

The highest personages have been maliciously misrepresented

If we will come down to later times, we shall find many like examples of such kind (or rather unkind) acceptance. The first Roman Emperor never did a more pleasing deed to the learned, nor more profitable to posterity, for conserving the record of time in true reckoning than when he corrected the calendar, and ordered the year according to the course of the sun. And yet this was imputed to him for novelty and arrogance, and procured to him great obloquies.

So the first Christian emperor (at least who openly professed the faith himself and allowed others to do the like) for strengthening the Empire at his great expense, and providing for the church as he did, got for his labor the name "Pupillus" (that is to say, a wasteful prince) who had need of a guardian or overseer.

So the best Christian emperor, for the love that he bore for peace, thereby to enrich both himself and his subjects, and because he did not seek war but came upon it, was judged to be no man at arms (though indeed he excelled in feats of chivalry, and showed as much when he was provoked), and was condemned for giving himself to his ease and to his pleasure. In short, as to the most learned emperor of former times (at least, the greatest politician), what thanks had he for cutting off the superfluities of the laws, and digesting them into some order and method? This: that he hath been stigmatized by some to be an epitomist, that is, one who extinguished entire worthy books to bring his abridgements into prominence.

This is the measure that hath been rendered to excellent princes in former times, even, Cum bene facerent, male audire: "For their good deeds to be evil spoken of." Neither is there any likelihood that envy and malignity died and were buried with the ancients. No, no, the reproof of Moses taketh hold of most ages: "Ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men" (Num 32:14). What is that which hath been done? "That which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun, saith the wise man" (Ecl 1:9). And St. Steven: "As your fathers did, so do you" (Acts 7:51).

His Majesty's constancy, notwithstanding misrepresentation of him, for the survey of the English translations

This, and more to this purpose, His Majesty who now reigneth (and long, long may he reign, and his offspring for ever, himself and children, and children's children always) knew full well, according to the singular wisdom given unto him by God, and the rare learning and experience that he hath attained unto; namely, that whosoever attempteth anything for the public (especially if it pertain to religion and to the opening and clarifying of the Word of God), the same setteth himself upon a stage to be glared at by every evil eye, yea, he casteth himself headlong upon spikes to be gored by every sharp tongue. For he that meddleth with men's religion in any part, meddleth with their custom, nay, with their freehold; and though they find no contentment in that which they have, yet they cannot abide to hear of its altering.

Notwithstanding, his royal heart was not daunted or discouraged for this or that color, but stood resolute, "as a statue immovable, and an anvil not easy to be beaten into plates," as one saith. He knew who had chosen him to be a soldier; or rather a captain, and being assured that the course which he intended made much for the glory of God and the building up of His church, he would not suffer it to be broken off on account of whatsoever speeches or practices.

It doth certainly belong unto kings (yea, it doth especially belong unto them) to have care of religion, yea, to know it aright, yea, to profess it zealously, yea, to promote it to the uttermost of their power. This is their glory before all nations which mean well, and this will bring unto them a far more excellent weight of glory in the day of the Lord Jesus. For the Scripture saith not in vain, "Them that honor me, I will honor" (1 Sam 2:30); neither was it a vain word that Eusebius delivered long ago: that piety towards God was the weapon, and the only weapon, that both preserved Constantine's person and avenged him of his enemies.

The praise of the Holy Scriptures

But now what piety without truth? What truth (what saving truth) without the Word of God? What Word of God (of which we may be sure) without the Scripture? The Scriptures we are commanded to search: John 5:39, Isaiah 8:20. They are commended who searched and studied them: Acts 17:11 and 8:28-29. They are reproved who were unskilled in them, or slow to believe them: Matthew 22:29, Luke 24:25. They can make us wise unto salvation: 2 Timothy 3:15. If we be ignorant, they will instruct us; if out of the way, they will bring us home; if out of order, they will reform us; if in heaviness, comfort us; if dull, quicken us; if cold, inflame us. Tolle, lege; Tolle, lege: "Take up and read, take up and read the Scriptures" (for unto them was the direction), it was said unto St. Augustine by a supernatural voice. "Whatsoever is in the Scriptures, believe me," saith the same St. Augustine, "is high and divine. There is verily truth and doctrine most fit for the refreshing and renewing of men's minds, and truly so tempered that every one may draw from thence that which is sufficient for him, if he come to draw with a devout and pious mind, as true religion requireth." Thus St. Augustine! And St. Jerome: Ana scripturas, & anabit te sapientia, "Love the Scriptures, and wisdom will love thee." And St. Cyril against Julian: "Even boys that are bred up in the Scriptures become most religious," etc.

But why mention we three or four verses of Scripture, whereas whatsoever is to be believed or practiced, or hoped for, is contained in them? Or three or four sentences of the Fathers, since whosoever is worthy the name of a father, from Christ's time downward, hath likewise written not only of the riches, but also of the perfection of the Scripture? "I adore the fullness of the Scripture," saith Tertullian against Hermogenes. And again to Apelles, a heretic of the like stamp, he saith: "I do not admit that which thou bringest in (or concludeth) of thine own (head or store, de tuo) without Scripture." So St. Justin Martyr before him: "We must know by all means," saith he, "that it is not lawful (or possible) to learn (anything) of God or of right piety, except only out of the Prophets, who teach us by divine inspiration." So St. Basil according to Tertullian: "It is a manifest falling away from the faith, and a fault of presumption, either to reject any of those things which are written, or to bring in (upon the head of them, epeisagein) any of those things which are not written."

We omit to cite to the same effect St. Cyril, Bishop of Jerusalem, in his 4th Catacheses, St. Jerome against Heluidius, St. Augustine in his 3rd book against the letters of Petilian, and in very many other places of his works. Also we refrain from going forward to latter Fathers, because we will not weary the reader.

The Scriptures, then, being acknowledged to be so full and so perfect, how can we excuse ourselves of negligence (if we do not study them from curiosity) if we be not content with them? Men talk much of eiresiane, how many sweet and goodly things it had hanging on it; of the philosopher's stone, that it turneth copper into gold; of cornucopia, that it had all things necessary for food in it; of panaces the herb, that it was good for all diseases; of catholicon the drug, that it is used instead of all purges; of Vulcan's armor, that it was an armor of proof against all thrusts and all blows, etc. Well, that which they falsely or vainly attributed to these things for bodily good, we may justly and with full measure ascribe unto the Scripture for spiritual. It is not only armor, but also a whole armory of weapons, both offensive and defensive, whereby we may save ourselves and put the enemy to flight. It is not an herb, but a tree, or rather a whole paradise of trees of life, which bring forth fruit every month, and the fruit thereof is for food, and the leaves for medicine. It is not a pot of manna or a cruet of oil, which were for remembrance only, or for a meal's meat or two, but, as it were, a shower of heavenly bread sufficient for a whole host, be it ever so great; and as it were, a whole cellar full of oil vessels whereby all our necessities may be provided for and our debts discharged.

In a word, Scripture is a storehouse of wholesome food against musty traditions; a physician's shop (St. Basil calleth it) of preservatives against poisoned heresies; a treatise of profitable laws against rebellious spirits; a treasury of most costly jewels against beggarly rudiments; finally, a fountain of most pure water springing up unto everlasting life. And where is the marvel? The original thereof being from Heaven, not from earth; the author being God, not man; the editor, the Holy Spirit, not the wits of the apostles or prophets; the pen-men, such as were sanctified from the womb and endued with a principal portion of God's spirit; the substance: verity, piety, purity, uprightness; the form: God's Word, God's testimony, God's oracles, the Word of truth, the Word of salvation, etc.; the effects: light of understanding, stableness of persuasion, repentance from dead works, newness of life, holiness, peace, joy in the Holy Spirit; lastly, the end and reward of the study thereof: fellowship with the Saints, participation of the heavenly nature, fruition of an inheritance immortal, undefiled, and that never shall fade away.

Happy is the man who delighteth in the Scripture, and thrice happy who meditateth on it day and night.

Translation necessary

But how shall men meditate on that which they cannot understand? How shall they understand that which is kept closed in an unknown tongue? As it is written, "If I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me" (1 Cor 14:11). The Apostle excepted no tongue; not Hebrew the ancient, not Greek the most copious, not Latin the finest. Nature taught a natural man to confess that all of us in those tongues which we do not understand are plainly deaf: we may turn the deaf ear unto them. The Sythian counted the Athenian, whom he did not understand, barbarous; so the Roman did the Syrian, and the Jew (even St. Jerome himself calleth the Hebrew tongue barbarous, likely because it was strange to so many). So the Emperor of Constantinople calleth the Latin tongue barbarous, though Pope Nicolas storms at it. So the Jews long before Christ called all other nations Lognazim, which is little better than barbarous. Therefore as one complaineth that always in the Senate of Rome there was one or other who called for an interpreter, so lest the Church be driven to the like exigent, it is necessary to have translations in readiness.

Translation it is that openeth the window to let in the light; that breaketh the shell, that we may eat the kernel; that putteth aside the curtain, that we may look into the Most Holy Place; that removeth the cover of the well, that we may come by the water, even as Jacob rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, by which means the flocks of Laban were watered (Gen 29:10). Indeed without translation into the vernacular tongue, the unlearned are but like children at Jacob's well (which was deep), without a bucket or something to draw with (Jn 4:11); or as that person mentioned by Esay, to whom when a sealed book was delivered with this monition, "Read this, I pray thee," he was quick to make this answer; "I cannot, for it is sealed."

The translation of the Old Testament out of the Hebrew into Greek

While God would be known only in Jacob, and have his name great in Israel and in no other place, while the dew lay on Gideon's fleece only and all the earth besides was dry, then for one and the same people, which spoke all of them the language of Canaan (that is, Hebrew), one and the same original in Hebrew was sufficient. But when the fullness of time drew near, that the Son of righteousness, the Son of God, should come into the world, whom God ordained to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, not of the Jew only, but also of the Greek, yea, of all those who were scattered abroad, then, lo, it pleased the Lord to stir up the spirit of a Greek prince (Greek for descent and language), even of Ptolome Philadelphus King of Egypt, to procure the translating of the Book of God out of the Hebrew into Greek. This is the translation of the Seventy interpreters [Septuagint], commonly so called, which prepared the way for our Savior among the gentiles by written preaching, as St. John the Baptist did among the Jews by vocal. For the Grecians, being desirous of learning, were not wont to suffer books of worth to lay molding in kings' libraries, but had many of their servants, ready scribes, to copy them out, and so they were dispersed and made common.

Again, the Greek tongue was well known and made familiar to most inhabitants in Asia, by reason of the conquest that the Grecians had made there, as also by the colonies which thither they had sent. For the same causes also it was well understood in many places in Europe, yea, and of Africa too. Therefore the Word of God, being set forth in Greek, becometh hereby like a candle set upon a candlestick, which giveth light to all that are in the house, or like a proclamation sounded forth in the marketplace, which most men presently have knowledge of. And therefore that language was fittest to contain the Scriptures, both for the first preachers of the Gospel to appeal unto for witness, and for the learners also of those times to make search and trial by.

It is certain that that translation was not so sound and so perfect, but that it needed in many places correction. And who had been so sufficient for this work as the apostles or apostle-like men? Yet it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to them, to take that which they found (the same being for the greatest part true and sufficient), rather than by making a new (in that new world and green age of the Church) to expose themselves to many objections and quibblings, as though they made a translation to serve their own fancy, and therefore bearing witness to themselves that their witness not be regarded.

This may be supposed to be a reason why the translation of the Seventy was allowed to pass for authentic. Notwithstanding, though it was commended generally, yet it did not fully satisfy the learned nor the Jews. For not long after Christ, Aquila set his hand to a new translation, and after him Theodotian, and after him Symmachus. Yea, there was a fifth and sixth edition, the authors of which were not known. These, with the Seventy, made up the Hexapla, and were worthily and to great purpose compiled together by Origen. Nevertheless, the edition of the Seventy went away with the credit, and therefore not only was placed in the midst by Origen (for the worth and excellency thereof above the rest, as Epiphanius gathereth), but also was used by the Greek fathers as the ground and foundation of their commentaries.

Yea, Epiphanius, above named, doth attribute so much into it that he holdeth the authors thereof not only as interpreters, but also as Prophets in some respect; and Justinian the Emperor enjoining the Jews, his subjects, to use especially the translation of the Seventy, rendereth this reason thereof: because they were, as it were, enlightened with prophetic grace. Yet for all that, as the Egyptians are said by the prophet to be men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit, so it is evident (and St. Jerome affirmeth as much) that the seventy were interpreters; they were not prophets. They did many things well, as learned men; but yet as men they stumbled and fell, one through oversight, another through ignorance, yea, sometimes they may be noted to add to the original, and sometimes to take from it, which made the apostles to leave them many times when they left the Hebrew, and to deliver the sense thereof according to the truth of the Word, as the Spirit gave them utterance. This may suffice concerning the Greek translations of the Old Testament.

Translation out of Hebrew and Greek into Latin

There were also, within a few hundred years after Christ, many translations into the Latin tongue; for this tongue also was very fit to convey the Law and the Gospel, because in those times very many countries of the West, yea of the South, East and North, spoke or understood Latin, being made provinces of the Romans. But now "the Latin translations were too many to be all good, for they were infinite" (Latini interpretes nullo modo numerari possunt), saith St. Augustine. Again they were not out of the Hebrew fountain (we speak of the Latin translations of the Old Testament), but out of the Greek stream. Therefore the Greek being not altogether clear, the Latin derived from it must needs be muddy. This moved St. Jerome, a most learned father and the best linguist; without controversy, of his age or of any that went before him, to undertake the translating of the Old Testament out of the very fountains themselves, which he performed with such evidence of great learning, judgment, industry, and faithfulness, that he hath forever bound the church unto him in a debt of special remembrance and thankfulness.

Translation of the Scripture into the mother tongues

Now though the church were thus furnished with Greek and Latin translations, even before the faith in Christ was generally embraced in the Empire (for the learned know that even in St. Jerome's time, the consul of Rome and his wife were both ethnics, and about the same time the greatest part of the senate also), yet for all that, the godly-learned were not content to have the Scriptures only in the language which they themselves understood, Greek and Latin (as the good lepers were not content to fare well themselves, but acquainted their neighbors with the store that God had sent, that they also might provide for themselves) (2 Kg 7:9); but also for the benefit and edifying of the unlearned who hungered and thirsted after righteousness, and had souls to be saved as well as they, they provided translations into the vernacular for their countrymen, insomuch that most nations under heaven shortly after their conversion heard Christ speaking unto them in their mother tongue, not by voice of their minister only, but also by the written Word translated.

If any one doubts thereof, he may be satisfied by examples enough, if enough will suffice the need. First St. Jerome saith, Multarum gentiu linguis Scripture ante translata, docet falsa esse quae addita sunt: "the Scripture being translated before in the languages of many nations doth show that those things that were added (by Lucian or Hesychius) are false" etc. So said St. Jerome in that instance. The same Jerome elsewhere affirmeth that he, formerly, had set forth the translation of the Seventy; suae linguae hominibus, i.e. for his countrymen of Dalmatia. These words not only Erasmus doth understand to purport (that St. Jerome translated the Scripture into the Dalmatian tongue), but also Sixtus Senensis, and Alphonsus a Castro (that we speak of no more), men not to be objected against by those of Rome, do ingenuously confess as well. So St. Chrysostom, who lived in St. Jerome's time, giveth evidence with him: "The doctrine of St. John (saith he) did not in such way (as the philosophers did) vanish away; but the Syrians, Egyptians, Indians, Persians, Ethiopians, and countless other nations, being barbarous people, translated it into their (mother) tongue, and have learned to be (true) philosophers (he meaneth Christians). To this may be added Theodorit, as next unto him, both for antiquity and for learning. His words are these: "Every country that is under the sun is full of these words (of the Apostles and Prophets), and the Hebrew tongue (he meaneth the Scriptures of Hebrew tongue) is turned not only into the language of the Grecians, but also of the Romans, and Egyptians, and Persians, and Indians, and Armenians, and Scythians, and Sauromatians, and briefly into all the languages that any nation useth." So says he.

In like manner, Ulpilas is reported by Paulus Diaconus and Isidor (and before them by Sozomen) to have translated the Scriptures into the Gothic tongue; John, Bishop of Sivil by Vasseus, to have turned them into Arabic about the year of our Lord 717; Beda by Cisteriensis, to have turned a great part of them into Saxon; Esnard by Trithemius, to have abridged the French Psalter, as Beda had done to the Hebrew, about the year 800; King Alured by the said Cisteriensis, to have turned the Psalter into Saxon; Methodius by Auentinus (printed at Ingolstad), to have turned the Scriptures into Sclavonian; Valdo, Bishop of Frising by Beatus Rhenanus, to have caused about that time the Gospels to be translated into Dutch rhythm, still extant in the Library of Corbinian; Valdis by divers, to have turned them himself, or to have gotten them turned, into French about the year 1160; Charles the Fifth of that name, surnamed "The Wise," to have caused them to be turned into French about 200 years after Valdis' time, of which translation there are many copies yet extant, as witnesseth Beroaldus. Also about that time, even in our King Richard the Second's days, John Treuisa translated them into English, and many English Bibles in written hand are yet to be seen with variations, translated, as it is very probable, in that age. So the Syrian translation of the New Testament is in most learned men's libraries; of Widminstadius his version; and the Psalter in Arabic is with many, of Augustinus Nebiensis' version. So Postel affirmeth, that in his travel he saw the Gospels in the Ethiopian tongue; and Ambrose Thesius allegeth the Psalter of the Indians, which he testifieth to have been set forth by Potken in Syrian characters.

So that to have the Scriptures in the mother tongue is not a quaint conceit lately taken up, either by the Lord Cromwell in England, or by the Lord Radeuil in Polonie, or by Lord Ungnadius in the Emperor's dominion, but hath been thought upon and put in practice of old, even from the first times of the conversion of any nation, no doubt because it was esteemed most profitable to cause faith to grow in men's hearts the sooner, and to make them to be able to say with the words of the Psalm, "As we have heard, so have we seen" (Ps 48:8)....

The speeches and reasons, both of our brethren and of our adversaries, against this work

Many men's mouths have been open a good while (and yet are not stopped) with speeches about the translation so long in hand, or rather perusals of translations made before, and ask what may be the reason, what the necessity, of the employment: "Hath the church been deceived," saith they, "all this while?" "Hath her sweet bread been mingled with leaven, her silver with dross, her wine with water, her milk with lime?" (Lacte gypsum male miscetur) saith St. Ireney. We hoped that we had been in the right way, that we had had the oracles of God delivered unto us, and that though all the world had cause to be offended and to complain, yet we had none. Hath the nurse held out the breast, and nothing but wind in it? Hath the bread been delivered by the fathers of the church, and the same proved to be stone, as Seneca speaketh? What is it to handle the Word of God deceitfully, if this be not? Thus certain brethren. Also the adversaries of Judah and Jerusalem, like Sanballat in Nehemiah, mock, as we hear, both at the work and workmen, saying, "What do these weak Jews, etc. Will they make the stones whole again out of the heaps of dust which are burnt? Although they build, yet if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stony wall" (Neh 4:3). Was their translation good before? Why do they now amend it? Was it not good? Why then was it obruded upon the people? Yea, why did the Catholics (meaning Roman Catholics) always go in jeopardy for refusing to go to hear it?

Nay, if it must be translated into English, Catholics are fittest to do it. They have learning, and they know when a thing is well. They can manum de tabula. We will answer them both briefly. And the former, being brethren thus with St. Jerome, Damnamus veteres? Minime, sea post priorum studia in domo Domini quod possumus laboramus. That is, "Do we condemn the ancient? In no case. But after the endeavors of those who were before us, we take the best pains we can in the house of God." It is as if he said, "Being stirred up by the example of the learned who lived before my time, I have thought it my duty to assay whether my talent in the knowledge of the tongues may be profitable in any measure to God's church, lest I should seem to have labored in them in vain, and lest I should be thought to glory in men (although ancient) above that which was in them." Thus St. Jerome may be thought to speak.

A satisfaction to our brethren

And to the same effect say we, that we are so far off from condemning any of their labors, who travailed before us in this work, either in this land or beyond sea, either in King Henry's time or King Edward's (if there were any translation, or correction of a translation in his time) or Queen Elizabeth's of ever renowned memory, that we acknowledged them to have been raised up by God for the building and furnishing of his church, and that they deserve to be held by us, and by posterity, in everlasting remembrance. The judgment of Aristotle is worthy and well known: "If Timotheus had not been, we would not have much sweet music; but if Phrynus (Timotheus' master) had not been, we would not have had Timotheus." Therefore blessed be they, and most honored be their name, who break the ice and giveth impetus to that which helpeth promote the saving of souls.

Now what can be more efficacious to that purpose than to deliver God's book unto God's people in a tongue which they understand? In a hidden treasure and by a fountain that is sealed, there is no profit, as Ptolome Philadelphus wrote to the rabbis or masters of the Jews, as witnesseth Epiphanius. And as St. Augustine saith, "A man would rather be with his dog than with a stranger" (whose tongue is strange unto him). Yet for all that, as nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the later thoughts are thought to be the wiser, so if we, building upon their foundation that went before us, and being helped by their labors, do endeavor to make that better which they left so good, no man, we are sure, hath cause to dislike us. If they were alive, we persuade ourselves, they would thank us. The vintage of Abiezer, that struck the stroke, yet the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim was not to be despised (Jdg 8:2). Joash, the king of Israel, did not satisfy himself till he had smitten the ground three times (2 Kg 13:18-19); and yet he offended the prophet for giving over then. Aquila, of whom we spoke before, translated the Bible as carefully and as skillfully as he could; and yet he thought good to go over it again, and then it got the credit with the Jews to be called kata akribieian, that is, accurately done, as St. Jerome witnesseth.

How many books of profane learning have been gone over again and again, by the same translators, by others? Of one and the same book of Aristotle's Ethics, there are extant not fewer than six or seven differing translations. Now if this cost may be bestowed upon the gourd, which affordeth us a little shade, and which today flourisheth but tomorrow is cut down, what may we bestow, nay, what ought we not to bestow, upon the Vine, the fruit whereof maketh glad the conscience of man, and the stem whereof abideth forever? And this is the word of God, which we translate. "What is the chaff to the wheat?" saith the Lord (Jer 23:28). Tanti vitreum, quanti verum margaritum (saith Tertullian): "If a toy of glass be of that reckoning with us, how ought we to value the true pearl?" Therefore let no man's eye be evil, because His Majesty's is good; neither let any be grieved that we have a prince who seeketh the increase of the spiritual wealth of Israel (let Sanballat's and Tobiah's do so, which therefore do bear their just reproof), but let us rather bless God from the ground of our heart for working this religious care in him: to have the translations of the Bible promptly considered and examined. For by this means it cometh to pass that whatsoever is sound already (and all is sound for substance in one or other of our editions, and the worst of ours far better than their authentic vernacular), the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished. Also, if anything be halting or superfluous or not so agreeable to the original, the same may be corrected and the truth set in place.

And what can the king command to be done that will bring him more true honor than this? And wherein could those, who have been set at work, approve their duty to the king, yea, their obedience to God and love to his Saints, more than yielding their service and all that is within them to the furnishing of the work?

But besides all this, they were the principal motivators of it, and therefore ought least to quarrel with it. For the very historical truth is that upon the importunate petitions of the Puritans, at His Majesty's coming to this crown, the conference at Hampton Court was appointed for hearing their complaints. Then by force or reason they were put from all other topics, and had recourse at last to this expedient, for they could not with good conscience subscribe to the Communion book, since it kept the Bible as it was then translated, and which was, as they said, a most corrupted translation. And although this was judged to be but a very poor and empty effort, yet even hereupon did His Majesty begin to bethink himself of the good that might ensue by a new translation, and presently thereafter gave order for this translation which is now presented unto thee. Thus much to satisfy our scrupulous brethren.

An answer to the imputations of our adversaries

Now to the later we answer that we do not deny, nay, we affirm and avow, that the very meanest translation of the Bible in English, set forth by men of our profession (for we have seen none of theirs of the whole Bible as yet), containeth the Word of God, nay, is the Word of God. As the king's speech which he uttered in Parliament, being translated into French, Dutch, Italian and Latin, is still the King's speech, though it be not interpreted by every translator with the like grace, nor perhaps so fitly for phrase, nor so expressly for sense, everywhere. For it is confessed that things are to take their denomination from the greater part; and a natural man could say, Verum ubi multa nitent in carmine, non ego paucis offendor maculis: "A man may be counted a virtuous man, though he may have made many slips in his life" (else there would be none virtuous, for in many things we all offend) (Jas

3:2), also a comely man and lovely, though he have some warts upon his hand, yea, not only freckles upon his face, but also scars.

No cause therefore why the Word translated should be denied to be the Word, or forbidden to be authentic, notwithstanding that some imperfections and blemishes may be noted in the setting forth of it. For whatever was perfect under the sun where apostles or apostle-like men (that is, men endued with an extraordinary measure of God's Spirit, and privileged with the privilege of infallibility) had not their hand in it?...

Judge by an example or two: Plutarch writeth that after Rome had been burnt by the Galles, they fell soon to build it again; but doing it in haste, they did not cast the streets nor proportion the houses in such comely fashion, as had been most sightly and suitable. Was Catiline therefore an honest man, or a good patriot, who sought to bring it to a combustion? Or Nero a good prince who did indeed set it on fire? So, by the story of Ezra, and the prophesy of Haggai it may be gathered, that the Temple built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylon was by no means to be compared to the former built by Solomon (for they that remembered the former, wept when they considered the later). Notwithstanding, might this later either have been abhorred and forsaken by the Jews, or prophaned by the Greeks? The like we are to think of translations. The translation of the Seventy dissenteth from the original in many places, neither doeth it come near it for perspicuity, gravity, majesty; yet which of the Apostles did condemn it? Nay, they used it (as it is apparent, and as St. Jerome and most learned men do confess) which they would not have done, nor by their example of using it, so grace and commend it to the Church, if it had been unworthy the appellation and name of the Word of God.... We are sure Tertullian was of another mind: Ex personis probamus fidem, an ex fide personas? Do we try men's faith by their persons? We should try their persons by their faith. Also St. Augustine was of another mind: for lighting upon certain rules made by Tychonius a Donatist, for the better understanding of the Word, he was not ashamed to make use of them, yea, to insert them into his own book, giving commendation to them so far forth as they were worthy to be commended, as is to be seen in St. Augustine's third book De doctrina Christiana. To be short, Origen, and the whole Church of God for certain hundred years, were of another mind: for they were so far from treading under foot (much more from burning) the translation of Aquila a proselite (that is, one that had turned Jew), of Symmachus, and Theodotion, both Ebionites (that is, most vile heretics) that they joined them together with the Hebrew original, and the translation of the Seventy (as hath been before signified out of Epiphanius) and set them forth openly to be considered of and perused by all. But we weary the unlearned, who need not know so much, and trouble the learned, who know it already.

Yet before we end, we must answer a cavil and objection against us for altering and amending our translations so oft, wherein truly they deal hardly and strangely with us. For to whom ever was it imputed for a fault (by such as were wise) to go over that which he had done, and to amend it where he saw cause? St. Augustine was not afraid to exhort St. Jerome to a palinode or recantation. The same St. Augustine was not ashamed to retract, we might say revoke, many things that had passed him, and doth even glory that he seeth his infirmities. If we will be sons of truth, we must consider what it speaketh, and trample upon our own reputation, yea, and upon other men's too, if either be any way a hinderance to it...

The purpose of the translators, with their number, equipment, care, etc.

But it is high time to show in brief what we proposed to ourselves, and what course we held in this our perusal and survey of the Bible. Truly (good Christian Reader) we never thought from the beginning that we should need to make a new translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one, but rather to make a good one better, or out of many good ones, one principal good one, not justly to be criticized. That hath been our endeavor; that our mark.

For that purpose there were many chosen who were greater in other men's eyes than in their own, and who sought the truth rather than their own praise. Again, they came, or were thought to come, to the work, not exercendi causa (as one saith) but exercitati, that is, learned, not to learn. For the chief overseer and ergodioktes under His Majesty, to whom not only we but also our whole church was much bound, knew by his wisdom, which thing also Nazianzen taught so long ago, that it is a preposterous order to teach first and to learn after, yea, that to en pithoi keramian manthanein: "to learn and practice together" is neither commendable for the workmen, nor safe for the work. Therefore such were thought upon, as could say modestly with St. Jerome, Et Hebraeum Sermonem ex parte didicimus, & in Latino pene ab ipsis incunabulis etc., detriti sumus: "We have both learned the Hebrew tongue in part, and in the Latin we have been exercised almost from our very cradle." St. Jerome maketh no mention of the Greek tongue, wherein yet he did excel, because he translated not the Old Testament out of Greek, but out of Hebrew.

And in what frame of mind did these assemble? In the trust of their own knowledge, or of their sharpness of wit, or deepness of judgment, as it were in an arm of flesh? Not at all! They trusted in Him who hath the key of David, opening and no man shutting; they prayed to the Lord the Father of our Lord, to the same effect as St. Augustine did: "O let thy Scriptures be my pure delight, let me not be deceived in them, neither let me deceive by them." In this confidence, and with this devotion did they assemble together; not too many, lest one should trouble another, and yet many, lest many things perhaps might escape them.

If you ask what they had before them, truly it was the Hebrew text of the Old Testament, the Greek of the New. These are the two golden pipes, or rather conduits, through which the olive branches empty themselves into the gold. St. Augustine calleth them precedent, or original tongues; St. Jerome, fountains. The same St. Jerome affirmeth, and Gratian hath not spared to put it into his Decree, "As the credibility of the old Books (he meaneth of the Old Testament) is to be tried by the Hebrew volumes, so of the new by the Greek tongue (he meaneth by the original Greek)." If truth is to be tried by these tongues, then whence should a translation be made, but out of them? These tongues therefore, the Scriptures we say in those tongues, we set before us to translate, being the tongues wherein God was pleased to speak to his church by his prophets and apostles.

Neither did we run over the work with that galloping haste that the Septuagint did, if that be true which is reported of them, that they finished it in 72 days. Neither were we barred or hindered from going over it again, having once done it, like St. Jerome (if that be true which he himself reporteth), that he could no sooner write anything, but presently it was caught from him and published, and he could not have leave to amend it. Neither, to be short, were we the first who took in hand the translating of the Scripture into English, and consequently destitute of former helps, as it is written of Origen that he was the first, in a manner, who put his hand to write commentaries upon the Scriptures, and therefore no wonder if he overshot himself many times. We did none of these things.

The work hath not been crowded into 72 days, but hath cost the workmen, as light as it seemeth, the pains of twice seven times seventy two days and more. Matters of such weight and consequence are to be speeded with due care, for in a matter of moment a man feareth not the blame of suitable slackness. Neither did we think much to consult the translators or commentators, Chaldee, Hebrew, Syrian, Greek, or Latin, no, nor the Spanish, French, Italian, or Dutch; neither did we disdain to revise that which we had done, and to bring back to the anvil that which we had hammered. But, having and using as great helps as were needful, and fearing no reproach for slowness, nor coveting praise for expedition, we have at the length, through the good hand of the Lord upon us, brought the work to that state that you see.

Reasons moving us to set diversity of meaning in the margin where there is great probability for each

Some, perhaps, would have no variety of meanings to be set in marginal notes, lest the authority of the Scriptures in deciding of controversies by that show of uncertainty should somewhat be shaken. But we hold their judgment not to be so sound on this point. For though "whatsoever things are necessary are manifest," as St. Chrysostom saith, and as St. Augustine, "In those things that are plainly set down in the Scriptures, all such matters are found that concern faith, hope, and charity" yet for all that, it cannot be concealed that partly to exercise and whet our wits, partly to wean the curious from loathing of them for their everywhere plainness, partly also to stir up our devotion to crave the assistance of God's spirit by prayer, and lastly, that we might be forward to seek aid of our brethren by conference, and never scorn those who are not in all respects so complete as they should be, being to seek in many things ourselves, it hath pleased God in his divine providence, here and there to scatter words and sentences of such difficulty and doubtfulness, not in doctrinal points that concern salvation (for in such it hath been vouched that the Scriptures are plain), but in matters of less moment, that caution would better befit us than confidence; and if we will resolve, to resolve upon modesty with St. Augustine (though not in this same case altogether, yet upon the same ground), Melius est dubitare de occultis, quam litigare de incertis: "It is better to make doubt of those things which are secret, than to strive about those things that are uncertain."

There are many words in the Scriptures which are never found there but once (having neither brother nor neighbor, as the Hebrews say), so that we cannot be helped by consultation between places. Again there are many rare names of certain birds, beasts and precious stones, etc., concerning which the Hebrews themselves are so divided in deciding among themselves, that they may seem to have defined this or that, rather because they would say something than because they were sure of that which they said, as St. Jerome somewhere saith of the Septuagint. Now in such a case, doth not a marginal note do well to admonish the reader to seek further, and not to conclude or dogmatize upon this or that peremptorily? For as it is a fault of incredulity to doubt those things that are evident, so also to determine such things as the Spirit of God hath left (even in the judgment of the judicious) questionable, can be no less than presumption. Therefore as St. Augustine saith, as variety of translations is profitable for the finding out of the meaning of the Scriptures, so diversity of meaning and sense in the margin, where the text is not so clear, must needs do good, yea, is necessary, as we are persuaded.... Those who are wise would rather have their judgments at liberty in differences of readings, than to be made captive to one when it may be the other....

Reasons inducing us not to stand adamantly upon an identity of phrasing

Another thing we think good to admonish thee of, gentle reader, that we have not tied ourselves to a uniformity of phrasing, or to an identity of words, as some perhaps would wish that we had done, because they observe that some learned men somewhere have been as exact as they could that way. Truly, that we might not vary from the sense of that which we had translated before, if the word signified the same thing in both places (for there are some words that are not of the same sense everywhere) we were especially careful, and exercised our conscience according to our duty. But, that we should express the same notion in the same particular word, as for example, if we translate the Hebrew or Greek word once by purpose, never to call it intent; if one where journeying, never traveling; if one where think, never suppose; if one where pain, never ache; if one where joy, never gladness; etc. Thus to mince the matter we thought would savor more of curiosity than wisdom, and that it rather would breed scorn in the atheist, than bring profit to the godly reader.

For is the kingdom of God become words or syllables? Why should we be in bondage to them if we may be free, use one precisely when we may use another no less fit as commodiously? A godly father in the early days showed himself greatly moved, that one of a newfangledness called krabbaton skimpous, though the difference be like or none; and another reporteth that he was much abused for turning cucurbita (to which reading the people had been used) into hedera. Now if this happen in better times, and upon so few occasions, we might justly fear hard censure if generally we should make verbal and unnecessary changings. We might also be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words. For as it is written of a certain great philosopher that he should say that those logs were "happy" that were made images to be worshiped, for their fellows, as good as they, lay as logs behind the fire, so if we should say, as it were, unto certain words, "Stand up higher, have a place in the Bible always," and to others of like quality, "get ye hence, be banished forever," we might be charged perhaps with the words of St. James, namely, "to be partial in ourselves and judges of evil thoughts" (Jas 2:4). Add to this that nicety in words was always counted the next step to trifling, and so was to be very careful about names too; also that we cannot follow a better pattern for elocution than God Himself. Therefore He, using diverse words in His Holy Writ, and indifferently for one thing in nature, we, if we will not be superstitious, may use the same liberty in our English versions out of Hebrew and Greek for that copy or store that He hath given us....

In conclusion

Many other things we might give thee warning of (gentle reader) if we had not exceeded the measure of a preface already. It remaineth that we commend thee to God, and to the Spirit of His grace, which is able to build further than we can ask or think. He removeth the scales from our eyes, the veil from our hearts, opening our wits that we may understand His word, enlarging our hearts, yea correcting our affections, that we may love it above gold and silver, yea, that we may love it to the end. Ye are brought unto fountains of living water which ye did not dig. Do no cast earth into them with the Philistines (Gen 26:15), neither prefer broken pits before them with the wicked Jews (Jer 2:13).

Others have labored, and you may enter into their labors. O receive not such great things in vain! O despise not so great salvation! Be not like swine to tread underfoot such precious things, neither yet like dogs to tear and abuse holy things. Say not to our Savior with the Gergesenes, "Depart out of our borders" (Mt 8:34); neither yet with Esau sell your birthright for a mess of pottage (Heb 12:16). If light be come into the world, love not darkness more than light; if food, if clothing be offered, go not naked, starve not yourselves. Remember the advise of Nazianzene: "It is a grievous thing (or dangerous) to neglect a great fair, and to seek to make markets afterwards"; also the encouragement of St. Chrysostom: "It is altogether impossilbe that he that is sober (and watchful) should at any time be neglected"; lastly, the admonition and warning of St. Augustine: "They that despise God's will inviting them, shall feel God's will taking vengeance on them." It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God (Heb 10:31); but a blessed thing it is, and will bring us to everlasting blessedness in the end, when God speaketh unto us, to hearken; when He setteth His Word before us, to read it; when He stretcheth out His hand and calleth, to answer, "Here am I; here we are to do thy will, O God."

The Lord work a care and conscience in us, to know Him and serve Him, that we may be acknowledged by Him at the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with the Holy Spirit, be all praise and thanksgiving.

Amen.
